NAYS—13

NOT VOTING—27

1232

Mr. MOAKLEY changed his vote from "nay" to "yea."

So the bill was passed.
 The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:
 Mr. SHADEGG. Mr. Speaker, I was attending my daughter's high school graduation and was unable to vote on rollcall No. 210. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. NETHERCUTT. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained during rollcall vote 209 and 210. I request that the RECORD reflect that had I been present I would have voted "aye" on both votes.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mrs. CAPPS. Mr. Chairman, today the House considered H.R. 4475, the Transportation Appropriations bill for FY2001. Due to an important family event, I was unable to vote on the measure. Had I been here, I would have voted "yes" on rollcall No. 210 and "no" on rollcall No. 209.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I take this time for the purpose of inquiring from the majority leader the schedule for the remainder of the day and next week.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BONIOR. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to announce that the House has completed its legislative business for the week.

The House will next meet on Monday, May 22, at 12:30 p.m. for morning hour and 2:00 p.m. for legislative business. We will consider a number of bills under suspension of the rules, a list of which will be distributed to Members' offices later today. On Monday, no recorded votes are expected before 6:00 p.m.

Mr. Speaker, it should be noted that there will be continuing work for a short period of time in this Chamber today on the Intelligence reauthorization, but no votes will be ordered.

On Tuesday, May 23, and the balance of the week, the House will consider the following measures, all of which will be subject to rules:

H.R. 4461, agriculture appropriations for fiscal year 2001;

Legislative branch appropriations for fiscal year 2001;

H.R. 4444, authorizing the extension of nondiscriminatory treatment to the People's Republic of China;

H.R. 3916, the Telephone Excise Tax Repeal Act; and

H.R. 1304, the Quality Health-Care Coalition Act of 1999.

Mr. Speaker, conferees are also working very hard to wrap up their work on S. 761, the Millennium Digital Commerce Act, and H.R. 2559, the Agricultural Risk Protection Act. I am hopeful that we will be able to schedule both of these conference reports for consideration in the House next week.

Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding, and I wish all my colleagues a good weekend back in their districts.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for the information, and would ask him what days he expects the two appropriation bills, the agriculture bill and the legislative branch bill, to come to the floor?

Mr. ARMEY. I thank the gentleman for his request. It is our hope and expectation we will do agriculture appropriations on Tuesday, and expect then also to follow up with the other appropriation bill as quickly as possible.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, on the China debate, the Speaker has indicated to me that he expects that to occur on Wednesday. Is that the gentleman's understanding on the debate and vote on China?

Mr. ARMEY. Again, if the gentleman will continue to yield, I think it is probably better to say Wednesday or Thursday. We want it as soon as possible, but, as the gentleman knows, on votes of this magnitude any number of things can come along. So it will be Wednesday or Thursday; hopefully Wednesday.

Mr. BONIOR. So it is possible that it may slip until Thursday?

Mr. ARMEY. It is possible. I do not anticipate that, but I think it is only prudent to say that.
