

leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and that the Senate then immediately proceed to the consideration of Calendar No. 97, S. 1054, the jobs and economic growth bill, as provided under the previous order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, tomorrow morning the Senate will begin consideration of the jobs and economic growth bill. Under the previous order, 14 hours remain for debate under the statutory time limit. Amendments are expected throughout the day and, therefore, rollcall votes will occur during Wednesday's session.

At this time, I remind my colleagues that reconciliation procedures limit debate time on both the underlying measure and all amendments. I encourage all Senators who wish to participate in the economic growth debate to contact the Finance Committee so that we may ensure an orderly, disciplined, and efficient process.

We will complete action—we will complete action—on the jobs and economic growth bill this week. Following the jobs bill, the Senate will consider the bipartisan global HIV/AIDS bill. In order for the Senate to complete action on these measures, late nights and rollcall votes will occur throughout the week. I, therefore, advise my colleagues to make the necessary scheduling arrangements.

Mr. President, does the assistant minority leader have any comments?

Mr. REID. No.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:15 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the provisions of S. Res. 142, as a mark of further respect of the life and accomplishments of Senator Russell Long.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:57 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, May 14, 2003, at 9:15 a.m.
