

anybody could ever hope to see. A young man and his wife—the young was going to Seoul, as I understand, to head up Eastman Kodak's organization there. They had two little girls, aged 5 and 3.

The mother was sitting reading Bible stories to those two little girls when we entered. The little girl was sitting on her mother's lap and the 5-year-old was sitting on the arm of the chair. And when the mother had finished reading to the children, I went over and introduced myself.

In the conversation, he offered to take the children and read them a story while their mother went to refresh herself. They were on his lap. They were playing games—the same games he played with his own grandchildren. He said:

They were on my lap and we were playing little games that I play with my grandchildren.

If I live to be 1,000, I say to the Senator, I will never forget those two little girls, who had a right to live and love and be loved, but who will never have that right because of this criminal, brutal, premeditated, cowardly act by the Soviet Union.

I will forever remember the giggles and the laughter—they hugged my neck and they kissed me on the cheek. Finally, their plane was called, and my last sight of them as they scampered out the door was their waving "bye-bye" to this fellow and blowing kisses to me.

I tell you that you could have heard a pin drop in this body when he delivered that message. It was a tough message. But he was right on target. Those children had a right to live, a right to be loved, and it was finished—snuffed out in that premeditated act by the Soviet Union by the shooting down of Korean Airlines flight 007.

Senator HELMS is certainly known for calling a spade a spade. But that day I thought he was right on target in calling the atrocity what it was—a cold-blooded murder. I will never forget the comments the Senator made at that time, and they will live with me always.

I admire Senator HELMS, what he stands for, and the contribution he has made to this body.

TRIBUTES TO STROM THURMOND

Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise to congratulate Senator STROM THURMOND on his remarkable tenure as a U.S. Senator.

As a history teacher, I taught my students about Senator THURMOND. As a Congressman, I always admired Senator THURMOND's leadership, and his willingness to speak out for his beliefs. As a Senator, it has been an honor to serve with Senator THURMOND.

He is a true patriot, a true civil servant. He has served his country in countless ways, and in every case, he has pursued this service with vigor.

He showed his dedication to the United States by serving in the army during World War II. Senator THURMOND originally signed up for an administrative position, but he eventually went to both the European and Pacific theaters.

He served with the storied 82d Airborne Division and landed in Normandy on D-Day. His combat service earned him eighteen citations, including the Bronze Star for Valor, a Purple Heart, the Belgian Order of the Crown, and the French Croix de Guerre. He continued his military career as a Major General of the U.S. Army Reserve. He also acted as National President of the Reserve Officers Association.

It is easy to forget this heroism, because it was so long ago and he has accomplished so much since then. But, for me, as a Veteran, and as someone who lost his father in service to his country, I believe we each owe Senator THURMOND our gratitude for his courage in his military service.

Senator THURMOND was first elected to the Senate 48 years ago. It was then, in 1954, that the people of South Carolina elected Senator THURMOND by a write-in vote, the only time in history that this has ever happened.

However, Senator THURMOND had made his mark well before he was elected to the Senate. He showed his dedication to South Carolina by serving as city and county attorney, State senator, circuit judge, and Governor.

As a former teacher, coach, and school board chairman, I believe there is no more noble public service than teaching. Between heroic military service and a half century of political service, STROM THURMOND managed to set aside time to teach future generations.

He was a teacher in South Carolina. He was also an athletic coach. He later went on to serve as the Superintendent of Education for Edgefield County, SC.

As a U.S. Senator, STROM THURMOND has accomplished numerous achievements. As you all may know, in 1996 Senator THURMOND became the oldest serving Senator in history. A few months later, he became the longest serving Senator in United States history.

In 1998 Senator THURMOND cast his 15,000th vote on the Senate floor. While these milestones are significant, it is what he did with this time that makes these records important.

Senator THURMOND well remembers the great baseball Hall of Famer Lou Gehrig. They used to call him the Iron Horse. He never missed a game. He always gave 100 percent. He was the essence of sportsmanship.

STROM THURMOND is the Iron Horse of the Senate. He is the essence of statesman, of public servant. He has given 100 percent for his entire career, and those of us who are privileged to know him draw energy and inspiration from his example.

I will always remember any time I came in early in the morning to open the Senate. It was always Senator THURMOND presiding. As President pro tempore, he did not have to do that. He could appoint someone else to do it. But, that's just how STROM THURMOND is. It is part of his character.

Of course, I have always admired his dedication to his conservative values.

Throughout his life Senator THURMOND was a Democrat, a Dixiecrat, and a Republican, but most importantly he was always a patriot.

His unflinching devotion to his country manifested itself in his service and chairmanship of the Senate Armed Services Committee. Moreover, his unflagging dedication to justice was represented by another chairmanship, that of the Senate Judiciary Committee. As a Senator who has served with Senator THURMOND on both of these committees, I have had the privilege of seeing a great legislator in action.

As a veteran, I am thankful for all that Senator THURMOND has done, such as serving on the Veterans' Affairs Committee for over 30 years. As a former teacher, I commend his work with the youth of South Carolina when he was an educator. As a Senator, I admire his forthrightness and dedication to his principles. As an American, he makes me proud.

Senator THURMOND, thank you for your many years of devotion to this country and the ideals that make it strong.

Mr. GRAMM. Mr. President, when I first came to the Senate, like many members, I took my two sons onto the floor of the Senate before the session started and found my desk. I asked them if they wanted to sit in my chair. One son chose Barry Goldwater's seat to sit in, and the other son chose STROM THURMOND's seat. Looking back, that is easy for me to understand.

There are so many things you could say about STROM, but there is one thing I can say about STROM THURMOND that I am certain of and that is, someday I will proudly tell my grandchildren that I served in the U.S. Senate with STROM THURMOND. Like those happy band of brothers who fought with King Harry on St. Crispin's Day, I will tell my grandchildren how I fought with a great man, a great leader, to accomplish great deeds.

He has had a profound and lasting impact on our country. But there is something more remarkable. He is eternally young. Not just in being a 100-year-old Senator, but young in the ability to adopt new ideas, to change as circumstances change, and in the process to grow, even during the longest tenure in the Senate in history. I love STROM THURMOND. I admire him, and for my whole life, I will be proud that I was able to call him colleague and friend.

CONFERENCE ON ENERGY

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, I wish to share with my colleagues an update on the conference on energy.

As we all know, our President has asked for an energy bill. The bill was reported out of the House and the Senate, H.R. 4. We have been in conference for several days, off and on. Today we took up one of the more controversial provisions; that is, the disposition of ANWR.
