

on Memorial Day weekend attended by soccer teams from as far away as Virginia.

For 17 years the club has given food baskets to families at Christmas time. A week's food supply plus small toys for children are included in these baskets. For the past several years money for this has been raised by selling raffle tickets for a gift certificate for food at a local market. It has been extremely successful and appreciated venture.

The club has also sponsored glaucoma and diabetes testing clinics, paid for eye examinations and eye glasses for needy families and supported eye research, emergency sight and hearing fund, LCIF and various other projects. It has sponsored community events like the Fourth of July and Halloween parades and parties, Easter egg hunts, pancakes and spaghetti suppers, tag sales, dances, light bulb sales and many other house to house sales.

In 1986 the club embarked on a new fundraising project. After many years of work by many members, L'il Toot was completed. L'il Toot is a locomotive train with two passenger cars which can be rented out to provide rides for children at fairs and carnivals. To date success seems assured.

The Sixteen Acres Lions Club is proud to have four of its members elected district governor. Robert Scott, Fred Hoarle, John Ingalls and Richard Leary have each served as a district governor and are held in high esteem by their associates.

The success of many projects was due to the dedication and hard work of its members.

I wish to commend the Springfield Lions Club for their vital role in the Springfield area. The achievements of these men are a tremendous source of pride for not only the city of Springfield but the entire Second Congressional District. I am honored to represent such outstanding individuals and I join with the citizens of the Second Congressional District in offering a most heartfelt congratulations.

DELAURO HONORS JOHN KINGSTON AS HE ENDS OVER 25 YEARS OF SERVICE ON THE CONNECTICUT
BOARD OF LABOR RELATIONS

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, on April 1, 1997, John Kingston is retiring from the Connecticut State Board of Labor Relations. I am pleased to rise today to commend Jack on a great career in State service and an outstanding tenure with the Connecticut State Board of Labor Relations.

For more than 25 years, Jack has served as agent to the board of labor relations. His hard work, strong leadership and commitment to excellence have left an indelible mark on the board of labor relations. Jack has seen a number of changes over the last quarter century. During Jack's tenure on the board, the Connecticut State Employee Relations Act was passed. Jack handled the first petitions filed by State employees in their efforts to organize. He also conducted elections for the 30,000 State employees under the new act. His experience in the area of State employee union negotiations is invaluable and his colleagues and coworkers rely on his encyclopedic knowledge of the labor board processes and procedures.

Over the course of his career, Jack has become one of the most highly respected and admired people in the labor relations field. The fact that both advocates for both labor and management frequently call for his advice and counsel, speaks volumes about his reputation. Everyone who knows Jack seems to recall one thing in particular when asked about him and his career. They recall his integrity and sense of fairness. They also talk about Jack's commitment to settling disputes and bringing sides together. Under his leadership, the board has boasted an 87-percent settlement rate for the 1,000 cases they handle per year.

I have been told that as word of Jack's retirement made its way through the State, everyone who heard asked "What are we going to do without Jack?" What is absolutely clear is Jack's commitment to doing his job well so that both labor and management come out ahead.

I am proud to join the entire labor community in congratulating Jack as he retires. He has continually demonstrated his commitment to service. He should take great pride in this moment and enjoy a much deserved tribute. I know that he will continue to do great things in his retirement. I wish him many years of good health and happiness. He truly deserves it.

KILDEE HONORS PAULINE PRYOR

HON. DALE E. KILDEE

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, it is my pleasure to rise before my colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives to pay tribute to an outstanding woman from my hometown of Flint, MI, Ms. Pauline Pryor who is retiring from the Flint Branch of Michigan National Bank after 33 years of service. Ms. Pryor has served as the assistant vice president of the Community Development Office for the past 10 years.

As the assistant vice president of the Community Development Office, Ms. Pryor's professionalism and integrity were instrumental in securing many of the much needed investments in the Flint community. Ms. Pryor believed in the need to rebuild our city through new opportunities in jobs and housing. It is a privilege to know such a dedicated, active, and concerned human being as Ms. Pryor.

Ms. Pryor is also an active member of the Foss Avenue Baptist Church in Flint. Through her volunteer work with her church, she continues to promote the prosperity of the surrounding communities even after her formal workday. Ms. Pryor has contributed in every aspect of her church: from being a Sunday school teacher to serving as the church treasurer. As a result of both her professional and personal devotion, Ms. Pryor has received numerous distinguished service awards in our community over the years.

Mr. Speaker, it is indeed an honor and a pleasure for me to rise today before my colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to Pauline Pryor. She is a woman of high moral character committed to improving the welfare and dignity of those in need. I wish her many years of joy in her retirement.

TRIBUTE TO LILLIAN HECKER FREED

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Lillian Hecker Freed, a dedicated community leader who is being honored as an inductee into the San Mateo County Women's Hall of Fame.

Lillian Hecker Freed has been a champion for those less fortunate and a political activist since she was a teenager. She became her employer's first female departmental supervisor in the 1950's, and was a leader in her company, encouraging and assisting other women. She was a peace activist during the Vietnam war and led union opposition to racial discrimination in San Francisco. Lillian Hecker Freed is now 80 years of age, and gives generously of her time and talents to the San Mateo Central Labor Council, the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, the Contra Costa Hills Conservation Club, the Peace Action Association, the Talmalpais Conservation Club, and the California Alpine Club. She is president of the Federation of Retired Union Members and continues her valiant fight for social justice.

Mr. Speaker, Lillian Hecker Freed is an outstanding citizen and I salute her for her remarkable contributions and commitment to our community. I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring and congratulating her on being inducted into the San Mateo County Women's Hall of Fame.

REMEMBERING THE RAJAH

HON. JULIA CARSON

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Mrs. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, Indianapolis lost one of its outstanding citizens last Tuesday. He was Roger Brown, the first player ever signed to the Indiana Pacers and a pillar of the Indianapolis community following his basketball career.

A graduate of the University of Dayton, Mr. Brown was the third all-time leading scorer for the Pacers, scoring 10,058 points over his career in the American Basketball Association. Had it not been for a gambling scandal during his college career, which he was cleared of, Roger (The Rajah) Brown would be in basketball's Hall of Fame.

Those who saw him play consider him one of the best to play the game. Oscar Robertson, himself a NBA star and a native of Indianapolis, advised the Pacer organization to seek out Brown in the early 1970's and sign him to the team.

Yet Mr. Brown was not merely one of the best to play the game. He also contributed much to his inherited community of Indianapolis. He served as a city-county councilman and worked with local law enforcement officials to improve Indianapolis' streets and help protect our young people.

The community remembered him for this as well. When Mr. Brown was diagnosed with cancer of the liver, he was faced with mounting medical bills due to his lack of medical
