

SALUTE TO DR. FRANK AND ELSIE WITMAN

HON. ELTON GALLEGLY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 24, 1997

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to recognize Dr. Frank Witman and his wife Elsie for 28 years of outstanding service to the United Methodist Church and the community of Simi Valley, CA.

Dr. Witman, along with his wife Elsie, have dedicated their lives to helping others. Ordained in the United Methodist Church in 1957, Dr. Witman served in several congregations before being appointed pastor in charge of the Simi Valley United Methodist Church in 1969.

His involvement in the community extends beyond the doors of the church. He has been actively involved in Rotary International for over 35 years and has achieved a perfect attendance record. Dr. Witman has been a police chaplain with the Simi Valley Police Department since 1978 and a volunteer chaplain at the Simi Valley Hospital and Care Services since 1983.

In 1992, Dr. Witman began to coteach a weeklong church administration and finance class for students and pastors at the Claremont School of Theology. In addition to his practical experience, Dr. Witman was uniquely qualified to teach the course because of his role as both a member of the board of directors for the United Methodist Federal Credit Union and eventually as its chairman.

After his wife of 44 years, Dr. Witman's second love is his local church. He has served his church and community tirelessly for 28 years. He is an inspiration to all and I wish he and his wife much happiness in their retirement.

A TRIBUTE TO EDWARD CLARK

HON. BUD SHUSTER

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 24, 1997

Mr. SHUSTER. Mr. Speaker, there are three things that are of the utmost importance to Pennsylvanians: family, religion, and work. I would like to note that amateur wrestling could be added to that category. Wrestling's zealotry and fervent following in Pennsylvania is unlike any place else. I rise today, Mr. Speaker, to pay tribute to a Pennsylvanian who has dedicated his life to the sport and its participants, Ed Clark.

He was recently described by a colleague as being, "A beloved and highly competent teacher, coach, and athletic director." Ed Clark graduated from Bedford High School in 1944, having been a district champion wrestler. He entered the U.S. Army and after World War II, matriculated to the Pennsylvania State University where he was a member of the wrestling team. Upon his graduation from Penn State, he returned to his boyhood home of Bedford to begin his teaching career at Bedford High School in 1950. Once there, he rejoined his old high school wrestling team, this time serving in the capacity as an assistant coach to his old mentor, Hall of Fame coach Francis "Whitney" Koontz.

By 1957, Ed Clark had become the head wrestling coach at Bedford, and served in that capacity until 1974. The teams he led as head coach compiled an incredible record of 129 wins versus only 24 losses and 1 tie. His success has contributed greatly to the legacy of Pennsylvania wrestling. Ed Clark coached Bedford to five undefeated seasons, another five seasons with only one loss, won 10 district titles, and never coached a losing team despite having consistently competed against the top teams in the region.

He also found the time to coach football and golf at Bedford High School during his career, while he retired in 1992 after teaching physical education and health for 42 years. Ed Clark's accolades as coach were duly noted when he was recently elected to the Pennsylvania Wrestling Hall of Fame. I would also like to recognize the fact that at a time when the special needs of the physically handicapped were largely ignored, Ed Clark made it a point to make the necessary adjustments and accommodations to meet the needs of those special individuals in his physical education classes.

Mr. Speaker, I will close by thanking Ed Clark for his outstanding service to the area in which he and I live. He is a true community role model and his efforts as a teacher, coach, and mentor are a testament to his firm commitment to those whose lives he has touched.

ARMENIAN GENOCIDE

SPEECH OF

HON. STENY H. HOYER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 23, 1997

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, today we solemnly commemorate the massacre of Armenians in Turkey during and after the First World War. We mourn the dead, and express our condolences to their living descendants. During that terrible tragedy, an estimated 1.5 million people were killed in what historians call the first of this century's state-ordered genocides against a minority group.

While the tragic events leading to the deaths of millions of Armenians occurred at the beginning of this century, their impact on the psyche of the Armenian people, and indeed the entire world are still apparent. The effects of such atrocities on a people are never overcome. Many can still testify to the deportations and massacres of family members and friends. Others can read or view pictures of the abominations, and all Armenians, young and old, live with the knowledge that their people's existence was seriously jeopardized during the last years of the Ottoman Empire.

Mr. Speaker, the world must be reminded over and over of the brutal crimes perpetrated against the Armenian people. Unfortunately, history's lessons are not easily learned and put into practice. This century has been witness to unparalleled human suffering and unmatched human cruelty. The Armenian genocide was the first attempt to wipe out an entire people. The failure to recognize it gave Hitler confidence. Since then, we have seen the killing fields of Pol Pot, the horrors of ethnic cleansing in Bosnia, and the tragedy of Rwanda.

Mr. Speaker, it is imperative that each of us work to ensure that our generation and future generations never again have to bear witness to such inhuman behavior and feel the pain and suffering of an entire people. The crime of genocide must never again be allowed to mar the history of humankind, and today we stand with our Armenian brothers and sisters, not only to remember and share in their grief for those who died, but to celebrate those who are living.

VETERANS' BENEFITS CLAIMS
ADJUDICATION

HON. DAN SCHAEFER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 24, 1997

Mr. DAN SCHAEFER of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, as in past Congresses, it is crucial that veterans' issues remain at the top of the agenda. Serving on the House Veterans' Affairs Committee, I am constantly impressed by the bipartisanship that is demonstrated. This is due to the leadership of Chairman BOB STUMP and Democratic Ranking Member LANE EVANS.

One of the most pressing problems that both sides of the aisle are concentrating on is that of adjudication of veterans' benefits claims. The publication of a General Accounting Office report in September 1995, closely followed by issuance of the Veterans' Claims Adjudication Commission's report in December 1996, has brought this issue to the fore. Some of the findings are truly troubling.

As of May 1995, over 450,000 veterans were waiting on decisions for their appeals for pension or compensation claims. A veteran waits, on average, 2½ years for a decision to finally be rendered.

This is unconscionable. When times are tight, an almost 3-year wait for benefits can seem like a lifetime. Especially considering that these benefits were earned through dedicated and oftentimes hazardous service to our country.

What is being done? The House Veterans' Affairs Committee has prepared a schedule to adequately address this issue in the 105th Congress. A full committee hearing to review the Adjudication Commission's report is planned for later this spring. This will allow members of the committee to further investigate the work of the Commission and to debate possible means of rectifying some of the concerns that have been raised.

An active oversight plan is also on the agenda. In fact, the committee has a list of 58 programs, agencies, and issues to follow up on. The goal of oversight is to bring any deficiencies to light so that solutions can be found to ensure that veterans' benefits are not unjustly interrupted, and to guarantee the integrity of all Veterans' Administration Programs.

The House in the 105th Congress has already taken action on H.R. 1090, a bill to allow for revision of veterans' benefits decisions based on clear and unmistakable error. This represents a minor step to ameliorating the negative impact of the backlog in adjudication claims. Cases involving clear and unmistakable errors are few, but any eliminations from the docket will be welcome. I would urge the Members of the Senate to act expeditiously on this matter.

The adjudication process for veterans' benefits claims has been recognized as an area of immediate importance. With continued bipartisan cooperation, the House Veterans' Affairs Committee will be better able to affect a decrease in the backlog of pending cases. I pledge to continue working toward this end.

TRIBUTE TO BURT P. FLICKINGER, JR.

HON. JACK QUINN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 24, 1997

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in memory of Mr. Burt P. Flickinger, Jr.

Throughout his life, Burt Flickinger tirelessly dedicated himself to the enhancement of our western New York community. A prominent Buffalo businessman who began in his family's business as a floor sweeper, Mr. Flickinger led his company to national prominence as a premiere food supplier and distributor. Insistent on earning his way to the helm of his family's company, Mr. Flickinger served as a division manager, secretary, senior vice president, and eventually president.

Burt Flickinger was No. 1 in his campus school class, attended the Nichols School and Phillips Exeter Academy, and graduated magna cum laude from Harvard University.

A true leader in recycling, Mr. Flickinger and his wife demonstrated a strong commitment to protecting our environment. To that end, Mr. Flickinger helped craft New York State's return-deposit recycling bill, created the Beverage Industry Collection and Sorting company [BICS] for food manufacturers and retailers, and initiated a recycling of plastics program for area supermarkets.

In 1988, Mr. Flickinger spearheaded the effort to bring the 1993 World University Games to Buffalo. By accomplishing this difficult task in his typical volunteer basis, Buffalo became the first American city to host this prestigious international event. Built for the games, Buffalo now boasts an impressive 18,000-seat football stadium at the University of Buffalo, a new aquatic center in the town of Tonawanda, and a world-class swimming pool and athletic complex at the Erie Community College City Campus, appropriately named the Burt Flickinger Athletic Center.

Mr. Flickinger also proved instrumental in the preservation and subsequent growth of the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra. Heading many major gifts campaigns and serving for several years as chairman of the finance and executive committees, Burt Flickinger almost single-handedly kept the orchestra from bankruptcy.

Another important project to Mr. Flickinger was the Roycroft Revitalization Corp. This nonprofit organization played a vital role in the restoration of one of western New York's most enduring landmarks, the historic Roycroft Inn.

In addition, Burt Flickinger was a four-time president of the Food Industry Council, a founding member of the Food Bank of Western New York, director, treasurer, and a founding member of the Erie Recycling Center, chairman of the New York State Food Merchants Association, and permanent chairman of the Boys Town of Italy of Western New York. In recognition of that extraordinary level of community service, Mr. Flickinger was recognized as the Buffalo News' Outstanding Citizen in 1989, and the 1989 recipient of the University at Buffalo's Distinguished Citizen Award.

On April 21, 1997, the Buffalo community lost one of its greatest men. A man whose dedicated and charitable community service, hard work, commitment to Buffalo's development, personal strength, unparalleled integrity, and vibrant love of life serve as an inspiration to us all.

During a tribute in 1988, John Walsh III, CEO of Walsh Duffield Cos. put it best—"We see Mr. Flickinger as a humble, quiet, forceful, and thoroughly professional servant of his community, and we are educated by his kindness and compelling example of leadership."

Mr. Speaker, today I would like to join with the city of Buffalo, and indeed, our entire western New York community, to honor Mr. Burt P. Flickinger, Jr., who is survived by his wife, Mary Ewing Ryan Flickinger; his brother, Peter; his children, Burt III, Molly Flickinger Ford, and Catherine "Bambi" Flickinger Schweitzer; his stepchildren, Peter Ryan, David Ryan, and Molly Ewert; and his seven grandchildren and two stepgrandchildren for his dedicated service to our western New York community. To that end, I would like to convey to the Flickinger family my deepest sympathies, and ask my colleagues in the House of Representatives to join with me in a moment of silence.

We will all miss Mr. Flickinger very much.

HONORING PHIL NIEKRO ON THE OCCASION OF HIS INDUCTION TO THE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

HON. ROBERT W. NEY

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 24, 1997

Mr. NEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to an outstanding citizen who was raised in Ohio's 18th District. The 14th winningest pitcher in the history of major-league baseball, Phil Niekro, has been voted into the Baseball Hall of Fame after a distinguished and celebrated career.

Phil Niekro has shown uncommon dedication and excellence in baseball. He learned the sport, and his famous knuckleball, from his father Phil, Sr., a sandlot player. Phil began his career in 1959 with the Milwaukee Braves' minor league team and moved to the majors full time in 1967.

Phil Niekro's career is one of achievement. On October 8, 1985, Niekro recorded his 300th victory by pitching an 8-0 four hitter for the New York Yankees against Toronto. At 46, he became the oldest major-league pitcher ever to hurl a shut-out. His accomplishments have been recognized through his selection to four All-Star teams during his tenure with the Atlanta Braves. For his fielding talents, Niekro has won five Golden Glove awards.

The Atlanta Braves Career Pitching Records is marked by Phil Niekro's accomplishments. He holds the record for most years at 20 years, most games and most games started at 740 games and 635 games respectively. He also has the most strikeouts of any other Atlanta Braves pitcher and the most wins of any right-handed pitcher.

I am honored to represent the birthplace and hometown of Phil Niekro. His considerable talent and stellar career are sources of pride for the residents of Ohio's 18th district. I share their pride, and ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Phil Niekro on his induction to the Baseball Hall of Fame and to wish him continued success.

ON THE 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OF MILDRED AND JOHN
BURDA

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 24, 1997

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor the enduring commitment of two people to each other on the 50th wedding anniversary of Mildred and John Burda of Ohio.

Both Mildred and John are native Ohioans; Mildred hailed from Canton, and John from Cleveland. They married in 1947, raised a family, built careers and nurtured their love for each other in the Cleveland area. John studied nights and mornings to earn his associate's degree at John Carroll University and Mildred typed his papers. John worked his way up the ladder at Cleveland Electric Illuminating, starting as a lineman and rising to supervising foreman after 40 years. Mildred raised their four children. When the youngest graduated high school, Mildred went to work as a bookkeeper at the Church of the Sacred Heart, where she worked for 15 years.

As recalled by their children, Mildred and John were always supportive of and affectionate with each other. When their young friends would come over for Mildred's chop suey, they would be treated to Mildred and John, holding hands as if they had just returned from their first date.

In retirement, both are active. They are engaged with their community as members of their parish council. They travel widely visiting children around the country. They also cross-country ski in Cleveland's snowy winters, cycle and walk.

Their enduring love for each other is a gift to all who know them. After 50 years, both Mildred and John are sure that if they had their lives to do over again, they would spend them with each other.

ARMENIAN GENOCIDE

SPEECH OF

HON. JOHN JOSEPH MOAKLEY

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 23, 1997

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the millions of victims of the Armenian Genocide of 1915-23.

Although to some it may seem a long time ago, those 8 years witnessed one of this century's darkest chapters. Before planning the final solution in Nazi Germany, Adolf Hitler said, "who remembers the Armenians?" Today's remembrance is testimony to their bravery and our memories.

On April 24, 1915, Turkish officials rounded up and murdered over 200 Armenian intellectuals in Constantinople. During the following 8 years, Armenians living under Ottoman rule
