

point. Designating U.S. 54 as a High Priority Corridor will make it eligible for additional federal grants and transportation funds, which will, in turn, help upgrade the highway and improve its safety and efficiency.

As Congress prepares to reauthorize TEA-21, I strongly urge the House and Senate to support this bill and add the SPIRIT Corridor to the list of high priority corridors in our National Highway System.

ROBERT J. DOLE VA MEDICAL & REGIONAL OFFICE CENTER DEDI-
CATION CEREMONY

HON. JERRY MORAN

OF KANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 4, 2003

Mr. MORAN of Kansas. Mr. Speaker, I would like to submit for the RECORD, remarks I gave at a dedication ceremony.

Thank you Senator DOLE, Secretary Principi, and distinguished guests, especially our veterans. I'm delighted to be here today on this very special occasion.

I had intended to be very brief, but I concluded that the sooner we get done, the sooner I will go home. The sooner I go home, the sooner I will see my wife, and if she sees the nightly news with me seated so closely to Cindy Close, our favorite KWCH broadcaster, I'll have some explaining to do. So I'm going to take a few moments.

This is an opportunity to pay a moment of tribute and, hopefully, a lifelong tribute, to a great Kansan. Before I do that, I would like to congratulate Senator-elect DOLE. Russell, Kansas, must be an amazing place because we have three individuals with significant ties to Russell, Kansas, who are past, present and future members of that exclusive club, the United States Senate: Senator Bob Dole, Senator ARLEN SPECTER, and now Senator-elect, ELIZABETH DOLE. We are delighted, as Kansans, to congratulate you on your success.

We're here to pay tribute not only to Senator Dole, but to what Tom Brokaw calls the greatest generation. His words are these: "They came of age during the Great Depression and the Second World War and went on to build modern America, men and women whose everyday lives of duty, honor, achievement, and courage gave us the world we have today."

Bob Dole exemplifies the greatest generation. My purpose in introducing this legislation was not to recognize Bob Dole the Senator, the presidential candidate, or the majority leader. I learned today Bob Dole is the longest-serving majority leader. Senator Dole, I always thought you were the longest-serving Republican candidate for president.

But we recognize him today as that soldier from Russell, Kansas, serving in the mountains of Italy. We recognize him for the consequences of his service and for the course of action he took to rehabilitate his life, and in the process, to change the lives of others. So although we can say many good things about Senator Dole, presidential candidate Dole, and Majority Leader Dole, we are here today to pay tribute to Bob Dole, the soldier.

As you know, Bob Dole seeks no recognition. In 1969, during his first year in the United States Senate, he said, "Most veterans today want no special recognition or attention. We did our duty, take pride in having served, and seek to live our lives as good and constructive citizens." That's Bob Dole. I have no doubt that he's uncomfortable being here today receiving this recognition.

He was also a product of rehabilitation through the VA. We are also here to pay tribute to the men and women who work for the Department of Veterans Affairs. We are here to pay tribute to the volunteers who help those employees take care of the veterans of the United States. What we do in Washington pales in comparison to what individuals do for our veterans who need health care and rehabilitation services. They also are the heroes.

The bill to designate the Wichita VA as the Robert J. Dole Department of Veterans Affairs Medical and Regional Office Center was widely supported. It was introduced in the House of Representatives and supported by our entire congressional delegation. Congressman TIAHRT and I concluded that this was a noble cause to undertake and introduced this bill in April of 2002. Our colleagues in both the House and Senate joined us. My subcommittee and committee passed it unanimously. The bill had 75 cosponsors, republicans and democrats, including the leadership of the House. This legislation was also cosponsored by a fellow Russell native, ARLEN SPECTER, who will be the new Chairman of the Senate Corp Committee on Veterans Affairs. It passed unanimously in both the House and Senate and was signed by President Bush on May 29th, 2002.

In order to get to this point, the legislation had the support of every veterans' service organization in Kansas. Before we started this effort, we made certain that our veterans' organizations were fully supportive of acknowledging Bob Dole in this manner. And, Senator Dole, every one of them said a resounding, yes, this is an appropriate honor for the soldier, Bob Dole. Many of their leaders are here today, and I thank our veterans' service organizations for their support of this legislation and for all that, they do for the veterans of Kansas.

Bob Dole is a role model and hero. He paid tribute, in his first year in the Senate, to one of his idols, his hero, another Kansan—General Dwight David Eisenhower. Bob Dole, talked about General Eisenhower, in 1969, upon General Eisenhower's death, about his dreams as a boy in Abilene, Kansas.

General Eisenhower could never have envisioned the heights he was to scale in his lifetime. The honesty and sincerity, so characteristic of General Eisenhower throughout his life, can be traced to his heritage of his ancestors and strong guidance of his mother. His broad grin and good humor that reflected these qualities made him a popular idol and were part of his magic. People reacted to the special qualities exuded by this man. The contributions made by General Eisenhower are legend. His success in time of war made him a great leader of men. Thereafter, his unparalleled success in politics underscored the respect and confidence he enjoyed by all Americans.

The words that Bob Dole spoke about his hero, his role model, Dwight David Eisenhower, can today be said about our hero and role model, Bob Dole of Kansas. I grew up within 20 miles of Bob Dole's hometown, and I know the dedication, commitment, love and respect that the people of Russell, Kansas, share for their hometown hero.

Let me conclude by quoting, Bob Dole's own words from Memorial Day 2002.

On the one hand, war represents the ultimate failure of mankind or at least of the politicians and diplomats entrusted with keeping the peace. Yet it also summons the greatest qualities of which human beings are capable—courage beyond measure, loyalty beyond words, sacrifice, and ingenuity and endurance beyond imagining.

Today, we pay tribute to Bob Dole's courage, his loyalty, his sacrifice, his ingenuity and his endurance. He is one of those veterans he pays tribute to.

God bless America, and God, thank you for our Bob Dole.

HON. ROB SIMMONS

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 4, 2003

Mr. SIMMONS. I rise today here on the House floor to honor a college basketball team that has not lost a game since March 2001, the pride of eastern Connecticut, a model for our Nation's youth: the University of Connecticut's women's basketball team—the Lady Huskies.

On January 18 of this year, our Huskies won their 55th consecutive game, breaking a record that has held strong since 1982. No other NCAA Division I women's basketball team has won more games in a row. And none has recently shown the ability to put an unbeatable team on the court year after year. It is amazing to think that in two years, the Huskies are 123-4.

There have been bumps along the road. On the 15th of this month, the game against Seton Hall where they tied the streak, they shot under 30 percent and nearly lost in the final moments. But, as great teams do, they found a way to win. They rose to the occasion that day and made the shots that counted.

Coach Geno Auriemma said two days later, "Maybe I should say that I saw it coming. That's how legends are made. Isn't this the place where legends are born?"

It is the dedication of Coach Auriemma and his players—past and present—who make the court of Gampel Pavilion a place where records are set, role models emerge, and legends are indeed born. Thank you for giving us a piece of history.

Here's to 55 more consecutive wins.
