

two of them will recognize the scent and pull out their own little bundles, letting their own magic flow over them again. The others will smell and know of the wonderful things that are out there. For some, it may be the signal to go out and find that essence of life for themselves. For others it will be enough simply to breathe deeply and understand. If I don't keep the leaves moist, they will dry out and crack and I will lose more sand. But some will always be with me and the medicine will always be there.

The desert has given me a package, but what can I give to the desert? I can give only sweat and blood, perhaps tears, and my love and gratitude, my commitment to walk softly and protect this land as best I can. The desert asks only this in return: that I let it live and share its magic with others, that they, also, may learn to love the land.

TRIBUTE TO DR. AND MRS.
ZERZAN ON THEIR 50TH WED-DING ANNIVERSARY

HON. ROBERT SMITH

OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 4, 1998

Mr. SMITH of Oregon. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an outstanding achievement of two of my fellow Oregonians, Dr. Charles and Mrs. Joan Zerzan of Milwaukie, Dr. and Mrs. Zerzan will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on February 7, 1998, and I believe this body would be remiss in not taking note of this accomplishment.

Dr. and Mrs. Zerzan met while attending college at Willamette University in Salem, Oregon. Dr. Zerzan was a veteran of the United States Army, having fought for our country in the China-Burma-India campaign in an effort to free those nations from the Imperial Army of Japan. Mrs. Zerzan, known at that time as Joanie Kathan, was an outstanding violinist from Rogue River, Oregon. Her talents as a violinist won her a scholarship to Willamette. The two met when Dr. Zerzan was running for President of his class, and Mrs. Zerzan was running for Secretary. Although both lost their respective races, they won something more important: each other's hearts. The two were married in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where Dr. Zerzan was attending medical school at Marquette University.

Upon graduating from medical school, Dr. Zerzan re-enlisted in the Army. The Zerzans were stationed all over America, including here in Washington at Walter Reed Army Hospital. Somehow they found the time to have 12 children, four daughters and eight sons, who in turn have given Dr. and Mrs. Zerzan 29 healthy, happy grandchildren. Dr. Zerzan retired from the Army with the rank of Lt. Colonel in 1968, and the entire family moved back home to Oregon.

Mr. Speaker, Dr. and Mrs. Zerzan's accomplishment would be notable enough for its longevity. But, for the reasons I have outlined above, and for countless others that time will not permit me here to mention, their accomplishment serves as an example to future generations of the awe-inspiring power of love. Strong families are truly the bulwark of this nation, and it is individuals like Dr. and Mrs. Zerzan whose dedication to one another, and to America, give this nation its greatest strength. Mr. Speaker, I know that you and this entire body join me in saying to Dr. and Mrs. Zerzan, congratulations on your 50 years together, and thank you for the example you have set. St. Paul said long ago, "in the end there abideth faith, hope and love, these three; and the greatest of these is love." Dr. and Mrs. Zerzan, long driven by these words, have once again proven their enduring wisdom.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE
RONALD V. DELLUMS

HON. NICK J. RAHALL II

OF WEST VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 4, 1998

Mr. RAHALL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to one of the most respected members of the House of Representatives, the ranking Member of the House National Security Committee, RON DELLUMS. I know that I safely speak for all of my Colleagues when I say that the House will not be the same without his thoughtful leadership when he leaves this body on Friday.

Chairman DELLUMS has served in the House of Representatives for over twenty seven years, arriving in 1971 as an intense young man, committed to his principles of justice, education and health care for all. His legislative goals including cutting back on defense spending and using that money to help local communities, and to ending apartheid in South Africa.

In the 27 years since arriving in Washington, Mr. DELLUMS may have gotten a little bit more gray hair, but one thing hasn't changed: His intensity and commitment to the people of California's Bay Area and to the United States.

RON DELLUMS has taken stands on issues that sometimes have been at odds with many other Members. For example, when most members fought to join the House Armed Services Committee to increase defense spending, Mr. DELLUMS joined for another reason. He said at the time, "I did not join the Armed Services Committee to learn about missiles, planes and ships; I joined because I knew I would need to become an expert in this field in order to argue successfully for military spending reductions that would free up resources for the desperate human needs that I see every day in my community."

His stands on other issues have been just as principled. In 1971, the Freshman from California introduced legislation to impose economic sanctions on the apartheid regime of South Africa. It would be fifteen years before this legislation was enacted into law, enacted over the veto of President Ronald Reagan. Lesser members may have given up the cause, but not RON DELLUMS.

It will be this that I will always remember RON DELLUMS. For his hard work and commitment to his ideals and his willingness to always seek an alternative. RON DELLUMS always could be counted on to develop alternatives that reflected his beliefs, so that he would never have to sacrifice his principles.

RON DELLUMS will be missed by the House of Representatives and by me. I wish him the best of luck in all of his future endeavors.
