

conveyance lands containing hot springs in order to conduct scientific research. It also ensures that such research can be conducted and that the results of such research can be used without any compensation to Elim. This subparagraph also provides an equal right to Elim to conduct such research on the hot springs and to use the results of the research without compensation to the United States.

Subsection (c)(5)(F) provides for the retention of a covenant that restricts commercial development of the hot springs by Elim to a maximum of 15% of the hot springs and 15% of the land within ¼ mile of the hot springs. This subparagraph also provides that any commercial development of those hot springs will not alter the natural hydrologic or thermal system associated with the hot springs. The provision makes clear that at least 85% of the lands within ¼ mile of the hot springs should be left in their natural state.

Subsection (c)(5)(G) provides that retaining the right to exercise prosecutorial discretion in the enforcement of any covenant, reservation, term or condition does not waive the right to enforce such covenant, reservation, term or condition.

Subsection (c)(6)(A) provides for the Secretary and Elim, acting in good faith, to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) to implement Subsection (c). The subparagraph requires that the MOU include reasonable measures to protect plants and animals in the hot springs and within ¼ mile of the hot springs. This subparagraph requires that the parties agree to meet periodically to review the MOU and to amend/replace as extended.

Subsection (c)(6)(B) provides for Elim to incorporate the covenants, reservations, terms and conditions set forth in subsection (c) in any deed or other instrument by which Elim divests itself of any interest in all or portion of the Conveyance Lands.

Subsection (c)(6)(C) requires that the BLM, in consultation with Elim, will reserve easements under subsection 17(b) of this Act.

Subsection (c)(6)(D) provides for the retention of other easements by the BLM, in consultation with Elim, including the right of the public to enter upon and travel along the Tubutulik River and Clear Creek within the Conveyance Lands. This subparagraph provides that the easements shall include trails confined to foot travel along each bank of the Tubutulik River and Clear Creek. This subparagraph requires also that trails be twenty-five feet wide and upland of the ordinary high water mark. It also provides for including one-acre sites along the two water courses referenced, that the sites be selected in consultation with Elim and that they be utilized for launching and taking out water craft as well as for short term (twenty-four hours) camping, unless Elim consents to a longer period.

Subsection (c)(6)(E) provides that the inholders within the boundaries of the Conveyance Lands have rights of ingress and egress. It provides also that the inholder may not exercise these rights in a manner that might result in substantial damage to the surface of the lands and may not make any permanent improvements to the conveyance lands without the consent of Elim.

Subsection (c)(6)(F) provides that the Bureau of Land Management may reserve an easement for the Iditarod National Historic Trail in the land conveyance to Elim.

Subsection (c)(7) authorizes appropriations as may be necessary to implement subsection (c).

Section two. Common Stock to Adopted-Under Descendants.

Section 7(h) of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act sets forth the general rules pertaining to the issuance and transfer of common stock in an Alaska Native Corporation, which stock is referred to as Settlement Common Stock. Generally, the holder of Settlement Common Stock is not permitted to sell, pledge or otherwise alienate this stock. However, Section 7(h)(1)(C) of ANCSA provides certain exceptions to the general prohibition on the alienation of Settlement Common Stock. Under Section 7(h)(1)(C)(iii), the holder of Settlement Common Stock may transfer some or all of the Settlement Common Stock to a close family member by inter vivos gift. Gifts of Settlement Common Stock are permitted to, among others, a child, grandchild or great-grandchild.

Alaska state law has been interpreted to sever, for all purposes, the relationship between a family and a child who has been adopted out, or for whom parental rights have been relinquished or terminated. Thus, under existing law, a holder of Settlement Common Stock may not inter vivos gift transfer Settlement Common Stock to a child who has been adopted by another family. The proposed amendment in Section 2 will permit the biological family of an Alaska Native child to make an inter vivos gift to that child of Settlement Common Stock, regardless of the child's adoption into a non-Native family, or the relinquishment or termination of parental rights. The enactment of the provisions of Section 2 will resolve the problem currently faced by some Alaska Native children who are unable to receive shares in an Alaska Native Corporation because the relationship with their biological family has been legally severed under Alaska State law.

Section three. Definition of Settlement Trust.

Congress enacted the settlement trust option in ANCSA to allow Alaska Native Corporations to establish trusts to hold assets for the benefit of Alaska Native Shareholders. As the law currently stands, these trusts may only benefit holders of Settlement Common Stock. The amendments contained in Section three will permit Native Corporation shareholders, by the vote of a majority of shares, to extend this benefit of ANCSA to all of the Native people in their community, including the children and grandchildren of the original stockholders, regardless of whether they yet own stock in the Native Corporation. This amendment redefines "settlement trust" to permit Native Corporations to establish settlement trusts in which potential beneficiaries include shareholders, Natives and descendants of Natives. Because ANCSA was enacted to benefit all Natives, this amendment is in keeping with the original intent of that legislation. At the same time, the interests of Alaska Native Corporation shareholders are protected because this option is available only to those Corporations whose shareholders vote, by a majority of all outstanding voting shares, to benefit non-shareholders

TRIBUTE TO THE PEOPLE OF WAMU

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 18, 1999

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask the House to join me in honoring WAMU 88.5 FM's regional public affairs program, Metro Connection, which recently won not one but two Achievement in Radio Awards in the 13th annual competition sponsored by the March of Dimes to recognize excellence in Washington area radio. Washington area residents are especially proud that this is the fourth consecutive year that Metro Connection is being honored as the best locally produced public affairs long-form program. Washingtonians have long admired the professionalism and wonderfully interesting programming of those sharing in the honors, including News Director Kathy Merritt, line producer David Furst, and reporters Annie Wu, Lakshmi Singh, Julianne Welby, and Lex Gillespie. Metro Connection also won the best news series award for its "20th Century Washington" series, a review of the city of Washington as it has evolved during this century. Kathy Merritt, David Furst, Annie Wu, Lex Gillespie and Andrew Pergam, who received this award, take us on a fascinating journey in a 10 part series, one story for each decade of the century, with special features each month. This is radio at its substantive and interesting best. Those of us fortunate enough to live within listening range of WAMU's Metro Connection value its focus on us, on where we live, and on what we do. Metro Connection is an especially welcome visitor in Washington area homes on Saturday mornings at 11 a.m.

Mr. Speaker, many Members of the House and Senate count themselves among WAMU's 454,000 avid listeners in the Washington area. Congressional Members of every political stripe listen with appreciation to WAMU's variety of news and public affairs programming, to its celebrated and elegant talk show host Diane Rehm, to Public Interest with Kojo Nnamdi, and to its bluegrass and other music. Now Metro Connection and its creators have brought honor to their medium and their hometown station. WAMU is a beacon of broadcasting excellence. I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the people who have made WAMU an award winning resource for the residents of the Washington area.

HONORING THE LATE JOE SERNA

HON. NANCY PELOSI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 18, 1999

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, Joe Serna was a good man and an outstanding Mayor. I was honored to join my colleagues this week and support House Resolution 363, recognizing and honoring Sacramento, California, Mayor Joe Serna, Jr., and expressing the condolences of the House of Representatives to his family and the people of Sacramento on his death.

As a son of an immigrant farm worker, he learned the values of hard work which exemplified his career. Eager to help others, Joe entered the Peace Corps in 1966. When he returned to California, he joined the faculty at California State University, Sacramento, in 1969 becoming a professor of Government. He was so good at energizing and inspiring his students that in 1991 he received the Distinguished Faculty Award.

Joe Serna decided to continue serving his community by being first elected to the Sacramento City Council in 1981 and reelected in 1985 and 1989. He was then elected mayor of Sacramento in 1992 and again in 1996.

Joe Botz of Sacramento wrote a Letter-to-Editor in the Sacramento Bee last week, which
