

to 3 days without ever having an hour of sleep. They have worked straight through. That will have to happen again if we are to finish the defense bill and the Labor-HHS bill in accordance with the schedule.

I do want to issue one warning because we have been told with respect to homeland security items, strengthening the FBI, giving greater security at the border, providing greater assistance to local public health officials in the event of an outbreak of biological or chemical attacks on this country by terrorists, we have been told do not worry, we can do that in March. There is plenty of time to do that in March. Members said that again to me yesterday.

If we look at the calendar for next year, this Congress is scheduled in January to have exactly 1 full day of session on January 24 and one-half day on January 23. The following week we will meet only after 5 p.m., and the next day there will be no votes after 2. So that is about 2 legislative days in the entire month of January.

If we look at the calendar for February, I see there are 6 full legislative days scheduled in February, and 3 other days where there will be no real action until after 6:30 in the evening. Give or take, that is about 7 working days.

In March, the same thing, about 7½ full working days. If the Congress is to seriously consider supplemental appropriations for defense and for homeland security, to expect this Congress with that few number of working days to actually get something from the President, hold hearings, produce a bill in the House, send it to the Senate, have the Senate pass it and have those differences worked out, it would be phenomenally rare if Congress were able to act that quickly. For those who say "Do not worry about any security issues remaining, we can get this done by March," I suggest to those Members to read the calendar. It is not so likely.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 10 seconds to urge Members to support this continuing resolution.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. GUTKNECHT). All time for debate has expired.

The joint resolution is considered as having been read for amendment.

Pursuant to the order of the House of Wednesday, December 12, 2001, the previous question is ordered.

The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the joint resolution.

The joint resolution was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

NOTICE

Incomplete record of House proceedings. Except for concluding business which follows, today's House proceedings will be continued in the next issue of the Record.
