PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 107th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 147

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2001

No. 9

House of Representatives

The House was not in session today. Its next meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 30, 2001, at 2 p.m.

Senate

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2001

The Senate met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

Omnipotent God, who hung the stars in their place, put planets in their orbits, and created humankind on this planet in this universe among universes, You are our Creator, Redeemer, and Lord. Everything within us rallies to express our praise. You have created us to love You, and when love for You is the motive of all we do, all of life is worshiped. Today we want our work to be our way of telling You how much we love You. What a privilege You have given us to serve You out of love in this Senate of this Nation You love and have blessed so bountifully!

Therefore, we commit this day to glorify You so that even mundane duties will serve as a magnificent praise to You. Help us to love and care for the people with whom we work as if in them we meet You dressed in the manifold variety of human personalities. May our constant goal be to do our work with excellence as devotion to You. "Oh Yahweh, our Adonai, how excellent is Your name in all the earth. For You have created us a little lower than Elohim, Yourself, and crowned us with glory and honor to assume dominion over the works of Your hands."—Psalm 8: 1, 5-6. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable JOHN ENSIGN, a Senator from the State of Nevada, led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The acting majority leader is recognized.

SCHEDULE

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, today the Senate will be in a period for morning business until 11 a.m. with Senators DURBIN, MURKOWSKI, and COLLINS in control of the time. At 11 a.m., the Senate will resume consideration of Governor Thompson's nomination to be Secretary of HHS. There will be up to 30 minutes of debate on the nomination with a vote scheduled to occur at 11:30 a.m. Additional nominations are scheduled for hearings during today's session, and it is hoped that we can expedite those nominations for full Senate action as early as this afternoon. I thank my colleagues for their attention.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the leadership time is reserved.

MORNING BUSINESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, there now will be a period for the transaction of morning business not to extend beyond the hour of 11 a.m. with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each. Under the previous order, the time between 10:30 a.m. and 10:50 a.m. shall be under the control of the Senator from Alaska.

The Senator from Alaska is recognized.

NOMINATION OF GALE NORTON

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, for the benefit of all Members, I want to advise them that the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources just concluded reporting out favorably the nomination of Gale Norton as the President's nominee for Secretary of the Interior. The committee vote was 18-2. I don't think there is any question that the nominee, in effect, received a mandate from our committee.

It is interesting to note the thoroughness under which the Energy and Natural Resources Committee conducted 2 days of hearings. I particularly thank Senator BINGAMAN, who
