

Whereas if not for the quick and courageous action of those officers, many innocent people would likely have been injured or killed;

Whereas through their selfless acts, Detective Gibson and Private First Class Chestnut underscored the courage, honor, and dedication shown daily by every member of the United States Capitol Police and every law enforcement officer;

Whereas Private First Class Chestnut, a Vietnam veteran who spent 20 years in the Air Force, was an 18-year veteran of the Capitol Police, and was married to Wen Ling and had five children, Joseph, Janece, Janet, Karen and William;

Whereas Detective Gibson, assigned as Rep. Tom DeLay's bodyguard for the last three years, was an 18-year veteran of the Capitol Police, and was married to Evelyn and had three children, Kristen, John and Daniel;

Whereas Private First Class Chestnut and Detective Gibson were the first United States Capitol Police officers ever killed in the line of duty;

Whereas Private First Class Chestnut and Detective Gibson, and all those who helped apprehend the gunman, assist the injured, and evacuate the building, are true heroes of democracy, and every American owes them a deep debt of gratitude: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, (the House of Representatives concurring), That—

(1) Congress hereby honors the memory of Detective John Michael Gibson and Private First Class Jacob Joseph Chestnut of the United States Capitol Police for the selfless acts of heroism they displayed on July 24, 1998, in sacrificing their lives in the line of duty so that others might live; and

(2) when the Senate and the House of Representatives adjourn on this date they shall do so out of respect to the memory of Detective John Michael Gibson and Private First Class Jacob Joseph Chestnut.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

TRIBUTE TO LIEUTENANT GENERAL FREDERICK E. VOLLRATH

• Mr. KEMPTHORNE. Mr. President, I rise today to honor Lieutenant General Frederick E. Vollrath upon his retirement from the United States Army. General Vollrath has served our great nation with honor and distinction for 35 years and his performance throughout his career has been characterized by the highest standards of professional ethics and commitment to soldiers.

General Vollrath's outstanding career began when he was commissioned a second lieutenant upon completion of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps and graduation from the University of Miami in 1963. During his military career, he completed the Adjutant General Officer Basic and Advanced Courses, the United States Army Command and General Staff College, the United States Army War College, the National Security Management.

His initial assignments include Adjutant General and Deputy Chief of Staff, 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized), Fort Carson, Colorado; Director of Personnel Service Support, Director of Enlisted Personnel Management, and Chief, Enlisted Assignment Division, 1st Personnel Command, U.S. Army Europe. He has also held a variety of important command and staff positions to include Deputy Chief of Staff, Personnel, U.S. Army Europe and Seventh Army; Director of Military Personnel Management, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, Department of the Army; Director of Enlisted Personnel U.S. Total Army Personnel Command, Alexandria, Virginia; Commander, Personnel Information Systems Command; Chief of Staff and later Deputy Commander, 1st Personnel Command, U.S. Army Europe; Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, Headquarters, Department of the Army and culminating his career with his most recent duty as Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, Headquarters, Department of the Army.

General Vollrath's military awards and decorations include the Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Army Commendation Medal.

General Vollrath has truly made a difference to our Army and our Nation. He has always fought for what was right for the Army, it's soldiers, civilians and family members. He has established a solid reputation among his peers and superiors as the single driving force in ensuring the personnel community has stayed on the leading edge of sustaining the personnel readiness for the Total Army.

I would ask my colleagues to join me in wishing General Vollrath and his wife, Joy, all the best and thank them for 35 years of dedicated and unselfish service to our Nation. We wish them both a very fulfilling retirement. •

PATIENT PRIVACY RIGHTS ACT OF 1998

• Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, on Friday, July 24, I introduced legislation along with Senators ASHCROFT, BURNS, and ABRAHAM to repeal the legal mandate for personal identification codes for each patient that would be part of a national medical records system.

Our legislation, S. 2352, the Patient Privacy Rights Act, would repeal the unique medical identifiers requirement of the Health Insurance Portability Law of 1996 (HIPAA). This law directs the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to develop a system to use personal identifying codes as part of a system for electronically transmitting health information to aid implementation of the health insurance portability law. The unique health identifiers would be codes, numbers or other methods of uniquely identifying each patient that his or her doctors would be required to use throughout that person's lifetime. Hearings on the emerging system were launched in Chicago this week by the National Committee on Vital and Health Statistics.

I believe it is irresponsible to expose patients to this massive new erosion of
