

Zaharsky, recipient of this year's United Cerebral Palsy (UCP) of Hudson County, New Jersey, "Lifetime Achievement" Award.

As the first Executive Director of UCP, "Minnie" Zaharsky was instrumental in managing the overall operation of the agency. In an effort to address the growing needs of children suffering from cerebral palsy in Hudson County, Mrs. Zaharsky and the UCP successfully worked to obtain Medicaid coverage for children to receive therapies and services provided by the UCP. This fantastic feat made it possible for several families to provide their children with the necessary examinations and therapies needed to treat cerebral palsy.

During her tenure at UCP, Mrs. Zaharsky was humble and dynamic in her many roles. As a parent volunteer, she put in several hours answering phones, typing letters, scheduling appointments, and providing transportation to families who otherwise would not have had access to the facilities at UCP. Furthermore, she raised funds to keep the UCP agency in secure financial standing.

Whether she was organizing auctions to raise needed funds, or answering phones, Mrs. Zaharsky exemplified true leadership.

For her years of outstanding work and charitable dedication, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Mrs. Zaharsky for being one of the recipients of the UCP "Lifetime Achievement" Award.

SALUTING THE 2001 JOHNSON COUNTY, KANSAS YOUTH VOLUNTEER AWARD RECIPIENTS

HON. DENNIS MOORE

OF KANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 3, 2001

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I rise again today to salute twenty-eight outstanding young Kansans from Johnson County, Kansas, who will be recognized on Friday, May 4th, at an informal reception honoring their volunteer service. Youth Excelling in Service [YES], a program of the Volunteer Center of Johnson County, has invited Johnson County leaders and educators to this reception honoring the twenty-eight Outstanding Youth Volunteers who will be featured in the upcoming "Movers and Shakers" publication. I will present the young people with a Congressional Award for their contributions to the community, and YES will spotlight the role these committed young people play in addressing community needs.

Johnson County's young people are becoming increasingly involved in service to their community and the stories of their accomplishments are powerful. The twenty-eight "Movers and Shakers" to be honored at the reception testify to the fact my congressional district's young people see needs in their communities and are ready, willing and able to meet those needs by investing their time and skills. These young people are passionate about challenging, motivating and recruiting other young people to likewise take the plunge into volunteer service. I am pleased to have this opportunity to place in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD profiles of twelve "Movers and Shakers" who were not included in my RECORD submission of May 1st on this topic.

Snow Fain, 17, Blue Valley North High School. Snow volunteers with her parents through the Leawood Arts Council in addition to activities through Rotary, KC Art Coalition, Habitat for Humanity, her church and others. She has volunteered over 100 hours.

Lisa Kornfeld, 16, Shawnee Mission West High School. Through her activities with her school's service organization, JAWS (Join Active West Students), Lisa has volunteered over 100 hours. She has also volunteered through National Honor Society and Girls to Women.

Anna Clark and Aaryn Clark, 18, Olathe East High School. These twins have volunteered nearly 400 hours each through many different activities. They have spent the most time as camp counselors for children with physical or mental challenges. Other activities they have been a part of include Olathe Youth Court, tutoring and church projects. They have been volunteering through National Honor Society for two years.

Rachele Davis, 16, St. Thomas Aquinas High School. Rachele has volunteered over 225 hours in a variety of areas, including youth services, elderly assistance and homelessness. Her volunteer organizations include: Olathe Medical Center, Hunger House, National Historical Society of the DAR, Johnson County Christmas Bureau, and Johnson County 4-H.

Ryan Davis, 17, St. Thomas Aquinas High School. Ryan has accumulated 155 hours of volunteer service through the Johnson County 4-H, Habitat for Humanity, Johnson County Christmas Bureau, and Bikes and Trikes for Tykes. He often volunteers with his sister, Rachele Davis (listed previously).

Rosa Gabel, 18, Olathe South High School. Rosa's volunteer activities include: arts and crafts, youth services, collecting and donating items and gardening and groundskeeping work. She has worked with the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society on fundraising activities and also with the Johnson County Christmas Bureau.

Steve Evans, 18, Bishop Miege High School. Steve has served 300 hours as a volunteer through Johnson County Youth Court, where he is a youth attorney and judge. Additionally, Steve's activities have also included projects addressing hunger and homelessness.

Amy Johnson, 12, Leawood Middle School. Amy has served 58 hours of volunteer work through her school and the Kansas Humane Society. She has also volunteered for campaign work.

Brad Buser, 18, Mill Valley High School. Brad volunteers through a class at his high school and has accumulated over 150 hours of service. Brad's service areas include: youth services, collecting and donating goods, elderly assistance, hunger and homelessness, and gardening and groundskeeping.

Lori Wadham, 16, Blue Valley High School. Lori has completed 300 hours of community service through several organizations and in a variety of areas, including youth services, elderly assistance and home repair and building. She was inspired to volunteer through her 4-H club and plans to continue to expand her volunteer efforts.

Robby Smith, 16, Shawnee Mission East. Robby has been an active volunteer for Johnson County Youth Court. He has accumulated over 100 hours there as a defense attorney for youth with first-time, nonviolent offenses.

CELEBRATING CINCO DE MAYO
CON ORGULLO

HON. LUCILLE ROYBAL-ALLARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 3, 2001

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to bring attention to the historic day of Cinco de Mayo. This holiday, celebrated each year on the fifth of May, is a very symbolic and cultural day for people of Mexican ancestry.

Cinco de Mayo honors the 1862 victory of the Mexican armed forces against the invading French army in the Battle of Puebla, and marks an important milestone in Mexico's struggle to retain its sovereignty. It has since been a day when Latinos honor their spirit of struggle, dignity, and respect for their cultural heritage.

Unfortunately, many Cinco de Mayo celebrations have been marred by violence, overconsumption of alcohol, and other serious problems. This issue is compounded by the fact that Latino communities suffer disproportionately from the negative effects of alcohol use and abuse, high rates of alcohol-related diseases and death, an inordinate number of traffic fatalities and alcohol-related driving violations, and many types of alcohol involved violence.

In light of this, many persons of Mexican ancestry desire to have family oriented, alcohol and tobacco free Cinco de Mayo celebrations. Rather than partaking in festivities that continue to exploit people through the sale of large amounts of alcoholic beverages, they are choosing to focus on embracing and elevating the cultural significance of this historical event and Latinos in general.

The Latino Council on Alcohol and Tobacco (LCAT) has joined with CalPartners Coalition and California Latino Leadership United for Healthy Communities in their statewide Cinco de Mayo 2001 campaign, "Sembrando Nuestras Tradiciones." This campaign aims to make all residents of the U.S. aware of the true significance of the Cinco de Mayo, reduce the pernicious influence of the alcohol industry, draw public attention to the negative effects of alcohol use and abuse upon persons of Mexican ancestry, and promote alcohol and tobacco-free celebrations.

I commend the effort of these groups and encourage people to celebrate this important Mexican holiday with dignity and respect, to refrain from immoderate consumption of alcoholic beverages, to work to promote the health of the entire community, and to reject efforts by alcohol promoters who misuse Cinco de Mayo by engaging in advertising and promotions designed to encourage heavy drinking.
