HONORING MARY HARRIS FOR HER THIRTY-ONE YEARS OF SERVICE

HON. MICHAEL E. CAPUANO

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 5, 2003

Mr. CAPUANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and congratulate Mary Harris, who recently retired from Greater Boston Catholic Charities. In her 31 years of service Ms. Harris worked tirelessly to better the lives of those around her.

During her tenure at Catholic Charities, Ms. Harris worked with children in day care, foster care and adoption. She also worked with families wishing to adopt and families interested in foster care. For the past 12 years she served as the Director of the Eastern Middlesex County Foster Grandparent Program. This program has a multitude of benefits for both seniors and children. Seniors volunteer in schools and daycare centers, help with fundraisers, promote the Foster Grandparent Program, and learn about children from a variety of educators. Seniors also gain the knowledge that they are needed and can make a difference in the lives of children. The children get the privilege of having more people in their lives who care about them and are exposed to different perspectives and wisdom.

Ms. Harris has not only administered the program, but also shown the participants how much she values them. She makes sure that ill Foster Grandparents are taken care of, helping however she can. She often helps with shopping and getting medications.

Running the Foster Grandparent Program is not all Ms. Harris does for her community. She also manages the St. Gerard Thrift Store in Somerville and worked to make the holiday season more pleasant for families in need. She worked with the Christ Child Society to purchase over 100 jackets for children. She also helped to put together food baskets for needy families and distributed Christmas toys.

A lifelong resident of Cambridge and Somerville, Mary Harris is a true credit to her community and to the 8th District. Her work has improved the lives of both young and old. Her dedication is worthy of praise and her works of heartfelt appreciation. People like Ms. Harris are examples to others and proof that one person can make a difference. I wish her a relaxing and fulfilling retirement.

A SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO BARBARA
BLACKFORD FOR HER DEDICATED SERVICE TO CRAWFORD COUNTY

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 5, 2003

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise today to pay special tribute to an outstanding lady from Ohio. Barbara Blackford was born in Crawford County and has lived there all her life. She was raised on a farm in Liberty Township and graduated from Sulphur Springs High School.

Barbara worked in the accounting department of the Shelby Depot, at the Bucyrus Telegraph Forum, and at the Crawford County Board of Elections before becoming a county commissioner.

As a county commissioner, Barb served on the CCAO Legislation Committee and the Ag and Rural Affairs Committee. Locally, Barb represented the commissioners on the Regional Planning Commission, the Erie Basin Resources Conservation & Development Committee, the Community Improvement Corporation, was an alternate for issue 11, served on the Personnel Committee, the Microfilm Board, and was on the MARC Board of Governors.

Barbara did an outstanding job as a Crawford Community Commissioner. She has always enjoyed the small town atmosphere and has always respected and appreciated working with the people of Crawford County. Barbara practiced an open door policy and believed that local government should always be there to serve and to keep the best interests of its constituency in mind. Barbara Blackford did just that.

Barbara is a devoted mother of four children and the proud grandmother of six grandchildren. She and her husband, Lloyd, attend the St. Paul Lutheran Church in North Robinson, Ohio.

Mr. Speaker, Barbara Blackford will leave big shoes to fill as she leaves her post as Crawford County Commissioner. Her wisdom, honesty and forthrightness are attributes to which all public servants should aspire. She has set an example for everyone on how to live a life of service, putting the greater interests of the community before one's own.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in paying special tribute to Barbara Blackford. Our communities are served well by having such honorable and giving citizens, like Barbara, who care about their well being and stability. We wish Barbara, her husband, Lloyd, and their family all the best as we pay tribute to one of our State's finest citizens.

TRIBUTE TO JOE WARNER

HON. JOHN SHIMKUS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 5, 2003

Mr. SHIMKUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the life of Joe Warner, who tragically passed away in a plane crash shortly after takeoff from Central Illinois Regional Airport on July 22.

Many of our Nation's greatest servants have never been elected to public office. They silently and humbly transform communities out of the kindness of their hearts, selfless generosity, and a dedication to improving the welfare of loved ones and those whom he had never met. Joe Warner was one of these servants, and serves as an inspiration to us all.

Joe Warner was born on July 3, 1942, in DeKalb, IL, to Paul and Doris Walkey Warner. He attended Northern Illinois University, and then received his MBA from the University of Illinois. Mr. Warner went on to become president and chief executive officer of Heritage Enterprises, a long term care corporation, which is located in Bloomington, IL.

The frail elderly of Illinois have benefited greatly from the leadership and dedication of Joe Warner. Whether it was in his capacity as president and chief executive officer of Heritage Enterprises, or president of the Illinois Health Care Association, Mr. Warner tirelessly advocated on behalf of Illinois' seniors to ensure they were afforded the highest quality of care. He considered anything less as unacceptable, because his residents were our fathers, mothers, wives, and husbands.

Joe Warner's generosity was not limited to the elderly. Illinois' youth have also lost a friend. Prior to his passing, he had taken on the role of planner and fundraiser for the $3 million Challenger Learning Center, which will be an educational site for children to learn more about math and science. Memorial contributions are being made to the learning center, to ensure that Mr. Warner's vision is realized.

The towns of Normal and Bloomington are better places to work and live because of Joe Warner. In 1987 he conducted a $2 million renovation in Bloomington which served as a catalyst in the town's revitalization program. In addition, he served on Normal's 2025 Committee, which planned for the city's future, as well as its Downtown Advisory Commission.

Joe Warner was involved in scores of organizations, and knew the importance of investment in his community. Mr. Warner was the dedicated head of the McLean County GOP for ten years. He served his country in the army. He was on the legislative committee of the board of directors of the Illinois State University Foundation. He was the past-president of the Redbird Education and Scholarship Fund at Illinois State University, past-chairman of the McLean County American Heart Association, past-director of the Bloomington Occupational Development Center, past-director of the United Campus Christian Church Foundation; past ruling elder of the First United Presbyterian Church, past director of the Illinois Wesleyan University Association, and past director of the Illinois Restaurant Association.

Along with his cherished wife, Rose Stadel, Joe Warner was a loving and devoted father to his children Jeff, and Jennifer. His son is a pilot and introduced him to flying, which became his passion.

The memory of Joe Warner will continue through his numerous contributions to his community. On July 22, Illinois lost a respected and admired friend. He will be missed. On behalf of my colleagues, I salute the rich legacy and the spirit of Joe Warner.
