REMEMBER THE MAINE!

HON. PETER DEUTSCH

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 11, 1998

Mr. DEUTSCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 100th anniversary of a tragic and intriguing chapter in American History. This Sunday, February 15th, marks the Centennial Anniversary of the sinking of the U.S.S. Battleship Maine in Havana harbor, Cuba. This still unsolved mystery surrounding the sinking of the Maine and the role her explosion played in the start of the Spanish-American War have given her a most prominent position in American history.

On January 24, 1898, the U.S.S. Battleship Maine was dispatched from Key West to Havana to protect American lives and property during the conflict between Cuban revolutionaries and the Spanish Colonial Government. A letter home from Captain Charles Sigsbee recalls that fateful night of February 15, 1898, when the evening's calm was shattered by a "bursting, rending, crashing sound or roar of immense volume." At 9:40 p.m. the explosion lifted the forward section of the Maine followed immediately by a second, large and more violent explosion near the center of the superstructure. The entire interior of the vessel went dark as men struggled throughout the wounded ship to find a way out of the sinking and burning hull. The explosions emanated primarily from the forward section of the Maine where the crew was bunking and housed. 265 sailors were dead or missing following the disaster.

After an investigation by the U.S. Navy Court of Inquiry, it was determined that a mine had set off the explosions. While the court did not speculate on who had set the mine, a majority of Americans blamed it on the Spanish. The cry, "Remember the Maine!" echoed in the streets of the nation and the halls of Congress. Two days after the report of the court of inquiry, Navy Secretary John Davis Long ordered the peacetime white hulls of U.S. ships overpainted in dull battle gray.

The U.S. flag still flies from the salvaged mast of the Maine at Arlington National Cemetery over the graves of the sailors and Marines whose bodies were recovered in 1911. The remains of the first 27 members of the crew returned to the U.S. also rest at the Maine Memorial Plot in Key West, Florida.

The U.S.S. Battleship Maine and the people of Key West share an inexorable history. During her brief period of service the Maine would visit Key West on two memorable occasions. The destruction of the Maine and the tremendous loss of life shocked and deeply saddened the people of Key West. The entire community would mourn the dead sailors and offer aide and comfort to survivors of the explosion. Shortly thereafter, the city would offer a portion of its cemetery as a final resting place for the 27 dead sailors that arrived from Havana.

This weekend America will join the U.S. Battleship Maine Centennial Commission in Key West to once again remember the Maine on the 100th anniversary of its destruction. As it was a century ago, the history of our nation, the island of Key West and the battleship Maine are bound together for all time.

CELEBRATING THE 80TH ANNIVERSARY OF LITHUANIAN INDEPENDENCE

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 11, 1998

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 80th anniversary of the declaration of Lithuanian Independence.

For nearly 55 years, Lithuania was occupied by Soviet military forces. But in the past five years, the people of Lithuania have been able to finally enjoy and celebrate the freedoms and privileges of an independent nation.

The United States and Lithuania have now formed a significant partnership between our leaders, our governments, and our people. We have close trade relations with Lithuania. We are mutually committed to the security of the Baltic region.

With free and fair elections recently completed, Lithuania has established a commitment to democracy and pluralism. I believe we can say with great confidence that Lithuania is becoming a full partner in the effort to build democracy and promote freedom around the world.

I commend the Lithuanian-American community for their persistence and hope through the many challenging decades. The 80th anniversary of Lithuanian independence was celebrated by the Lithuanian-American community in Southeast Michigan on Sunday, February 8, at the Lithuanian Cultural Center in Southfield.

I urge my colleagues to join me in honoring Lithuania's independence.

HONORING ALBERT NEDOFF, JR.,
A NATIONAL LEADER IN DRUG ENFORCEMENT

HON. DEBBIE STABENOW

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 11, 1998

Ms. STABENOW. Mr. Speaker, "It is my honor to congratulate Albert Nedoff, Jr., who after nearly twenty-four years of service at the Drug Enforcement Administration has been appointed the Associate Director of the Chicago High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area Task Force.

"With this new position, Albert will work under the leadership of the U.S. Drug Czar, Gen. Barry McCaffrey.

"Albert is a national leader in the area of drug enforcement, who has spent more than eight years in Detroit's DEA office. During his tenure, he was instrumental in several high-profile cases, including the dismantling of the Chambers Family's control of Detroit's crack cocaine market and the case that resulted in the arrest and conviction of Toni Cato Riggs, the widow of Gulf War Veteran Anthony Riggs.

"The 1990 murder of Anthony Riggs drew national attention when he was gunned down in the streets of Detroit, just one day after returning home from the war. Four years after Anthony Riggs' murder, a task force of undercover drug agents and police officers, under the supervision of Albert Nedoff, videotaped a confession by Toni Cato Riggs regarding her involvement in her husband's murder, resulting in a first-degree murder conviction.

"I am pleased that after nearly forty years of city and federal government service, Albert Nedoff has chosen to continue serving our country in the area of law enforcement. Though he will be missed in the Michigan area, it is reassuring to know that he will still be fighting to rid our nation's streets of drugs. I wish him well in his new position and wish his family the very best in the future."

TRIBUTE TO ALBERTO VAZQUEZ

HON. SOLOMON P. ORTIZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 11, 1998

Mr. ORTIZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend and pay tribute to Mr. Alberto Vazquez, the newly selected Mr. Amigo.

Every year, members of the Mr. Amigo Association, who represent the City of Brownsville, Texas, travel to Mexico City to select a new Mr. Amigo to serve as the honored guest of the Mr. Amigo festivities in Brownsville. The Mr. Amigo festivity is a four day international event which invites the United States and Mexico to celebrate the cultures of these neighboring countries. During the Mr. Amigo celebration, which originated as a pre-Lenten festival, Brownsville citizens participate in a series of parades, dances and parties to demonstrate the goodwill of both countries. It is a major function which is eagerly anticipated by many South Texans as well as our winter visitors.

We are honored to recognize Mr. Alberto Vazquez as the 34th Mexican citizen chosen by the Mr. Amigo Association. Mr. Vazquez was born in Guaymas, Sonora. He filmed 34 movies with outstanding Mexican Stars such as Soler, Marga Lopez, and last year's recipient of Mr. Amigo, Angelica Maria. Mr. Vazquez has recorded 108 records, many of them receiving gold and silver status, and listings on the top spots of the international record charts. He has received numerous awards and recognitions throughout Mexico, the United States and Latin America.

Alberto Vazquez recently released his latest record "Cosas de Alberto Vazquez," which includes such hits as "Te he Prometido," "Tus Ojos," "Anoche me Enamore," and "El Ultimo Beso."

Mr. Alberto Vazquez is a perfect recipient of the Mr. Amigo award. For he has, over the long period of his career, taken his unique screen, television, and stage performances to numerous countries, including the United States. A true ambassador of his country and of his culture, he has been praised by numerous organizations for his unconditional commitment to improve mutual understanding and cooperation between Mexico and the United States. Mr. Alberto Vazquez should be recognized for both his artistic ability and his contribution to his commitment to bicultural relations between the two nations.

Mr. Amigo, Mr. Alberto Vazquez, will receive the red-carpet treatment when he visits
