

successfully financed the construction of new housing for low-income individuals and families in North Square.

As a member of the Waterbury Democratic Town Committee, King David sought to organize the city's African-American community politically. He strongly promoted local and State African-American political leaders and worked on the Senatorial campaigns of Abraham Ribicoff and my father, Thomas Dodd, both of whom fully supported equal rights. In this regard, I am pleased to say that my family has greatly cherished the friendship and support of this fine man and his family.

King David was known for his open mind and willingness to work with all people for a better Waterbury and a better America. He will be sadly missed. But his social and political contributions will have a lasting impact for many years to come.

King David was predeceased by his daughter, Muriel. He is survived by three children, Patricia, Maria, and King David, Jr., by Erlynde Holmes DePina, and by ten grandchildren.●
