

A Cum Laude graduate of Pepperdine University, Judge Roberson received his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Southern California (USC) Law School in June 1958.

Prior to his February 1979 appointment to the Los Angeles Superior Court, Judge Roberson was a founding member of the law firm of Scarlett & Roberson. During his 20 year tenure on the bench, he served in many different assignments, including appointment to the Court of Appeal and to the Appellate Department of the Los Angeles Superior Court. He sat in both the Criminal and Civil Trial Courts. Judge Roberson authored numerous opinions, five of which were published, including the frequently cited opinion of Younan v. Equifax, Inc.

From 1991 to 1996 Judge Roberson served as Presiding Judge of the Appellate Department of the Los Angeles Superior Court. In recognition of his exemplary contributions to jurisprudence, in 1997 Judge Roberson received the "Justice Bernard S. Jefferson Jurist of the Year Award" presented by the Langston Bar Association, which earlier in his career had honored him with the organization's award for "Outstanding Legal Ability." He is also the recipient of the "Outstanding Alumni Award," presented by the University of Southern California Eubonics Support Group.

During his remarkable career, Judge Roberson also devoted considerable time as President of the John M. Langston Bar Association, Trustee of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, President of the Los Angeles Criminal Courts Bar Association, and as President of USC's Law School Alumni Association. An individual of tremendous character and integrity, and an erudite and seasoned legal scholar, Judge Roberson has lectured on civil procedure at California State University, Los Angeles, and appeared before numerous Bar Associations as a professional panelist and moderator.

Mr. Speaker, it is indeed an honor to pay tribute to Judge Roberson today. I commend him for his outstanding service to the citizens of Los Angeles, and wish him a long, healthy, and prosperous retirement.

INTRODUCTION OF LEGISLATION TO INCREASE VETERANS' BURIAL BENEFITS

HON. BERNARD SANDERS

OF VERMONT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 9, 1999

Mr. SANDERS. Mr. Speaker, today I will introduce legislation to increase the burial benefits for certain veterans from the current allowance of $300 to $600. This will represent the first increase in the burial benefit in 20 years.

Current law allows a funeral benefit of $300 for veterans who were receiving disability pay or pensions, or those who were eligible for pensions but who weren't receiving them. This was intended to help defray the costs of funerals for the surviving families. However, Congress has not seen fit to increase this allowance since 1978, and it is past time to do so.

Just before the end of World War I, Congress created a funeral allowance of up to $100 for some war veterans. After World War II, the maximum allowance was increased to $150, and, in 1978, it was increased to $300—where it is today.

When the House was deliberating an increase in 1958, several members rose to point out that it had been 12 years since the last increase in this modest benefit, and that the benefit level was no longer realistic. They said increasing the benefit for the families of those veterans who were eligible for it was "long overdue," and showed that Congress was aware of the economic realities faced by those families. I think, if those Members were here today, they would be saying the same things.

Everyone understands that because of inflation a proper memorial, either a funeral or a cremation, if far expensive in 1998 that it was in 1958, or 1978. A funeral, today, can run thousands of dollars, creating a burden on a bereaved family at a difficult time. I don't think it is asking too much to increase this small benefit for these veterans, which is why I will introduce legislation to double it, to $600.

When members of Congress created this allowance after World War I, they did so because they believed that every veteran receiving disability pay or a pension had a right to be buried with dignity, and without undue financial hardships for the family. That principle was true then, and it remains true today.

FLEETWOOD HOMES OF TENNESSEE WINS THE 1998 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS OF CUSTOMER SATISFACTION AWARD

HON. BART GORDON

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 9, 1999

Mr. GORDON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Fleetwood Homes of Tennessee, an organization that has achieved distinction for its outstanding work to ensure comfortable living.

I want to offer my personal congratulations on a great job in customer satisfaction again this year. The 1998 National Champions of Customer Satisfaction Award is a distinguished achievement in itself, but this is the fifth year that this organization has been recognized. The continual satisfaction they have provided their customers makes this an even more remarkable accomplishment.

This award is based on customer satisfaction with the quality of their home after a period of six months. Fleetwood has received a 95.3% positive response after this period of time, making this organization the highest rated out of 46 manufacturers across the United States. This is quite an incredible number of people in Tennessee and across the nation that are satisfied with their service from Fleetwood Homes.

I particularly want to recognized the office in Westmoreland, Tennessee that has received the award for their outstanding service in the Sixth District. They have not only achieved this particular award five out of the ten years it has been presented but also have gained recognition by receiving the Division Champion Award. I am very proud to have a company of such high standards in service and quality in my district.

I want to congratulate Fleetwood once again on this accomplishment and thank them for satisfying so many Tennesseans with their efforts. I hope to see this organization continue with its success in the future and encourage them to keep up the great work.
