Mrs. LOWEY and Mr. PALLONE changed their vote from "aye" to "no." So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. HASTINGS of Washington. Madam Speaker, on rollcall No. 41, I was inadvertently detained. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes."

Mr. MINGE. Madam Speaker, during rollcall vote No. 41, on passage of the Educational Partnership Flexibility Act, H.R. 800, I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Madam Speaker, earlier today I was inadvertently detained away from the floor during the vote on final passage of H.R. 800. This was my only opportunity to question Attorney General Janet Reno about a heinous murder which occurred in my congressional district. The suspect fled to Mexico, and 15 months later we are still awaiting extradition of this suspect to the United States. Had I been present I would have voted "aye."
