PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 106th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 145

WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1999

No. 126

House of Representatives

The House met at 9 a.m.

The Chaplain, Reverend James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

We know, O God, that people in distress pray for peace and there is no peace; people pray for the stilling of the storm and there is none; people look for healing and yet the illness rages. O gracious God, creator of life and the rock of ages, speak to us in the depths of our souls with eternal hope and grace and strength that You alone can give so we can face the ravages that seem often to rule the world and face that world with confidence and with inner peace. Bless us this day and every day, we pray. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. There will be 15 one-minutes on each side.

PRESIDENT VETOES TAX RELIEF PACKAGE

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, oftentimes politicians talk about improving people's lives, but usually that is about as far as it goes, just talk.

Well, true to form, yesterday the President had an opportunity to sign into law a bill that would directly help the American taxpayers, but he did not.

The tax relief package just vetoed by this President would have given working families more freedom to run their lives the way they see fit, more freedom giving them more power, more time, more control over their lives. It would have reduced the marriage tax penalty, one of the most blatantly unfair demons in the Tax Code. It would have made it easier for workers to buy and cover themselves with health inurance. It would have made it easier for parents to save for their children's education. It would have eliminated the death tax, making it easier to pass on the family farm or family business to loved ones after a lifetime of work. It would have made it easier to invest and save for our future.

Balanced and fair, it would have provided substantial debt reduction, protected Social Security and Medicare, and provided tax relief to American taxpayers. And Washington would have gotten a little less so that hard-working, taxpaying families could have a little more.

I yield back the balance of any money Mr. and Mrs. America have left in their pockets.

GUN CONTROL LEGISLATION

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, for 5 months, common sense gun safety measures have been stymied by the Republican leadership. Our efforts to close the loopholes that give kids and criminals easy access to guns have been repeatedly stifled. Every day results in lives that are lost.

Thirteen children in this country are killed by guns every day, 13 American youngsters every single day. The other side argues that no laws can stop bad men with evil in their hearts from shooting innocent people. Perhaps they are right. But they are masking a very important truth.

I am sad to say that thousands of children are killed by guns by accident. These children find loaded guns without safety locks and they pull the trigger. The frequency of these deaths is heartbreaking, and they could be prevented.

I urge my colleagues to pass the common sense measures that could reduce our country's epidemic of gun deaths.
