

Now, I pray over the next couple of days that they find their direction and find their way to assist average Americans in making a more secure future for themselves and their families. They can leave this Capitol without doing anything, and they will be the do-nothing other body. I am trying to avoid using the term, because I do not want to be admonished by the Chair. But I think most Americans are disgusted by their lack of performance, and it will be reflected.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair must admonish the Member that it is a violation of House rules to speak disparagingly about Members of other body.

HAPPY 70TH BIRTHDAY TO MITZIE
WILSON, A PILLAR OF THE COM-MUNITY

(Mr. MASCARA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MASCARA. Mr. Speaker I rise today to pay tribute to Mitzie Wilson, an outstanding American, friend and neighbor from Charleroi, Pennsylvania, my hometown. She, her husband, Don, and her son, Glenn, are considered pillars of the community. She will celebrate her 70th birthday on January 17, 2002. We wish her a happy birthday and many more to come.

While many of us in Congress talk about the importance of family values, Mitzie and her family serve as a model that every American should emulate. They are the first to offer to take neighbors for doctor visits, pick up prescriptions at a drugstore, and shovel walks for elderly neighbors. As if that were not enough, her son is a volunteer firefighter in Charleroi, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Mascara and I have been the recipients of their kind acts.

Finally, Mitzie served our country as a member of the Air Forces, United States Air Force serving in Guam. Happy birthday, Mitzie. We are proud to know you and to be considered your friend.

TERRORISM IN INDONESIA MUST BE ADDRESSED AS PART OF WAR ON TERRORISM

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today out of concern over the serious internal terrorist attacks occurring in Indonesia.

A terrorist extremist group, Laskar Jihad, led by a man by the name of Jafar Umar Thalib, has caused tremendous destruction, death, and internal displacement of the Indonesian people.

In Poso, Central Sulawesi, villagers are presently fleeing in terror as Laskar Jihad attacks and burns their homes and kills innocent people.

Credible reports in the news media have revealed links because the Laskar Jihad and the al Qaeda organization. During the attacks in Poso, foreigners from countries like Pakistan and Afghanistan have been seen among the terrorists. There is not only a strong ideological link, but also an important financial link between al Qaeda and Laskar Jihad.

Mr. Speaker, it is vital that we work proactively with the Indonesian Government as their officials seek to appropriately respond to terrorism and as they continue to establish democracy and stability in their Nation.

This is another front in the international war on terrorism that should be addressed.

BIN LADEN CANNOT HIDE MUCH LONGER

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, Osama bin Laden is holed up in Tora Bora. Reports say that bin Laden is near the precipice of his great demise. The cornerstone of his condominium is crumbling, and they predict he will fall.

Think about it. Bin Laden was always one who was flexing his muscles, strutting his stuff, scaring people to death.

Beam me up. I now officially deem bin Laden as "bin hidem." This gutless coward from Tora Bora has no balsam, period.

I yield back with a famous quote of Mohammed Ali. Bin Laden can run, but bin Laden cannot hide much longer.

STAFF DESERVE RESPECT AND APPRECIATION

(Mr. PENCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, the Bible tells us that the testing of our faith develops perseverance, and perseverance must finish its work that we might be mature, complete, not lacking in anything.

At this hour, Mr. Speaker, as every day since the emergency adjournment of the Congress on October 17, my Washington staff labors on card tables and folding chairs in the relative obscurity of a Rayburn office building banquet hall. These dedicated young people have been exiled from our Washington office ever since we learned that trace elements of anthrax were discovered there; and they have been laboring, Mr. Speaker, with astonishing integrity and astonishing commitment and dedication to the thousands of people we serve across east central Indiana. Bill Smith, Ron Arnold, Jennifer Marsh, Patrick Wilson, Stephen Piepgrass, Ryan Fisher, Andrew Kincaid, Chris Kiefer, and Mary Breeding all deserve recognition for their patient endurance in the trial of serving and especially for their patience in putting up with me.

When I asked each one of them whether or not they might talk with their parents about a better place to work after 9-11 and even after the anthrax scare, I told them there was only one family that had to be in Washington, D.C. to serve the people in this district and that was mine; and to their undying credit, every one of them stayed. They labor at this very hour on behalf of the people of the second district, and they deserve our respect and appreciation.

THE LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT HATE CRIMES PREVENTION ACT

(Ms. WOOLSEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to urge the Republican leadership to bring the bill of the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. CONYERS), H.R. 1343, the Local Law Enforcement Hate Crimes Prevention Act, to the House floor before we leave next week.

Communities across the Nation, including Marin and Sonoma Counties, where I work and that I am privileged to represent, are horrified by the brutal crimes committed against innocent Sikhs, Arabs, Indians, and people of Muslim faith. Our children are watching in horror as their moms, their dads, brothers, sisters and close friends are being harassed, spit on, beaten, and, even worse, killed.

These hate crimes are happening in their neighborhoods, their schools, and their places of worship. Does this Congress want to stand by and let our children be subjected to this kind of hate, or will the 107th Congress recognize the problem at hand and take the action necessary to reverse this trend by bringing H.R. 1343 forward?

Mr. Speaker, we must pass this bipartisan bill now.

LACK OF ACTION IS DISAPPOINTING

(Mr. RYUN of Kansas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RYUN of Kansas. Mr. Speaker, in the aftermath of the September 11 attacks, we saw our Nation unite as never before. For a time this unity exhibited itself in Washington in a refreshing spirit of bipartisanship.

Unfortunately, today while the American people remain united behind the war, some in the other body are united behind the majority leader in their desire to obstruct certain important pieces of legislation. Here in the
