

CELEBRATION OF ST. LUKE'S
HOUSE 30TH ANNIVERSARY OF HELPING PATIENTS BECOME PRODUCTIVE CITIZENS

HON. CONSTANCE A. MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and celebrate "Three Decades of Hope" at St. Luke's House (SLH) in Bethesda, Maryland. SLH helps patients released from psychiatric hospitals to live and work successfully in their communities by offering integrated mental health services and community resources.

St. Luke's House was founded in 1971, by St. Luke's Episcopal Church. The programs offered by SLH include supported living, life skills training and vocational rehabilitation, and 24-hour crisis care and services for youth with serious emotional disabilities. Currently, SLH provides care for over 800 youth and adults. To accomplish its programs, SLH operates 31 group homes and apartments in the community. It has helped more than 4,000 individuals return to an active community life.

There are four basic programs SLH provides individuals under its care. The Psychiatric Rehabilitation Program which offers individuals supported living opportunities, residential rehabilitation assistance, back-to-work skills, and a life skills building program. The SLH Mental Health Clinic provides mental health services to the public and patients in other SLH programs. Its McAuliffe Crisis House is a voluntary community-based residential alternative to inpatient hospitalization. The Career Transition Program is a joint endeavor between SLH and Montgomery Public Schools that help high school students with serious emotional disabilities to receive counseling and vocational training.

The efforts at SLH have raised public awareness of an ever increasing mental health issue. Its continued success is due to the hard work of SLH staff and volunteers that give thousands of hours to make this ministry beneficial to SLH residents and community. St. Luke's House is fortunate to have the leadership of Ms. Pam K. Cudahy as President and CEO as it moves ahead in meeting the needs of people in the 21st century. Our community is richer because of the residents and staff of St. Luke's House.

TYRANNICAL NEW LAW ALREADY BEING ABUSED

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I was saddened to read an article in the Times of India showing that India's repressive new "Prevention of Terrorism Ordinance" (POTO) is already being abused. The new law allows the police to hold someone without charges for up to 180 days, according to the Washington Post.

According to the article, a court granted bail to a POTO defendant named Abdul Ahmed Bhat and granted him bail of Rs 2,500. The judgment shows how the police are abusing POTO. The police filed two varying reports against Mr. Bhat, abusing the process to make certain that he stayed in police custody. The official police reports exonerates Mr. Bhat of the charges against him, while the investigating officer's report implicates him.

Unfortunately, this kind of abuse is typical of the Indian government. The Rashtriya Swayamsewak Sangh (RSS), a hardline, militant Hindu fundamentalist organization published a booklet on how to implicate Christians and other minorities in false criminal cases. The RSS is the parent organization of the ruling BJP, which sponsored and passed POTO.

Mr. Speaker, we must not support this kind of tyranny. We should end all our aid to India until it ends. We should also put ourselves on record in favor of self-determination for everyone in the subcontinent by means of a free and fair, democratic vote on independence for Khalistan, Kashmir, Nagaland, and the other nations seeking their freedom from India.

Mr. Speaker, I would like the permission of the House to insert the Times of India article into the RECORD for the information of my colleagues.

[From the Times of India, Apr. 3, 2002]

POTO MISUSED BY POLICE IN BHAT CASE

SRINAGAR.—Two varying police reports by the same investigating officer prompted the special court to grant bail to Abdul Ahmed Bhat on Monday. Bhat, a resident of Ahmad Nagar, was booked under the Prevention of Terrorism Ordinance (POTO) under FIR No 12/2002 at police station Soura.

The special court had granted bail to Bhat against a bond of Rs 25,000.

The judgment points a finger of suspicion at the police for misuse of the prevention of terrorism law—despite the Centre and the state government's assurance for its fair use to tackle terrorism across the country.

Announcing the judgment on Monday, special Judge M I Qureshi said: "After close and minute examination of the two police reports and case diary that the prima-facie case under Sections 3 and 21 of POTO is made out against the accused persons except Abdul Ahad Bhat."

The judgment further reveals that there were variations in the two police reports about the date of Bhat's arrest. Also, the police report exonerates Bhat from the implication of alleged offences, while the second report submitted before the court on March 14 by the investigating officer of his own, implicates him (Bhat) for the alleged offences.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO TODD
SALIMAN

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to recognize the efforts of State Representative Todd Saliman and his efforts to improve the lives of his fellow constituents and the State of Colorado. Todd has served in the Colorado General Assembly since 1994 and has dedicated countless hours of his time and energy to his position and constituents. Now, after eight years of service, Todd is retiring and I am honored to take this time to thank him for his service to Colorado.

Todd is a native Coloradan whose family has lived in the state for generations. During his tenure as a representative, he served on many committees including the Joint Budget Committee, Finance, Appropriations, and Local Government committees. Throughout his time in the legislature, he has championed the issues of health care, children and families, the environment, education, and transportation. He is known throughout the community as a devoted husband and a proud father of a new son, and is often found providing his support to the board of directors at the Developmental Disabilities Center and was instrumental in the assembly for securing funds for children's and senior's health services.

Mr. Speaker, Todd's hard work in the legislature has not gone unnoticed during his tenure and he has been recognized repeatedly over the years for his legislative accomplishments. Today, I continue to honor his service by thanking him for his devotion and dedication to his community, his state, and his nation. Thanks for all of your hard work Todd, and good luck in your future endeavors.

COACH MIKE DAVIS AND THE INDIANA HOOSIERS

HON. JULIA CARSON

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Ms. CARSON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize that the Black Coaches Association will honor Indiana University's Head Coach Mike Davis as the "Male Coach of the Year" during their national convention to be held in Indianapolis this weekend.

Mr. Speaker, my heartfelt and enthusiastic congratulation is extended to Coach Mike Davis and the Indiana University Basketball Team for their achievements in this year's NCAA Final Four Tournament.

Coach Davis started his coaching career as Alabama's assistant basketball coach in 1995, and remained with the program until 1997.

In 1997 Coach Davis became an assistant coach for the Indiana University basketball program.

On September 10th, 2000, Coach Davis became the interim men's basketball coach at Indiana University.

With only a month to prepare for the 2000–2001 season Davis led the Hoosiers to a 21–13 record, a runner-up finish in the Big Ten Tournament and an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament.

Displaying leadership, unwavering faith, and heart throughout the 2001–2002 season, Coach Davis led the Indiana Hoosier's to their first NCAA Final-Four appearance since 1993, narrowly missing the championship.

Coach Davis makes it no secret that he is a religious man; in fact the Christian faith permeates his entire life including basketball.

The Indiana University basketball team has voluntary chapel each week at Eastern Star Church in my district where Coach Davis is a member.

Coach Davis believes unto whom much is given much is required. He is a cheerful and generous philanthropist. For example, Coach Davis donated to non-profit organizations the bonus he received for leading Indiana to the Final Four. His gifts helped to enrich the lives of many.

Coach Mike Davis and Indiana University are to be congratulated for reminding Hoosiers and basketball fans everywhere that leadership, faith, and determination are products of achievement.

Mr. Speaker, to Coach Davis, keep up the good work and congratulations on your award and great season!

Your spirit has enriched the lives of countless individuals, especially the young people.
