

improved West Virginians' daily access to much-needed health care services, retirement benefit providers, and the like.

Further, as President Dwight Eisenhower clearly understood, our Nation's transportation network provides a critical infrastructure element for national security. In the immediate wake of the September 11th attacks, the strength of our Nation's transportation networks enabled emergency responders from various different areas to get to the crisis areas in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania in the most expeditious manner possible. Employing this quick response ability aided our nation in providing much-needed assistance and in coordinating the subsequent recovery efforts. ARTBA's long-standing contributions which enabled such quick response following September 11th, deserve recognition as the association celebrates this milestone.

Our Nation owes a clear debt of gratitude and commendation to the ARTBA for their continuing efforts, which have contributed to this country's great infrastructure strength.

Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and agree to the resolution (H. Res. 516) congratulating the Valley Sports American Little League baseball team from Louisville, Kentucky, for their outstanding performance in the Little League World Series.

The Clerk read as follows:

H. RES. 516

Whereas the Valley Sports American Little League baseball team from Louisville, Kentucky, is the first team from the United States to win the Little League World Series since 1998;

Whereas the Louisville team is the first team from Kentucky to ever reach the title game of the Little League World Series in the 56-year history of the Little League Junior Division championship;

Whereas the Louisville team has attained a select position as one of only 10 United States teams to win the Little League World Series in the last 35 years;

Whereas the members of the Louisville team demonstrated perseverance that rivals that of any adult, with a season that started in June and required winning both State and regional championships to reach the World Series;

Whereas throughout their season, the Louisville team scored 106 runs, while allowing their competition to score only 10 runs;

Whereas the Louisville team played expertly against a determined and talented Japanese team for the Little League World Series title;

Whereas the Louisville team broke multiple Little League World Series records through a single pitcher achieving 44 strikeouts and 21 scoreless innings;

Whereas the 12 players on the Louisville team are a model to the Nation's youth because of their dedication, determination, and sportsmanship;

Whereas in the legacy of world-renowned Louisville Slugger bats and Hall-of-Fame members Jim Bunning, Happy Chandler, Earl Combs, and Pee Wee Reese, the Louisville team has continued a long tradition of Kentucky contributions to the game of baseball;

Whereas the Louisville team's performance demonstrates to parents and communities throughout the Nation how athletic participation builds character and leadership in children; and

Whereas the Louisville team's spirit and camaraderie and the support of the team's family members are a testimony to baseball's ability to bring families together: Now, therefore, be it

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentlewoman from Virginia (Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS) and the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. DAVIS) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Virginia (Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS).

GENERAL LEAVE

Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on House Resolution 516.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Virginia?

There was no objection.

Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, this resolution extends heartfelt congratulations from the House of Representatives to the Valley Sports American Little League baseball team from Louisville, Kentucky, for winning the Little League World Series.

On August 25, 2002, the Valley Sports American Little League team won the 56th Little League Baseball World Series title by defeating the team from Sendai, Japan 1-0.

Mr. Speaker, the Valley Sports American Little League team is the first team from the United States to win the Little League World Series since 1998. The following is a description of the team from Louisville, Kentucky, as described by Little League Baseball:

“They may not have been the most talented team in the tournament. They may not have been the biggest or the strongest 11- and 12-year-olds in Williamsport during the last 9 days; but they had worked the hardest, dedicated themselves in ways others could not, and now the Valley Sports American Little Leaguers from Louisville, Kentucky, are the best in the world.”

Coaches and players alike have achieved something very few have. This is an accomplishment that will be with them for the rest of their lives, and it is in the finest tradition of Kentucky baseball.

Perhaps one of these days one of these young players will follow Kentucky's Hall of Famer, Jim Bunning, and serve in the House and the U.S. Senate. But I am sure that they will all be a credit to their country, to Kentucky, to Louisville, and to their families. They have started out well.

Mr. Speaker, it is appropriate that the House recognize the dedicated work and outstanding accomplishments of Valley Sports American Little League Baseball team from Louisville, Kentucky. The Louisville team's performance demonstrates to parents and communities throughout the Nation how athletic participation builds character and leadership in their children.

Mr. Speaker, I ask all Members to support this resolution.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I might consume.

Mr. Speaker, the Valley Sports American Little League team from Louisville, Kentucky, captured their city's and the Nation's attention with the 1-0 victory over Sendai, Japan, in the Little League World Series title game last month.

Valley Sports, which won the national championship game against Worcester, Massachusetts, became the first U.S. team to win the World Series since East Toms River, New Jersey, in 1998.

When the team held its first practice on June 16, they had not yet developed their trademark, which became pitching and defense. This came with hard work and determination. During the first few days, the team looked nothing like the one that would win the Little League World Series. The basemen had difficulty catching; and, of course, nobody could make a great throw. But the coaches figured the only way to get better was through hard work. The team routinely held 5-hour practices on week days and sometimes as much as 8 hours on weekends. Defense was constantly being reinforced and it paid off.

Japanese teams had won two of the previous three World Series titles; but the Valley Sports team used their recipe for success, pitching, defense and discipline, to win the big game. The coaches, Troy Osborne, Keith Elkins, and Dan Roach demanded discipline on and off the field. The team was required to answer "yes, sir" or "no, ma'am" when addressing adults. Does that not sound interesting? They were expected to conduct themselves properly with no showboating allowed. The team got better and better with every game.

In a little more than 2 months, 12 young boys used their free time to dedicate themselves to our national pastime, baseball. Team work, commitment, dedication and discipline and a positive attitude transformed the Valley Sports Little League team into a national and international championship team.

We always place a premium on winning. But I think that when we have great little league programs with the active involvement and participation of parents and other adult volunteers, every child, every young person perhaps is a winner. And not only is this an opportunity to salute the Valley Sports Little League team, but it is also an opportunity to salute all of those parents and volunteers and coaches and young people throughout America who engage and involve themselves in disciplined activity that is designed to develop men, in many instances, and women, out of boys and girls.

I also take this opportunity to salute those Little League teams in my own community, Dwayne Truss and Cata Truss who developed the Mandela Little League; and of course everybody in my city of Chicago knows about the Jackie Robinson West Little League and the Southeast Little League and the North Lawndale Little League Baseball teams.

So it is a great day for Little League activity. It is a great day for young people being engaged, involved, disciplined with adult supervision. That, Mr. Speaker, is what I think will keep young people off the streets, will keep young people from ending up in correctional institutions, and will help America continue to grow and become the Nation that it really has the potential of being.

So I join in giving all of the accolades that we can muster to the Valley Sports Little League team, who became not only the best in their city, the best in their country, but the best internationally. We honor them as we honor America.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to join my colleague from Illinois in commending all of the little league teams around the country. As a former little league team mom, and my husband being a little league manager for many many years with our two sons, it is a great pastime. It is a great opportunity for our young boys and girls to participate in little league. I would like to commend my colleague, the gentlewoman from Kentucky (Mrs. NORTHUP), for introducing this legislation to commend our little leaguers from Kentucky and to salute all of our little leaguers around the United States and the world.

Mr. Speaker, I urge adoption of this measure.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentlewoman from Virginia (Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution, H. Res. 516.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds of those present have voted in the affirmative.

Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on the bill under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Virginia?

There was no objection.

Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 5336, introduced by our distinguished colleague from New York (Mr. KING), designates a post office in Farmingdale, New York, as the Peter J. Ganci, Jr., Post Office Building. Members of the entire House delegation from the State of New York are cosponsors of this legislation.

Mr. Speaker, on September 11, immediately after a jet struck the first tower at the World Trade Center, Peter Ganci, chief of department for the New York City Fire Department, rushed to the scene from his command post in downtown Brooklyn and started the rescue effort.

He was in the basement of Tower One when it collapsed. Miraculously, he survived, dug himself out of the rubble and went back to work.

It then became apparent that the second tower would fall. Ganci, as the highest ranking uniformed officer on the scene, directed everyone to clear out of the area, but Ganci did not himself leave while his men were inside the
