TRIBUTE TO GEORGE PASERO

● Mr. SMITH of Oregon. Mr. President, my home State of Oregon lost one of its most distinguished citizens last Thursday, with the passing of George Pasero.

For the past half century, generation after generation of Oregonians have opened up their newspaper and turned to the sports page to read what George Pasero had to say. As a reporter, columnist, and sports editor for the Oregon Journal from 1946 to 1982, and then as a part-time columnist for the Oregonian, George earned a reputation not only as a respected and keen observer of the world of sports, but as a professional, fair, and compassionate person.

In these days where it seems that the sports world is full of million dollar salaries and million dollar egos, George Pasero liked to focus on the true joys of sports. Let me share with you some very eloquent words from one of the final columns George wrote before his death:

"Dismiss for one evening the ego-mania, greed, and disrespect for authority that have so marred the high levels of professionals," George wrote about a banquet honoring Oregon athletes. "Think here of your neighbor kid happily going out to soccer practice, all the basketball shooting you see on driveways, all the evenings of Little League and hamburger dinners, the prep football players with mud-caked uniforms on a rainy, cold Friday night."

Mr. President, I am just one of countless Oregonians who will miss George's insights and wisdom. Sharon joins with me in sending our condolences to his wife, Jeanne, his daughter, Anne, his sons, John, Mark, and Jim, and his five grandchildren.●
