

HONORING ST. MARTIN OF TOURS
SCHOOL AS A BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL

HON. LOUIS STOKES

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 1997

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor St. Martin of Tours School in Maple Heights, OH, of my district, for being selected as a Blue Ribbon School. I would also like to recognize the school's principal, Mrs. Rozann Swanson, M.A.Ed., for the excellent leadership she has provided to the St. Martin of Tours academic community. This year, the U.S. Department of Education gave this prestigious award to only 263 public and private elementary and middle schools across the Nation in recognition of their effectiveness in meeting local, State, and national education goals.

St. Martin of Tours School is very deserving of this distinguished achievement. As we seek to improve education across the Nation, this school serves as a model of educational excellence. St. Martin of Tours School won the Blue Ribbon Award because of its high academic standards, warm and nurturing environment, innovative programs and methods of instruction, as well as parental involvement. This is a school where faculty, staff, students, and parents join together in community to ensure that the students are fully equipped for success in our changing global economy.

At St. Martin of Tours School, instruction is based on the goals of fully engaging the interest, thinking, and participation of students. Active learning lessons allow students to gain knowledge and understanding of subject matter by doing, acting, inquiring, and discovering. Teaching is respected as an art, and instruction is approached as much more than simply imparting factual information. Faculty serve as facilitators for their classes and carefully guide their students intellectual growth. Additionally, the school's curriculum is focused on building students' critical thinking and problem solving skills.

Mr. Speaker, I want to extend my best wishes to St. Martin of Tours School and offer congratulations to the students, faculty, and administration of St. Martin of Tours School in Maple Heights, OH, for their dedication, leadership, and standards of excellence.

A CONGRATULATORY STATEMENT TO SANJAY SHARMA

HON. DANNY K. DAVIS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 1997

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I rise to congratulate Sanjay Sharma, a junior at St. Ignatius College Prep in Chicago, IL, who has been named a national winner for the 1997 Voice of Democracy Program for the State of Illinois, and the recipient of the $2,500 Troy and Sandy Rothbart Memorial Scholarship Award. Sanjay, who lives in Elmwood Park is the son of Ms. Prabha Sharma.

Sanjay was sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1612 in Chicago, IL. The program requires high school student entrants to write and record a 3- to 5-minute essay on an announced patriotic theme. This year's theme, "Democracy—Above and Beyond," attracted over 109,000 students to participate in the competition nationwide.

The Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program was started 50 years ago by the National Association of Broadcasters, the Electronic Industries Association, and the State Association of Broadcasters, with the endorsement of the U.S. Office of Education. Starting in the 1958–59 program year, the Veterans of Foreign Wars became a secondary sponsor in cooperation with other sponsors.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to highlight a part of Sanjay Sharma's well-written essay on democracy.

Democracy is a form of government above and beyond all other forms of government because democracy explores our human essence. Democracy explores what it means to be an American and what makes each and every one of us who we are and who we can be. The United States of America has emerged as a pillar among nations, through the 220 years of ups and downs of its charismatic history. You can't help but realize that there has got to be something special about this democracy business. The power of democracy delves into our hearts, our minds, and our inner beings, revealing to us, that Destiny, Fate, and Choice are all the same breeze that floats over eternity and turns the windmill of our lives.

I am including the entire text of Sanjay Sharma's essay on democracy for the RECORD. All of us in the Seventh Congressional District of Illinois are rightfully proud of Sanjay Sharma.

"DEMOCRACY—ABOVE AND BEYOND"

(By Sanjay Sharma)

Democracy is a form of government above and beyond all other forms of government because democracy explores our human essence. Democracy explores what it means to be an American and what makes each and every one of us who we are and who we can be. The United States of America has emerged as a pillar among nations, through the 220 years of the ups-and-downs of its charismatic history. You can't help but realize that there has got to be something special about this democracy business. The power of democracy delves into our hearts, our minds, and our inner beings, revealing to us, that Destiny, Fate, and Choice are all the same breeze that floats over eternity and turns the windmill of our lives.

Inside each one of us there burns a flame of love, hope, and leadership; and from that flame, there shines a light of character and personality. This light, inside each of us, is enveloped by a cocoon of windows that are enclosed by shutters. One by one, Democracy throws up those shutters, opens those windows, and allows the light within us to shine forth.

Bringing freedom, responsibility, and opportunity into our lives, democracy challenges us to live up to our greatest individual potential and pool our talents and ideas together as a nation, in harmony and progress. And truly the glories of democracy guiding our inner strengths are exhibited in the events of our past and present and the prospects for our future.

Throughout history, an American legacy has taken shape from the past wonders of democracy. In the early foundations of the United States, the opportunities of democracy brought out a light of innovation and pioneering in the millions of immigrants who came from around the world and answered democracy's call by helping to build America. Esterian Mazzuca was a little girl when she arrived from Italy, when she returned to Ellis Island seventy-four years later, she came with eighty-one American descendants. In the 1960's the power of the freedoms of democracy was brilliantly displayed, as lights of unity and hope beamed forth from Martin Luther King, Jr. And his followers in their peaceful demonstrations against segregation. And in 1985, the responsibilities of democracy unveiled lights of goodwill and service in forty-five music celebrities who gathered together to record: "We Are The World" and donate the album's earning (almost $62 million) to the poverty-stricken nations of Africa. Now think, for a moment, about a time when you gathered together with others of the good of a common cause. The warmth and belonging you felt was the warmth of a ray of inner light shining from one of the opened windows inside of you—opened by the power of democracy.

The sands of time are piled in our hands, as memories are being made in our present day and age. In Missoula, Montana, when the children needed a merry-go-round, Chuck Kaparich started to carve the horses himself, and as the contagious democracy spread, soon schoolkids had collected one million pennies and grown-ups assisted in the carving. After four years of communal effort, Missoula has one heck of a merry-go-round. As a little girl performs with her class in their first school pageant, singing her heart out, a tear of joy falls from her parent's eye. The joyous teardrop—a beautiful symbol of the efforts, choices, and qualities which illuminate democracy. A grandmother and grandfather look high into the blackness of the night sky as a rocket scoots upwards, then disappears beyond the stars, only to burst forth in a fountain of blazing reds and blues, in the true fashion of a Fourth-of-July firework. As the night sky is lit up in celebration, there is, for a moment, a twinkle in their eyes—a symbol of the light with which democracy guides America.

As we look toward the future, we are awed by the dawn of a new century—the 21st century. The younger generations of Americans now must grow with democracy and kindle their own inner lights of unity, hope, and leadership shining in democracy's freedoms, responsibilities, and opportunities.

In its wonderful uniqueness, democracy finds a balance between absolute freedom and absolute control. The guiding light of democracy shines above and beyond, showing us that even freedom does not come free; freedom and opportunity demand our devotion and perseverance—in turn, democracy challenges us to use our talents, ideas, and skills, to carry the nation to its greatest potential.

HONORING HEMPFIELD HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS COMPETING IN THE "WE THE PEOPLE" FINALS

HON. JOSEPH R. PITTS

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 1997

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to honor several students from Hempfield High School in Lancaster County, PA who have recently traveled to Washington to compete in the "We the People . . . The Citizen and the Constitution" national finals.

These Hempfield students—who were part of teacher Elaine Savukas's advanced placement government classes—won first and second place in the Pennsylvania "We the People" contest.

The "We the People" competition tests students' knowledge of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights—the two historic documents on which the country was founded.

I cannot emphasize enough the positive impact that gaining a solid understanding of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights will have on these gifted students.

It is vital that America's students follow the lead of those who so diligently studied, learned, and competed in the "We the People" national finals. By taking part in the competition, the Hempfield participants are true winners. Their work will benefit them and their communities long into the future.

Mr. Speaker, I want to congratulate the government students from Hempfield High School and we wish them the best in their futures.

TRIBUTE TO DR. JEFFREY
MEILMAN

HON. JACK QUINN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 1997

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Dr. Jeffrey Meilman. For almost 70 years, Variety Clubs International and their thousands of members worldwide have led the fight to aid sick and handicapped children. Variety Clubs legendary fundraising efforts have helped build hospitals, schools, and playgrounds bringing countless untold joy to young people and their families.

Each year Variety Clubs holds an International Convention to share new ideas and give special recognition to those individuals who have merited distinguished achievement. This year, one of my constituents, Dr. Jeffrey Meilman, was honored with Variety's Sir James Carreras Award. This prestigious honor recognizes those physicians whose dedication and skills in pediatric medicine is truly exceptional.

Dr. Meilman has provided plastic surgery to countless children throughout the world, many times at his own expense. The result is that through the skillful hands and extraordinary care provided by Dr. Meilman, children in the United States, China, Poland, and throughout the Third World have had the opportunity for their physical health and emotional well being to be restored.

Mr. Speaker, today I would like to bring Dr. Meilman's superlative achievements to the attention of my colleagues in the House, and ask that they join me in expressing our heartfelt appreciation to Dr. Jeffrey Meilman and Variety Clubs International. May they continue to work together to utilize their God-given talents to save the lives of so many of our children.

TRIBUTE TO CATHY MAGUIRE

HON. HOWARD L. BERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 1997

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am honored to pay tribute to my good friend Cathy Maguire, who has just completed a 1-year term as president of the San Fernando Chamber of Commerce. Under Cathy's dynamic leadership, the chamber strengthened the ties between businesses and residents in the city of San Fernando. She will be a tough act to follow.

Anyone who knows Cathy—and there are a lot of us—is not surprised by her successful tenure as chamber president. She is a very hard worker, as well as a regular presence at business and community events throughout the San Fernando Valley. I am amazed at her energy and impressed by her dedication.

The San Fernando Chamber is only one of many organizations to have been the beneficiaries of Cathy's leadership skills over the years. For example, she is also on the board of directors of the Valley Industry and Commerce Association; a member of the Community Advisory Board of El Nido Family Services, San Fernando Valley; president of Soroptimist International, San Fernando Valley; and a member of the board of directors of New Directions for Youth.

In addition to her outside activities, Cathy is district manager for the Southern California Gas Co., where she plays a key role in strategic planning and implementation, financial management and marketing and advocacy. Indeed, the gas company is fortunate to be represented by a person as devoted and personable as Cathy.

I ask my colleagues to join me today in saluting Cathy Maguire, whose selflessness and spirit are an inspiration to us all. I am proud to be her friend.

TRIBUTE TO JUDGE RUDOLPH A.
SACCO

HON. JOHN W. OLVER

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 1997

Mr. OLVER. Mr. Speaker, balancing the scales of justice is often a very difficult task. The work of a judge is demanding, complex, and difficult, and it takes a very rare breed to handle the job successfully.

I am honored to have such a judge within the First Congressional District of Massachusetts. During his 23 years on the bench, Probate Court Judge Rudolph A. Sacco has admirably served the citizens of western Massachusetts.

A Boston College and Suffolk Law School graduate, Judge Sacco has never forgotten where he comes from. As an alumnus of Pittsfield High School, Judge Sacco returned to Berkshire County with his degrees, prepared to give back to the community.

After some years in private practice, Judge Sacco was appointed as a special probate judge in 1973. He flourished in that part-time position, and was named a full judge in 1979.

As probate judge, Rudolph Sacco has logged thousands and thousands of miles traveling the beautiful landscape of western Massachusetts. His territory not only covered his home Berkshire County, but Hampshire, Hampden, and Franklin Counties as well. But Judge Sacco has done much more for his community than doling out justice. In 1957, He—along with his wife, the former Katherine Turschmann—founded Camp Karu, a day camp for area children.

Judge Sacco is also a proud father and grandfather, and has been an inspiration to his family.

I join with the Berkshire, Hampden, Hampshire, and Franklin Bar Associations, as well as the Massachusetts Bar Association, in saluting Judge Sacco for his 23 years of dedicated service. I join with the members of the legal community in recognizing his achievements and in hoping that he will continue to offer his talents to western Massachusetts and the court system.

Probate Judge Rudolph A. Sacco serves as an inspiration to his community and the upcoming crop of members of the bench. I would like to express my best wishes to Judge Sacco and his family at this special time. His contributions will never be forgotten.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY—
ORANGE COUNTY RELAY FOR LIFE

HON. LORETTA SANCHEZ

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 1997

Ms. SANCHEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to address my colleagues about an issue that affects every family in this country. I am certain that all of you have a friend or relative, as I do, that has been afflicted by the scourge of cancer. Cancer is a disease that does not discriminate, it strikes every race, every economic level, every age, and every ethnic group. In 1997 alone we can expect over 130,000 new cases of cancer to be diagnosed, and that will be in the State of California alone.

However, in the war against cancer, we are beginning to see success. Effective and dedicated organizations such as the American Cancer Society are leading the fight in the battle for a cure. For the first time in history, overall death rates from cancer are actually declining, and with an enhanced nationwide effort, the cancer death rate could be cut in half by the year 2015. A major part of that nationwide effort is the contribution of the Orange County American Cancer Society, which served over 5,000 cancer patients in the county last year.

On June 20 and 21, 1997, the Orange County American Cancer Society will hold its annual Relay for Life to raise awareness of the disease and call attention to the work of the American Cancer Society. Community colleges from around Orange County will host teams of runners and walkers competing against each other to raise money for cancer research. Each team will field from 15 to 20 runners. For 18 hours, one team member will be on the track at all times, walking, jogging, or wheelchairs in 30-minute intervals. During the race an all night vigil entitled "The Mile of Hope" will take place to honor cancer survivors and those who have lost their battles against cancer. The Relay for Life is sure to be an enlightening and consciousness raising event. It is the only relay event that raises money for the American Cancer Society in Orange County. I am pleased to call attention to the event and I wish to commend the Orange County American Cancer Society for its work on behalf of our families. I look forward to its continued efforts in the areas of cancer research, education, advocacy, and service.
