

throughout Minnesota. However, it is with great sadness I report that Frank has recently been diagnosed with cancer. He is recovering well, but I ask that he and his family be kept in our thoughts and prayers.

It is important for all of us to remember our veterans, many of whom gave the ultimate sacrifice to ensure our liberty, to ensure that it is protected. And it is the volunteers of Liberty Day, it is these veterans, it is individuals who have sacrificed their own time and effort for the good of their neighbors, these are the true inspiration for the importance of Liberty Day.

Mr. Speaker, Liberty Day is a wonderful concept and a valuable part of teaching all Americans about the importance of civics. I strongly encourage everyone to support Liberty Day and to volunteer to help advance this noble cause.
