

measure cleared a committee it was pretty much in shape for final passage. Times have changed! Thanks to Dr. Riddick's persistence and expertise, the Digest that he established remains virtually intact a half-century later.

Floyd Riddick served as Senate editor from 1947 to 1952, when he moved to the newly created post of Assistant Senate Parliamentarian. He subsequently served as Senate Parliamentarian from 1964 until his formal retirement a decade later. I say "formal," because Dr. Riddick remained with the Senate on an unsalaried basis to prepare a history of the Committee on Rules and Administration and, most importantly, to revise the indispensable volume that now bears the title Riddick's Senate Procedure. Today, Dr. Riddick continues a productive retirement in South Carolina.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that a list of the Daily Digest's Senate editors be inserted in the RECORD following this statement.

There being no objection, the list was ordered to be printed in the RECORD as follows:

DAILY DIGEST SENATE EDITORS

Floyd M. Riddick, 1947-1952.

Fred Green, 1952-1969.

Dwight Galt, 1969-1979.

Mary Ann Dubs, 1979-1980.

Jim Timberlake, 1980-1988.

Thomas Pellikaan, 1989-present.

WORLD FLIGHT 1997

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, on March 17, 1937, Amelia Earhart took to the skies in her Lockheed 10E to fulfill her dream to be the first pilot ever to circumnavigate the globe at its longest point—the Equator. Today, she stands as one of our greatest American heroes. Through her vision and spirit, she demonstrated to the world that limits are more often perceived than real.

This morning, 60 years after Ms. Earhart began her journey, Linda Finch took off from Oakland, CA, to re-create and complete Earhart's heroic expedition. Spanning 5 continents and making more than 30 stops in 20 countries, Linda will closely replicate Earhart's route. The flight is expected to take 2½ months, and is the first to re-create Earhart's flight using the same make and model aircraft, a Lockheed Electra 10E, with only a pilot and navigator at the controls. Indeed, the aircraft has been meticulously and accurately restored to replicate Earhart's Electra right down to its rivets.

Linda hopes that her journey, called World Flight 1997, will inspire millions of American children with Earhart's belief that with faith in yourself, anything is possible. As she notes, "World Flight was created to share Amelia Earhart's vision with young people. The heart of the World Flight project is its outreach to inner city and at-risk youth with her message about reaching above and beyond perceived limitations." To spread this message, she has developed an interactive educational program for students, including an Internet web page that will allow students to track her flight in real time and read messages from Linda and her navigator. Like her, it is my hope that children all over the world will follow her travels, and from them gain the confidence to follow dreams of their own.

As Linda begins her flight, I wish her a safe journey. Like her hero Amelia Earhart, she is an inspiration to us all.

TRIBUTE TO CAPT. BILLY LEWIS

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize a truly outstanding Naval officer, Capt. Billy Lewis who has served with distinction for the past 23 months as Director of the Navy's Senate Legislative Liaison Office. It is a privilege for me to recognize his many outstanding achievements and commend him for the superb service he has provided to the U.S. Senate and to our great Nation as a whole.

A native of Pensacola, FL, and a 1969 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, Captain Lewis began his naval career as the damage control assistant aboard U.S.S. Dehaven (DD 727). His follow-on tours of duty included Naval Headquarters, Saigon, engineer and weapons officer aboard U.S.S. Talbot (FFG 4), and he was second in command when U.S.S. Jack Williams (FFG 24) was commissioned in 1983. Capt. Billy Lewis has had three tours of duty in command at sea—U.S.S. Takelma (ATF 113) from 1977 to 1979, U.S.S. Robert G. Bradley (FFG 49) from 1986 to 1988, and U.S.S. Thomas S. Gates (CG 51) from 1993 to 1995. As Commanding Officer, U.S.S. Thomas S. Gates, Capt. Lewis served as Anti-Air Warfare Commander for Joint Task Group George Washington.

Captain Lewis' duty ashore has included the Naval Postgraduate School where he earned a master of science degree in management in 1980, and two tours of duty on the Navy staff in Washington, DC. From 1983 to 1985, he served as a program analyst in the Office of General Planning and Programming, and from 1989 to 1991, he served as head of the Program and Budget Development Coordination Branch for the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations. Additionally, he attended National Defense University and graduated from the National War College in 1992.

During his tenure as the Navy's Director of Legislative Liaison for the Senate which began in April 1995, Captain Lewis has provided members of the Senate Armed Services Committee, our personal staffs, as well as many of you seated here today, with timely support regarding Navy plans and programs. His valuable contributions have enabled Congress and the Department of the Navy to work closely together to preserve the modern, well-trained and well-equipped naval forces upon which our country has come to depend.

Mr. President, Billy Lewis and his family have made many sacrifices during a 28-year Naval career and made a significant contribution to the outstanding naval forces upon which our country relies so heavily. During his illustrious career, Captain Lewis has been the recipient of many awards and commendations including the Legion of Merit with one gold star. He is a great credit to both the Navy and the country he so proudly serves. As he now departs to take command of Regional Support Group in Mayport, FL, I call upon my colleagues to wish him fair winds, and following seas.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY STATEMENT
BY THE FRIENDS OF IRELAND

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, the Friends of Ireland is a bipartisan group of Senators and Representatives opposed to violence and terrorism in Northern Ireland and dedicated to maintaining a United States policy that promotes a just, lasting, and peaceful settlement of the conflict.

Each year, the Friends of Ireland issues an annual statement of the current situation in Northern Ireland. We believe our colleagues in Congress will find this year's statement of particular interest because of the events of the past year and potential for progress this year. I ask unanimous consent that it be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the statement was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

STATEMENT BY THE FRIENDS OF IRELAND, ST.
PATRICK'S DAY, 1997

On this St. Patrick's Day, we the Friends of Ireland renew our call for the IRA to restore its cease-fire, which should be followed by Sinn Fein's immediate entry into the Northern Ireland all-party peace talks when they resume in June.

The Friends of Ireland commend our former colleague, Senator George Mitchell, for his outstanding service as chairman of the talks. The talks offer an historic opportunity to address the three key relationships which must underpin any settlement—those within Northern Ireland, between North and South, and between Ireland and Britain. We fully support this process, and recognize that there is much greater likelihood for success if all parties with an electoral mandate, including Sinn Fein, participate in the talks. Sinn Fein's participation in the talks, however, is properly conditional on the unequivocal restoration of the cease-fire by the IRA.

We also recognize that the IRA maintained a cease-fire for 17 months, from September 1994 to February 1996. It is of deepest concern that, during that long and hopeful period, additional obstacles were laid in the way of bringing all parties to the table. We hope that a renewed IRA cease-fire will on this occasion be met with an appropriate response by the British Government, including the taking of necessary confidence-building measures.

Basic issues of equal justice and human rights are at the heart of the conflict in Northern Ireland and they must be central to any realistic resolution of the conflict. Peace without justice is not sustainable. It is only likely to flourish when all sides feel that their basic rights are respected and protected. Accordingly, we urge prompt action to remedy outstanding miscarriages of justice such as the Casement and Latimer
