

petition, and by introducing a hodgepodge of bills that the House already rejected and a constitutional amendment that they didn't even believe in. Now, they are attaching hundreds of poisonous amendments to a bill that would genuinely reform this system.

Why? Because the Republican leadership is trying to protect a broken system that works for them. The Republican leadership wants to keep the flow of big money coming from special interests and silence the voices of working men and women and their families. The Republican leadership wants to kill reform.

Representative RAY LAHOOD even admitted last week that the Republicans were "trying to talk it to death."

But talk is cheap. Today, I challenge my Republican colleagues to act. Prove that you are not in the pockets of the special interests. Restore America's faith in its elections. Support genuine campaign finance reform and bring a true victory home to the American people. Vote for Meehan-Shays.

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore (Mr. DICKEY). Does any other Member seek recognition?

Mr. SHAYS. Mr. Chairman, I wonder what the process is to encourage the Chair to ask for a vote on this issue, and then I think we will have a rollcall vote tomorrow.

What is that process?

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. Are there any other Members who would like to speak on the amendment?

If not, the question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. THOMAS) to the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from Connecticut (Mr. SHAYS).

The question was taken; and the Chairman pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. SHAYS. Mr. Chairman, I demand a recorded vote.

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 442, further proceedings on the amendment offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. THOMAS) to the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from Connecticut (Mr. SHAYS) will be postponed.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HUTCHINSON. Mr. Chairman, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HUTCHINSON. Am I correct to understand that once the Thomas amendment has been considered and now that we have to roll that vote that we could not consider another amendment tonight?

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. It is the Chair's understanding that there will be a motion to rise.

Mr. HUTCHINSON. Am I correct that there was an understanding that we would cease debate at 10 o'clock tonight or when we completed debate on the Thomas amendment? If that is correct, it would appear to me that we are slowing down the process of amendments that need to be considered. I think we could do another amendment tonight within 30 minutes, as tired as everybody is.

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. A motion to rise, if made, is preferential.

Mr. MICA. Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. HAYWORTH) having assumed the chair, Mr. DICKEY, Chairman pro tempore of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 2183) to amend the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 to reform the financing of campaigns for elections for Federal office, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

NASHVILLE'S HOUSE THAT CONGRESS BUILT

(Mr. CLEMENT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute, revise and extend his remarks and include extraneous material.)

Mr. CLEMENT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to report on my experience with the House that Congress Built and to urge all my colleagues to participate in this project.

Last year Congress passed House Resolution 147, which encourages all Members to participate in and to support activities to provide homes for low income families. So far 361 Members of Congress have agreed to participate in the House that Congress Built to make the American dream of home ownership a reality for low income families.

On Friday, June 12, I teamed up with the Nashville Area Habitat for Humanity and the Homebuilders Association of Middle Tennessee to break the world's record for building a habitat home. We not only broke the record, we shattered it. With 250 builders and 50 supervisors. Working tirelessly, the 3 bedroom 1,000 square foot home was built in an amazing 4 hours 39 minutes and 8 seconds. It was an unbelievable experience that I had the opportunity to participate in.

I also had opportunity to meet Millard Fuller, the founder of Habitat for Humanity International. It appears now we will be in the Guinness Book of World Records. I urge all my colleagues to join Habitat for Humanity in building homes in their districts. And let me mention it again—we built that home in an amazing 4 hours 39 minutes and 8 seconds.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to report on my experience with "The House That Congress Built" and to urge ALL my colleagues to participate in this project.

On Friday, June 12, 1998, I teamed up with the Nashville Area Habitat for Humanity and the Homebuilders Association of Middle Tennessee to break the world record for building a Habitat home. We not only broke that record . . . we shattered it. The record had been 5 hours, 57 minutes and 13 seconds. With over 250 framers, builders, drywallers, electricians, plumbers and landscapers working tirelessly, the three bedroom, 1000-square-foot home was built in an amazing 4 hours, 39 minutes and 8 seconds.

I was very proud to be a part of this team. The hard work that Habitat for Humanity and the Homebuilders Association of Middle Tennessee devoted to this build is inspirational and heart warming. Witnessing the hard work of 250 builders and 50 supervisors who worked on the house was truly a sight to behold.

This project was a blessing to participate in because it gave me an opportunity to get to know the family who now owns the Habitat house. This personal contact is extremely important because it puts a face on poverty. When we give poverty a name and not merely a statistic, the problem reaches into our hearts and we feel compelled to do our part in helping to eliminate poverty housing in our country.

This home was built for Marilyn Winston and her 12-year-old son Ramonze. They had never owned a home and were living in a drug-infested and violence-filled neighborhood. Ramonze could not go outside to play. Marilyn, a registered medical assistant, is very devoted to the education and safety of her son and works very hard to provide for him. In their new home, Ramonze has his own room, a yard to play in and a safe neighborhood to live in.

At this building, I had the privilege to meet Millard Fuller, the founder and president of Habitat for Humanity International. Millard was a self-made millionaire at age 29, when he and his wife, Linda, sold all their possessions, gave their money to the poor and struck out on a search for a focus in their lives. Their experiences led Millard to create Habitat for Humanity International, dedicated to providing homes for low-income families.

Today, Habitat has over 1,400 affiliates in North America and partners in more than 50 nations. The 70,000th home will be built in September.

I think we can all agree with the principal benefits of home ownership. A home is not merely a shelter—it provides a family with an opportunity for growth, prosperity and security.
