

children, the hungry children, in our districts. Right now in my own district there are about 37 percent immigrant families. Of that, those kids do not have enough to have food on their table. They do not have cereal. They did not have a banana. They did not have milk today, like you and I may have had.

Let us make sure we do our best to defend those children.

FREE MARTIN AND GRACIA BURNHAM

(Mr. TIAHRT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, today marks the 326th day that Martin and Gracia Burnham have been held captive by Muslim terrorists in the Philippines.

Mr. Speaker, millions of Americans paid their dues on Tax Day this week, but Martin and Gracia have been paying the price for being Americans for over 10 months now. The Nation they love, however, is prevented from rescuing her children.

Martin's parents, Paul and Oreta, are patriotic citizens. They pay their taxes without complaining and trust the government will carry out its responsibility to protect and defend our citizens, all this despite the continued captivity of their son and daughter-in-law.

I must admit, as a patriot, as a taxpayer, as a representative of this government of the United States, I am frustrated. I call upon President Arroyo and the Philippine Congress to allow the American military to rescue our fellow Americans who are being held hostage. I request Secretary Powell, Secretary Rumsfeld, and President Bush, do not take "no" for an answer.

Let us rescue these Americans. I believe we have the resources to rescue Martin and Gracia, and it is our government's duty to do so. As always, I ask you to join me in prayer for Martin and Gracia and their loved ones, that this nightmare may soon be over.

PROTECT THE CLEAN AIR ACT

(Ms. McCOLLUM asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. McCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, the current administration is proposing a rollback of what has been called the centerpiece of our environmental agenda. Instead of fighting hard to protect the Clean Air Act, this administration wants to eliminate clean air programs that control new sources of pollution and regional haze.

What does this mean? It means that harmful emissions released from these old power plants will continue to cause asthma attacks and increase hospital visits. Haze will continue to blanket our cities and continue to spread out, obscuring views at our national parks and monuments. It also means that companies that own and operate our oldest and dirtiest coal-fired power plants can continue to escape strict pollution controls.

We can do better. Monday is Earth Day, a time to celebrate past progress we have made in cleaning up our environment while leading our Nation to a cleaner tomorrow. It is not the time to eliminate tools that can help us clean our air.

HAPPY 100TH ANNIVERSARY TO J.C. PENNEY

(Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate a major milestone in the history of American business. This past Sunday, on April 14, J.C. Penney Company, whose Plano headquarters is located in my district, celebrated 100 years of serving American consumers.

J.C. Penney is a name that Americans know well, and most of us have shopped in a J.C. Penney store at some point. We have learned by experience to expect their superior value for our money. And a century of delivering on that promise has made J.C. Penney a trusted name among American retail institutions and hard-working Americans.

When James Cash Penney opened his first store on the Wyoming frontier 100 years ago, he had but one passion: to serve his customers to their complete satisfaction. That passion has been the enduring reason for his company's growth, survival and success, and also why J.C. Penney has helped millions of Americans raise the quality of their lives.

Trends may come and go; businesses like J.C. Penney, built on timeless values, endure.

I want to extend my sincere congratulations to the company for 100 years of performance.

CONGRESS MUST RESTORE FOOD STAMP BENEFITS TO LEGAL IMMIGRANTS

(Mr. REYES asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. REYES. Mr. Speaker, later today the House will debate a motion to instruct conferees on the Farm Security Act that seeks to prevent the restoration of benefits to legal residents.

Well, I am appalled that this motion is offered, given the bipartisan support to restore food stamp benefits to legal permanent residents. I am, however, not surprised that there are some still in this House who continue their anti-immigrant, anti-Latino and anti-family campaign.

Let me repeat, Mr. Speaker. We are talking about benefits to legal residents; legal residents who come to this country from all parts of the world.

Earlier this year we welcomed the administration's proposal to extend eligibility to legal residents who have lived in the United States for 5 years. We supported this proposal because it was simple and straightforward. The Senate has included the administration's proposal in its version of the farm bill, but efforts continue in conference discussions to undermine a fair and simple restoration of benefits for legal residents.

These efforts clearly undermine President Bush's own proposal for restoration of food stamps.

I hope that this Congress, Mr. Speaker, does the right thing and restores food stamp benefits to legal residents, and I also today ask President Bush to do more to convince his party that legal permanent residents deserve these benefits. It is long overdue, it is time, and it is the right thing to do.

MURDERERS, NOT MARTYRS

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, tragically, Israelis and Palestinians are once again in a spiral of violence.

President Bush said recently that when a Palestinian girl kills herself in order to murder an Israeli girl of her own age, the future is dying. No boy or girl should ever have to die in a terrorist attack and no boy or girl should ever be misled by fanatics to go off on a suicide mission.

Mr. Speaker, too many Israelis and Palestinians have died and too many Palestinian kids have been turned into fanatics by the terrorists who have hijacked the Palestinian cause. As the President said, strapping a bomb around your waist and killing people is not an act of martyrdom, it is an act of murder.

Yesterday it was reported that the Saudi ambassador to Britain has written a lavish poem praising a young homicide bomber as "the bride of loftiness." He says, "The doors of heaven are opened for her."

Mr. Speaker, this is an outrage. Here is a leader, an ambassador no less, encouraging children to commit murder. There will be no peace in the Middle East until this kind of irresponsible rhetoric stops. The international community should condemn this kind of talk with a loud and united voice.

DEADLY NUCLEAR WASTE SHOULD NOT BE SHIPPED THROUGHOUT AMERICA

(Ms. BERKLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. BERKLEY. Mr. Speaker, in the near future, the House will vote on House Joint Resolution 87 to determine if we are going to ship deadly, high-level nuclear waste through America's cities and towns, through our neighborhoods, and past our schools, hospitals and houses of worship. If you vote for this resolution, that is what you will be doing, sending over 100,000 massive shipments of highly radioactive waste through the communities you represent, shipments that would be rolling on our roads and our rails every day for the next 30 years.

A single accident would threaten the health of thousands, cost billions to clean up, and forever ruin property values. If you do not think this can happen and will, think again. Just follow the headlines of transportation disasters we see almost weekly. Someday, instead of gasoline or chemicals, the disasters will involve nuclear waste. Could you look at your constituents and their children and look them in the eye and tell them you voted for a resolution that allowed a massive catastrophe to ruin their lives?

Vote "no" on House Joint Resolution 87 for the sake of your families, the sake of your constituents.

MAKE THE BUSH TAX CUTS PERMANENT

(Mr. RYUN of Kansas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RYUN of Kansas. Mr. Speaker, American families have recently completed the dreaded chore of preparing their tax returns, but this year, many found a bonus. The IRS reports that the average income tax refund is over $1,000, significantly higher than last year. What does this mean? Taxpayers are reaping the benefits of the Bush tax cut. Here in Congress, we should be proud of the cut that enables families to keep more of what they earn and for causing the economy to rebound as well.

But there is trouble on the horizon. Unless Congress takes action, this significant tax cut will expire in the year 2010 and our taxes will be raised.

It was over 2 centuries ago that Benjamin Franklin said, "Nothing is certain but death and taxes." While death and taxes may be certain, the death of this tax cut does not have to be.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to act now to ensure that President Bush's tax relief is made permanent.

BENEFITS FOR LEGAL IMMIGRANTS AND PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, let me quickly join in with my colleagues from California and Texas and others of goodwill to oppose the amendment that will be on the floor today to deny legal immigrants, individuals who are accessing legalization, accessing citizenship, paying taxes, but, most of all, giving of their lives so that we might be free. What a tragedy. How heinous. I ask my colleagues to vote enthusiastically against denying legal immigrants their rightful benefits.

Let me move very quickly to my disappointment with the media who has now assessed Secretary Powell's trip as a failure. The Washington Post: "Powell to end trip without a cease-fire. Sides failed to agree to talk." Electronic media reported "Powell's trip unravels."

Let me just simply say that peace is long-standing. It is not for the impatient. Our lives depend on it. This administration must continue to engage. We must provide a constructive proposal, we must help, in order to have peace in the Mideast.

Secretary Powell must return to the Mideast.

BUILDING ON PAST SUCCESSES TO CONTINUE WELFARE REFORM

(Mr. WICKER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WICKER. Mr. Speaker, I want to take my 1 minute to talk about the Welfare Reform Act of 1996, one of the greatest public policy successes in half a century. This body will soon have the opportunity to continue the remarkable progress made over the past 6 years when we reauthorize the law.

Our Nation has seen a dramatic 56 percent drop in welfare caseloads as more families have broken the cycle of poverty and replaced welfare checks with paychecks. Welfare rolls are at their lowest levels since 1965, and more than 2 million children have been rescued from poverty, a remarkable success.

The reauthorization will allow us to build on the principles which have helped more Americans achieve self-reliance. It contains a strong work requirement, continues the focus on protecting children, and strengthening families, and gives more States flexibility.

Mr. Speaker, the emphasis on work and strengthening families in this new initiative represents a winning formula to put more needy Americans on the path toward a brighter future.

ENVIRONMENTAL ROLLBACKS BAD FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

(Mr. HOLT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HOLT. Mr. Speaker, despite the fact that a majority of Americans believe that we should do more, not less, to protect our environment, President Bush is pursuing several policies to roll back environmental progress.

Let us look at our national parks. Despite the clear evidence that snowmobile use is not compatible with the preservation and public enjoyment of Yellowstone, our world's oldest national park, the President is pushing to roll back a rule that would prevent snowmobile use there, a rule that the EPA said was among the most thorough and substantial scientifically based rules they had seen.

Right now, the administration and the Republican majority here is also trying to roll back a ban on personal watercraft like jet skis in our national parks, despite the clear indication from rangers that these have a negative effect on the enjoyment and preservation of the parks.

Mr. Speaker, our environment and our national parks belong to all of us, and we cannot let these series of environmental rollbacks ruin them for us.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES HAS BEEN PRODUCTIVE

(Mr. STEARNS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STEARNS. Mr. Speaker, what do all these things have in common? Trade promotional authority, the energy bill, the job stimulus bill, the terrorist insurance bill, faith-based initiative; in fact, 51 bills all in common, plus 90 appointments for judges? What they all have in common is they have not been acted upon by the other body.

The American people elected a Republican House and we have been productive over here. Governors, CEOs, coaches, deserve to have their team in place.

We need the other body to act to put the administration's team in place and address the 51-plus bills that are in need of action.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. FRANK. Point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SHIMKUS). The gentleman will suspend. The gentleman should not urge action in the other body. The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. STEARNS. Mr. Speaker, we need to expedite and to take the bills that were in the House and get them passed by the other body.

The American people want action by its elected officials here in Congress.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair reminds Members not to refer to action in the other body.

U.S. SUPREME COURT DECISION IS A CLEAR AND PRESENT DANGER TO OUR CHILDREN

(Mr. LAMPSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMPSON. Mr. Speaker, Ludwig Koons still has not been returned from
