

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, reserving the right to object—I don't have any intention of objecting—what are these two changes in 33 and 39?

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, Rule XXXIX is with regard to foreign travel by Members. Senator BUMPERS will be going with a Codel and we had to have special permission for that to occur.

I am very anxious to advise Senator BYRD regarding Rule XXXIII. The purpose is to provide for a video presentation of Senator BYRD on the operation of the Senate during orientation. We think it would be very useful for our Members who may not be able to attend orientation, for review later. We think it would also be useful for students of this institution.

Mr. BYRD. I thank the distinguished majority leader.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the resolution be agreed to and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 302) was agreed to as follows:

S. RES. 302

Resolved, That, notwithstanding the provisions of Rule XXXIII, the Senate authorizes the videotaping of the address by the Senator from West Virginia (Mr. Byrd) to the incoming Senators scheduled to be given in the Senate Chamber in December 1998.

AUTHORIZATION OF RECESS APPOINTMENTS

Mr. LOTT. I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now proceed to Senate Resolution 303, introduced earlier today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 303) authorizing the President of the Senate, the President of the Senate pro tempore, and the Majority and Minority Leaders to make certain appointments during the recess of the present session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution?

Mr. LOTT. I might say to Senators who are in the Chamber, and others who may be watching, ordinarily much of this is done at the very last minute of the session. I thought that some of it could be done this morning. I thought we would start our wrap-up work now. I think that is appropriate. We get, frankly, more attention, and it also will help conclude sooner tomorrow.

THANKS OF THE SENATE TO THE VICE PRESIDENT

Mr. LOTT. I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now proceed to Senate Resolution 304, introduced earlier today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

THANKS OF THE SENATE TO THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now proceed to Senate Resolution 305, introduced earlier today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 305) tendering the thanks of the Senate to the President pro tempore for the courteous, dignified, and impartial manner in which he has presided over the deliberations of the Senate.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 305) was agreed to as follows:

S. RES. 305

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate are hereby tendered to the Honorable Strom Thurmond, President pro tempore of the Senate, for the courteous, dignified, and impartial manner in which he has presided over its deliberations during the second session of the One Hundred Fifth Congress.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I want to add one note. I have never seen a more diligent Senator than Senator THURMOND has been in opening the Senate. He and Senator BYRD are living institutions. They have reverence for this institution. Many times, Senator THURMOND had been up late, had committee hearings, had been involved in moving the Thurmond bill, which was the armed services authorization bill, and had worked well into the night for a year. But when the Senate would open at 8:30, 9 o'clock, or 9:30, he was in the Chair and always very kind to our Chaplain. That exemplifies what the Senate should really be like. So I add my special appreciation to the President pro tempore.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

MORNING BUSINESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. MACK). Under the previous order, there will now be a period for the transaction of morning business not to extend beyond the hour of 1 p.m., with Senators permitted to speak therein for up to 5 minutes each.

Mr. GREGG. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I assume we remain in morning business until 1 o'clock; is that correct?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That's correct.

AGRICULTURAL CRISIS

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, we have just heard the Republican majority leader outline in brief the negotiations between the White House and the Congress as it relates to a final package of fiscal affairs for this Government for the coming year.

Over the course of the last several days, I have had the opportunity to attend a variety of those negotiations, and on occasion, based on my certain areas of knowledge, to be consulted as to what directions we might head.

I thought for a few moments this morning I would discuss briefly the agricultural package, because it is one of those major areas of concern and dispute for a period of time up until late last evening—that, of course, and the educational package that most of our colleagues are now becoming aware of.
