EXPRESSING APPRECIATION TO BARRY WOLK ON HIS RETIREMENT

Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 58, submitted earlier today by Senators LOTT and DASCHLE.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 58) relating to the retirement of Barry J. Wolk.

The Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, on March 25, 1999, Barry Wolk, who has faithfully served the United States Senate for nearly 24 years, will retire. Barry began his career in September 1975 as Technical Advisor to the Secretary of the Senate. In January of 1983, he was appointed Director of Printing Services, and in November 1996, Barry assumed the responsibilities of Director of the newly created Office of Printing and Document Services.

Since 1996, the Office of Printing and Document Services has served as liaison to the Government Printing Office, managing all of the Senate's official printing. The office assists the Senate by coordinating the preparation, scheduling, and delivery of Senate legislation, hearing transcripts, committee prints and other documents to be printed by GPO. In addition, the office assigns publication numbers to each of these documents; orders all blank paper, envelopes and letterhead for the Senate; and prepares page counts of all Senate hearing transcripts in order to compensate commercial reporting companies for the preparation of hearings. The Office of Printing and Document Services is also responsible for providing copies of legislation and public laws to the Senate and general public.

I commend Barry Wolk for his dedicated service to this institution and wish him many years of health and happiness in his retirement.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I am pleased today to recognize Barry Wolk, Director of Printing and Document Services, as he concludes over 23 years of service to the United States Senate. I know I speak for all of my colleagues, their staffs and others in the Senate community in acknowledging his excellence service. The Senate is well served by staff such as Mr. Wolk—people who are dedicated to the Senate and serve without partisanship year after year in carrying out critical administrative functions without which any institution could not carry out its mission.

Mr. Wolk has spent his Senate career serving in the Office of the Secretary of the Senate. He has carried out the Secretary's statutory responsibilities to ensure that Senate committee hearings are printed and has supplied Senators' offices and committees with stationary and other necessary items. He also assisted the Secretary in reducing the cost of these services through automation.

The Senate is fortunate to have so many long-term and dedicated employees like Barry Wolk. As Barry leaves the Senate and enters a new phase of his life, I join my colleagues in wishing him and his family well.

Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to; that the preamble be agreed to; that the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table; and that any statements relating to the resolution appear at the appropriate place in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 58) was agreed.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, is as follows:

S. RES. 58

Whereas, Barry J. Wolk will retire from service to the United States Senate after twenty-four years as a member of the staff of the Secretary of the Senate;

Whereas, his hard work and dedication resulted in his appointment to the position of

Director of Printing and Document Services on November 16, 1996;

Whereas, as Director of Printing and Document Services, he has executed the important duties and responsibilities of his office with efficiency and constancy;
