Resolved, That the United States Senate recognizes Valley Forge Military Academy and College for establishing a "General H. Norman Schwarzkopf Library", which will serve as a national commemorative site for Operation Desert Shield/Desert Storm.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Valley Forge Military Academy and College.

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, today I seek to submit a resolution recognizing the Valley Forge Military Academy and College for establishing the "General H. Norman Schwarzkopf Library."

The Valley Forge Military Academy and College, located near Historic Valley Forge National Park and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is the ideal site to commemorate General H. Norman Schwarzkopf and his many accomplishments. The Academy broke ground in March, 1998 to begin construction of a Regimental Mess Hall, a section of which will serve as a Library to honor those Americans who participated in the Desert Shield and Desert Storm campaigns. The Library, which would serve both the Academy and the community, will contain some of the General's personal papers, memorabilia, and artifacts commemorating Desert Storm and Desert Shield. It would be appropriate and beneficial for young collegians to have access to history they have witnessed. In 1989, General Schwarzkopf is quoted as having said, "West Point prepared me for the Army, but Valley Forge prepared me for life."

General Schwarzkopf graduated from the Valley Forge Military Academy as Valedictorian in 1952, thereafter he entered the United States Military Academy at West Point. During Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm, General Schwarzkopf served as the Commander in Chief of the United States Central Command. From his days as an accomplished cadet, General Schwarzkopf has proven himself to be a
