

As Members are aware, the House passed both the District of Columbia appropriations bill and the foreign operations conference reports last night. It is hoped that the Senate can voice vote those bills during today's session as we await House action on the Commerce, State, Justice appropriations conference report, and I expect them to accomplish that before late in the afternoon. In fact, I expect it to be in the early afternoon.

If a voice vote is not possible, then Members will be notified as to when we might have a rollcall vote or votes. Again, I think it would be in the best interests of the Senate at this time if we could do this with a voice vote. The so-called controversial positions in the District of Columbia bill and the foreign operations conference reports have been removed, and I believe an agreement has been reached with the administration on Commerce, State, and Justice with regard to items in that bill, as well as the provisions with regard to census.

If there are rollcall votes, I emphasize we will try to notify Members with at least a 4-hour advance notice and the time span that that vote might occur in. If we can't complete today with just voice votes then there is a possibility that we would have to go over until tomorrow if there is going to be a rollcall vote because I do think Members are entitled to significant advance notice so they can be sure to be here. Or, if we can't get it done in a reasonable way today or tomorrow, there is always next week, which would really begin to stretch what President Eisenhower had warned us against. In order to avoid that, we are going to need a very good attitude and a lot of cooperation. I think that is possible.

We are still working on the few remaining Executive Calendar items. There are only 15 or so nominations left on the calendar. We are hoping to clear some of those today, and then those that would require some debate or recorded votes would be scheduled early in the session when we come back next year.

Again, we need cooperation of the Senators that are here today, and between the leadership on both sides of the aisle so we can complete action. We accomplished a great deal over the weekend by voice vote and in our wrap-up. We passed a lot of really good bills. We still have a chance to get a conference report from the House on Amtrak, with only one major change, as I understand it—one I think the Senate could live with. That is the makeup of the board of Amtrak.

I remind our colleagues that we did pass and send to the President a fix with regard to the ISTEA transportation bill, that we did pass and send to the President the FDA reform package, as well as the foster care and adoption bill, and earlier had sent the Labor-HHS and education appropriations bill. So we are down, really, to these three final bills. There could be a fourth bill sent separately that would include the State Department reorganization, U.N. arrearage, IMF funds, as well as some language with regard to the Mexico City population control issue. If that bill could not be brought up or was objected to or filibustered, of course, we would not be able to get to a final vote on that. But the three key bills we need to bring up today are the three appropriations conference reports and we will notify Members when we will act on those and if any recorded votes are necessary.

I yield the floor, and I suggest the absence of a quorum.
