

The pilots were called flying cadets for the first 24 years of the program and the name was changed to aviation cadets on June 24, 1991. Cadet alumni are honorably advancing the cause of having the U.S. Postal Service issue a postage stamp commemorating the achievements of aviation cadets. I am proud of my experience as a cadet and of my service to our great Nation. I believe it would be a fitting tribute for aviation cadets to be recognized and honored for their service by the Postal Service.

IN HONOR OF THE CHAIRS OF THE WOMEN'S CAMPAIGN OF THE
UJA-FEDERATION OF NEW YORK

HON. NITA M. LOWEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 11, 1996

Mrs. LOWEY. Mr. Speaker, tonight, the UJA-Federation of New York will honor the 56 women who have chaired the Women's Campaign since 1934. These women of vision dedicated themselves to the UJA-Federation's mission of safeguarding and caring for the Jewish community throughout the world. They understood the importance of the United States-Israel relationship, and worked tirelessly to bring together Jews in Israel and the diaspora. We can all take pride in the contributions these women made to the well-being of the Jewish people.

What is striking about these women is both the depth and breadth of their commitment to the Jewish community. Through their outstanding efforts with the UJA-Federation, they left their mark on New York, on the Nation, on Israel and on the world. These women were truly leaders.

Many of these women fought for education and for the arts, for human rights and for religious freedom, raising funds for a local and overseas network of health and human service organizations. In the 1930's and 1940's, these women led the fight to bring European Jews to safety in America. They were at the forefront of efforts to establish and then secure the independent Jewish homeland of Israel. And, more recently, they led Operation Exodus, which transported Jews in peril to Israel and the United States.

Each of these women devoted her time, her heart, and her life to Jewish communal service. And each is proof that just one woman can make a real difference.

The chairs of the Women's Campaign, past and present, are:

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Title IV of Senate Resolution 4, agreed to by the Senate on February 4, 1977, calls for establishment of a system for a computerized schedule of all meetings and hearings of Senate committees, subcommittees, joint committees, and committees of conference. This title requires all such committees to notify the Office of the Senate Daily Digest—designated by the Rules Committee—of the time, place, and purpose of the meetings, when scheduled, and any cancellations or changes in the meetings as they occur.

As an additional procedure along with the computerization of this information, the Office of the Senate Daily Digest will prepare this information for printing in the Extensions of Remarks section of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Monday and Wednesday of each week.
