□ 1743

So the bill was passed.
The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.
A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. SANCHEZ. Mr. Speaker, please let the RECORD show that had I been present I would have voted "aye" on rollcall No. 50.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. MANZULLO. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on the legislation just passed.
The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. THORNBERRY). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Illinois? There was no objection.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)
Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to engage in a colloquy with my friend from New York [Mr. SOLOMON] about the schedule for the remainder of the week and for next week.
Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?
Mr. BONIOR. I yield to my friend from New York.
Mr. SOLOMON. My good friend, the minority whip, I would say to him, Mr. Speaker, that we are pleased to announce the House has completed its work for the week and there will be no more votes today or for the rest of the week.
The House will next meet at 2 p.m. on the infamous day of Monday, March 17; I think some others than the Scotch that I am would refer to that as St. Patrick's Day; for a pro forma session. Of course there will be no legislative business and no votes on that day.
On Tuesday, March 18, we will meet at 12:30 p.m. for morning hour and 2 p.m. for legislative business. Members should note that any recorded votes will be postponed until 5 p.m. on Tuesday, March 18.

Mr. Speaker, on Tuesday we hope to consider the following five bills under suspension of the rules. They are:

H.R. 924, the Victim Allocation Clarification Act of 1997; H.R. 927, the U.S. Marshals Improvement Act; H.R. 672, a bill containing technical amendments to copyright laws; H.R. 908, a bill to establish a commission on structural alternatives for the Federal Court of Appeals, and H.R. 514, a bill to permit the waiver of D.C. residency requirements for certain employees of the office of the D.C. Inspector General.

Also on Tuesday, March 18, the House will consider under an open rule H.R. 412, the Oroville-Tonasket Claims Settlement Act; that is under an open rule.

The House will meet for legislative business at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, March 19, and at 10 a.m. on Thursday, March 20. We plan to take up the following measures, all of which will be subject to rules:

H.R. 1, the Working Families Flexibility Act of 1997; H.R. 929, a bill to ban partial-birth abortions, and H.Res. 91, a resolution providing amounts for the expenses of certain House committees for the 105th Congress.

We hope to conclude business and begin the spring district work period by 6 p.m. on Thursday, March 20, and I would thank the gentleman for yielding to me to explain this to the membership.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank my colleague for his explanation. I have just a couple of questions I would like to pose to him if he would indulge me for a second here.

On Tuesday H.R. 412, the bill that follows the suspension, the Oroville-Tonasket Claim Settlement Act; that is under an open rule on the floor. Does the gentleman from New York expect to complete that bill on Tuesday?

Mr. SOLOMON. Yes, we do.
Mr. BONIOR. So it could be into the evening on Tuesday?

Mr. SOLOMON. I do not expect we would go—that is not a very controversial bill, and I would expect we would be out sixish or even sooner perhaps.

Mr. BONIOR. Just so that the gentleman is aware, there is opposition to it on our side of the aisle, and I just want the gentleman—

Mr. SOLOMON. I know of one significant amendment that we discussed in the Committee on Rules.

Mr. BONIOR. So it may take a while and Members might be apprised that it may run a little bit beyond 6 o'clock. I just want the gentleman to know that.

And on Wednesday and Thursday, 19 and 20, my colleague mentioned the three bills. Does he know which day he is going to bring them up yet? H.R. 1?

Mr. SOLOMON. I say to the minority whip that he is a former member of the Committee on Rules and served there with me for many years. We expect to take up on the floor the Working Families Flexibility Act. It will be under a
