Mr. President, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to executive session to consider the following nomination on today's Executive Calendar: Calendar No. 588, Edmund Sargus. I further ask unanimous consent that the nomination be confirmed, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, any statements relating to the nomination appear at the appropriate place in the RECORD, the President be immediately notified of the Senate's action, and the Senate then return to legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The nomination considered and confirmed is as follows:

Edmund A. Sargus, J.r., of Ohio, to be United States District Judge for the Southern District of Ohio.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will now recess for the remainder of the day.

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1996

Mr. COCHRAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its legislative business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, July 23; further, that immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, and the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate immediately resume the reconciliation bill as under the previous order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. COCHRAN. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, tomorrow morning the bill will be taken up for a lengthy series of rollcall votes on, or in relation to, amendments to the reconciliation bill. Members should be alerted that there may be as many as 24 consecutive rollcall votes.

Mr. President, I now ask unanimous consent that beginning after the first vote, all remaining votes in the voting sequence be limited to 10 minutes in length.
