THE CHINA SANCTIONS AND
HUMAN RIGHTS ADVANCEMENT
ACT

COVERDELL (AND ABRAHAM)
AMENDMENT NO. 442

(Ordered referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.)

Mr. COVERDELL (for himself and Mr. ABRAHAM) submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by them to the bill, S. 810, to impose certain sanctions on the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes; as follows:

On page 18, below line 2, add the following:
SEC. 8. TRANSFERS OF SENSITIVE EQUIPMENT AND TECHNOLOGY BY THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Credible allegations exist that the People's Republic of China has transferred equipment and technology as follows:

(A) Gyroscopes, accelerometers, and test equipment for missiles to Iran.

(B) Chemical weapons equipment and technology to Iran.

(C) Missile guidance systems and computerized machine tools to Iran.

(D) Industrial furnace equipment and high technology diagnostic equipment to a nuclear facility in Pakistan.

(E) Blueprints and equipment to manufacture M-11 missiles to Pakistan.

(F) M-11 missiles and components to Pakistan.

(2) The Department of State has failed to determine whether most such transfers violate provisions of relevant United States and Executive orders relating to the proliferation of sensitive equipment and technology, including the Arms Export Control Act, the Nuclear Proliferation Prevention Act of 1994, the Export Administration Act of 1979, the Export-Import Bank Act of 1945, and the Iran-Iraq Arms Non-Proliferation Act of 1992, and Executive Order 12938.

(3) Where the Department of State has made such determinations, it has imposed the least onerous form of sanction, which significantly weakens the intended deterrent effect of the sanctions provided for in such laws.

(4) The Clinton Administration decided not to impose sanctions on the People's Republic of China for its transfer of C-802 anti-ship cruise missiles to Iran, finding that the transfer was not “destabilizing”.

(5) That finding is contrary to the judgment of the commander of the United States Fifth Fleet, elements of which are frequently deployed in and around the Persian Gulf.

(6) Despite the fact that officials of the People's Republic of China were responsible for the sale to Pakistan of specialized ring magnets, which are used to enrich uranium for use in nuclear weapons, the Clinton Administration did not impose sanctions on either the People's Republic of China or Pakistan for such sale, even though sanctions are required for such sale under law.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) the transfers of equipment and technology by the People's Republic of China described in subsection (a)(1) pose a threat to the national security interests of the United States;

(2) the failure of the Clinton Administration to initiate a formal process to determine whether to impose sanctions for such transfers under United States laws intended to halt the proliferation of sensitive equipment and technology contributes to the threat posed to the national security interests of the United States by the proliferation of such equipment and technology; and

(3) the President should immediately initiate the procedures necessary to determine whether sanctions should be imposed under United States law for such transfers.

(c) REPORT.—Not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the President shall submit to Congress a report, in both classified and unclassified form, setting forth—

(1) the date, if any, of the commencement and of the conclusion of each formal process conducted by the Department of State to determine whether to impose sanctions for each transfer described in subsection (a)(1);

(2) the facts providing the basis for each determination not to impose sanctions on the Government of the People's Republic of China, or entities within or having a relationship with that government, for each transfer, and the legal analysis supporting such determinations; and

(3) a schedule for initiating a formal process described in paragraph (1) for each transfer not yet addressed by such formal process and an explanation for the failure to commence such formal process with respect to such transfer before the date of the report.
