COMMEMORATING MERCER COUNTY'S TRIBUTE TO MRS. NELL FRANKLIN ON MAY 10, 2001

HON. JOHN A. BOEHNER

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, Nellie Irene Roop Franklin was born on a farm Southeast of Fort Recovery, Ohio, a farm that has been in the family since 1896. Nell graduated from Fort Recovery High School in 1934 and is married to Darrell Franklin. They will soon be celebrating 60 years of marriage. Nell and her husband attend the Fort Recovery Methodist Church.

Nell began her career working for a beauty shop, where she continued to work until her retirement 40 years later. During this time she was elected to village council and then filled an unexpired term as Mayor. She was later reelected and spent 19 years as Mayor of Fort Recovery. Following her retirement from the beauty business, she remained involved in local politics by working for the Mercer County Board of Elections. She spent 17 years serving as both Director and Deputy Director. She has a total of 16 years spent as Treasurer of the Mercer County Republican Central Committee and 10 years as the President of the Mercer County Republican Women's Organization. Nell attended two Republican National Conventions as a delegate and alternate delegate from the 8th Congressional District. Nell has never missed voting in an election since she was 21.

Nell has received many awards for her community involvement including the Fort Recovery High School Distinguished Alumni Award given to her in 1997, the Service to Community Award presented to her by the Fort Recovery Masonic Lodge #539 in September of 2000, and the Mercer County Chamber of Commerce Achievement Award awarded to her in 1996. In addition, her name is listed in the Fort Recovery Hall of Fame.

In both a professional and personal capacity, Nell has gone above and beyond in providing service to her community. Her hard work and dedication should serve as an example and an inspiration for us all. Every American should aspire to this kind of enthusiastic commitment to their community. I am proud to know and represent Nell Franklin in Congress—a hard-working woman who spent her life dedicating herself to the ideals that will help insure our country remains a great place to live with hope and opportunity for all.

IN HONOR OF THE VIETNAMESE COMMUNITY OF CLEVELAND

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to remember one of the most historic days in Vietnam history and to honor the numerous agencies and churches that helped thousands of refugees adapt to a new life in the greater Cleveland Area.

Mr. Speaker, April 30, 1975, represents one of the most historic dates in the history of Vietnam. It was on this date, twenty-six years ago, the communist troops completed their conquest of Vietnam. Mr. Speaker today, twenty-six years later, I rise to honor the memory of the 500,000 South Vietnamese soldiers and the 58,135 American service personnel who made the ultimate sacrifice in the name of freedom and the defense of democracy in the conflict.

Mr. Speaker, today I also rise to join the Vietnamese Community of Cleveland to congratulate and thank the many agencies and churches in the Cleveland area for their outstanding efforts in providing much needed assistance to the Vietnamese refugees as they adapted to their lives in Cleveland. They represent the very best that Cleveland has to offer, and their assistance to the thousands of refugees has helped the Vietnamese Community grow.

I ask my fellow colleagues to join me in rising on this special day, to honor the memory of the hundreds of thousands of men and women who gave their life in the name of freedom and to thank, with the Vietnamese Community of Great Cleveland, the many agencies and churches that helped improve the lives of thousands of Vietnamese refugees.

TRIBUTE TO THE DICKEY DELOSS RECIPIENT, GOLD KEY AWARD

HON. KEN CALVERT

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. CALVERT. Mr. Speaker, I am honored today to pay tribute to Dickey DeLoss as she is presented with the Gold Key Award from Soroptimist International of Riverside on April 24th. In my congressional district of Riverside, California, we are fortunate to have men and women that not only unselfishly give their time and talents to the community but find their own lives enriched in return. Dickey DeLoss epitomizes this and more.

Soroptimist International of the Americas, a volunteer service organization for women, was formed in 1921 with a simple mission—to “make a difference for women.” Members represent a wide array of professions, including doctors, attorneys, teachers, chief executive officers, business owners and government officials. The group's name comes from two Latin words meaning “best for women.”

Dickey DeLoss, as a Soroptimist, has unquestionably become a leader of women in her community. Her service began more than 20 years ago. Since then, Dickey has given tirelessly, engaging in awareness, advocacy and action through an incredible array of community life, including volunteering with: Alternatives to Domestic Violence, Deaf Awareness Commission, Evergreen Cemetery, County of Riverside-Division on Student Programs, Law Enforcement Policy Commission, YWCA, Youth Accountability Board and Human Relations Commission for the City of Riverside.

As a realtor since 1967 and broker since 1969, Dickey has led the way for women in the Inland Empire and received countless awards and recognitions. In fact, she became only the second woman in the 20 year history of the Riverside Board of Realtors to be President in 1975 and was the first woman president of the Magnolia Center Chamber of Commerce. Dickey was honored as California “Woman of the Year” in 1995 and has received over 73 other awards.

Mr. Speaker, volunteers are critical to fostering a spirit of understanding, good citizenship and good government in the United States and worldwide. The women of Soroptimist International of Riverside exemplify this by offering young women role models, thereby assuring that an active interest in the civic, culture, social and moral welfare of our communities is passed on from generation to generation. I congratulate Dickey DeLoss on her award and commend her for her work within the community.

IN SPECIAL RECOGNITION OF EMILY A. GROSS ON HER APPOINTMENT TO ATTEND THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE ACADEMY

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay special tribute to an outstanding young woman from Ohio's Fifth Congressional District. I am happy to announce that Emily A. Gross of Norwalk, Ohio, has accepted an appointment to attend the United States Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Mr. Speaker, Emily's offer of appointment poises her to attend the United States Air Force Academy this fall with the incoming cadet class of 2005. Attending one of our nation's military academies is an invaluable experience that offers a world-class education and demands the very best that these young men and women have to offer. Truly, it is one of the most challenging and rewarding undertakings of their lives.

Emily brings an enormous amount of leadership, service and dedication to the incoming class of Air Force Academy cadets. While attending St. Paul High School, Emily attained a grade point average of 3.93, which places her tenth in a class of 68. In her high school career, Emily has been recognized as a National Honor Society Member, a Wendy's National Heisman Award Nominee, and has been counted in the Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Outside the classroom, Emily has distinguished herself as an excellent student-athlete. On the fields of competition, she has earned numerous letters and awards in volleyball and basketball. She has also been an active member of the Key Club, marching band and concert band.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to rise today to pay special tribute to Emily A. Gross. Our service academies offer the finest education and military training available anywhere in the world. I am confident that Emily will do very well during her career at the Air Force Academy and I ask my colleagues to join me in wishing her well as she begins her service to the nation.
