

EXTENSION OF REMARKS/STATEMENT BY CONGRESSMAN BOEHNER TO COMMEMORATING NATIONAL ALCOHOL AWARENESS MONTH

HON. JOHN A. BOEHNER

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today during National Alcohol Awareness Month to recognize the Century Council and the distilled spirits industry for their latest efforts to fight drunk driving.

On April 10, 2001, in a landmark announcement, the Century Council joined by Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) announced that they will work together to help states implement comprehensive legislation to combat the devastating problem of drunk driving.

America's leading distillers have had a long-standing commitment to fighting drunk driving and maintain that it is the responsibilities of the states to enact an appropriate blood alcohol concentration level.

Launched in May of 1991, the Century Council is funded by America's leading distillers to promote responsible decision-making regarding alcohol consumption and to fight alcohol abuse, focusing on drunk driving and underage drinking problems.

I am pleased to join President Bush and Secretary Mineta in commending the Century Council, the distilled spirits industry, and Mothers Against Drunk Driving for their lifesaving efforts.

TRIBUTE TO THE AUXILIARY OF RIVERSIDE COMMUNITY HOSPITAL ON THEIR 75th ANNIVERSARY

HON. KEN CALVERT

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. CALVERT. Mr. Speaker, my congressional district in Riverside, California is extremely fortunate to have a dynamic and dedicated group of community volunteers who willingly and unselfishly give of their time and talents to ensure the well-being of our city and county. These individuals work tirelessly to enrich and brighten the lives of so many at Riverside Community Hospital. It is my distinct pleasure to honor and commend the Auxiliary of Riverside Community Hospital today as they celebrate their 75th Anniversary on April 28th.

Volunteers of the Auxiliary of Riverside Community Hospital have donated millions of hours of service to the hospital and the community over the last 75 years. Fund-raising before 1997 helped to significantly improve services at the hospital. And since then, the Auxiliary has raised $50,000 for defibrillators for the Riverside City Fire Department, $75,000 for a mobile health vehicle to deliver free health services throughout the riverside area, and most recently $50,000 for dental equipment and $25,000 for health educational materials for the Eastside Health Center. The Auxiliary volunteers also raise funds for educational scholarships and seminars.

Volunteers of the Auxiliary give over 60,000 volunteer service hours a year to the Riverside Community Hospital in addition to all of their community work. Services that Auxiliary volunteers perform to augment the quality of health care at the hospital include: Discharging patients, clerical work, visiting patients, information desk, messenger service, maternity tea, lobby host and much more.

As we approach National Volunteer Week, from April 21 to April 28, it is fitting that we thank the Auxiliary volunteers for their dedication and service to better the lives committed to Riverside Community Hospital's care and the enriched atmosphere that their presence creates. 2001's designation as International Year of Volunteers also reminds us that the men, women and youth across our nation who volunteer deserve recognition and thanks for giving back to their local community, state and nation.

Mr. Speaker, I congratulate the Auxiliary of Riverside Community Hospital on its 75th anniversary and commend its local community and city service.

SUPPORT THE EARTHQUAKE LOSS
REDUCTION ACT OF 2001

HON. JERRY LEWIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Speaker, when a major earthquake hits our communities in California, one of the first things firefighters and police must do is make sure local hospitals are ready to handle injuries. Falling walls, buckling roads, flaming gas-main breaks—the aftermath of an earthquake can quickly turn an entire hospital into an emergency room.

Imagine, then, what a disaster it would be if one of the buildings destroyed in an earthquake is the only hospital for 100 miles around. This is the prospect faced by many residents in remote rural areas in California, like the Mojave Desert in my district. It is a chilling thought, and it is something that we must not allow to happen.

The California Legislature has mandated that it will not happen. By 2008, all hospitals in the state must be retrofitted or rebuilt to ensure they will remain standing in a major quake. This is an admirable goal and an absolute necessity. But it is also so expensive that small rural hospitals and major urban medical centers are worried they cannot afford the upgrade.

To help avoid this, my colleague MIKE THOMPSON and I have introduced the Earthquake Loss Reduction Act of 2001. It would begin the process of investing in mitigation rather than paying tens of billions of dollars in disaster relief for every natural disaster that occurs in this country.

In support of this measure, I would urge my colleagues to consider the following information provided to me by the California Healthcare Association:

HISTORY OF HOSPITAL SEISMIC MANDATE

The state of California in 1994 enacted sweeping legislation mandating stringent new hospital building seismic standards (SB 1953, Chapter 740, Statutes of 1994).

The legislation was approved in the wake of the January 1994 Northridge earthquake, which caused 23 hospitals to suspend some or all of their services and resulted in more than $3 billion in hospital-related damages.

No patient who was hospitalized during the Northridge earthquake died as a result of the tremor. No patient in any California hospital has died as a result of a building's structural failure due to an earthquake since 1971.

The seismic mandate requires all hospital buildings in the state to comply with more stringent seismic-safety mandates by specified deadlines—(1) by 2002, major non-structural

The specific regulations for this statute were not finalized until 1997, and the cost of the mandate was not fully understood until engineers thoroughly evaluated all of the state's hospital buildings as required by Jan. 1, 2001.

Thorough hospital building evaluation reports were submitted by hospitals throughout the state by Jan. 1, 2001. These reports were made public by the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development (OSHPD) on March 28, 2001.

Based on the evaluation reports, 78 percent of the hospitals in California have at least one building that is at risk of collapse during a major earthquake.

IMPACT OF LEGISLATION

There are approximately 2,700 general acute-care inpatient hospital buildings (at approximately 470 hospitals) that are required to meet the mandates of the seismic law.

The seismic mandates enacted by the Legislature in 1994 did not provide any financial assistance to hospitals to help defray the costs of these upgrades. The state's seismic law is an "unfunded mandate" on hospitals.

The current "hard construction" cost estimate to comply with the requirements of the state's seismic law is $24 billion. This cost is equivalent to the total undepreciated assets of all of California's hospitals. Additionally, hospitals will face significant additional costs including the cost of financing, land acquisition, reconfiguring parking and revenues lost during seismic retrofitting or construction.

California hospitals face mounting financial pressures. More than 60 percent of California's hospital—2 out of every 3—are currently losing money from operations. Nearly a third of the state's urban hospitals and more than 50 percent of rural and inner-city hospitals are losing money from all sources of income.

Many hospitals—especially rural and inner-city facilities—may not be able to raise the necessary capital to comply with the state's seismic law. Those that can't will be forced to close their doors or significantly reduce their services.

According to a December 2000 Standard & Poor's report, California's hospitals face "... deteriorating credit quality and more limited access to capital" than hospitals in other parts of the country. "Given the volatility of the health care sector, access to capital through bond financing has been greatly reduced for all but the strongest credits. Bond insurers have retreated from the sector, limiting exposure to higher-rated credits and charging significantly higher fees."

The seismic mandates do not account for the additional operating burdens faced by hospitals, including rising costs for pharmaceuticals and new technologies, and reduced
