worked to achieve a spirit of cooperation behavior at College [TCJC] Southeast Campus, has the United Negro College Fund, and many other County, United Way, Metropolitan Fort Worth, Donna has been very important to the ecosystem, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce where she president of urban development for the Fort organizations. Both Una and Rosemary contributed than 500 hours at St. Joseph Hospital, was organizations. Ms. Hayes volunteered more Tarrant Area Food Bank, and numerous other tion, Fort Worth Independent School District, has been a strong voice for our community. His poems have been collected in two books: "In the Heart of a Man," which hovers around 50 percent on many In- cultural self-determination, the sum could al- leaders who are trying to seek economic and able minorities in our society. One hundred tus upon one of the most historically vulner- their cause successfully. It's an outrage that Landow, that they needed to hire him to lobby Vice President GORE's fundraiser, Nathan Arapaho Tribes were also allegedly told by $107,000 contribution, the Cheyenne and Sand Creek stands as one of the most tragically historians of U.S.-American relations. The history of the Cheyenne-Arapaho Tribes is an especially tragic one, which makes the latest revelation seem all the more insensitive. The Cheyenne people are originally from the Great Lakes area, while the Arapaho origi- nate in present day Minnesota. By the mid- 1800's, a portion of the two tribes had mi- grated to southern Colorado. It was there in 1864, at a place called Sand Creek, that the First Colorado Cavalry under the command of Col. John M. Chivington, slaughtered about 150 peaceful Indians, killing men, women, and children indiscriminately. Today, the massacre at Sand Creek stands as one of the most shameful acts perpetrated by the U.S. Govern- ment against its own indigenous peoples. It's also shameful that today, tribes feel that the only way they can be heard in Washing- ton, DC is to buy access. In addition to the $107,000 contribution, the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes were also allegedly told by Vice President GORE's fundraiser, Nathan Landow, that they needed to hire him to lobby their cause successfully. It's an outrage that the White House political operation thinks nothing of focusing their money-raising appa- ratus upon one of the most historically vulner- able minorities in our society. One hundred thousand dollars may not seem like a lot of money to big-time contributors, but for tribal leaders who are trying to seek economic and cultural self-determination, the sum could al- ways be better spent on economic develop- ment and job training to fight unemployment which hovers around 50 percent on many In- dian reservations. On the Cheyenne-Arapaho reservation, unemployment stands at 62 per- cent. I don't blame the tribes for their actions. I blame the White House and Democratic Na- tional Committee for fostering a culture of