

in Harrison, New Jersey. This festival, consisting of a marathon race, an array of vendors, fun family games, dazzling floats, fireworks, and performances by folk groups and musical bands, lasted through the weekend to raise scholarship funds for the students of Harrison Public Schools.

In 1905, at the age of nine, Louis Ferreiro, along with his mother, father, four brothers, and two sisters arrived in America and settled in Harrison, New Jersey. It was to be the beginning of a prosperous and wholesome life for his entire family in the community of Harrison.

Louis Ferreiro married Angelina Forte in 1925, and together they raised five sons. This blossoming family ran a landmark store known as "Louie the Sausage King" at 7 North 3rd Street for over 50 years. The store was known for its delicious Italian-style hotdogs, and many Harrison citizens continue to reminisce about the good old days when you could catch up with friends, while enjoying the store's speciality.

The Ferreiro family also had many talented athletes participate at Harrison High School: Tom Jr., a Football and Girls Basketball Coach; Vin, a star Basketball player; Michelle and Donna, exceptional players on the Girls Basketball team; and Jim Jr., an outstanding Football and Baseball player.

The five Ferreiro sons and their families, as well as their children's families, have created a legacy of 21 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren. And today, four generations of the Ferreiro family—29 individuals—continue to live in Harrison.

I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the Ferreiro family, who, through their strong sense of family values, and their commitment and dedication, helped shape today's beautiful community of Harrison, New Jersey.

TRIBUTE TO ERNIE WISSINGER

HON. BILL SHUSTER

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 4, 2002

Mr. SHUSTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Ernie Wissinger for earning the Blair County Chamber of Commerce's Lifetime Achievement Award for Business Advocacy. Mr. Wissinger is the first ever to receive this award and set a high standard of excellency for other entrepreneurs to follow.

Mr. Wissinger resides in Blair County, Pennsylvania where he owned and operated a retail grocery store for 42 years. In addition to focusing on his own business, he was always available to assist others within the business community. By lending a helping hand where one was needed, he has played a crucial part in helping to make Blair County businesses thrive and grow. For years he took it upon himself to act as an unofficial ambassador and advocate for the people and the businesses of Blair County whenever he traveled across Pennsylvania or to other states.

In addition to being an insightful businessman he is also a generous volunteer. Mr. Wissinger provided financial support to organizations such as Easter Seals, the Altoona Area Public Library, and the Altoona Campus of Penn State to name just a few. In addition to donating resources, he donated his time to the Blair County youth. His involvement in volunteering for community organizations has made a positive impact on those around him. Blair County is a better place because of Ernie Wissinger's professional and personal investments in his community.

I congratulate Mr. Wissinger on all his business accomplishments and thank him for his involvement in the local community. By being the first to receive this award Mr. Wissinger set a standard for businessmen and women to strive to achieve. This award signals that he began a tradition of excellence that will be hard to duplicate. President George W. Bush, in his last State of the Union Address, challenged all of us to give two years or 4,000 hours of service over our lifetimes. If the President were here today I am positive he would shake Mr. Wissinger's hand and hold him up as an example for others to follow. I, too, would like to encourage others to follow in Mr. Wissinger's footsteps by being active volunteers and thoughtful entrepreneurs. One person can impact a community in many wonderful ways, and Blair County's example is Ernie Wissinger. I wish him the very best of luck in the years to come.
