SENATE RESOLUTION 96—TO EXPRESS THE SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING A PEACEFUL PROCESS OF SELF-DETERMINATION IN EAST TIMOR, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Mr. LEAHY (for himself, Mr. FEINGOLD, Mr. REED, Mr. HARKIN, Mr. MCCONNELL, Mr. MOYNIHAN, and Mr. KOHL) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations:

S. RES. 96

Whereas United Nations-sponsored negotiations between the Governments of Indonesia and Portugal have resulted in significant and encouraging progress toward a resolution of East Timor's political status;

Whereas on January 27, 1999, President Habibie expressed a willingness to consider independence for East Timor if a majority of the East Timorese reject autonomy in a planned August 8, 1999 ballot organized by the United Nations;

Whereas despite President Habibie's efforts to bring about a peaceful resolution of the political status of East Timor, the arming of anti-independence militias by some members of the Indonesian military has contributed to increased political tension and violence;

Whereas since January 1999, violence and human rights abuses by anti-independence militias has increased dramatically resulting in the displacement of thousands of East Timorese villagers and scores of deaths;

Whereas since March 1999, hundreds of civilians may have been killed, injured or disappeared in separate attacks by anti-independence militias;

Whereas there are also reports of killings of anti-independence militia members;

Whereas the killings in East Timor should be fully investigated and the individuals responsible brought to justice;

Whereas access to East Timor by international human rights monitors, humanitarian organizations is severely limited, and members of the press have been threatened;

Whereas a stable and secure environment in East Timor is necessary for a free and fair ballot on East Timor's political status;

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the United States should promptly contribute to the United Nations Trust Fund which will provide support for the East Timor ballot process;

(2) the President, Secretary of State and Secretary of Defense should intensify their efforts to urge the Indonesian Government and military to—

(a) disarm and disband anti-independence militias; and

(b) grant full access to East Timor by international human rights monitors, humanitarian organizations, and the press;

(3) the President, after consultation with the United Nations Secretary General, should report to the Congress not later than 15 days after passage of this Resolution, on steps taken by the Indonesian government and military to ensure a stable and secure environment in East Timor, including those steps described in subparagraphs (2) (a and b); and

(4) any agreement for the sale, transfer, or licensing of any military equipment for Indonesia entered into by the United States should state that the equipment will not be used in East Timor.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, today I am submitting a resolution expressing the sense of the Senate regarding a peaceful process of self-determination in East Timor. I am joined by Senators FEINGOLD, REED, HARKIN, MCCONNELL, MOYNIHAN, and KOHL.

A year ago I doubt anyone would have predicted that a settlement of East Timor's political status would be in sight.

While there are many obstacles and dangers ahead, we should take note of what has been accomplished. In the past year:

President Suharto relinquished power. The Indonesian Government endorsed a ballot on autonomy, which is planned for August 8th.

The United Nations, Indonesia, and Portugal are to sign an agreement today on the procedures for that vote.

If the East Timorese people reject autonomy, there is every expectation that East Timor will be on the road to independence.

The resolution that I am submitting today recognizes the positive steps that have been taken.

But it also expresses our deep concern that since January, when Indonesian President Habibie expressed the willingness to consider independence for East Timor, violence and intimidation by anti-independence militias backed by members of the Indonesian military has increased dramatically.

The perpetrators of the violence want to sabotage the vote on East Timor's future.

I spoke with one East Timorese man today, Mr. Francisco Da Costa, who witnessed the April 6th massacre of scores of people in the village of Liquica.

An Op Ed article in today's New York Times by East Timorese lawyer Aniceto guterres Lopez says it all. He wrote: "With arms, money and a license for reckless rampages, the militia leaders have openly threatened death to anyone opposed to continued Indonesian occupation."

I received a report earlier today that Mr. Lopez' house is surrounded and he has been threatened with death. Bishop Belo, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize and one of the most courageous people I have ever had the privilege to meet, has also been threatened.
