LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I ask for this time for the purposes of inquiring from the distinguished Chief Deputy Majority Whip regarding the schedule for today, the remainder of the week, and the following week.

Mr. HASTERT. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Michigan, my good friend, will yield, I am pleased to announce that we have finished the legislative business for the week.

The House will reconvene on Wednesday, February 11, at 3 p.m. for legislative business. Members should note that we do not expect any recorded votes before 5 p.m. on Wednesday; and on Thursday, February 12, the House will meet at 10 a.m. for legislative business.

On Wednesday and Thursday, the House will consider the following legislation: a resolution providing for consideration of motions to suspend the rules and a resolution regarding the contested election in the 46th Congressional District of California.

Once the rule allowing suspensions next week has been agreed to, we hope to consider the following bills under suspension of rules:

H.R. 1428, the Voter Eligibility Verification Act; H. Con. Res. 202, the Daycare Fairness for Stay-at-Home Parents; and, S. 927, the National Sea Grant College Program Reauthorization Act of 1997.

Mr. Speaker, we hope to conclude legislative business for the week by early afternoon on Thursday, February 12. Friday, February 13, marks the beginning of the President's Day district work period from which the House will return on Tuesday, February 24.

Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding me this time.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, reclaiming my time, could the gentleman clarify two points for me? On the return date of Tuesday the 24th, can the gentleman enlighten us on when we can expect the first vote on that day?

Mr. HASTERT. Mr. Speaker, there will be no votes until after 5 o'clock.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

Finally, the gentleman said that on February 12, which is Thursday next, I think, we will meet at 12 for legislative business?

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

DISPENSING WITH CALENDAR WEDNESDAY BUSINESS ON WEDNESDAY NEXT

Mr. HASTERT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the business in order under the Calendar Wednesday rule be dispensed with on Wednesday next.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Illinois?

There was no objection.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 7, 1997, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

A MATTER OF TRUTH

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. WOLF) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. WOLF. Mr. Speaker, I want to take a moment to speak on what has been happening in the country lately. It is not about impeachment of the President or prosecution of the President; it is about what is on my mind and my conscience.

First of all, for all the clamor in the press and on radio and TV about allegations swirling around the President, there has been a blanket of silence on the part of many who ought to provide commentary on the moral tone of this country. And I am not sure why there has been this silence. Perhaps there is a "do not rock the boat" feeling. Times are good and let us just sweep this under the rug and not focus on the moral aspects of this.

Perhaps the talk of impeachment and prosecution, which I think have been gotten out there too early, may have preempted those who might have felt obligated to comment on the moral issue and its impact on the leadership of the country.

Their reluctance was not evident in earlier cases. The young woman who flew the Air Force B-52s. The military general passed over for Chairman of the Joint Chiefs. The Tailhook scandal, which touched a number of senior Navy officials. Charges against a former Senator who resigned. A Supreme Court nominee and a Presidential candidate and others brought a tidal wave of comment from every corner of America.

In America, a person is innocent until proven guilty. But we are not talking about a court of law. We are talking about right and wrong.

We must give the President the benefit of the doubt. But let us not say that these things do not matter, because they do. They are at the very heart of honor, integrity, character and leadership.

What a person does in private affects the type of person he or she is in public, and a leader has an obligation to take responsibility for his or her actions and not try to explain them away or blame others.

If, indeed, we have lost the capacity to distinguish vice from virtue, if we believe that private behavior has no public consequences, if we believe that our Nation's leaders do not have to be good or moral and righteous men and women who live by the truth, then we abandon the very heritage of this Nation.

□ 1445

I believe America ought to expect more from its leaders, and I think most of the American people agree. If, as has been the case for ages, kids want to grow up to be President of the United States, then like it or not the person holding that title has a special responsibility, and we have every right to hold him or her accountable to that duty.

Saying Americans do not care just does not wash with me. Truth is something we have always honored in this country. We teach our children from an early age to be truthful. George Washington's birthday is coming soon, and we have long told the story about him admitting to cutting down the cherry tree, where he said, I cannot tell a lie.

When any President takes office, there is an implied promise that he or she will level with the people, that he or she will be honest with them. A solemn bond of trust has always existed between the President and its people. And it must always be that way. Every President has an obligation to tell the whole truth. If Richard Nixon had told
