House of Representatives

MEDICARE PRESCRIPTION DRUG AND MODERNIZATION ACT OF 2003—Continued

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, the Democratic plan does just that. This Republican bill, I repeat, is not guaranteed. It is not affordable. It is not a defined prescription drug benefit under Medicare that our seniors want and deserve. The Republican plan is a plan to end Medicare. I urge my colleagues to reject this raw deal for America's seniors and vote no on the Republican bill and yes on the very excellent Democratic proposal.

Mr. TAUZIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, when we test the arguments made on the floor of the House on a major piece of legislation such as this, it is important to test the credibility of those arguments. The best way to test that credibility is to first ask Members a fairy tale.

Once upon a time Bill Clinton proposed Medicare prescription drug coverage for America. Once upon a time my Democratic friends, the gentleman from California (Mr. STARK), the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL), the gentleman from California (Mr. WAXMAN), the gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL), the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. BROWN), and many others introduced a bill, H.R. 1405.

Once upon a time Democrats recommended a bill with a $200 deductible, 80 percent cost sharing by the government up to $1,700 of drug expenses, a doughnut hole, and then $3,000 out-of-pocket catastrophic coverage with no defined premium. And guess what, once upon a time their bill provided that the benefits would be provided through a PBM. Members might ask how would the PBM be selected: By competitive bidding.

Members might further ask how the contracts be awarded under this privatization of Medicare, and the answer in a fairy tale world would be shared risk capitation of performance. But the truth is this is not a fairy tale. It happens to be the truth. That was the Democratic proposal on Medicare prescription drugs, but tonight Democrats have come to the floor one after the other and criticized this plan because it contained many of those same features. Different, however, in some respects because this plan provides better coverage for seniors on the bottom. In fact, while some of my friends came to the floor and called this a sad day and said how sorry they were for the citizens of California, this bill we proposed would put 14 million California senior citizens in plans that would cost them no premiums, no deductibles, free entry for drugs in California for 14 million senior citizens, half a million in Indiana, half a million in Ohio, half a million in Pennsylvania, almost a million in Texas, and so on and so forth, free drug coverage under this plan, and yet the fantasy plan offered by the Clinton administration just a few years ago containing many of the same elements is somehow forgotten. It is somehow put away in a closet. It is somehow not to be remembered, and this plan is to be attacked. When we test credibility of arguments on the floor of the House, test them against the reality of the plan offered by the Democrats and the reality of the plan offered today.

I want to thank the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) for the courtesies and the respect and the statesmanship he has always shown me in debates in committee and on the floor of House. The gentleman is a dear friend. I wish I could say that about all Members all the time. But let me say something, I am offended that anyone would come to this floor and accuse anyone in this House of wanting to get old people. Do Members think for a second they love their moms and dads any more than we love ours?

I ask the gentleman from California (Mr. STARK), do you really believe that is a shame. My mom and dad never earned above poverty. They made hard choices all their life for us. They sent three out of their four children to college. They fed and clothed us and gave us a great education and a chance for me to come to Congress. I love that woman and I loved my dad as long as I had him. How dare anyone suggest otherwise. We love our parents and grandparents the same.

We differ on how to structure this program today. Apparently we did not a few years ago, but we do now. That is a legitimate debate and that is worthy of this House, but to suggest that any of us care less about old people, to suggest that any of us love those citizens who gave so much and made those hard choices for us any less than we do is a shame. My parents made hard choices. My mother knows how to make hard choices. Let me tell Members something, I grew up in a poverty family. My mom and dad never earned above poverty. They made hard choices all their life for us. They sent three out of their four children to college. They fed and clothed us and gave us a great education and a chance for me to come to Congress. I love that woman and I loved my dad as long as I had him. How dare anyone suggest otherwise. We love our parents and grandparents the same.

committee report is back after a compromise with the Senate, you might want to join us then.

Mr. ISTOK. Mr. Speaker, this bill will hasten the day when Medicare will go bankrupt, and it also threatens to unravel our children’s future.

Medicare is already on shaky financial legs, and this will add enormous extra expenses that will make it worse. Do we expect our children to pay a lifetime of higher taxes, and still find there’s nothing left for them when they retire? That is what we face.

I would like to add prescription drug benefits, but it’s wrong to promise something we cannot pay for.

I want to preserve what’s good about Medicare, not destroy it by making extravagant promises for political gain.

The enormous extra spending under this bill will be far more than projected. Because today’s Medicare is a huge price control system, many doctors already refuse to see Medicare patients. In just a few years this will make it worse, including price controls that will destroy the incentives for companies to create new medicines.

What should we do then?

Since 76 percent of seniors already have drug coverage, we could focus on helping those who don’t. But this bill undoes the coverage they want and puts them in a confusing new medical experiment.

We should stabilize Medicare, so it can keep the promises already made, not making new promises that we don’t have the money to keep.

We should address the reasons why drug prices and healthcare costs are so high. By banning re-imported drugs, we’re forcing Americans to subsidize far-lower drug prices in other countries. We should change our policies so Americans only pay the lower world price, not a higher price.

We should end the 130,000 pages of federal regulations that have driven the costs of medicine and healthcare through the roof. On average, for every hour they spend with a patient, doctors and nurses spend another half-hour doing government paperwork.

We should stress personal responsibility in healthcare, just as we did in welfare reform, so government resources are focused on those who cannot care for themselves, not on those who can.

Bit-by-bit, Congress is undoing the principles of welfare reform, and undercutting basic American principles in the process. Both political parties are making extravagant promises today, trying to outbid each other to win votes. Unfortunately, they are bidding with taxpayers’ own money, and our children’s hopes will be crushed by the bills they will inherit.

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, for far too long, as I traveled around the state of New Mexico, seniors have told me their heart-breaking stories of being forced to choose between purchasing their medicine and purchasing groceries as a result of the exploding costs of prescription drugs. Today we have an excellent opportunity to address this tragic situation by providing a prescription drug benefit for Medicare beneficiaries and put an end to the outrageous dilemma facing our seniors throughout the country. In addition, we have an historic opportunity to modernize the credibly important Medicare program, including updating formulas for our health care providers in rural areas—an issue that is of particular importance to my constituents and me.

Thankfully, H.R. 1 does address the latter concern, but unfortunately falls far short on the critically important issue of prescription drug coverage. The prescription drug benefit proposed in H.R. 1 is a first step toward privatizing one of the most successful government programs in history, leaves seniors at the mercy of insurance companies, forces seniors into HMOs, has an incredible gap in coverage, and does nothing to control the exploding costs of prescription drugs. As such, I strongly believe that we must take the necessary steps to provide meaningful prescription drug benefits to our seniors.

Under this bill, seniors and disabled Medicare beneficiaries can obtain their prescription drug coverage only from HMOs and private insurance companies. Given the history of HMOs and other private health plans in rural areas, I have serious concerns about this approach. In fact, in 1997 in the state of New Mexico, HMOs dropped approximately 18,000 individuals because of rising costs. These individuals were left with nowhere to turn.

H.R. 1 would put beneficiaries at a similar risk by relying on the drug-only plans, which can decide whether or not to serve rural areas, and they can decide to leave every 12 months. Further contributing to the risk of this provision is the fact that there is no fallback option to allow traditional Medicare beneficiaries lower drug coverage if the private plans decline to provide coverage in rural areas. Because much of my district is rural, this legislation would put the seniors in my district at particular risk. I cannot support this.

This is greatly disappointing to me given the several major rural healthcare provisions that are including in this legislation. The labor share revision, the geographic physician payment adjustment, equalizing the Medicare disproportionate share payments, increasing home health services furnished in rural areas, critical access hospital improvements—these are all incredibly important provisions that I strongly support in order to help strengthen the health care system in rural areas. I cannot, however, vote in support of H.R. 1 with the extremely flawed prescription drug benefit included with these strong rural health provisions.

Mr. Speaker, I strongly support adding a voluntary prescription drug benefit to Medicare. I strongly believe that we must take action to provide relief for our nation’s seniors. I simply do not believe, however, that H.R. 1 is the most effective way to do so. Tonight I will be votig in support of the substitute being offered by Mr. RANGEL and Mr. DINGELL.

In addition to including stronger rural provisions, those included in the Majority’s bill the substitute includes a guaranteed benefit of a $25 premium, a $100 deductible, 20% co-insurance, and a $2,000 catastrophic protection. The substitute also allows for lower drug prices by granting the Secretary of Health and Human Services the authority to use the collective purchasing power of Medicare’s 40 million beneficiaries to negotiate lower drug prices. Also, the substitute grants access to generic drugs, and allows the safe re-importation of pharmaceuticals, providing further tools to seniors for gaining access to cheaper prescription drug prices.

Perhaps most importantly, the substitute will not force seniors to leave traditional Medicare to get drug coverage. Nor will they be forced to join a private insurance plan that will restrict access to needed drugs, deny coverage for the medicine their doctor prescribes, or force them to change pharmacies.

Mr. Speaker, our seniors deserve a real prescription drug benefit, not the flawed benefit included in H.R. 1. I urge my colleagues to vote against H.R. 1 and support the substitute. Our seniors should not be forced into the unconscionable position of being forced to choose between medications and groceries any longer, and, unfortunately, H.R. 1 will not adequately address this situation.

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, late last night, the House Rules Committee sent a terrible message to our Nation’s seniors and hospitals. Two amendments I proposed were not allowed to pass onto the House floor. The first amendment would have stricken the language regarding the “market basket” index. Under the current bill hospitals would lose $12 billion over the next ten years. My amendment would have increased the funding level so that hospitals would not be forced to make difficult cuts in services and jeopardize patient care.
My second amendment would have assured that the prescription drug benefits we members of Congress enjoy would be comparable to those of Medicare beneficiaries. My colleagues in the Senate passed such an amendment, but the Members of the House Rules Committee seem reluctant to subject themselves to the same benefits they would give our Nation’s seniors. They have sent the clear message that these benefits are not good enough for them, the relatively young and healthy, but are adequate for our Nation’s seniors and disabled persons.

One more time, this Congress has proven that the Democratic process is not working. Not only are the voices of America’s seniors not being heard, but neither are those of Members of Congress. As we go home to celebrate our Nation’s independence, we will have to explain to those seniors that yes, a prescription drug bill passed, but it will not benefit them. It will not benefit middle America, it will not benefit the poor, it will not benefit those who are already struggling to buy their prescription drugs. It will only benefit those who can currently afford their drug—affordable for hospital services, and afford to pass this bill. Mr. Speaker, I oppose this rule and I oppose the underlying bill.

Mr. HOLT. Mr. Speaker, for forty years, the federal government has kept a promise to our nation’s seniors: promise is called Medicare, and it means that every senior will receive affordable, reliable health care in their later years.

Four years ago, I came to this Congress having made a promise to the seniors in my Congress district: that I would work to bring Medicare into the twenty-first century by including coverage for prescription drugs. Coverage that, like the original Medicare program, is comprehensive, voluntary, universal, and reliable—without hampering the innovation that has brought us so many miraculous drugs over the past few decades.

Today I am voting to keep that promise by opposing a bill that would undermine the Medicare program itself. H.R. 1 purports to offer seniors coverage for the prescription drugs they rely on every day. Unfortunately, it falls far short when held up to the spirit and practice of Medicare.

The most distressing aspect of this bill, to me, to my constituents, and to the AARP, is that it takes the entire Medicare program down a short road to privatization. By the year 2010, Medicare would be converted to a voucher program with competition between managed care plans and traditional fee-for-service—only the deck would be stacked against the traditional plans. Seniors would find themselves with for-profit managed care programs like the Medicare-Choice programs that have failed so miserably in central New Jersey.

Rather than giving seniors what they want and deserve—a reliable, affordable drug benefit under Medicare, this provision, glibly called “premium support,” will destabilize the program and lead to substantially higher costs for seniors who want to stay in traditional Medicare.

Yet another element of confusion comes from the bizarre “donut hole” in coverage under this bill. Seniors would find themselves paying 20 percent of drug costs up to $2000 in drug costs—then having no coverage until they reach $4900 in drug costs, when a catastrophic cap finally kicks in. Not only is this extremely convoluted, it ends up leaving seniors with a very paltry benefit. A beneficiary with $5000 in annual drug costs would pay nearly $4000 out of their own pocket!

This may be alarming to seniors who currently have no drug coverage. There are millions out there, however, who may think this debate won’t really affect them because they already have coverage under their company’s retiree benefit packages. I want them to know that the Republicans have quite a surprise in store for them.

If this bill passes, nearly one-third of employers currently offering retiree drug benefits—covering 11 million seniors—would drop that coverage. Retiree benefits would not count towards the beneficiary’s out-of-pocket limit, making it almost impossible for seniors with retiree coverage to ever reach the catastrophic cap. So the bill actually discrimates against seniors with existing coverage and will have the practical effect of employers ending their benefits. This provision makes no sense—why on earth do we want to have less private sector drug coverage?

While I am disappointed with the underlying bill, I am pleased to see that the Rules Committee made the Dingell-Rangel substitute bill in order. This legislation would go a long way to fulfilling the promise I mentioned—it would provide a reliable, stable benefit under Medicare. Beneficiaries know exactly what they would pay—20 percent of drug costs up to $2000 in out-of-pocket costs with a defined premium of $25 per month and a defined deductible of $100.

Tonight, in this body, by passing H.R. 1 we could be bringing about the end of a program that served seniors so well. Instead, we should pass the Dingell-Rangel substitute. That is what seniors need and deserve.

Ms. CHRISTENSEN, Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to the Republican prescription drug bill, and in favor of the Dingell/Rangel Substitute.

We have been talking about a Medicare drug benefit for at least as long as I have been here—seven years. It is time to deliver. We owe it to seniors who need it because their lives depend on it.

I have lobbied for the day when all people living in this country have reliable, comprehensive insurance coverage. Today we can bring this within the reach of every person on Medicare.

About 25 percent of my patients when I was in practice were on Medicare. Many could not get a full month’s supply of medication because they could not afford it on their fixed income. We would try to make it up with savings, but have not been as effective but was within their price range, and better than nothing, and with a lot of prayer. It is probably the latter which got them through.

The bill, H.R. 1, as usual comes with a good sounding name, but true to form it does nothing good at all. Instead, it misleads the older Americans who have been looking to us for help.

We need a benefit that is truly a benefit—one that is affordable and fair—through a program they know, have used all along and trust;

It needs to be available to all beneficiaries without having to navigate through the maze of managed care.

And we need to make it reliable—no holes to fall through when they might need it most; No dropping them like hot potatoes like happened with Medicare + choice.

Finally tonight, we have such a bill in the Democratic, Rangel/Dingell substitute.

In this bill, there are no slight of hands. What you see is what you get.

And our plan strengthens Medicare, while the Republican plan would slowly kill it.

No tricky numbers, no fancy words, just a simple Medicare prescription drug plan. That is what the senior and disabled citizens have been asking for and that is what they deserve. It is what God-willing; I hope I would have when I am on Medicare.

I want for Medicare beneficiaries, who have played an important role in making this country what it is, and paved the way for all of us, and those who have special needs, what I want for my family and myself.

The Democratic substitute, developed under the leadership of JOHN DINGELL and CHARLES RINGELL, is the only bill before either body, which honors our seniors’ gift to all of us.

Let us do the right thing. Reject the Republican bill and pass the Democratic substitute.

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in opposition to the Republican prescription drug bill. For years, our seniors have been begging for help to obtain affordable prescription drugs. Unfortunately, however, the bill before us today gives relief not to our vulnerable seniors, but to the large drug companies.

It forces Medicare patients into multiple private drug plans and out of Medicare. It undercuts seniors’ collective purchasing power and enables the drug industry to maintain its unjustifiably high prices.

In this bill, there are no slight of hands. What you see is what you get.

By contrast, the Democratic plan offered by Mr. RANGEL would provide voluntary prescription drug coverage for all Medicare beneficiaries. The plan curbs drug costs by allowing this Secretary to use the collective bargaining power of Medicare’s 40 million beneficiaries to negotiate lower drug prices.

I urge my colleagues to oppose the sham Republican proposal and support the Rangel substitute that provides real benefit to our Nation’s seniors.

Ms. MILLENDER-MCDONALD. Mr. Speaker, I stand here with my colleagues tonight to talk about the need for affordable prescription drug coverage for women. Because women suffer more from chronic illnesses requiring medication than men do, they pay more out of pocket for prescription medicines than their financial resources are often limited.

The proposed House bill would fail to offer meaningful prescription drug coverage to the millions of low-income women with incomes below the 135 percent poverty level who do not qualify for Medicare through their financial resources are often limited.

Unlike the House bill, the Senate proposal, while not perfect, would be far more helpful to elderly women who range from 74 to 160 percent of the poverty level. Under the House bill, the out-of-pocket costs paid by elderly women will still make it difficult for them to get their much-needed prescription drugs. In essence, the Senate bill is aモデル of the legislation women need who are in greatest need of assistance will receive up to 40 percent fewer prescrip- tions than those seniors who are able to afford private insurance. Our elderly women, who are among our most vulnerable citizens, deserve far better treatment than this. It is critical that Members of Congress, we help women and all seniors by expanding Medicare to offer a prescription drug benefit that is universal, affordable, dependable, and voluntary. We can do no less than to offer elderly women access to adequate healthcare that they can afford and easily access.

Our Republican colleagues are offering a plan that gives no real guarantees or assistance to those who need quality prescription drug coverage the most.

Furthermore, the House plan would force seniors to purchase their own private insurance, a tactic that will benefit insurance companies, and not seniors. This is a catastrophe we can avoid if we craft the right policy to benefit our elderly now. When it come to our elderly women, we know that:

Women make up 58 percent of the Medicare population at age 65, and 71 percent of the Medicare population at age 85.

Overall, elderly women have more chronic health problems than elderly men do.

On average, women live another 19 years after retirement, while men typically live another 15 years after retiring.

Due to the obstacles they face in enrolling, almost half of elderly women with incomes under the poverty limit are not enrolled in Medicare.

As compared to married women, widows are four times as likely, and divorced or single women are five times as likely to live in poverty upon retirement.

Many elderly women survive on fixed incomes. Over half of the older women age 65 and above earn less than $10,000 annually, and three out of four earn under $15,000 yearly.

In contrast to elderly men, older women age 65 and above earn $14,820 as compared to $26,543 for men in the same age group.

Once retired, women earn less than men do because:

Women tend to save less than men do throughout their lives which decreases their lifetime earnings.

Elderly women usually have smaller Social Security benefits and pension incomes than men do.

Minority women are much more likely to earn less and live in poverty than are White women. Even when they have similar educational backgrounds, minority women tend to earn less and own fewer assets.

The sad fact is, the older and poorer a woman is, the higher her out-of-pocket health care costs will be, and the more help an elderly woman requires, the less likely she is to receive assistance. As a nation, though we are facing a great economic crisis, we are still obliga- ted to provide assistance to our most needy citizens. Let us take good care of our elderly women and men by not enacting a prescription drug policy that will force them to choose between either buying food or paying for necessary medication.

Mr. COSTELLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to H.R. 1, the Medicare Pre- scriptio Drug and Modernization Act of 2003. This bill proposes to turn the prescription drug policy over to HMOs and the private insurance industry. Dear Sir, I am writing my Senators and Representatives to plead our case regarding Medicare proposals that could endanger patient access to chemotherapy. I am a lung cancer survivor, age 72, and my husband, age 78, is now undergoing chemo, for liver cancer. Chemo drugs are required for my husband's quality of life now and MRI's have shown the tumor have diminished in size, so "it's working!"

She goes on to say, "In the cancer community want one thing: for all critical cancer services, including chemotherapy and patient care services to be covered fully and fairly by Medicare." Mrs. Monk makes a good point. Services must be covered fully and fairly by Medicare. It does seniors no good to have unequal coverage of medications!

That is why I cannot support the Republican bill and urge my colleagues to vote against this poison pill for Medicare!

Mr. PASTOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in opposition to the Medicare Prescription Drug and Modernization Act. This bill, long heralded by the Republicans as a comprehensive overhaul of the Medicare system, will do nothing to alleviate the high cost on our seniors of the high cost of prescription drugs. It only will continue to aggravate the cause of health care inflation.

Department claims to the contrary, the bill, which calls for private drug-only plans, would not make drugs affordable. It has no mechanism for keeping prices down, no negotiation for acceptable terms, no guarantee of defined and stable costs. Seniors would be at the mercy of private plans. They would lose their choice of doctors. They would be at risk of continuous coverage.

Private plans would only have to promise to stay in the program for one year. We've had these problems before with the Medicare Plus Choice program which failed to deliver its expanded benefits, leaving millions of seniors out on a limb.

Seniors have voiced their concerns. They fear the absence of provisions to limit drug prices and the lack of certainty about the future of the program. Seniors living in rural areas are worried because they have no access to private plans and would have no "fallback" to offer coverage. Seniors are particularly concerned with the "gap-in-coverage" that means no coverage at all for drug spending between $2,000 and $5,100 in drug spending, forcing seniors to pay 20 percent co-insurance at all. Seniors first have to spend $250 out-of-pocket in drug costs. However, seniors must then pay 20 percent co-insurance for up to $2,000 in drug spending, forcing seniors to pay $310 out-of-pocket in drug costs. This improvement would save the hospital in Ely, Minnesota, and would strengthen ambulance services at nine other Critical Access Hospitals in my district. The Democrats plan would provide an additional $400 billion for all rural ambulance providers by increasing payments for ambulance services. The increases we propose would ensure the financial solvency of St. Mary's Life Flight, enabling it to continue assisting, for example, people who are injured while vacationing in the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness.

As a result, this untested, speculative health care experiment is going to abandon all seniors, especially rural seniors. The Republican plan replaces Medicare with an illusory promise to private health insurance companies that they will provide insurance for seniors. Not only does this bill undermine Medicare, it fails to guarantee an affordable prescription drug benefit. I don't understand how the majority, on the one hand can justify trillion dollar tax cuts, and on the other, impose an arbitrary limit on Medicare and prescription drug benefits. To comply with this artificial limitation, the Republican plan offers a complicated and untested prescription drug benefit, with an enormous gap in coverage.

The Republican plan is difficult to explain, but let me try: it begins with uncertain private health insurance premiums; then, seniors must pay $2,000 and $3,100 in drug spending before they receive any cost-sharing assistance, and there is a large coverage gap, the "hole" in the doughnut, where seniors will be paying premiums but receiving no assistance at all. Seniors first have to spend $250 a year, then they will pay 20 percent co-insurance for up to $2,000 in drug costs. However, no assistance would be provided between $2,000 and $5,100 in drug spending, forcing seniors to pay $3,100 out-of-pocket in drug costs. This plan is as unfair as it is complicated and costly to older Americans living on fixed incomes.

In contrast, the Democratic plan is guaranteed, defined, dependable, and understandable. It sets a premium of $25 a month; a $100 per year deductible; a 20 percent co-insurance payment for beneficiaries, with Medicare paying 80 percent; and a limit of $2,000 in out-of-pocket costs per beneficiary per year.

Health care is essential in greater Minnesota. The hospitals in many small communities throughout northern and northeastern Minnesota, the major employer in town, and the health care they offer is critical for economic development and tourism. The Rangel/Dingell bill offers a substantial improvement in payments to the hospitals and doctors in rural Minnesota who provide those critical health care services.

As a result, this untested, speculative health care experiment is going to abandon all seniors, especially rural seniors. The Republican plan replaces Medicare with an illusory promise to private health insurance companies that they will provide insurance for seniors. Not only does this bill undermine Medicare, it fails to guarantee an affordable prescription drug benefit. I don't understand how the majority, on the one hand can justify trillion dollar tax cuts, and on the other, impose an arbitrary limit on Medicare and prescription drug benefits. To comply with this artificial limitation, the Republican plan offers a complicated and untested prescription drug benefit, with an enormous gap in coverage.

The Republican plan is difficult to explain, but let me try: it begins with uncertain private health insurance premiums; then, seniors must pay $2,000 and $3,100 in drug spending before they receive any cost-sharing assistance, and there is a large coverage gap, the "hole" in the doughnut, where seniors will be paying premiums but receiving no assistance at all. Seniors first have to spend $250 a year, then they will pay 20 percent co-insurance for up to $2,000 in drug costs. However, no assistance would be provided between $2,000 and $5,100 in drug spending, forcing seniors to pay $3,100 out-of-pocket in drug costs. This plan is as unfair as it is complicated and costly to older Americans living on fixed incomes.

In contrast, the Democratic plan is guaranteed, defined, dependable, and understandable. It sets a premium of $25 a month; a $100 per year deductible; a 20 percent co-insurance payment for beneficiaries, with Medicare paying 80 percent; and a limit of $2,000 in out-of-pocket costs per beneficiary per year.

Health care is essential in greater Minnesota. The hospitals in many small communities throughout northern and northeastern Minnesota, the major employer in town, and the health care they offer is critical for economic development and tourism. The Rangel/Dingell bill offers a substantial improvement in payments to the hospitals and doctors in rural Minnesota who provide those critical health care services.
that they do not want to insure Medicare beneficiaries’ drug expenditures, but we keep throwing money at them in the hope that they will finally say yes. The premium subsidy used to be 67 percent, now it is 73 percent and Congress demands that it grow to 99.99 percent if need be. At the end of the day, who are we kidding? Of course it will be 99.99 percent.

Our problem is that the Congressional Budget Office has written this bill. The last time I checked, Mr. Speaker, it was not the job of the Congressional Budget Office to write highly technical and important health care legislation. But policymakers are so convinced that a purely insurance-based product will work that they are willing to follow CBO’s instructions and tweak the product one thousand different ways—and cut provider payments at the same time—to fit it under some magical budget ceiling. If CBO is wrong in its estimate, and this drug benefit costs more than $400 billion, our entire health care system will be at risk. This is not wise health care policy.

Where do my colleagues think the extra money is going to come from? When CBO realizes that their estimated insurance penetration rate was off by 10 percent that money will come out of future physician, hospital, nursing home, and home health care reimbursement rates. If only 85 percent of seniors sign up for drug coverage and plans’ subsidies skyrocket, that money will come out of Food and Drug Administration modernization efforts, National Institutes of Health research, and bioterrorism preparedness. Congress is working with a limited pool of money, and many prescription drug problems can only be solved with federal funds. Obviously, the experiences of the private sector have taught us nothing.

If Congress listened to the private sector, we would mirror the success of defined contribution plans and individual empowerment by offering choice. Seniors could choose between twenty different discount drug cards based on the cards’ formularies, pharmacy networks, and drug discounts. The government would set up accounts and contribute money to those accounts based on the seniors’ needs. Senior Congressmen and Senators, from Tammy Duckworth to Bill Nelson, from Susan Collins to John Barrasso, have put their name to the larger Medicare reform bill, and are promising to work on this problem.

I have long believed that Congress should act to help seniors with their prescription drug expenses. Nearly everyone agrees that Medicare should be updated with a drug benefit; it is the right and sensible thing to do. How we design that benefit is where the rub is. I had to speak the truth. I don’t believe this bill is similar to the one in the Senate because I think it’s a good start toward building a workable, financially sound prescription drug benefit. But the House bill is not the same as the Senate bill.

First, I think Congress should give seniors greater choice in coverage. If insurance riders are dropped, a reasonable percentage of Medicare beneficiaries will drop some of their current prescription drug benefits. The government would provide an equal prescription drug benefit to all beneficiaries, regardless of whether they enroll in a private health plan or traditional fee-for-service Medicare. We shouldn’t force seniors into managed care, which I believe this bill would do by opening the traditional Medicare program up to competitive bidding against private insurers in 2010.

Second, the House bill does not include an important “fallback” provision that requires that traditional Medicare would step in as a backup if private insurers show no interest in selling drug plans in a particular area. Currently, private plans don’t exist in many parts of the country, including many smaller cities, rural and mountain areas in Colorado. I’ve heard from many seniors in my district who have HMOs and are now struggling to find a doctor. In addition, 88 percent of all Medicare beneficiaries are enrolled in traditional Medicare. So, without this “fallback” safety net provision, seniors would have no coverage in regions where insurers say it’s unprofitable to provide it, especially rural areas.

Taken together, I think these provisions undermine the traditional Medicare program. By opening traditional Medicare to competitive bidding and with no fallback mechanism, I fear that our country will revert to the time before Medicare was established. In 1965 when private insurers wouldn’t provide affordable coverage to seniors. That’s a step backward, not a step forward, in fixing Medicare.

I also have problems with the home health copayment provision in the bill, which I believe will discourage seniors from accessing home health care, which is more cost-effective than accessing treatment an emergency room or a skilled nursing facility. And I am concerned that opening durable medical equipment to competitive bidding will give seniors less choice and put many small businesses out of business.

On top of everything, this 692-page bill was introduced at midnight last night. How can anyone know what’s in it, except the people who wrote it? Our seniors deserve greater respect.

Mr. Speaker, it is misguided at best that Medicare will pay for a senior’s care following a stroke but will not pay for the anti-hypertensive drugs that prevent them. The time is ripe to pass a Medicare prescription drug benefit, but not this one. I regret I can’t support it. I hope that a bill can be worked out in conference that I can support. We need to put ideological and partisan politics aside and get it done this year.

Mr. CROWLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Democratic substitute because this bill meets the 4 basic tenets that any prescription drug plan under Medicare should absolutely provide for:

First, it means lower drug prices. The House Democratic bill allows HHS to negotiate lower drug prices. The Republican bill, unfortunately, does not.

Second, this bill guarantees coverage under Medicare.

Because of this, a senior knows what his premium, cost-sharing level, and catastrophic coverage is. The Republican bill has no such guarantee.

Third, this bill provides coverage for all drugs prescribed by a doctor. Under the Republican bill, a payer could deny coverage for a drug if the payer decides to not include it in its formulary.

Fourth, this bill has no gaps in coverage. Under the Democratic plan, when a senior has spent $2,000 on drugs, the government picks up the remaining costs. Under the Republican plan, they’re dropped. They get zero coverage until they’ve spent $4,900. The Republican bill does not simply have one big problem. It has several huge problems. Only the Democratic substitute provides seniors in my district guaranteed, quality coverage. I urge an “aye” vote.

Mr. BUYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the bill, H.R. 1, the Medicare Prescription Drug and Modernization Act.

I fully support the effort to provide prescription drug coverage to Medicare beneficiaries. The successes in modern medicine that we see today can be partly attributed to the advances in safer and more effective pharmaceutical drug therapy. Illnesses and serious diseases that often required hospitalization 40 years ago, when Medicare was created, can now be treated with outpatient care and pharmaceuticals. This is a testament to the many scientists in numerous companies that toil daily to find compounds to treat and manage disease. The pharmaceutical industry is a testament to the free market system of the United States that rewards hard work, initiative, and enterprise. As the great minds of the world push the bounds of modern science, new discoveries in pharmacology lead to the betterment of mankind.

While H.R. 1 has some positive features, including addressing medical doctor and dentist provider reimbursement concerns and regular audit requirements, an improvement of an insurance product built and guaranteed by the government is not the approach to provide a drug benefit under Medicare.

And, make no mistake, we MUST get it right. I have serious levels of concern.

First, the legislation before us has the government assuming 73 percent of the risk of offering the insurance, 43 percent of the initial... benefit and 30 percent of reinsurance retroactively. This is the floor! We must all understand that the taxpayer's exposure to risk can only increase. The bill permits the government to assume more risk, up to 99.9 percent if it is necessary to entice an insurance product into a region. And this is an unknown factor. We nor cannot know what this provision will cost the taxpayers.

Today, Medicare already consumes nearly 12 percent of the federal budget. It is expected to be 30 percent or 35 percent of the federal budget in the year 2006. It is simply not realistic, nor fair, for seniors in one region to have products available and seniors in another region to not have choice because two plans have not been forthcoming.

Furthermore, I am adamantly opposed to the provision, especially in the other body, that the government provide this coverage. This will only lead to the government determining what prescription drugs a senior can have and ultimately the imposition of price controls that will have a chilling effect upon research and development of pharmaceutical therapies.

Third, the premium charged to seniors for the drug-only insurance plan is estimated to be $35 per year initially. This premium number is not found in the bill—it is an estimate by the Congressional Budget Office. What if it is more? Will seniors decide that this premium is worth the benefit they will receive under a drug insurance plan? There will be a great deal of kitchen table math being done by seniors in 2005 to decide whether this new benefit meets their drug needs and their wallet realities.

I am also concerned about a number of modifications made under the bill to reimburse for providers and to the last minute inclusion of language regarding the Patent Term Restoration Act, the so-called Hatch-Waxman law. Initiating more litigation of patent rights is not conducive to encouraging innovation in pharmaceuticals. Unfortunately, this is exactly what this provision will do.

The last majority of seniors have drug coverage today through either an existing government program or a private sector. However, 27 percent of seniors have nothing. These seniors pay the highest prices when they go to the pharmacy because they have no means to bargain for lower costs. These seniors also tend to be those between 100 percent and 175 percent of the federal poverty level. The government should not displace existing coverage and should address the needs of those seniors who do not have coverage.

The government should encourage employers, families and others to help seniors with the purchase of expensive prescription drugs. It is time that we admit that no proposal that comes to the House floor that meets the budget requirements will fully address all the prescription drug requirements of seniors. Every plan will have a "so-called donut hole." There should be no such put-in-a-hole without putting our heads in the sand and expecting it to simply "work out."

We live by a system of checks and balances. We run into the limitations with every-thing that we do. How can we then create a system that is not dependent but unknown? The government’s assistance to beneficiaries should be a defined contribution. This type of benefit would be manageable and known.

I am committed to providing a prescription drug benefit for seniors. Seniors should have a defined contribution of a type that is available in the private sector to drive down costs and improve health care services.

Along with four of my colleagues on the Energy and Commerce Committee, we submitted legislation, that would address these issues and provide a prescription drug benefit under Medicare. I testified before the Rules Committee to request a vote on our bill. The request was denied. This benefit would have been delivered through a prescription drug discount, or value, card that would be available to all seniors for a voluntary basis for an annual $30 fee. This is an approach that has been recommended by the President.

Any entity qualified by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services could offer a drug value card to seniors. Card issuers would negotiate with pharmaceutical manufacturers for discounts on drug utilizing the same techniques that are found in the marketplace today. These discounts would range from 15 percent to 35 percent of current retail prices. The competition among these card issuers would result in attractive offerings to bene-ficiaries.

Recognizing that some beneficiaries need financial assistance to pay for prescription drugs, this legislation would tie the drug value card to an account to which the federal govern-ment would provide assistance related to the income of the beneficiary. Others could add contributions on a tax preferred basis up to $5,000 for a beneficiary and family; and $5,000 for an employer. Non-profit organiza-tions, like local churches, and State pharma-ceutical assistance programs could add contributions to the accounts. Contributions on the accounts would roll over from year to year.

Protection from catastrophic drug expenses would also be offered at $10,000 through the private sector, with federal subsidies on the premium for those with low incomes.

In my opinion, this delivery mechanism for a prescription drug benefit works best for the beneficiary, and best for the taxpayers. Bene-ficiaries would have access to negotiated dis-counts and some financial assistance to buy their medications. The taxpayers would have a defined contribution that could be planned from year to year in the federal budget.

My colleagues, this has been a long road for us all. But, it is nothing compared to what could happen if Congress gets this wrong. Please be mindful of our obligations to our na-tion, not just to seniors.

It is my opinion that Congress needs to grasp this opportunity to provide a prescription drug benefit with a full appreciation of the duty and responsibility this nation has to its seniors, taxpayers, and future generations. To do anything less, we break the trust of all Americans.

Because the margin for error is so thin, my hope is that the majority is right. However, my instinct and instincts are not correct. We have not fulfilled the desired result. I must vote against final passage of this measure.
as Medicare and/or HMO bureaucracies attempt to control costs by reducing the reimbursements paid to pharmacists to below-market levels (thus causing pharmacists to refuse to participate in Medicare), and restricting the type of pharmacies seniors may use in the name of efficiency. Both of these cost savings that seniors may even go so far as to forbid seniors from using their own money to purchase Medicare-covered pharmaceuticals. I remind my colleagues that today the federal government prohibits seniors from using their own money to obtain prescription drugs that differ from those "approved" of by the Medicare bureaucracy.

This bill is even more pernicious when one realizes that this plan provides a perverse incentive for private plans to dump seniors into the government plans. In what is likely to be a futile effort to prevent this from happening, H.R. 1 extends federal subsidies to private insurers to bribe them to keep providing private drug coverage to senior citizens. However, the Joint Economic Committee has estimated that nearly 40 percent of private plans that currently provide prescription drug coverage to seniors will stop providing such coverage if this plan is enacted. This number is certain to skyrocket once the pharmaceutical companies begin to realize the potential cost savings caused by Medicare price controls to private plans.

Furthermore, these private plans will be subject to government regulations. Thus, even seniors who are able to maintain their private coverage will fall under federal control. Thus, H.R. 1 will reduce the access of many seniors to the prescription drugs of their choice!

Setting up a system where by many of those currently receiving private coverage are hired into the government program exacerbates the problems with this bill: it hastens the bankruptcy of the Medicare program and the federal government. According to Medicare Trustee, and professor of economics at Texas A&M University, Tom Saving, the costs of this bill could eventually amount to $3.8 trillion! Of course, estimates such as this often widely underestimate the costs of government programs. For example, in 1965, the government estimate that the Medicare Part B hospitalization program would cost $9 billion in 1990, but Medicare Part B costs $66 billion in 1990!

This new spending comes on top of recent increases in spending for "homeland security," foreign aid, federal education programs, and new welfare initiatives, such as those transforming churches into agents of the welfare bureaucracy. In addition we have launched a seemingly endless program of global reconstruction to spread "democratic capitalism." The need to limit spending is never seriously discussed: it is simply assumed that Congress can spend whatever it wants, as long as it is on the Federal Reserve to bail us out of trouble. This is a prescription for disaster.

At the least, we should be debating whether to spend on warfare or welfare and choosing between war and welfare for the poor instead of simply increasing spending on every program. While I would much rather spend federal monies on prescription drugs than another unconstitutional war, increasing spending on any program without corresponding spending reductions endangers our nation's economic future.

Congress further exacerbates the fiscal problems created by this bill by failing to take any steps to reform the government policies responsible for the skyrocketing costs of prescription drugs. Congress should help all Americans by reforming federal patent laws and FDA policies, which provide certain large pharmaceutical companies a government-granted monopoly over pharmaceutical products. Perhaps instead of Congress doing to reduce prescription drug prices, policies are liberalizing the regulations surrounding the reimportation of FDA-Approved pharmaceuticals.

As a representative of an area near the Texas-Mexico border, I often hear from angry constituents who cannot purchase inexpensive, high-quality imported pharmaceuticals in their local drug store. Some of these constituents regularly travel to Mexico on their own to purchase pharmaceuticals. This is an outrage that my constituents are being denied the opportunity to benefit from a true free market in pharmaceuticals by their own government.

Supporters of H.R. 1 claim that this bill does liberalize the rules governing the importation of prescription drugs. However, H.R. 1’s importation language in H.R. 1 is a smokescreen designed to fool the gullible into thinking Congress is acting to create a free market in pharmaceuticals. The alternative suffers from the same flaws, and will have the same (if not worse) negative consequences. H.R. 1.

There are only two differences between the two: First, under the alternative, seniors will not be able to choose to have a federally subsidized HMO bureaucracy deny them their choice of prescription drugs; instead, seniors will have to accept the control of bureaucrats at the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). Second, the alternative is even more fiscally irresponsible than H.R. 1.

Mr. Speaker, our seniors deserve better than a "choice" between whether a private or public sector controls their health care. Meaningful prescription drug legislation should be based on the principles of maximum choice and flexibility for senior citizens. For example, my H.R. 1617 provides seniors the ability to use Medicare dollars to cover the costs of prescription drugs in a manner that increases seniors' control over their own health care.

H.R. 1617 removes the numerical limitations and sunset provisions in the Medicare Medical Savings Accounts (MSA) program. Medicare MSAs exist on the current deficit containing Medicare funds for seniors to use for their routine medical expenses, including prescription drug costs. Unlike the plans contained in H.R. 4504, and the Democratic alternative, Medicare MSAs allow seniors to use Medicare funds to obtain the prescription drugs that fit their unique needs. Medicare MSAs also allow seniors to use Medicare funds for other services not available under traditional Medicare, such as mammograms.

Medicare MSAs will also ensure that seniors have access to a wide variety of health care services by minimizing the role of the federal bureaucracy. As many of my colleagues know, an increasing number of health care providers have withdrawn from the Medicare program because of the paperwork burden and constant interference with their practice by bureaucrats from the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services. The MSA program frees seniors and providers from this burden, thus making it more likely that quality providers will remain in the Medicare program.

There are claims that this bill provides seniors access to MSAs. It is true that this bill lifts the numerical caps on Medicare MSAs; however, it also imposes price controls and bureaucratic requirements on MSA programs. The MSAs contain nothing to free seniors and health care providers from third party control of health care decisions!

Mr. Speaker, seniors should not be treated like children by the federal government and told what health care services they can and cannot have. We in Congress have a duty to preserve and protect the Medicare trust fund. We must keep the promise to America's seniors and working Americans, whose taxes finance Medicare, that they will have quality health care in their golden years. However, we also have a duty to make sure that seniors can get the health care that suits their needs, instead of being forced into a cookie cutter program designed by Washington, DC-based bureaucrats! Medicare MSAs are a good first step toward allowing seniors the freedom to control their own health care.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, I would like to comment on the procedure under which this will be brought before the House. Last week, the committees with jurisdiction passed two separate, but similar Medicare prescription drug bills. In the middle of last night, the two bills were merged to produce H.R. 1. The bills reported out of Committee were each less than 400 pages, yet the bill we are voting on today is 692 pages. So in the middle of the night, the bill mysteriously doubled in size! Once again, members are asked to vote on a significant piece of legislation with far reaching effects on the American people without having had a public hearing, study, or even seen major portions of the bill.

In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, both H.R. 1 and the alternative force seniors to cede control over which prescription medicines they may receive. The only difference between them is that H.R. 1 gives federal and HMO bureaucrats control over seniors' prescription drugs, whereas the alternative gives government functionaries the power to tell seniors which prescription drugs they can (and can't) have. Congress can, and must, do better for America's seniors, by rejecting this command-and-control approach. Instead, Congress should give seniors the ability to use Medicare funds to pay for the prescription drugs of their choice by passing my legislation that gives all seniors access to Medicare Medical Savings Accounts.

Mr. THORNBERY. Mr. Speaker, health care is an important but complex issue for Congress and for America's seniors. Two facts, however, seem clear:

First, it is true that Medicare is currently headed toward financial collapse. The last report of the Medicare trustees shows that in nine years the income of the Medicare trust fund will not be enough to cover its expenses. After that, the problem gets much worse with the retirement of the baby boom generation.

A second clear fact is that Medicare was enacted in 1965 and has been largely unchanged since then. It does not reflect modern medical practices, including our reliance upon prescription drugs. If we were designing a new federal health care program for seniors today—rather than in 1965 when Medicare was created—we would unquestionably include some form of prescription drug coverage.

Our objective then should be to update and strengthen Medicare so that it does a better job of providing health care for seniors and at the same time put Medicare on a sound financial footing so that it can be sustained through the baby boom generation retirement. This bill takes some steps in that direction. It contains some reforms that improve Medicare and give beneficiaries more control over their health care. It also adds prescription drug coverage, and there are too many seniors in my district who are not able to afford the prescription medicines they need, forcing them either to do without and become sick or to sacrifice other necessities of life.

I am gravely concerned, however, that the reforms take too long to implement and that the new drug benefit will cost far more than expected. Without changes, this bill may add a major new benefit to Medicare but, at the same time, hasten the day of its financial collapse.

At the same time if we do nothing, we are guaranteeing that Medicare will not survive for long. The alternative proposals are far too expensive and are fiscally irresponsible. I have other concerns with this bill, such as the reductions in payments for cancer treatments. Today, however, I will vote to send the House bill to conference with the Senate. I strongly urge that improvements be made to ensure Medicare solvency and to improve the quality of health care for America’s seniors. We can do better. If improvements are not made, I will not be able to support the final conference report.

Mr. KIND. Mr. Speaker, providing affordable Medicare prescription drug coverage for our nation’s seniors is one of the most pressing issues facing our country today. Even though the elderly use the most prescriptions, more than 75 percent of seniors on Medicare lack reliable prescription drug coverage. It is time we modernize Medicare to reflect our current health care delivery system. The use of prescription medications is as important today as the use of hospital beds was in 1965 when Medicare was created.

I have heard from a number of seniors in western Wisconsin regarding the problems they have paying for prescription drugs. One woman from Deer Park, Wisconsin, a small town in my district, wrote to me and said:

My medication is $135.00 per month. Fortunately, I am not on any Medicare. If we both were not working part-time, I guess that we would have to make a choice between food and medication—does one eat to survive or take the medication for a ‘long and happy life’?

What is to happen to this couple if the husband falls ill and has high drug costs too?

The cost of prescription medicines should not place financial strains on seniors that would force them to choose between buying drugs and buying food. We need to make prescription medicines affordable and accessible to all of our seniors.

I came to Congress to work toward a real solution to this problem. Unfortunately, today’s debate is a sham. We will not have the opportunity to discuss this issue in a fair and open process. There were several alternatives presented at the Rules Committee late last night and they should be debated on the floor today. The majority, however, chose to dedicater only one day to this debate and allowed only one alternative and no amendments to be made. Order seniors deserve better. They deserve an open process, but the Republican leadership has failed to deliver this.

The leadership has also failed seniors with their prescription drug proposal. The Republican plan relies on health insurance companies to offer drug only policies which they have said they won’t offer. Further, there is no fall back option. So, if insurance companies won’t offer these policies, how will seniors actually obtain prescription drug coverage under the leadership plan?

Providing a drug benefit through private plans could be problematic, specifically for folks living in rural and small communities. There are no requirements as to what has to be covered under the umbrella plan. There is concern that the healthy seniors will leave traditional Medicare and the premiums will increase dramatically, up to 47 percent. In addition, under the leadership bill, each local area will have a different premium for fee-for-service Medicare.

For example, seniors in Wisconsin might have to pay more to enroll in fee-for-service Medicare than seniors in Florida. This is a drastic departure from Medicare’s fundamental principle that seniors across the country pay the same premium for the fee-for-service benefit. The bill does not provide a real solution to the problem of prescription drug coverage for our seniors. The Republican plan falls woefully short.

All of the Democratic alternatives offered at the Rules Committee would be better than the leadership bill. One proposal, the Medicare Rx NOW Act, is a simple straightforward plan that provides assistance to the seniors most in need, those with low incomes and seniors with high drug costs. This proposal builds on the Medicare program seniors know and provides them with a guaranteed benefit for no additional lump sum to purchase health insurance, in addition to the Medicare prescription drug coverage, and there are too many seniors in my district who are not able to afford the prescription medicines they need, forcing them either to do without and become sick or to sacrifice other necessities of life.

I am grateful for the many important provisions in this package from my Medicare Innovation Responsiveness Act (H.R. 941), which will increase seniors’ access to lifesaving medical technology.

As founder and co-chair of the Medical Technology Caucus, I have seen first-hand the incredible advances that medical technology provides for seniors and others who rely on health insurance companies to offer prescription drug proposals. The Republican leadership has failed to deliver on its promise to provide a drug benefit, the bill modernizes and improves Medicare to give seniors better choices and greater access to state-of-the-art health care.

Forty-seven percent of seniors in Medicare will have a $1,900 gap in their drug coverage. How are our seniors supposed to make up for that gap?

How are our parents and grandparents going to afford that? Most seniors are on fixed incomes with nothing to spare.

Forty percent of poor and disabled seniors won’t get the additional help they need to pay deductibles and premiums. 40 percent.

This plan will not give taxpaying pregnant women and children benefits! It will not help the twenty million Hispanics without Health insurance! And it will not help our parents and grandparents pay for their medicines!

We must take care of our seniors! We must not gamble with their health and well-being. Seniors deserve to be protected in a safe and fair healthcare plan.

In my district, San Bernardino, California, seniors are boarding buses to Tijuana so they can afford to buy prescription drugs.

Our seniors have to go all the way to Mexico to get the life-saving medicine they need. This is an outrage!

They are often forced to choose between medicine and food.

Furthermore, this plan doesn’t guarantee a prescription benefit for seniors and it actually jeopardizes current Medicare coverage. The proposed benefit is entirely run by the private insurance industry to try to make a buck off people who need medicine. Without a fallback provision, there is no guarantee that private plans will be established in largely rural areas like Maine—so our seniors will be left in the cold. This has happened before with Medicare Part B, and it is very likely to happen again, meaning that Maine’s seniors would get nothing from this bill.

In addition, this bill also contains a “premier assistance” provision that aims to phase out traditional fee-for-service Medicare and replace it with prescription drug coverage. This is just another step toward total privatization of Medicare and the elimination of the only plan available to seniors in areas such as Maine—the traditional Medicare plan. Forcing seniors into private plans, and making them give up Medicare, is not the right approach—but that’s what this bill would do.

This bill also has a very large gap in coverage seniors would have to continue to pay a monthly premium, but would receive absolutely no benefit for drug costs between $2,000–$4,900. Having this kind of a gap in coverage is like telling people that their auto insurance doesn’t cover accidents in June, July and August.

Finally, and perhaps worst of all, there is a provision in this bill that does not allow for rear coverage to count toward the out-of-pocket spending cap. It has been estimated that the bill passed by the House would result in up to 1/3 of employers dropping their retiree coverage, the seniors who enjoy these plans will be forced into a Medicare plan with fewer benefits. The House should not pass a plan that forces seniors to lose what benefits they have.

For all these reasons, groups from AARP to the National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare have sharply criticized this plan. I supported a number of alternative bills that would address the problems with this plan and vastly improve the benefit available to seniors. Unfortunately, the leadership of the House did more toash shilling any bill through as quickly as possible than with providing a quality benefit for seniors, and they weren’t willing to fix the serious flaws in the bill that could hurt seniors. In fact, the House leadership refused to allow even one real amendment to the Medicare prescription drug benefit bill.

I want to pass a real prescription drug benefit—but I would not vote for a plan that hurts Maine’s seniors. I am disappointed with the legislation that was passed by the House, however I fought for a real Medicare benefit is not over. It is my hope that this legislation will be improved in the upcoming conference with the Senate. I will continue to fight to make sure that all Maine seniors receive an affordable and real Medicare prescription benefit.

Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.R. 1, the Medicare Prescription Drug & Modernization Act. Like many of my colleagues, I held sincere hope that the 108th Congress would overcome the inaction that has plagued this issue, at the expense of America’s senior citizens, for many years. I am extremely disappointed that the bill before the House this week not only fails to offer a structurally sound prescription drug benefit for Medicare beneficiaries, but also contains provisions that threaten the stability of the program that has provided health benefits for millions of elderly people and younger adults with disabilities for the past 38 years.

In particular, I want to call attention to the fact that this bill does nothing to address the rapidly rising costs of prescription drugs. It not only fails to address this crisis, it contains a “noninterference” clause prohibiting the agents of the Department of Health & Human Services from using the bulk purchasing power of Medicare beneficiaries to negotiate for lower prices for senior citizens. Without taking measures to curb the escalating prices of prescription medications for senior citizens, we will never be able to stay alive, the benefit is rendered meaningless.

Seniors will pay more out of pocket in 2007 with the prescription drug benefit than they are paying in 2003 without it.

I urge my colleagues to pay careful attention to the details of the Medicare Prescription Drug & Modernization Act and to think critically about the effect—or lack thereof—it will have on the seniors in their districts.

Mr. ISRAEL. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to be a Democratic Member of this body. I have always been proud to be a Democrat. And always will be.

But I came to Congress 2½ years ago with a promise to my constituents that I would work hard to break through partisan gridlock. I promised that when I agreed with the Republicans I would vote with them; and when I disagreed I would vote against them. But that I would always work to develop consensus and move our country forward.

That is what brings me here today, Mr. Speaker.

A plan that offers coverage to all seniors—even Hispanics! It’s time to take seniors off the bus to Tijuana!

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, tonight the House of Representatives considered a plan that would supposedly create a Medicare prescription drug benefit. While some touted the plan as an innovative approach, the fact is that when you look past the smoke and mirrors, it turns out to be a very bad deal for Maine’s seniors. In fact, the House plan could make the current situation for seniors a lot worse: it will do nothing to control rising prescription costs, it will jeopardize the traditional Medicare fee-for-service plan that seniors enjoy today, it will have a large gap in coverage that will force a catastrophic deductible of dollars out of their pockets, and it may cause employers to drop their health coverage.

We all know that drug prices are spiraling out of control. Maine seniors are forced to take bus trips to Canada to buy affordable prescription drugs.

But after a couple of years, Medicare will become a voucher program and where will that senior go to get his life-saving medicine? He is lucky enough to have assets and owns a car.

According to Republicans, that is wealthy! They will give tax breaks to millionaires, but under their plan, a man who makes $8,000 a year and is lucky enough to have assets and owns a car, is too wealthy to get medicines that will ease his pain and save his life!

This is an outrage!

Under the Republican plan he would have to sell his car and pass an assets test to be poor enough to receive aide for low-income seniors.

When I think about this plan, I think about all of the seniors who can’t afford life saving prescription drugs.

I think about the senior who has glaucoma and prostate cancer and makes only $8,000 a year.

Like 750,000 other Hispanics, he won’t get help paying for his prescription drugs, because he is lucky enough to have assets and owns a car.

According to Republicans, that is wealthy! They will give tax breaks to millionaires, but under their plan, a man who makes $8,000 a year and is lucky enough to own a car, is too wealthy to get medicines that will ease his pain and save his life!

This is an outrage!

Under the Republican plan he would have to sell his car and pass an assets test to be poor enough to receive aide for low-income seniors.

When I think about this plan, I think about the senior who might make $10,000 a year.

That senior will pay one-fifth of his or her income to cover the Republican coverage gap.

One-fifth! This won’t get him off the bus to Tijuana!

Like 63 percent of Americans, seniors in my district want and need the security of Medicare.

Under the Republican plan they may start in Medicare.

But after a couple of years, Medicare will only be a voucher program and where will seniors be?

In an HMO plan and still in a pharmacy in Tijuana buying medicine.

My constituents deserve better than the Republican plan!

They deserve more!

They deserve the Democratic plan that we have been fighting for for years!

A plan that cares about the health and safety of America’s seniors!

A plan that actually works for America’s seniors!
left. Eighty-five thousand seniors have been tossed out of their Medicare HMOs. One out of five is skipping their medication because they can't afford them.

And in those 2½ years, I have listened to Republicans blame Democrats for this crisis; Democrats blame Republicans; the House blame the Senate; the Senate blame the House; Congress blame the White House; the White House blame Congress; and everyone blame the insurance companies.

There is plenty of blame to go around. But all the blame in the world isn't going to help a single senior get their prescription drugs at a more affordable price.

It's time to stop blaming. It's time to stop finger pointing. It's time for conservatives to stop railing against a $400 billion prescription drug plan because it's too liberal. It's time for liberals to stop railing against a $400 billion prescription drug plan because it's too conservative. It's time for everyone to stop rejecting the imperfect because we can't get the perfect. It's time to move this process forward.

Mr. Speaker, I believe the Democrats are right. They believe a $400 billion to provide America's seniors with a truly comprehensive, voluntary prescription drug plan.

Is an $800 billion prescription drug plan better than a $400 billion program that's before us today? Of course. $400 billion is only half as good as $800 billion ... but it is $400 billion better than nothing. And nothing is exactly what we will leave our seniors if we reject this proposal today.

To reject the largest expansion of Medicare in its 38-year history because it's $400 billion instead of $800 billion just doesn't make sense to me.

Mr. Speaker, only a short time ago, President Bush argued for a $190 billion prescription drug plan. My side of the aisle proposed an $800 billion plan. Some say we have ended up with a $400 billion plan.

I disagree. I think we are beginning with a $400 billion plan. It is the largest expansion of Medicare in its 38-year history. It is, in my view, a down payment. An investment.

Is this plan flawed? I believe it is. I believe the Secretary of Health and Human Services is truly the author of Ted Kennedy, is much better. But we can't get near that plan unless we go to a House-Senate conference. And we can't go to a House-Senate conference unless we pass this bill today.

Yesterday at the White House, I listened carefully to President Bush. He said clearly we must move this process forward and pledged to work on a bipartisan basis to develop a final bill that represents consensus.

But there's no hope for consensus, no hope for a penny of prescription drug spending, if we slide the brakes on the process today by killing this bill today.

Mr. Speaker, of particular importance to me and the constituents I represent is that this bill contains the Greenwood-Israeli-Fossella amendment, which ends the economic discrimination in federal reimbursement formulas to suburban Medicare HMOs that have forced 85,000 of my constituents out of their prescription drug plans.

Those seniors are watching us today. They are tired of blame, tired of gridlock, tired of excuses. They don't care whether it's a Democar or a Republican solution, as long as it's a good solution.

This is not a perfect solution. But it is a good start. It is the largest expansion of Medicare in its 38-year history. It ends the price discrimination on Long Island and other suburbs around the nation.

Mr. Speaker, let me close by repeating: this $400 billion is only half as good as $800 billion ... but it is $400 billion better than nothing. And if we will leave our seniors if we reject this proposal today. In the spirit of advancing the process, I will support this bill. I reserve the right, however, to vote against a bill that emerges from Congress that does not address the significant flaws in the legislation before us tonight.

This Republican Medicare bill falls well short of what our country's retirees deserve. And I believe, that if this Congress and this President had not squandered the budget surplus we could afford to give our seniors a benefit they deserve.

It is well past time to assist our seniors with prescription drug costs. The Democratic substitute provides a reliable and affordable benefit to America's seniors. This voluntary prescription drug coverage costs only $25 a month with a $100 deductible and provides a $2500 stop-loss protection with no gaps in coverage. There are also special provisions to help the poorest seniors with either full payment or assistance on a sliding fee scale.

The Democratic substitute I support also allows the Secretary of Health and Human Services to negotiate lower drug prices. And as the ranking member on the Veterans' Affairs Committee, I was proud to help craft a similar plan which has helped our nation's veterans lower their out of pocket drug costs.

As a member representing a rural district, I also want to highlight the rural health care provisions included in the Democratic substitute. These provisions are essential to create equity in the reimbursement system between urban and rural hospitals. They allow fair payments to hospitals that have a disproportionate share of low-income patients, increases payments to rural home health providers without requiring a co-pay, and adjusts low-volume payments for small hospitals. It also takes into account the physiologic differences in rural and urban by finally correcting the huge disparity between urban rural hospitals, that drives providers from our small towns.

All of these reasons make the Democratic alternative to H.R. 1 the right answer to the spiraling costs for prescription drugs for seniors. Medicare works for America's seniors but, I oppose the GOP's efforts to privatize this system and provide a second-rate prescription drug benefit. I proudly support the Democratic substitute and I urge my colleagues to vote down H.R. 1 and vote Yes on the substitute.

Mr. CUMMINGS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak against the inadequate Medicare prescription drug bill being considered today, H.R. 2473 and in support of the Rangel/Dingell Substitute.

With over 40 million elderly and disabled persons covered under the 38-year-old Medicare entitlement, Congress' chief objective should be to ensure that these Americans have access to quality health care coverage. However, today we consider legislation that will do little harm than good because it is the first step in privatizing the Medicare program and as former Speaker Gingrich predicted, causing it to "wither on the vine." Passage of this legislation will cause many of our seniors to wither right along with the Medicare program—which will no longer be seen as the social compact with our seniors that this nation embraces.

Medicare is the nation's second largest social insurance program. As an entitlement program, it is imperative to realize that with the implementation of H.R. 2473, fee-for-service Medicare payments would naturally increase. This will result in many seniors facing the horrific prospect of being unable to afford the increasing payments. I think many of my colleagues would agree that this is a very troubling proposition and a totally unnecessary result.

Additionally, with the reestablishment of the Voluntary Prescription Drug Benefit Program, seniors again would lose because of the lack of negotiated prices for the prescription drugs. Also, although federal subsidies would be provided to encourage participation, the bill would increase the annual out-of-pocket threshold for many beneficiaries. Once again a pseudo-solution is being offered as a prescription drug benefit while increasing the cost for persons who need the benefit but will not be able to afford its costs.

Furthermore, the use of health maintenance organizations (HMOs) and other private organizations to obtain prescription drugs would deter many seniors from getting the benefit. As Rep. Charles B. Rangel, Ranking Democrat on the Committee on Ways and Means stated, "to get prescription drug coverage, seniors would have to go to an HMO by another name. Then, all the choices would be long to the private insurance provider—which drugs are covered, which pharmacies you can choose, who your doctor is, etc."

Mr. Speaker, this bill is an empty pillbox—it is a paltry solution to the problem of providing adequate prescription drug coverage to our seniors; rather, it is creating an inadequate system—based on a provider concept that does not currently exist and will not likely work in practice.

A better alternative to H.R. 2473 is The Medicare RX Drug Benefit an Discount Act (H.R. 1199) offered by my friend CHARLIE RANGEL of New York. This prescription drug plan would guarantee that every Medicare beneficiary, no matter where they live, could have a prescription drug plan with a $25 per month payment, a $2500 stop-loss protection with no gaps in coverage. It would also:

- Lower prescription drug cost for all Americans, regardless of whether they are covered by Medicare;
- Give all Medicare beneficiaries the option of a reasonably priced guaranteed prescription benefit under Medicare;
- Ensure that senior citizens and people with disabilities receive coverage for the drug that their doctor prescribes; and
- Provide additional assistance for low-income beneficiaries such that many seniors would pay nothing for their prescription drugs.

Unlike the proposal put forth by the Bush Administration and endorsed and worsened by the House GOP Leadership, H.R. 1199 would not require seniors to join an HMO or similar private plan in order to get a prescription drug benefit. In fact, Medicare beneficiaries would be guaranteed a prescription drug benefit rather than offered a marginal, voluntary plan under H.R. 2473. This plan would ensure that we keep our social compact with our seniors. The Republican plan fails to do that.
Since its inception 1965, Medicare has provided important protection for millions of aged and disabled persons. H.R. 2473 would be a detriment to improving and securing this system. I lend my voice in opposition and urge my colleagues to vote against H.R. 4273 and to support H.R. 1.

Mr. WATERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this Medicare privatization plan, which is masquerading as a prescription drug bill.

This bill would force seniors who want prescription drug coverage to get it from private insurance. It provides no guar-tee that insurance plans will be available, and when they are, premiums and benefits will vary widely. The bill also provides no cov-verage when a senior's prescription drug costs are between $2,000 and $4,900 per year. This huge coverage gap affects 47 percent of Medicare beneficiaries.

This bill is also a give-away to pharmaceutical companies, as it prohibits the Secretary of Health and Human Services from negotiating lower drug prices. The primary benecipients of this bill are not the beneficiaries of Medicare, but the wealthy special interest in the pharmaceutical industry and the insurance industry that give campaign contributions to Republicans.

However, the most outrageous aspect of this bill is what it does to traditional Medicare. The beneficiaries' cost for visits to the doctor's office by raising the Medicare Part B deductible and indexing it for inflation. This could cost American seniors an estimated $8 billion. While this may seem like a tiny fraction of the Republicans' $350 billion tax-cut for-the-rich, it is a huge expense for senior citizens, many of whom live on limited incomes.

This bill also divides Medicare into 10 or more regional plans in 2006 and then converts the entire Medicare program into a voucher program depending upon private insurance companies in 2010. If the Republicans really want to privatize Medicare, they should be honest with the American people and call this plan what it is, the Medicare Privatization Act.

Mr. ISTOOK. Mr. Speaker, this bill will hasten the day when Medicare will go bankrupt, and it also threatens to unravel our children's future.

Medicare is already on shaky financial legs, and this will add enormous extra expenses that will make it worse. Do we expect our children to pay a lifetime of higher taxes, and still make it worse, including price controls that will destroy the incentives for companies to create new medicines.

What should we be doing?

Since 76 percent of seniors already have drug coverage, we could focus on helping those who do not. Medicare already provides cov-verage for those 76 percent, and puts them in a confusing new medical experiment.

We should be stabilizing Medicare, so it can keep the promises already made, not making new promises that we don't have the money to keep.

We should address the reasons why drug prices and healthcare costs are so high. By banning re-imported drugs, we're forcing Americans to subsidize far-lower drug prices in other countries. We should change our policies so Americans only pay the lower world price, not a higher price.

We should end the 130,000 pages of federal regulations that have driven the costs of medicine and healthcare through the roof. On average, for every hour they spend with a patient, doctors and nurses spend another half-hour to a full hour doing government paperwork.

We should stress personal responsibility in healthcare, just as we did in welfare reform, so government resources are focused on those who cannot care for themselves, not on those who can.

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in suppor of provisions in H.R. 1, The Medicare Prescription Drug and Modernization Act, that are designed to address the special pharmacy needs of beneficiaries residing in nursing homes.

Nursing home residents are not in a position to fill prescriptions like everyone else. They cannot simply walk into a pharmacy and have their prescription filled. Many nursing home resi-

Mr. BASS. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the House Committee, I am extremely pleased to have had the opportunity to develop a strong Medicare modernization package that will significantly improve this critical American program.

The seniors of New Hampshire have long clamored for a prescription drug benefit under Medicare, as is the case in the rest of the na-ton. I am pleased to represent those same seniors today as we pass this bill and take one giant step closer toward our goal of creating a new and voluntary prescription drug benefit that makes lifesaving medications more accessible.

This benefit is the product of years of research, study, testimony, and compromise. I have no doubt whatsoever that each of us might wish for a slightly different version of this bill. We represent different regions with different demographics.

And, I am sure we all wish lifesaving drugs were more affordable for our families, friends, prescription drugs and delivery services.

Mr. BASS. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Energy and Commerce Committee, I am extremely pleased to have had the opportunity to develop a strong Medicare modernization package that will significantly improve this critical American program.

number of years over the inequity of this provision within the Medicare reimbursement system, I am particularly pleased that this is being addressed in the bill.

A drug benefit for seniors and a rejuvenation of the Medicare system are essential to seniors and their caretakers. The delivery of medical care has not changed appropriately since this program was first conceived, and the program ought to be modernized to reflect the increases in medical technology and the utilization of a wide range of care options.

As I have noted many times, no plan can be as all-encompassing and immediately satisfying as we might prefer. However, this bill puts the framework in place for a system that can be adjusted and improved upon over time and will directly and immediately help the population most in need.

I applaud all Members of the Energy and Commerce Committee and the Members of the Ways and Means Committee for the joint work on this essential legislation. It is my hope that upon completion of our floor vote today, we will see this measure moved forward immediately to conference with the Senate.

Mr. KROLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, today we have an opportunity to provide our seniors with a new prescription drug benefit and improved access to health care. It is a long overdue step in updating and improving Medicare.
Today’s legislation will provide choice to those who need it most. Our 6.5 million low-income seniors will receive a fully covered premium and a cost sharing benefit when their drug benefit switches from Medicaid to Medicare, paying no more than $2 per generic prescription and $5 for name brand drugs. This will also save states about $6.8 billion a year in Medicaid costs.

It is imperative that Medicare advance with technology. Prescription drugs are an increasingly important part of modern medicine, helping to relieve pain, cure disease, and enhance the lives of millions of Americans. Adding a drug benefit and updating how existing benefits are provided will be a very significant accomplishment.

Mr. Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to to vote for this legislation that helps our seniors by providing a prescription drug benefit that they deserve.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my opposition to this legislation and my support for the Blue Dog substitute, offered by Rep. THOMPSON, which we have not been allowed to debate on the House floor today, despite support on both sides of the Capitol.

We in Congress have been talking for years now about the necessity of adding a prescription drug benefit to Medicare. We know, as seniors know, that this talk has been cheap and it is imperative that a compromise be reached this year. The Senate has been proceeding in a bipartisan way toward a compromise that adds a substantial, but not perfec, benefit to Medicare and protects the long-term integrity of the Social Security program.
Instead of following the Senate’s lead and working toward a compromise that will improve Medicare, a widely popular and successful program, the House Republican leadership has opted instead to add provisions to this legislation that attack the foundation of the Medicare program. The bill does not include a federal fallback if private plans choose not to offer a benefit. The experience that my constituents have had with Medicare–Choice show that private health care plans are at best an unstable partner for Medicare, and financial analysts have consistently publicly questioned whether “drug only” plans will ever be offered.
For these reasons, it is absolutely vital that Medicare provide a viable and guaranteed fallback for Medicare beneficiaries.

Additionally, H.R. 1 would transform Medicare, beginning in 2010, from a defined-benefit program to a defined-contribution program.
This provision would gradually shift enormous efforts while they are sick and most in need of care, and destroy the fabric of this program that has served seniors well for nearly 50 years.

The Senate has crafted legislation that has broad support among Senators across the ideological spectrum. This legislation has won the support of both President Bush and Senator TED KENNEDY. Together with Representative THOMPSON and the Blue Dog Caucus, I am supporting legislation that uses the framework of the Senate compromise and improves on it, making it a much stronger bill. The Thompson substitute both hews to the budget agreed to by employers’ contributions to them will count toward the out-of-pocket limit for catastrophic coverage, thus giving employers an incentive to keep offering retiree benefits. The substitute guarantees a Medicare fall-back plan for all areas that do not have two private plans available. It also gives relief to state Medicaid plans by making Medicare the primary payer for all individuals eligible for Medicare and Medicaid. Finally, the Blue Dog substitute includes language that will reduce the high cost of prescription drugs by allowing Americans to reimport drugs from Canada andspeed approval of generic drugs.

The House bill falls short on several other fronts as well. It ignores the needs of community and teaching hospitals, meaning that hospitals in my district stand to lose over $11 mil-ion in denied inflation updates. Kansas teaching hospitals, like KU Med, would additionally lose out to the tune of $3.9 million in 2003 and $2 million over five years due to the Federal Government’s failure to help pay for the exspenditures incurred by these hospitals. The Thompsom substitute provides an adequate inflation update for all hospitals. Finally, H.R. 1 would cut $16 billion over 10 years from oncology services. Cancer patients all over the country will have to pay for provisions in this bill that sharply cut funding for cancer-fighting drugs and allow Medicare to continue to underpay for costs associated with providing chemotherapy services.

I cannot support the Democratic substitute because I believe that it is simply too expensive and too complex. We cannot tax cut our way to providing a prescription drug benefit because I believe that it is irresponsible for Congress to run up bills for our children to pay, and the Democratic substitute, although a much more robust benefit for our seniors, is simply more than our country can afford at this time. The Senate bill and the Blue Dog substitute both hew to the budget agreed to by the House and Senate. Neither bill is perfect, but I believe that the Thompson substitute builds a strong foundation for a prescription drug benefit on which we can build in future years.

Mr. CAPUANO. Mr. Speaker, today we have the opportunity to provide our seniors with a real prescription drug benefit, but instead of providing seniors the plan they deserve, we are taking steps to dismantle a program that older Americans have known and trusted for 38 years.

The Republican plan before us today fails to offer the types of guarantees that our seniors need and deserve. There is no defined benefit and no standard premium. So when my seniors ask now much their premiums will be or how much their drugs will cost, I cannot answer them. This is unacceptable.

This bill allows private insurance companies to decide premiums, prescription drug cov-verage benefits and even where coverage will be offered. This proposal threatens to dismantle Medicare and replace it with private health insurance coverage for all seniors. This is precisely the problem many seniors face—they cannot afford private insurance, and depend on Medicare.

This bill also provides additional funding for rural hospitals, but not urban teaching hospitals. This is a serious oversight. Urban teaching hospitals are facing incredible budget problems and play a central role in training tomorrow’s physicians, and their needs must also be addressed. If the Federal Government is going to offer additional funding to some hospitals, it must offer additional funding to urban teaching hospitals.

The Federal Government has a responsibiliity to ensure that Americans who contribute to the Medicare program during their working years will have access to dependable, equitable, and affordable health coverage. The Democratic substitute does just that—it lowers drug prices, guarantees coverage and enables seniors to get their medicines at the pharmacy of their choice. The Rangel/Dingell substitute addresses my concerns more effectively and I will strongly support it.

Mr. LEACH. Mr. Speaker, seldom has there been a more important bill for the State of Iowa.

On the one hand, this legislation provides for greater equity in Medicare reimbursement which will bring millions of additional dollars to the state and help sustain our health sys'ters have a degree of validity, but the big picture is that Congress is moving in a direction of providing health security for millions of citizens. Low income individuals will, for the most part, be provided full comprehensive prescription drug coverage. Higher income citizens on a sliding scale will be provided partial coverage and all citizens will be provided coverage for catastrophic expenses.

There will be a cost to society in providing these benefits but the benefits far outweigh the costs. There may be better approaches that can be envisioned now or developed later, but this is the only framework that has a chance of receiving majority support in both houses without a presidential veto.
It may not be enough and it may be too deferred in implementation but it nevertheless marks an important first step to meeting the most challenging need of many senior citizens.

Ms. DEGETTE. Mr. Speaker, today we have the opportunity to provide our seniors with a real prescription drug benefit, but instead of providing seniors the plan they deserve, we are highlight a piece of the Dingell/Rangel substitute that pertains to Disproportionate Share Hospitals.
This was an amendment I offered in the Energy & Commerce Committee and I understand that since our mark-up the DSH allocation has been increased and I want to commend this action. I know there is real bipartisan support on this issue and I want to just reiterate how important it is that we get funding to these DSHs.

The provision in the substitute would give DSH hospitals a large portion of the funding that has been cut in the past year. It would expend a billion dollars in FY '03 and then adjust payments in future years to ensure that our vital DSH hospitals do not go bankrupt.

The reason it is so important that this money is available next year is that our DSH hospitals have already suffered a cut of a billion dollars in the past year and now are in such bad shape financially, if we help them in dribs and drabs then many of them won't be around ten years from now.

There are public hospitals who are currently planning to make cuts of 25 percent next year in order to try to stay afloat.

Mr. Speaker, our public hospitals cannot afford the cuts that are in real danger of losing numerous DSH hospitals over the next few years if we do not assist them right now.

This provision also helps the low-DSH hospitals which are the most strapped of all. Eighteen states have low DSH hospitals due to historically lower Medicare payments that were basically frozen in place at a certain point.

These low-DSH states have been struggling for years with their Medicaid payments and they are currently held to only 1 percent of their Medicaid expenditures. My amendment, which accomplishes the same thing that a bill Rep. HEATHER WILSON introduced, would raise this to 3 percent which would help these states considerably.

While low-DSH states have been dealing with this situation for years, recently it has gotten much worse. The pressure on these hospitals has increased due to numerous factors such as increasing numbers of the uninsured, increasing numbers of Medicare patients, the extreme situation so many states are in in terms of budget crises.

The fact of the matter is that DSH hospitals need help and need help now. They can't wait and we need to rectify this situation while the DSH hospitals are still around to help our most vulnerable citizens.

Mr. DeLAURO. Mr. Speaker, in my 13 years in Congress, this House has sometimes risen to the occasion on matters of great national importance. My very first vote on the first Gulf War followed days of debate in which Members stated their heartfelt views on the prospect of war. After September 11th, we came together notwithstanding Republican—bind the nation's wounds and provide for the national security of the nation's victims of that terrorist act.

I wish I could say that this is one of those occasions—I wish I could say that, as we consider the very future of Medicare, we could rise above partisan politics and ideological viewpoint and do the right thing by our senior citizens. Medicare is one of the most important and successful government programs ever enacted, a program that has provided quality health care and a measure of economic security to millions of seniors over the past four decades. Together, Medicare and Social Security represent the twin pillars of a social safety net and constitute what is in effect a social contract between the generations—that if you work hard all your life you may look forward to a dignified retirement and economic security in your old age.

I understand that we bear the responsibility of meeting the newest challenges that face our seniors of finding new ways to care for our seniors with population increases that Medicare need to be made. Central to that process is dealing with the cost of prescription drugs and helping seniors afford them.

Unfortunately, the legislation before the House this week fails on both counts. It does not deliver an acceptable or adequate prescription drug benefit and it will not hold down the cost of drugs.

What it does do is open the door to privatization of Medicare—in other words, a return to the way things were before, when 1 out of every 3 seniors lived in poverty, largely due to the cost of medical expenses. Today, thanks to Medicare, that rate is closer to 1 in 10.

This bill sets in motion the privatization of Medicare by converting the program into a voucher system—essentially turning it over to the HMOs, organizations that have dropped 52 percent of the Medicare enrollees in my state over the last four years.

And it does nothing to contain costs. It prohibits the Secretary of Health and Human Services from even engaging in negotiations with the pharmaceutical companies. As a result, many seniors will pay more than they do now and their premiums will rise as the cost of drugs rises.

But the most inexplicable aspect of this bill is the huge gap in coverage. Once a senior receives drug benefits totaling $2,000, he or she is cut off until her bills total $4,900, necessitating that they pay $2,900 out of her own pocket—at the same time that they pay premiums for this supposed drug benefit.

It makes no sense. Throughout my time in Congress, the single most common concern I have heard from seniors at the local Stop N Shop every weekend is how expensive their prescription drug bills are. Seniors know they need to show the greatest generation in our country the respect they deserve. After all, they are the people who served us in times of war, got us through the Great Depression, raised their children and made countless contributions to this country.

I say to my Republican colleagues, it is time to stop this heinous scam on seniors! It is time to show the greatest generation in our country the respect they deserve. After all, they are the people who served us in times of war, got us through the Great Depression.
Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Mr. Speaker, last week will provide all purchasers with greater access to generics, and will provide prescription medicine to residents, state employees, and retirees. Tax payers are forced at times to pay hundreds of millions more than necessary for prescription drugs double or even triple in cost over the years. What will seniors do when they are getting out of hand.

Mr. Speaker, this simply cannot continue. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 1

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Louisiana? There was no objection.

(c) CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as preventing the denial of payments for claims actually reviewed under a random prepayment review.

(d) RANDOM PREPAYMENT REVIEW.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘random prepayment review’ means a demand for the production of records or documentation absent cause with respect to a claim.

(e) LIMITATIONS ON NON-RANDOM PREPAYMENT REVIEW.—
(A) GENERAL.—A medicare administrative contractor may not initiate a non-random prepayment review of a provider of services or supplier based on the initial identification by that provider of services or supplier of an improper billing practice unless the contractor has obtained an average of the level of payment error (as defined in subsection (i)(3)(A)).
(B) TERMINATION OF NON-RANDOM PREPAYMENT REVIEW.—The Secretary may terminate the review if the contractor fails to meet terms and conditions determined to be appropriate by the Secretary.

(ii) in the case of a provider of services that files cost reports, the aggregate amount of the overpayments exceeds 10 percent of the amount paid under this title to the provider of services for the cost reporting period covered by the most recently submitted cost report; or

(B) COLLECTION WITH INTEREST.—Insofar as the determination on such appeal is not overturned, the amount of the overpayment interest on the overpayment shall accrue on and after the date of the original notice of overpayment. (B) documented educational intervention has failed to correct the payment error (as determined by the Secretary on the basis of an extrapolation).

(4) PROVISION OF SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION.—In the case of a provider of services or supplier with respect to which amounts were found to be overpaid, the contractor may request the periodic production of records or supporting documentation for a limited sample of submitted claims to ensure that the previous practice is not continuing.

the amendment made by paragraph (1) would materially affect the approval of such an application.

(b) Application of Budget Neutrality.—If one or more of the hospital's applications are approved as a result of paragraph (1) and subparagraph (A) for fiscal year 2004, the Secretary shall make a proportional adjustment in the amounts determined under section 1886(d)(3) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395ww(d)(3)) for fiscal year 2004 to assure that approval of such application does not result in aggregate payments under section 1886(d) of such Act that are greater or less than those that would have resulted if paragraph (1) and subparagraph (A) did not apply.

into? If you have to make a decision and you are in doubt, why not make the doubt in favor of the senior citizens? Everything that is missing in the Republican bill that is good, we put in our bill to make certain that it is better.

One thing that we are saying is this, do not hate the government until you do not have any need for it. And seniors when they read the difference of the bills, and you bet your life they can read, they may be old but they are not stupid. If you pick up the daily newspapers, and if they do not go to the pharmaceutical corporations but rather go to the local drugstore, they will find out in short order who is their best friend.

Do not knock the government. It is not as bad as some Members think. Give the people an opportunity so that we can say citizens, we appreciate all that you have done for us, and we in the Congress believe that the least we can do is to go to the doctor at least once every year to ease your pain and, more important, the fear you have that once you go to the doctor that at least you will be able to get the drugs that are prescribed for your illness.

Mr. Speaker, I do not have to challenge each other's integrity, but I tell Members this, that there are Members on the other side of the aisle that hold Social Security in utter contempt. There are Members who talk about Medicare as though the communists created the package, and they resented it when it started, and they think it is worse than ever today.

What I am saying is let us do what they tell doctors to do, and do no harm. Let us leave here saying that at least on this day there was a substitute, they did not have to do it the way the majority would want.

Mr. Speaker, I yield the balance of my time to the gentleman from California (Mr. Stark), the ranking member of the Subcommittee on Health, and I ask unanimous consent that he be recognized.

Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I yield the balance of my time.

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, it is with great sadness tonight that I announce that Senator Strom Thurmond passed away at 9:45. I was a former staff member of Senator Thurmond, my wife was a staff person for Senator Thurmond, and our three sons have been pages with his office.

With the death of Strom Thurmond, South Carolina has lost its greatest statesman of the 20th century, just as John C. Calhoun was the most revered South Carolinian of the 19th century. Strom Thurmond will never be replaced in the countless hearts of those who loved and respected him.

The entire Wilson family mourns this profound loss and we extend our sympathy to the Thurmond family.

Senator Strom Thurmond will endure as the leading example of a public servant due to his love and devotion to all the people of South Carolina regardless of status, race, politics or region.

He was our living legend. Strom’s life was dedicated to achieving peace through strength, as shown by his military service in liberating Europe from Nazi fascists, his tireless work in fighting to keep the defense of the United States on the Congress which ultimately led to the defeat of Soviet communism.

He pioneered the development of the South Carolina Republican Party from effective nonexistence in the 1960s to majority status by the end of the century. He has been a role model of service to South Carolina's young people and our family has had three generations on his staff: my wife's two uncles were staff attorneys, my wife and I were interns, and our three oldest sons were pages. A distinguished highlight for our family was to host Senator Strom Thurmond and before his last election in 1996 at the First Presbyterian Church in Columbia.

The legacy of Strom Thurmond will always be felt in South Carolina because of his steadfast integrity and the meaningful thoughtful constituent service. He was my personal hero, and I will miss him dearly.

Mr. TAUZIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 3 minutes.

Let me join in expressing the sorrow of the folks in Louisiana for your loss in South Carolina. We will pray for his soul.

Mr. Speaker, the Democratic substitute in this debate can be summed up rather easily. According to CBO, it will spend $250 billion dollars. It busts the budget. Therefore, it is on the floor with a budget waiver. It at the same time excludes and does not contain any of the reforms that the base bill includes, that are designed to save Medicare from failure, from insolvency. I am not predicting Medicare's failure or insolvency. CBO is. CRS is. Everyone who has estimated the strength of our Medicare system predicts very soon, in our lifetimes, it will go insolvent. None of the reforms that are designed to save Medicare from insolvency are here. In fact, the Democratic substitute piles on a trillion dollars' worth of expenses to the Medicare system with no reforms to make sure the system is saved.

When I mentioned earlier that you ought to test the credibility of arguments on this floor by what is said and what is fact and what is of record, let me take you back to the statements of the distinguished gentleman from California when it voted on the base bill because CBO said it might mean that as much as 30 percent or so of employees might drop their retiree coverage under the base bill in favor of the plans we offer. CBO estimated the Democratic substitute, too, on that point.

How credible is an argument against the base bill that complains about a potential 30 percent loss of employer coverage when CBO estimates that 100 percent of employer retiree coverage under the Democratic substitute? That all taxpayer dollars will be used to substitute private dollars? And the Medicare system, already crushed and about to go into insolvency, will have to assume all that responsibility, too? If you really believe in Medicare, why would you burden it so? Why would you eliminate private coverage in America, as CBO estimates would happen under the Democratic substitute?

This substitute busts our budget. It purports to provide more drug coverage than the base bill but no reforms, it does not save Medicare; and on top of that it virtually eliminates private retiree coverage in America. Why would you go in that direction? We rejected that direction during the Clinton years when Mrs. CLINTON presented us with one-size-fits-all health care for all Americans. We recognized then that if you do not have the competitive choice in America in health care, just as we do with so many other services, that things go bad in this country and that sooner or later the crushing weight of benefits added upon benefits means the working people of America have to pay more and more and more taxes. In fact, it is estimated that within 70 years, if we do not begin today making decisions like we ask the House to make, entitlements in America will eat up every tax dollar paid into the Treasury by every citizen in America, and we will have no money for any other function in this country. That is where this substitute takes us, and that is why we need to reject it.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 3 minutes.

Mr. DINGELL asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.

Mr. DINGELL. My dear friends and colleagues, I lay before you the Republican plan. I ask you to look at it with a straight face, because it is inexplicable, and I cannot explain it to you with a straight face. We are offering in this amendment which was offered by my dear friend, the gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL), on behalf of him and me, does the following things: it gives and sets forth a very clear set of benefits. Senior citizens pay $25 a month; they get 80 percent of drug costs from government after a $100 deductible. This is what you get if you get the Republican plan. But that is not the worst you get. If you are a senior citizen, you fall into a third tier. We have the House to pay $2,000 in drugs that you get under the plan, all of a sudden your payments by the government stop; you have to keep on paying premiums, but you get no benefit.
until you have got $5,100. They are going to privatize your Medicare in the year 2010. That is pretty bad.

But it is followed by other things: massive subsidies to the insurance companies which commence in 2 years, in 2005. Look, that is not all. No guarantee as to what it costs you in terms of what you have to pay in the way of premiums, no assurance that you will get any particular level of benefits. The only person who is going to cut this fat hog out of this deal are those good-hearted, flinty-hearted, cold-hearted folk in the insurance business who are going to all of a sudden get a key to the United States Treasury, the right to collect any amount of money they want, and to suck the Secretary of HHS any old way they are minded and to walk home and to pay the money perhaps to the senior citizens but possibly to their shareholders or in dividends or perhaps to pay it in salaries or in bonuses to their corporate officers. That is what you get under the Republican plan. And privatization of Social Security as you know it today.

The Republicans have said that they intend to privatize Social Security. Well, this is what is happening here. The Democratic plan compels the drug houses to negotiate with the Federal Government and the Secretary. The Republicans preclude him by absolutely prohibiting him from negotiating. We do not tolerate under the Democratic plan the Republican opportunity to privatize Medicare. And just wait till your senior citizens find out what you are doing to them with privatization and substituting in lieu of this the kind of plan that you talk about and the fat cats that my Republican colleagues and friends look after.

Vote for the Democratic plan. Vote down the Republican plan. Let us take care of the senior citizens. It is the right thing to do.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, let us look at the facts behind the rhetoric here. What is going to be the impact of this Democratic substitute on seniors? My colleague from Louisiana just reminded us that 100 percent of employers are going to drop health insurance. There is no telling how my senior citizens say to me when I go into senior centers it is, look, help those who need it, but do not destroy my employer-provided retiree plan. Do not touch it. This amendment destroys it, wipes it out. That is not in the interest of your seniors.

But let us look at what it will do to premiums. You were concerned that we did not sock a premium into law. Look what you do in your bill. You sock the premium into law and then you have it rise according to drug inflation. Drug inflation is double-digit. Do you not get it? Those premiums are going to go up. Why would you do that to our seniors?

And let us look at the effect on prices. There is one thing seniors say to you over and over again, the prices are rising. According to Dr. Holtz-Eakin’s testimony of April 9, 2003, he says, “If you subsidize 90 percent of any insurance product versus 70 percent of the product, the larger subsidy will lead to a lower incentive to control costs and will lead to higher prices and higher spending.” Yours is a giveaway to the pharmaceutical industry. It will drive prices up because there is no incentive for the PBMs or the plan to negotiate prices down and they can that it will not have government, because we are going to pay it all. Yours is going to drive prices up, premiums up and employer plans out of the market. I do not know why you think you are doing the seniors a good service.

And look at the impact on their kids, because they care about their kids and their grandkids. We have heard testimony over and over again that if you have a 10-year-old child, in 20 years when that kid is 30 and trying to pay back college loans, trying to buy a house, trying to get established, having to buy a car, that child will live in a Nation in which three-quarters of all the Federal revenues will go to Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid.

What is that child to do about education for their children? What is that young person to do to make a living? You should so much debt on the next generation that it will not have public education the way we know it today. They will not have the roads and bridges that a strong economy depends on. They will not be able to defend this Nation in a world that is going to be far more dangerous than the one we have known. This is utterly irresponsible. It is so irresponsible that when the other body proposed this plan in the Senate the last session of Congress, they could not write a budget resolution because they did not know how to handle the extraordinary debt that this creates in the decades ahead.

I urge my colleagues to think that something that looks pretty for your seniors, in fact, will be terrible for their health.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. AUAZIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. GREENWOOD), the chairman of the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee of the Committee on Energy and Commerce.

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman of the committee for yielding me this time.

The gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) and others have presented a chart earlier that purported to show this. Let me show our audience what that chart is. It is complicated. It is a complicated issue to provide prescription drug benefits to millions of Americans who have never had them.

Let me show another chart that describes our plan and it is not complicated at all. Today a senior citizen walks into a drugstore and wants to buy Lopressor, 100 milligrams. She has to pay, for 30 tabs, $45.99 right out of her pocket. Under our bill the price first comes down because we give the group purchasing power of $36.79 and then what does she pay? She pays $7.36 and if she is low income she pays $5. That is a big difference from $46.
June 26, 2003

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — HOUSE

H6173

Let us look at Lipitor. An awful lot of Americans take Lipitor every day to keep their cholesterol down. I do. It costs $108.65 today because for 40 years the Democrats did not do anything about prescription drugs and for 8 years President Clinton did not do anything about prescription drugs. But under our plan Lipitor goes down to $86.92 because of our purchasing power, but the beneficiary pays $13.63 for a month's supply and if they are a poor senior citizen, $5, $5, down from $86.28.

Let us look at Lipitor. It is an anticholesterol drug for arthritis that so many seniors suffer from, a very popular drug, $86.28 today to get 30 tablets of that for 1 month. We bring it down to $68.02 because of our power of purchasing, but the beneficiary pays $12.63 a month. If she was a Medicare beneficiary pays $12.63 a month and, if she is poor, $5 a month. If she is a low-income Medicare beneficiary pays $12.63 a month and, if she is poor, $5 a month. It is an antidepressant. A lot of elderly suffer from depression, unfortunately, at their age in part because they do not have good health care. We bring the price down to $63.17. The beneficiary pays $12.63 a month and, if she is poor, $5. $5, down from $86.28.

Let us look at Lipitor. It is an anticholesterol drug for arthritis that so many seniors suffer from, a very popular drug, $86.28 today to get 30 tablets of that for 1 month. We bring it down to $68.02 because of our power of purchasing, but the beneficiary pays $13.63 for a month's supply and if they are a poor senior citizen, $5, $5, down from $86.28.

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, today the House should be considering a Medicare prescription drug benefit for all America's seniors and disabled citizens that would be a benefit that is certain, a benefit that is affordable, and a benefit that helps Medicare beneficiaries and all of their caregivers. It should not have large gaps in coverage as the Republican bill does. It should not let private insurance companies charge whatever premium they want and cover whatever drugs they want as the Republican bill does. It should be available in every part of the country, not only in areas where private insurers decide they can make a profit, and it should not cost seniors more if they live in Iowa instead of Virginia or California. Instead of Rhode Island. Most importantly, it should be a part of the Medicare program, just as dependable as the rest of the Medicare is for seniors and disabled people today.

The Republican bill fails all of these tests. It gives the patient the one hand and then takes them away when we read the fine print. It claims to give special help to America’s low-income seniors so that they can afford to pay for the prescription drug program, but then it makes seniors subject to a detailed and invasive assets test before they can get help.

If they have over $6,000 in the bank, they do not get any help. When we figure out what they have got if they have less than that it is worth more than $4,500, and what car is not? They do not get any help. They count the value of the clothes and furniture and appliances if they are worth more than $2,000. They can even count the value of their car and it exceeds $1,500. So instead of making sure people of very modest income who need help to get in, they get the fine print eliminating a lot of these people who should be helped, and it makes all of them go through a demeaning and complex process to prove they have few assets.

All this to get help with their drug expenses. This is just wrong. Instead of spending the public's money to get the best possible drug benefit, this Republican bill spends our dollars to bribe insurance companies to sell a drug plan. It pays for profits for the insurance companies instead of the bills for our seniors.

What we should be doing is using the purchasing power of America’s seniors, 40 million of them, to get good prices on their drugs as they do in Canada and get good coverage. That is what the Democratic substitute does. I urge my colleagues to vote for the Democratic substitute and against the Republican bill.

Mrs. J. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. NUSSELE), a member of the Committee on Ways and Means and an esteemed chairman of the Committee on the Budget.

Mr. NUSSELE. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding me this time.

I would like to know where the new Democrat budget hawks are tonight, those new birds who seem to have flown the coop, who have spent the last many months here on the floor talking about the debt tax, something that does not cost the government a penny to achieve. A lot of ink about it. All sorts of national debt charts have been coming across the floor. In fact, they even one day used the pages, these young high school students, to demonstrate the national debt. But where are they tonight? Where are they when we read the letter from the Congressional Budget Office that says that their so-called substitute would add $1 trillion to the deficit? Where are they? They were right there in the hearing about the deficit all of a sudden. In fact, what we heard about is that tax cuts have caused all of the problems.

In fact, one gentleman even had the audacity to stand up and act as though Washington hands money out at the rate of $1 trillion to the deficit. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets, do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets.

In fact, one gentleman even had the audacity to stand up and act as though Washington hands money out at the rate of $1 trillion to the deficit. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets, do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets.

In fact, one gentleman even had the audacity to stand up and act as though Washington hands money out at the rate of $1 trillion to the deficit. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets, do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets. Do not come here with that kind of substitute that busts both budgets.
We give them $430 million, twice what CMS estimates they ought to get. So we get rid of this stinky system that is charging American seniors 20 percent of phoneey prices and costing the government Medicare system tens of billions of dollars. We replace it with a rational reimbursement system.

Now, the Democrats try to settle that system too. Let me tell my colleagues what they do in their substitute. They substitute this average wholesale price system with a system of reimbursement that, according to CBO estimates, is going to cost $34 billion over 10 years; and it is going to cost seniors another $3 billion of copays. We ought to reject that solution.

Mr. DINGELLE. Mr. Speaker, I yield 21/2 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. Pallone).

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, the only thing that stinks here is the Republican bill, and it stinks for a lot of reasons.

First of all, because it is not going to give the seniors any benefit. They are not going to have really any drug benefit whatsoever. It is going to force them into an HMO. They will not have any choice of doctors. And fundamentally, in the end what the Republican bill does is by setting up a voucher system so we do not even have traditional Medicare.

I am sick and tired of hearing my Republican colleagues on the other side criticizing traditional Medicare. Medicare is a good program. Do not tell me that Medicare is broke or Medicare needs to be fixed. And I say to the gentlewoman from Connecticut, do not insult me and say the Democrats are irresponsible, the Republicans are putting us in debt. The Republicans are the ones that are putting us in debt, because you are borrowing from the trust fund so there is no money left in it because you want to kill Medicare. That is what you are all about.

These gentlemen over here, these Democrats who have been here for a long time, they are here tonight because they want to save Medicare. They understand that Medicare can be fixed. And I say to the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. Ryan) said, oh this is complicated. There is nothing complicated here. It is simple. We have had the program for years. We just add the prescription drug benefit, and we have a negotiated price. It is very simple.

Do not give me this chart. I mean, look at this garbage. How could anyone possibly understand it? I cannot even understand it myself, and you expect me to understand it? I cannot even possibly understand it? I cannot even understand it myself, and you expect me to understand it? I am sick and tired of hearing my Republican colleagues being complicated. You are destroying this thing. You are making it complicated. You are destroying Medicare. Do not insult us as Democrats. We have been out there protecting it for years.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, it is my pleasure to yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. Ryan), a member of the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. RYAN of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding me this time.

I want to calm down a little bit. There has been a lot of shouting around here, a lot of heated rhetoric, a lot of hyperbole. Let us just look at a couple of facts.

It is a fact that the Medicare actuaries are telling us that Medicare is going insolvent in 13 years. The entire House and Senate go out and says, it is a fact that if we add more money on top of Medicare without doing any reforms, you are going to accelerate the insolvency of Medicare. We can try and speak those facts away, but the fact remains that those are facts.

Now, what this Democrat substitute does is it costs over $1 trillion. It accelerates the bankruptcy of Medicare. The basic assumption in this CBO estimate is that every employer providing private drug coverage for their retirees is going to drop it. And why would they not? Why would they not drop it if the Federal Government is going to pay for it all?

Mr. Speaker, do not sell out to the HMOs and the insurance companies. That is what you are doing. You are selling out by saying everybody has got to go into an HMO because you are in bed with the insurance companies. You are selling out to the pharmaceutical industry because you want no price reductions, because you are going to get some benefit from the pharmaceutical industry.

And then you come up with: this is complicated. The gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Greenwood) said, oh this is complicated. There is nothing complicated here. It is simple. We have had the program for years. We just add the prescription drug benefit, and we have a negotiated price. It is very simple.

Do not give me this chart. I mean, look at this garbage. How could anyone possibly understand it? I cannot even understand it myself, and you expect me to understand it? I cannot even possibly understand it? I cannot even understand it myself, and you expect me to understand it? I am sick and tired of hearing my Republican colleagues being complicated. You are destroying Medicare. Do not insult us as Democrats. We have been out there protecting it for years.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, it is my pleasure to yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. Ryan), a member of the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. RYAN of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker,
What the facts are is that this plan is going to accelerate the bankruptcy of Medicare.

Now, what are we trying to achieve with the Republican bill? Mr. Speaker, there are parts of this bill that none of us would ever write on our own bill. But what we are trying to achieve is not only modernizing this program so it works for today's seniors by giving them cheaper drugs and coverage of drugs, but we are also trying to modernize this program and save it for the future.

We have 77 million retirees coming in this country starting in 15 years; and if we accelerate the bankruptcy of this program as the Democrats are proposing to do, it is not going to be there for them.

So what we are doing with these market-based reforms and giving seniors more choices? We are giving them the chance that this program will be solvent for the boomers when they retire. That is a responsible thing to do here. The responsible thing is to make it work for today's seniors, make it modern, make it comprehensive, work on prescription drug prices, work on prescription drug coverage, but give seniors more choices, use competition, use the things that have worked in the past so we can save this program for the baby boomers. That is what the Republican bill does.

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 30 seconds for a couple of housekeeping things.

In 13 years, the revenues start to decline, but it does not go insolvent for 24 years. And I say to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. Nussle), if he has indeed the same letter that I am reading here, he has misspoken or made it up, which, in my State, we call telling a lie. Unless he has a different letter, which I am assured by CBO he does not, then he made that up.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. MENENDEZ).

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise on behalf of my 84-year-old mother and millions like her across this country. She worked her entire life in the factories of New Jersey. Today she has Alzheimer's and spends over half of her social security check on prescription drugs. If it was not for my sister and me, she would not be able to live with the dignity she deserves.

Now, this Republican package is wrapped in a label that says, "I care," but when you open it up, it contains nothing more than an empty promise.

Under this Republican plan, which lacks the compassion promised by the President and expected from our doctors, millions of seniors who want to stay in traditional Medicare will have no coverage of the kind they need. Their own doctors would essentially be forced into HMOs and left without the choices they deserve. This bill is the road toward privatizing Medicare.

Republicans just cannot help themselves. Once again, they have chosen corporate interests over human interests. America's seniors deserve our respect. They have worked too hard, sacrificed too much to be forced to choose between paying their rent, putting food on the table, and having access to life-enhancing drugs.

Support the Democratic substitute that has a real prescription drug provision under Medicare.

Mr. TAUMANN. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from California (Mr. CUNNINGHAM), our fighter pilot commander extraordinary.

Mr. CUNNINGHAM. Mr. Speaker, I had pneumonia about 5 years ago, and I went to pick up the prescription drug and I looked at it. It was 120 bucks. As I picked it up, I sat there and I thought, how does a family with three or four children afford 120 bucks per bottle of Augmentin to help them with their pneumococci antibiotics? Is it a real fact? It is hard.

But Mr. Speaker, I say to the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL), does he know the cost of my prescription drug? It cost me $17. Because my wife is in a rural school district and she had insurance. That is what we want, is a private-public partnership for those people that cannot afford prescription drugs to help them.

Over 1.4 million people in California will have no insurance whatsoever. But it will help them in our bill.

I think that your bill, with its costs, is devastating in the long run. It will not help.

If Democrats can demagogue pharmaceutical companies, then what is left? The government. If you can demagogue insurance companies, what is left for health care? Government-controlled health care. We rejected that in 1993 and to reject the Democratic substitute is to reject the Democratic substitute.

The GOP plan has a huge gap in coverage and does nothing to reduce the inflated prices big drug companies are charging for prescription drugs. In fact, the Republican plan has a noninterference clause that says the Health and Human Services Secretary will not, will not be allowed to negotiate lower prices for Americans.

The Rangel-Dingell bill will ensure that every senior, regardless of where they live, will be able to obtain the prescription drugs and the quality of health care they require to live a healthy life. This coverage will be provided through Medicare. Democrats are working to strengthen this program, not to do away with it, as the gentleman from California (Mr. THOMAS) called for when he said, and I quote him, "To those who say the GOP bill will end Medicare as we know it, our answer is: We certainly hope so."

Thus, the real motive behind the GOP plan is to do away with Medicare. Democrats proudly stand behind Medicare. Support the Rangel-Dingell substitute.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Arizona (Mr. HAYWORTH), a member of the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I thank my friend from Connecticut, and she has visited me. I know that the hour grows late and the debate grows heated and sometimes well-intentioned efforts from some are thrown in the confusion.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to urge this House to reject the Democratic substitute and to vote "yes" for H.R. 1, for reasonable, rational, clear-cut reform of Medicare that will bring Medicare into the 21st century with prescription drug coverage.
cardiac drug that is estimated to cut heart attacks by 80 percent. We have made great gains in pharmacology; but we do not continue those gains, Mr. Speaker, if we opt for a trillion dollar travesty. And make no mistake, that is what the Demorepublican substitute is offering to us this evening.

It was interesting, my friend from Iowa, who pointed out that the deficit hawks on the other sides had flown the coop. It is interesting, so many on the left who are so quick to indict folks higher up the economic scale tonight are strangely silent when we offer a plan where we give the priorities to those who need the help first.

The irony is, my friends on the left in the trillion dollars travesty section say, do not worry. Let us break the bank. Let the good times roll. Take command and control, put it together with a trillion bucks. No worries. But we know what would happen under that plan. It is a prescription for bankruptcy. And it is a prescription to mortgage the future of the working families that my friends purport to support.

People of good will can have different opinions, and we certainly have them here tonight. The question often comes down to this, when is enough enough? With the left it is never enough.

Reject insanity. Vote for rationality, "yes" to H.R. 1; "no" to the Democratic substitute.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. HASTINGS of Washington). The Chair would remind Members of the time remaining. The gentleman from Lou-diana (Mr. TAUZIN) has 4½ minutes remaining and would like to close. The gentleman from California (Mr. STARK) has 3½ minutes remaining and would be next in line to close. The gentle-dean from Connecticut (Mrs. JOHNSON) has 5½ minutes remaining and would like to close. The gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) has 4½ minutes remaining and would be the first to close.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California.

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. KUCINICH).

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, everyone in America knows the price of drugs is too high. Seniors know it best. Proposals H.R. 1 are not representing the seniors of America. They represent the biggest campaign contributors in America, the private health insurance industry led by drug makers.

The Rangel-Dingell substitute will bring down the cost of the drugs. It allows Medicare to buy drugs in bulk and negotiate for lower prices, which the VA already does. Skyrocketing drug costs are not only driving up health care costs but are causing seniors to make cruel choices between prescriptions and food, prescriptions and clothing. Some seniors are even splitting pills to make prescriptions last.

Seniors are crying out for help, but their pleas are drowned out by the cash registers humming away at the majority party headquarters, while insurance and pharmaceutical company lobbyists rush to the great Medicare sellout of 2003. What the Democrats are not talking about their bill. It adds $1 trillion to the deficit. That busts our budget. It busts their budget. In fact, it busts both budgets combined.

The Democratic legislation does so by loading up the bill, not by helping those seniors who need it the most. The underlying legislation provides for about 30 percent of the seniors that need it most, those under 150 percent of poverty, no deduction, no deductible, no cost sharing, no cap. When you go to the pharmacy, total subsidy for the prescription drug coverage. Instead, the Democratic plan by going to a

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2½ minutes to the distinguished gentlewoman from Illinois (Ms. SCHAKOWSKY).

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Mr. Speaker, once upon a time in 1989, a group of senators and Congressmen, the powerful chairman of the House Committee on Ways and Means, into his car because they wanted him to know that they did not like the catastrophic health care bill.

The more things change, the more they stay the same. That appeared on the front page of the Chicago Tribune in August of 1989. This was a bill that passed this body with overwhelming bipartisan support and all of the national senior citizens organizations supported the bill. There was only one problem. No one had checked in with rank-and-file seniors around the country who sat down with their calculators and they figured out what the benefit would be that they would get and how much it would cost them, and it did not like the answer.

Now, I show you this photo that represents the seniors of America. They are too smart to be fooled by Republican speeches or anybody else's speeches. They will figure out on their own what this bill does, which is, as the current chairman of the powerful House Committee on Ways and Means hopes, destroy Medicare as we know it.

Seniors will get out their calculators and figure it out.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I yield ½ minute to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN).

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. Speaker, it has been a very interesting debate, too, as we've listened to this debate tonight. We had 3 hours of good debate on the Re-communist legislation, the underlying bill which provides historic prescription drug coverage and does so within the budget. Now is the opportunity for the Democrats to talk about their substitute. So what is your idea? And you know what we are having? More discussion of the underlying legislation. Again, historic legislation to add prescription drug coverage that is within the budget.

The Democrats are not talking about their bill. It adds $1 trillion to the deficit. That busts our budget. It busts their budget. In fact, it busts both budgets combined.

The Democratic legislation does so by loading up the bill, not by helping those seniors who need it the most. trillion dollars would provide coverage for those who do not even need it. It sounds like what they accuse Republicans of.

I was really interested to see, when you look at page 12 of the Democrat bill, there is all sorts of things interesting. They say we do not provide guaranteed access. We do provide guaranteed access. The government actually steps in when there are not plans available, negotiates down the risk which assurances guarantee.

If you look at page 12, what does the Democrat plan do? It says, “The Secretary shall develop procedures to ensure coverage.” That will give you some comfort. I can see why they are not talking about their legislation. I would not either. Vote for the underlying bill. Vote down this substitute that they will not talk about.

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 1½ minutes.

Mr. Speaker, just to straighten out some of the figures, the Republicans do indeed add $26.7 million for rural providers, $1 billion for rural providers. That is $2.5 billion more, and I would hope that the Republicans are not lying to the seniors.

You can lie to us because we are used to it. The White House has set the tone for that. But do not lie to the seniors. There is nothing in your bill. I say to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN), there is nothing in your bill that guarantees anything, and to say that to the seniors is lying to them.

There is nothing in your bill that guarantees a thing to the seniors and you know it. And if you do not know it, read it again. Otherwise, you are lying to the seniors.

Our bill provides a Medicare benefit which is definable. Yours does not. You do not require any benefits if no insurance company steps up to the plate and there is nothing that requires it. There is not one line in your bill that requires any company to provide anything. So it is all a fantasy. At least we are requiring the government to provide a benefit to the seniors in the same manner they are now familiar, under Medicare with a determined premium, a determined deductible, determined benefits, the same across the country. None of that is available through the Republican bill. To tell the seniors otherwise is lying. You have lied to us tonight and stop lying to the seniors.

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I have an inquiry as to time before I yield the balance of my time. I believe the gentlewoman from Illinois (Ms. SCHAKOWSKY) did not get the full 2¼ minutes that I yielded to her. I would like to know how much time I have left and how much I can properly yield the gentlewoman from Illinois.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) for yielding me time.

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) for yielding me time.

Again, this is just a warning, a friendly warning to you that if you pass H.R. 1 tonight, you better also go out and get your running shoes because the seniors are too smart to be fooled by your proposal. And you can trash Medicare all you want. You can call it an outdated program, antiquated; but I do not know how you are going to do it.

I do believe that you love your mothers, but it is obvious to me that you do not call them enough. You do not go to senior centers enough. Not the ones I have gone to in my 5 years as director of the State Council of Senior Citizens. Seniors love their Medicare. The only thing they do not like is that it does not cover prescription drugs. And that is why if you are smart or out of shape and not able to be chased by seniors, you will vote for the Rangel-Dingell substitute.

The Democratic substitute is what seniors have been asking for and what every politician has been promising them, an understandable, defined, dependable Medicare prescription drug benefit. It has all the features of Medicare that our seniors know and love, a set premium, no copayments.

Vote for the substitute or start running.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. TOM DAVIS). Mr. TOM DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I would like to engage in a colloquy with my colleague.

Can she confirm that the language in H.R. 1 includes plans under the Federal Employee Retirement Plan as an employment base plan?

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. TOM DAVIS of Virginia. I yield to the gentleman from Connecticut (Mrs. JOHNSON).

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, yes, that is correct.

Mr. TOM DAVIS of Virginia. That will give you some comfort. I was really interested to see, when you look at page 12 of the Democrat bill, there is all sorts of things interesting. They say we do not provide anything. So it is all a fantasy. At least we are requiring the government to provide a benefit to the seniors in the same manner they are now familiar, under Medicare with a determined deductible, determined benefits, the same across the country. The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Connecticut (Ms. SCHAKOWSKY) has 2½ minutes remaining and the right to close. The gentleman from California (Mr. STARK) has 1 minute remaining and would be next to close. The gentlewoman from Connecticut (Mrs. JOHNSON) has 2½ minutes remaining and the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) has 2 minutes remaining.

Mr. TAUZIN. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire as to how many minutes are left for each one of the four who have allocated time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. HASTINGS of Washington). The gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. TAUZIN) has 2 minutes remaining and the right to close. The gentlewoman from Connecticut (Mrs. JOHNSON) has 2½ minutes remaining and the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) has 2 minutes remaining.

Mr. TAUZIN. Mr. Speaker, we reserve the balance of our time. If anyone wants to use some more time at this time would be a good time to do it.

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time, and I want to yield it to our leader.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 30 seconds.

This is a historic evening. It is our opportunity tonight to provide prescription drugs to all seniors under Medicare as an entitlement and to do it in a way that is fair, simple and generous and sustainable. It is our opportunity tonight to modernize the benefit program under Medicare to deal with chronic care for our seniors, a big concern for them, and to structure Medicare in such a way that it will be sustainable, the dollars will be there and more will be provided the health retirement security in the future that it has in the past.

I urge support of H.R. 1 and defeat of the substitute.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. HASTINGS of Washington) (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On this roll, 421 Members have recorded their presence by electronic device, a quorum.

Under the rule, further proceedings under the call are dispensed with.

MEdICARE PRESCRIPTION DRUG AND MODERNIZATION ACT OF 2003

Mr. D INGELL. Mr. Speaker, I yield the balance of my time to the distinguished gentleman from Arkansas (Mr. BERRY).

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Michigan (Mr. D INGELL) is recognized.

Mr. D INGELL. Mr. Speaker, I yield the balance of my time to the distinguished gentleman from Arkansas (Mr. BERRY).

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Arkansas is recognized for 2 minutes.

Mr. BERRY. Mr. Speaker, we are here this evening on a very serious matter. It can literally mean life or death for many of our elderly citizens. Our great Nation was founded, and has so far been successful, based on the self-evident truth in the Declaration of Independence that all men are created equal. They are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, and that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Mr. Speaker, these founding truths were forged by a firm commitment from our Founding Fathers, the last sentence in the Declaration of Independence. It says: In support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

Our great Nation was founded, and has women that went through the Depression, fought World War II, and then built this great Nation into what it is today and turned it over to my generation?

I had a little remark in there, but I am not going to use it because I think this is far too serious a business we take up this evening. A government should not make poor people poorer, rich people richer. It should not create a situation where no one has to be responsible, and it should not make it possible for a person or group of persons to be able to take advantage of others because of an act of that government.

If you do what you are talking about doing, you will make that exact thing possible. You will make it possible for insurance companies and pharmaceutical companies to rob the senior citizens of this country.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Connecticut (Mrs. J OHNSON) is recognized.

Mrs. J OHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I yield the balance of my time to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. D ELAY), the majority leader.

Mr. D ELAY. Mr. Speaker, I want to commend all those that have worked so hard on probably the most important issue that most of us will vote on in our career. There is very few times that you are going to have a vote like this.
Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from California (Mr. Thoma) son), the gentleman from Connecticut (Mrs. Johnson), the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. Tauzin), the members of the Committee on Ways and Means, members of the Committee on Unfunded Liabilities, Members know this is incredibly important. The future of our seniors, the future of our children are at stake.

You also heard from Ms. Pelosi, the woman from California (Ms. Pelosi), the minority leader.

Mr. Speaker, sometimes things are not what they seem. For example, they say that something is expensive, but then they never actually say what they mean by that. This is why it is so important to have a clear and honest discussion about the future of Medicare.

The American people have a right to know what their elected officials are doing to ensure the future of Medicare is secure. They want to see a plan that will provide them with the care they need without breaking the bank. This bill does not provide that.

Let me tell Members what people have said about their substitute. According to Tom Saving, who is a current Medicare trustee, the Democrat plan would lead to Medicare consuming not only all of the Medicare payroll taxes, but also 54 percent of all Federal income taxes by the year 2040 and over 90 percent of all Federal income taxes by the year 2075. They want to continue the plan. The Democrat plan would add between $18 trillion and $20 trillion in unfunded liabilities to the Federal Government's balance sheet. They want to preserve Medicare, and that is what it would be.

Now what is the difference? Where is the plan? Where is the substitute? Mr. Speaker, the Substitute is writing a bill over there that Senator Kennedy is very proud of. Well, the Senate has got to do what it has got to do. What is our solution? It has been talked about over and over again, but what is the alternative? What is the alternative if this bill does not pass tonight? What is the alternative if this bill does not pass at all? What is the alternative if we do not have a Medicare plan? That ought to tell us something. Some of our Members have commented over the last few days that entitlements have to be there. We are ready to take the responsibility to do so. Tax relief, tax reform, paying down the debt, not one time in 40 years did the other side of the aisle balance the budget, we did. In just 5 years, we will be spending over $400 billion per year on Medicare. Now some on my side of the aisle think $400 billion is a lot of money over 10 years, and giving this benefit is really expensive.

But at the same time what are we getting for this system that has been designed to bankrupt this country? What are we getting is doctors refusing to take seniors as patients. We have hospitals closing. We have costs escalating through the roof. Medicare is driving other health care costs through the roof. Seniors are having to make spending decisions based upon the cost of their health care or their drugs. This is the system they want to preserve. This is the system that they want to see continue. But many of us, both Democrats and Republicans, think that this is a time that we have an incredible opportunity.

I came here to make a difference; and, frankly, since this Republican House has been in the majority we have made an incredible difference. Some Members wanted to preserve the old welfare system. We reformed welfare. Some of our Members have commented over the last few days that entitlements are forever. No, they are not. Welfare was an entitlement, and we changed it. We changed it. And we are changing Medicare. We are changing it.

The fact is that under the Clinton administration, we are now seeing the largest cuts in Medicare in history. We are not taking the responsibility to do so. Tax relief, tax reform, paying down the debt, not one time in 40 years did the other side of the aisle balance the budget, we did. They spent 40 years driving up the debt on our children, we took the responsibility to do so. Tax relief, tax reform, paying down the debt, not one time in 40 years did the other side of the aisle balance the budget, we did. They spent 40 years driving up the debt on our children, we paid over $550 billion on that debt.

So what are we faced with on this road that forks? What is the solution? The Democrats have offered their solution, and I say to my friends, let us get a glimpse of the future. I hope Members watched the debate on their substitute because that is a glimpse of the future if this bill does not pass.
Mr. Speaker, I want to make two more points. We have had some debate; unfortunately, none of our amendment efforts were allowed to bring to the floor. It is late, and we usually do these things in the dark of night so the American people cannot see and cannot have the bright light of day on the debate on this floor to see what is happening to them and to their futures.

But I want to make just two points about the bills. The Democratic bill is a defined guaranteed benefit under Medicare. The Republican bill is not. I heard the distinguished chairman of the Committee on the Budget speak about the cost of the Democratic bill. The Republicans should have yielded their time in half if the Republicans would allow the Secretary of HHS to negotiate for best prices. That provision is in the Democratic bill. It makes sense, right? Forty million seniors, lots of purchasing power. It makes sense. Not to the Republicans. Their bill has a prohibition on the Secretary negotiating for best prices. A prohibition.

I think there are many questions about the Republican bill. It is very complex. But as seniors look at it and they ask those questions, I think there is one question that every American should have: Why do the Republicans have a prohibition on the Secretary negotiating for best prices and to the American taxpayer? Why? I will tell you why. Because tonight we have a debate about the special interests and the public interest.

The Democrats have come to this floor as servants of the people. The Republicans have come to this floor as handmaids of the prescription drug industry. I urge my colleagues to support this amendment and oppose the Republican bill.

Mr. TAUZIN. Mr. Speaker, in order to close this historic debate, I yield the balance of my time to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. HASTERT), the distinguished Speaker of our whole House.

Mr. HASTERT. Mr. Speaker, the hour is late. We have had a lot of rhetoric. We have had a lot of flailing of arms and pointing fingers across the aisle. It is time for all of us to come to a reasoned decision. It is time for us to look at all the debate that we have had, to look at the facts. I guess I could be suckered into a debate about fiscal responsibility over the past years, votes we have had and votes we did not have. But the fact is we have a very important bill on the floor of this House tonight, a bill that probably will reach into every American household and give people decisions and benefits on how they are going to take care of their health. I have done this for my father and for the elderly people that they hold dear.

I want to salute those folks who worked hard on both sides of the aisle to carry on this debate. I thank the gentleman from California (Mr. THOMAS) and the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. TAUZIN). I am grateful for their hard work. I have worked on health care issues in this Congress for more than a decade. When you compare me to the great gentleman from Michigan, that is probably not very much time. But Bob Michel put me on Mrs. CLINTON'S health care task force back in 1993 and Newt Gingrich asked me to deal with the issue of health insurance portability in 1995 and we did that. In every Congress that I have presided as Speaker, this House has passed a prescription drug benefit as part of an effort to modernize Medicare. Today, we have a chance to take a most dramatic step in health care reform, the most dramatic step we have taken in 25 years.

Some of my friends on the other side of the aisle say that we do not spend enough. That is not my thinking, because they think that $1 trillion over $400 billion is better over a 10-year period of time. Some of my friends on this side of the aisle believe we spend too much. That is not surprising, either, given their philosophy. Not to the Republicans. This bill spends what we can afford to spend. We cannot afford to ignore this issue this year. We on both sides of the aisle have held out a promise to America's seniors that we will give them an opportunity to have a prescription drug benefit and we will make sure that Medicare is not serving America's seniors well. I yield out this promise. Tonight is the night that we have an opportunity to fulfill that promise.

In a sense, this is the best of times and the worst of times when it comes to health care in this country. We have the finest doctors. We have the best hospitals. We have people who are uninsured. But we also have the cutting-edge issues and lifesaving prescription drugs. We also have skyrocketing drug costs and we have too many people who are uninsured. And we have drugs that for some folks are just too expensive. Last week, we passed legislation to deal with the uninsured when we passed association health plans. Today we deal with the cost issues of health care. Earlier today we passed a health savings account bill which puts the consumer in the driver's seat in driving down costs. And now, in this bill, we make Medicare work better for senior citizens. A measure that does not include a prescription drug benefit is not serving America's seniors well. When Medicare was first conceived in the 1960s, it was at its heart a program with the costs of going to hospitals and going to doctors. Back then, prescription drugs were not used to the extent they are today. You got an aspirin once in a while, but they just did not play the role they play today. Today because of advancements made over the last 30 years and the R&D we have done in this country, the drugs that help us stay out of the hospital, we have drugs to help with cholesterol, we have drugs that help us with diabetes, with arthritis, with high blood pressure, on and on and on. And there are lifesaving drugs.

Seniors should have better access at a better price to these drugs through the Medicare system. This bill makes that happen. It will cut drug costs by an average of $37 a month to every senior. It also includes catastrophic coverage so that no senior with high drug costs will be forced into bankruptcy. This is a compassionate program for senior citizens.

This bill also includes conservative reforms to make sure that Medicare stays solvent. We cannot allow the Medicare system to continue to grow so large that it actually bankrupts this country. We must introduce market-based reforms that lead to greater choices for seniors and greater competition among providers. I agree with the proposition that an 80-year-old grandmother should not be forced into a PPO simply because she gets a prescription drug benefit. But I also agree that a 50-year-old father who has health care choices throughout his whole working career will feel comfortable shopping around for the best health care plan for his individual needs when he qualifies for Medicare. Competition, choice, the marketplace, these are the concepts which will save Medicare for the coming decades.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to support this bill. This is a defining moment for this Congress. It is too late for obstruction. It is too late for nit-picking. It is too late for all the lame excuses that we often hear. Senior citizens will long remember if you voted for them today, but they will never forget if you voted against them.

Ladies and gentlemen, not many times in this great hall do we have a piece of legislation when all the forces come together and we have an opportunity to make real change. We have that opportunity tonight. I ask you to vote to provide our citizens with a better Medicare system and a real prescription drug benefit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. HASTINGS of Washington). All time for debate has expired. Pursuant to House Resolution 299, the previous question is ordered on the bill and on the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL).

The question is on the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL).

"The distribution of a prescription drug that is counterfeit, misbranded, or adulterated is unlawful, and may be seized by the Secretary under section 201(k).

The Secretary may grant individuals a waiver to permit personal use of a prescription drug that—

(iii) is approved for marketing in the United States; and

(iv) meets all labeling requirements under this Act.

(L) Laboratory records, including complete data derived from all tests necessary to ensure that the prescription drug is in compliance with established specifications and standards necessary.

(M) Documentation demonstrating that the testing required by subparagraphs (J) and (L) was conducted at a qualified laboratory.

(N) Any other information that the Secretary determines is necessary to ensure the protection of the public health.

(2) MAINTENANCE BY THE SECRETARY.—The Secretary shall maintain information and documentation submitted under paragraph (1) for such period of time as the Secretary determines to be necessary.

(e) TESTING.—The regulations under subsection (b) shall require—

(i) that testing described in subparagraphs (J) and (L) of subsection (d)(1) be conducted by the importer or by the manufacturer of the prescription drug at a qualified laboratory;

(ii) if the tests are conducted by the importer—

(A) that information needed to—

(i) authenticate the prescription drug being tested; and

(ii) confirm that the labeling of the prescription drug complies with labeling requirements under this Act; and

(iii) that the information supplied under subparagraph (A) be kept in strict confidence and used only for purposes of testing or otherwise complying with this Act; and

(3) may include such additional provisions as the Secretary determines to be appropriate to provide for the protection of trade secrets and commercial or financial information that is privileged or confidential.

(f) REGISTRATION OF FOREIGN SELLERS.—Any establishment within Canada engaged in the distribution of a prescription drug that is imported or offered for importation into the United States shall register with the Secretary the name and place of business of the establishment.

(g) SUSPENSION OF IMPORTATION.—The Secretary shall require that importations of a specific prescription drug or importations by a specific importer under subsection (b) be immediately suspended on discovery of a pattern of importation of that specific prescription drug or by that specific importer of drugs that are counterfeit or in violation of any requirement under this section, until an investigation is completed and the Secretary determines that the public is adequately protected from counterfeit and violative prescription drugs being imported under subsection (b).

(h) APPROVED LABELING.—The manufacturer of a prescription drug shall provide an importer with written authorization for the importation of that drug at the price.

(i) PROHIBITION OF DISCRIMINATION.—(1) A prescription drug shall be deemed unlawful for a manufacturer of a prescription drug to discriminate against, or cause any other person to discriminate against, a pharmacist or wholesaler that purchases or offers to purchase a prescription drug from the manufacturer or from any person that distributes a prescription drug manufactured by the drug manufacturer.

(2) DISCRIMINATION.—For the purposes of paragraph (1), a manufacturer of a prescription drug shall be considered to discriminate against a pharmacist or wholesaler if the manufacturer enters into a contract for sale of a prescription drug, places a limit on supply, or employs any other measure, that has the effect of—

(A) providing pharmacists or wholesalers access to prescription drugs on terms or conditions that are less favorable than the terms or conditions provided to a foreign purchaser (other than a charitable or humanitarian organization) of the prescription drug;

(B) restricting the access of pharmacists or wholesalers to a prescription drug that is permitted to be imported into the United States under the regulation limits the authority of the Secretary registered with the Secretary; and

(C) is imported from Canada, from a seller authorized by the Secretary under chapter V; and

(D) is accompanied by a copy of a valid certificate that—

(i) is authenticated by the person, other than the Secretary, that conducted the examination or test referred to in subparagraph (A); and

(ii) is in the form of a valid certificate of analysis that was manufactured in an establishment registered under section 503;

(E) is a prescription drug approved by the Secretary under chapter V; and

(F) is prescribed by a practitioner who ordered under such other conditions as the Secretary determines to be necessary to ensure public safety.

(i) STUDIES; REPORTS.—(1) BY THE INSTITUTE OF MEDICINE OF THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCES.—

(A) STUDY.—The Secretary shall request that the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences conduct a study of imports of prescription drugs made under the regulations under subsection (b); and

(B) ILLUSTRATE the increased risk; and

(iv)(iv) considers whether any measures described in subclause (I) would require additional statutory authority, subsection (a)(2)(B), or to a government of a foreign country.

(k) WAIVER AUTHORITY FOR IMPORTATION BY INDIVIDUALS.—

(1) DECLARATIONS.—Congress declares that in the enforcement against individuals of the prohibition of importation of prescription drugs and devices, the Secretary should—

(i) focus enforcement on cases in which the importation by an individual poses a significant threat to public health; and

(ii) exercise discretion to permit individuals to make such importations in circumstances in which—

(A) the importation is clearly for personal use; and

(B) the prescription drug or device imported does not appear to present an unreasonable risk to the individual.

(2) WAIVER AUTHORITY.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may grant to individuals, by regulation or on a case-by-case basis, a waiver of the prohibition of importation of a prescription drug or device or class of prescription drugs or devices, under such conditions as the Secretary determines to be appropriate.

(B) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The Secretary shall publish, and update as necessary, guidance that accurately describes circumstances in which the Secretary shall—

(i) grant to individuals, by regulation or on a case-by-case basis, waivers to permit personal use of prescription drugs, other than with respect to section 801(d)(1), that are determined to be counterfeit, misbranded, or adulterated;

(ii) determine the effect of this section on the price of prescription drugs sold to consumers at retail.

(3) DRUGS IMPORTED FROM CANADA.—In particular, the Secretary shall by regulation grant individuals a waiver to permit individuals to import into the United States a prescription drug that—

(A) is imported from a licensed pharmacy for personal use by an individual, not for resale, in quantities that do not exceed a 90-day supply; and

(B) is accompanied by a copy of a valid certificate of analysis that—

(i) is authenticated by the person, other than the Secretary, that conducted the examination or test referred to in subparagraph (A); and

(ii) is in the form of a valid certificate of analysis that was manufactured in an establishment registered under section 503;

(iii) ILLUSTRATE the increased risk; and

(iv) considers whether any measures described in subclause (I) would require additional statutory authority, subsection (a)(2)(B), or to a government of a foreign country.

(i) EFFECTIVENESS OF SECTION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—If, after the date that is 1 year after the effective date of the regulations under subsection (b) and before the date that is 18 months after the effective date of the regulations under subsection (b) and before the date that is 18 months after the effective date of the regulations under subsection (b), the institute of Medicine of the Secretaries based on substantial evidence obtained after the effective date, the benefits of implementation of this section do not outweigh the increased risk, the Secretary, in the opinion of the Secretary, the United States Trade Representative, and the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks to evaluate the effect of importations under the regulations under subsection (b) on trade and patent rights under Federal law.

(2) REPORT.—Not later than 2 years after the effective date of the regulations under subsection (b), the institute of Medicine of the Secretaries based on substantial evidence obtained after the effective date, the benefits of implementation of this section do not outweigh the increased risk, the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences shall submit to Congress a report describing the findings of the study under subparagraph (A).

(2) BY THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL.—

(A) STUDY.—The Comptroller General of the United States shall conduct a study to determine the effect of this section on the price of prescription drugs sold to consumers at retail.

(B) REPORT.—Not later than 18 months after the effective date of the regulations under subsection (b), the Comptroller General of the United States shall submit to Congress a report describing the findings of the study under subparagraph (A).

(m) CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this section limits the authority of the Secretary relating to the importation of prescription drugs, other than with respect to section 801(d)(1).
unlike the Republican bill, and provides billions of dollars of relief for rural providers.

Unfortunately, for America's seniors, our proposal will only get 5 minutes of discussion tonight, 5 minutes to protect Medicare from privatization, 5 minutes we hope our seniors have a benefit if the PPOs do not come to their areas. And for all of the Members tonight who have said they are supporting the Republican bill in order to move the debate, the best way to do that is to support this recommittal so we can promptly get a measure back here in the morning to vote on.

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield 45 seconds to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. STENHOLM).

Mr. STENHOLM. Mr. Speaker, I rise in humble appreciation for the 45 seconds being allowed to me tonight to speak for what I am for in Medicare, and to express my extreme disappointment in the leadership of this House for bringing to the floor a bill based on an ideological agenda that will undermine the traditional Medicare program and fail to provide prescription drug coverage for seniors in rural areas, or seriously address the issue of prescription drug costs.

The motion to recommit promptly reported back to the floor will have a devastating impact on Medicare for rural areas if private plans are not available, stronger provisions for rural providers, stays within the $400 billion allocation which safeguards to make sure that that happens, and it is based on the compromise in the other body that will give strong bipartisan support and become law.

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield 45 seconds to the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. TANNER).

Mr. TANNER. Mr. Speaker, I did not vote for the Democratic substitute because I thought it was too light on reform. The Republican bill is too light on substance.

Mr. Speaker, we have a middle ground here, if we were only allowed to offer it; and it is what the gentleman from Texas (Mr. STENHOLM) said. Basically, any meaningful reform in the Medicare or health care area, the crux of that matter is one, a Federal backstop for rural America, which is not in the bill we are considering; and two, some measure of cost containment. That is how we save the program. Neither one of these essential elements in my judgment is in the bill. If we could get this motion to recommit, we could fix it and we could come back here with strong bipartisan support.

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield 45 seconds to our colleague, the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. SCOTT).

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to reprint the bill in the Record.

Mr. Speaker, the Republican proposal ignores the most important prescription drug issue facing our country, cost containment and the need to end the national disgrace by which our citizens are forced to pay, by far, the highest prices in the world for prescription drugs. If we do not pass this motion to recommit, the pharmaceutical industry will have succeeded in keeping prices high and their profits high.

This motion to recommit removes the poison pill in H.R. 1, the so-called Cochran amendment, and establishes a real prescription drug reimportation program with Canada. This provision alone, without costing the taxpayers one penny, will do more to help seniors and all Americans get affordable drugs than the $400 billion being spent by the Republicans.

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield 45 seconds to our colleague, the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. EMANUEL), who is not a Blue Dog, but knows a good deal when he sees one.

Mr. EMANUEL. Mr. Speaker, the speaker earlier talked about using competition and market forces. This bill allows competition between generics versus name brand, so we get real reform, the pharmaceutical industry have competition whether we want to buy here in the United States, England, France, or Germany, and allows competition between those prices. It would save money. It uses market forces to reduce prices.

Third, it allows the Secretary of HHS to get the best available price, just like all of the Sam's Clubs all over America. It does that there. It allows competition and market forces to reduce prices.

These provisions have, in the past, received bipartisan support. They should receive bipartisan support today because they represent our common principles of reducing prices and making medications affordable to all Americans.
June 26, 2003

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr.
Speaker, I urge this body to vote to send this motion back to committee and promptly report back a solid Medicare prescription drug benefit that we can pass tomorrow.
Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion to recommit.
I do want to announce that today is the gentleman from Iowa’s (Mr.
NUSSLE) birthday as well.
As my colleagues know, I have a reputation for reading legislation. I apologize. As I began reading the motion to recommit, as I got to page 3, the comment of the gentleman from Vermont ringing in my ears, about how they are really concerned about cost containment.
It turns out subtitle D has been scratched from the bill, my colleagues might like to know. It contains section 131, additional requirements for annual financial report and oversight on the Medicare program. Section 132, trustee report on Medicare’s unfunded obligations. That has been scratched from the bill.
And I continued to try to go through;
but, actually, you only need the front page. My colleagues heard them say over and over again: ‘‘promptly.’’ We know by now: ‘‘forthwith,’’ ‘‘it works.’’
‘‘It comes back, we can vote on it.’’
I say: promptly, it does not mean a thing.
Vote ‘‘no’’ on the motion to recommit.
Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr.
HASTINGS of Washington). Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.
There was no objection.
The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.
The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.
RECORDED VOTE

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr.
Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.
A recorded vote was ordered.

is called, was the worst slaughter west of the Mississippi of Native Americans, with estimates of the dead nearly double those of Wounded Knee, South Dakota. Now, for the first time in its history, 26 acres where so many Shoshones perished will be treated as the sacred burial ground that it is. In a momentous and moving ceremony the Northwestern Band of the Shoshone Nation was able to perform burial rites for the men, women, and children who died on that site over 140 years ago. Mr. Speaker, today I wish to honor those members of the tribe who gave their lives on that day in 1863.

I want to commend the efforts of the tribe, the American West Heritage Center, and the Trust for Public Lands for working together to bring closure to this episode in our nation’s history. Their goal is to obtain a total of 150 acres so that the Bear River Massacre site can be turned into a memorial. This story, along with the tribe’s history and culture, will be preserved and shared with the public at the nearby American West Heritage Center in Wellsville, Utah, which is also located in my district.

Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of our colleagues, I am also submitting an article for the Record from a Salt Lake newspaper, which details the history of this site. I commend the past and current Shoshone leadership for their vision and efforts.

[From the Salt Lake Tribune, Feb. 4, 2003] THIS HALLOWED GROUND

It never made any sense to call what happened at Idaho’s Bear River 140 years ago a “battle.” When soldiers based in Salt Lake City ventured against the Shoshone in 1863, at least 250 men, women and children of the Northwestern Shoshone tribe on Jan. 29, 1863, it was a massacre.

And it still makes no sense that the site of that blot on our shared history is not officially designated as a national historic site. Descendants of the Northwestern Shoshone see the historic significance of the place, and so does the National Park Service. But, while the site near Preston in southeastern Idaho drew a small crowd of devoted friends to mark the anniversary of the horrid event, what happened there remains something that has been largely air-brushed, Stain-like, from our official memory.

The reason, apparently, is that Idaho Sen. Larry Craig has for eight years been bottling up a resolution to create a $34 million Bear River National Historic Site and Visitors Center. Craig says the park service has more immediate needs and, given the constant scuffle within all federal agencies for adequate funding, it is true that not every idea for a new national historic site can be fulfilled.

But the Bear River massacre is important enough to be burned into our collective memory. It was one of the earliest events to mark the site of the Bear River Massacre, which formally mourn the 1,300 residents who had to flee the country for refuge in neighboring countries, many of which have already reached the end of their meager resources. The series of events in Liberia presents a harsh lesson on yesterday’s events: we celebrated a Constitutional victory in the Gutter v. Bollinger decision that came out of the highest court in the nation. Similarly ironic, on that same day, we saluted the Honorable Mayor Maynard Jackson, J. R., one of the most charismatic civic leaders of all time in his departure at age 65. This ironic juxtaposition of emotions reminds us that no matter how far we think we’ve gotten, there is always distance to be traveled in the work of making peace in the world.

The U.N. High Court indictment of Liberian President Charles Taylor on charges of crimes against humanity, largely stemming from his participation in the civil war in Sierra Leone, has created a defar in Monrovia. A Liberian woman stated that “We are all tired of Charles Taylor, but we are afraid that his arrest in Ghana will create chaos.” We in the United States now know the feeling of panic as we check the terror threat on a daily basis—today’s threat level being Yellow, or “heightened.” People shouldn’t have to live in fear.

The economic effect of the renewed arms embargo, ban on dealing in rough diamonds, and airline restrictions on Liberia will be substantial for the citizens and business community. However, the human rights abuses such as summary executions, recruitment of child soldiers, sexual violence, looting of civilian property, and forced labor must end now. The mass evacuation aboard the French vessel Orage of the hundreds of foreigners, including Americans, holding dual U.S. and Liberian citizenships, Europeans, Lebanese, Ivorian and Indian nationals, Egyptians and South Africans, represents a departure from our goal of uniting our international community in peace. It is a moral imperative that we end the chaos caused by anarchist and criminal behavior. The Ceasefire Agreement between the Republic of Liberia, the Liberians United for Reconciliation and Democracy (LUR), and the Movement for Democracy in Liberia (MODEL) is a start, but our help is imperative. We must make our voices heard and incite action from our colleagues in order to restore peace.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the pending amendments be temporarily set aside and that the following amendments be called up en bloc: No. 1014, by Senator Bond, study of pharmacy services; No. 1015, by Senator Dodd, study of blind and disabled; No. 1059, by Senator HATCH, HHS review; No. 1106, by Senator HATCH, citizens councils; No. 1086, by Senator LINCOLN, geriatric money disease; No. 1038, by Senator MIKULSKI, municipal health services; No. 935, by Senator LINCOLN, geriatric GME; No. 959, by Senator LINCOLN, physical therapy demo; No. 1038, by Senator JEFFORDS, critical access hospital; No. 1095, by Senator JOHNSON, therapy management.

I further ask unanimous consent that these amendments be agreed to en bloc and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table en bloc.

The amendments were agreed to.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There are now 2 minutes evenly divided prior to the next vote.

Mr. ROCKEFELLER. Mr. President, this next amendment has to do with dual eligibility. Never in the history of Medicare have we precluded Medicare beneficiaries from being Medicare beneficiaries. In the underlying bill, for the very first time, we do.

The people I refer to are called dual eligibles. Their average income is $6,500 a year. They tend to be over 85, single women, and very sick. They are on Medicaid. Medicaid, however, is optional according to the States. We know the States to be broke. The fastest growing expense they face is Medicaid. So they are cutting the benefits. They are cutting Medicaid. They will continue to do that. The States have no choice but to cut Medicaid. Some will do it because they wish to, all will do it because they have to.

When that possibility is gone, there is no place for these poorest of the poor to go. They are then, under the underlying bill, precluded from being Medicare beneficiaries. That is wrong. In my budget-neutral amendment I attempt to fix it. I hope my colleagues will support the amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Two things for my colleagues to consider during the consideration of how to vote on this amendment: No. 1 is the money that is available to pay for his amendment, an offset, is the very same amount of money we, Senator BAUCUS and I, are now 2 minutes evenly divided prior to the next vote.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the question is on agreeing to the Sessions amendment No. 1011.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the following two votes be 10-minute votes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment (No. 1011) was rejected.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. I move to lay that motion on the table.

in our underlying legislation. The point being, they will not be taken care of better. It is just it is going to cost the Federal Government more. I hope you will take those things into consideration and vote down this amendment.

I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second? There is a sufficient second.

The question is on agreeing to amendment No. 1066 as modified. The clerk will call the roll.

Mr. REID. I announce that the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) and the Senator from Connecticut (Mr. LIEBERMAN) are necessarily absent.

AMENDMENT NO. 1066

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There are now 2 minutes equally divided on the Bingaman amendment.

Mr. BINGAMAN. Mr. President, the bill before us is, in my view, a significant flaw in it. We are holding out this prescription drug benefit. But the bill we are considering here says if you want to take advantage of the benefit, you are thereby prohibited from buying any supplemental insurance to cover prescription drugs. Today, people are able to buy Medicare policies that cover prescription drugs. In the future they will not be able to, if this bill becomes law as it is.

My amendment would merely give people the option of buying a prescription drug supplemental policy if they chose to do so. It directs that two policies be developed that would accomplish that. It is supported by the insurance industry. It is supported by the Consumers Union. Seniors would like to have this opportunity to reduce their risk of substantial out-of-pocket costs.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, first of all, let me make very clear that we know that Medigap is very important as part of Medicare. We leave that untouched as it relates to 1965 model Medicare. In fact, many of my Iowa constituents want to keep that. But we as a policy matter have made it a very conscious choice to prevent the sale of wraparound Medigap plans for the new Part D drug benefit. This policy makes sense considering drug plans could be different everywhere else in the United States.

There is no proposal to standardize Medigap policies like we did about 15 years ago. But seniors don't get ripped off. But the Congressional Budget Office tells us this new Medigap plan that is before us now will increase the cost of our bill. The cost of this amendment is $1.5 billion over 10 years, according to the Congressional Budget Office. That is because of the increased utilization that comes from having additional insurance.

I share the Senator's concern with gaps in coverage. I wish we didn't have these gaps. But we believe participating drug plans—especially drug plans delivered by PPVs—will offer benefits in a comprehensive fashion, lessening the need for expensive supplemental policies.

I urge my colleagues to reject this amendment.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second? There is a sufficient second.

The question is on agreeing to the amendment. The clerk will call the roll.

Mr. REID. I announce that the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) and the Senator from Connecticut (Mr. LIEBERMAN) are necessarily absent.

I further announce that, if present and voting, the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) would vote "yea."

The result was announced—yeas 43, nays 55, as follows:

[Rollcall Vote No. 258 Leg.]
work the time in. I certainly regret the managers of the bill were unable to make more progress earlier in the day but, unfortunately, I wish to continue the debate. The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Democratic leader is recognized.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I hope we can do as the majority leader has suggested. We have had a good debate. I think this has been an excellent debate. The managers deserve credit for the way they have managed the legislation. We have had 12 roll call votes today already. It is likely that we will have 16 or 17 by the end of the day, if not more; we had 9 yesterday. More than 30 amendments have now been considered.

I think it is time that we bring the debate to a close. There will be many more opportunities to talk about prescription drugs and health care with the array of legislative challenges that we face today. I think we have been able to do a good deal, and I hope we can get cooperation now on both sides of the aisle. I hope the majority leader will hold to the commitment that we finish tonight. That would accommodate people’s travel schedules tomorrow.

If we are going to do that— it is now 6:30— over the course of the next 4 or 5 hours, we have a lot of work to do even with what we know have to vote on. I hope everybody will cooperate so we can minimize the time required to consider amendments. I hope those who may have remarks to make will perhaps hold off until after final passage and make those remarks after final passage. That would accommodate our time as well.

We will work with the majority leader to see if we can accomplish the schedule he has laid out. I hope we can do so well before the bewitching hour. I yield the floor.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, when we finish this bill tonight, my expectation would be that we would not have votes tomorrow. That is assuming we are going to finish. I encourage anyone who has an amendment that needs to be considered to get it to the managers within the next 15 minutes. If we can do that, we can finish tonight and we will be able to consider each of those amendments, as the Democratic leader said.

I know some people want to talk for an hour but I ask Senators to keep their comments to a few minutes and we can vote throughout the night. We will have the opportunity after final passage tonight, or through tomorrow, to make statements— for those who wish to continue the debate. The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Hampshire is recognized.

Mr. BINGGELI. Mr. President, I rise to address this bill. I had hoped to do it earlier in the day but, unfortunately, the managers of the bill were unable to work the time in. I certainly regret taking time out of the schedule, which is obviously crowded. I do think it is important to speak up on the issue of this piece of legislation.

This is the most significant piece of spending legislation, and maybe even public policy legislation, outside of an international issue, that I expect I will vote on in my tenure in the Senate. Ironically, when I ran for this job, after serving as Governor of New Hampshire, one of the reasons I sought the job and one of the reasons I pursued a term in the Senate was that I was concerned about entitlement spending. In fact, during my first few years, I aggressively pursued setting up an entitlement commission to address entitlement spending, which I sponsored with Senator Kempthorne, who came in with me that year, and Senator Coverdell and Senator Bennett, all of whom came in the year I was elected, in a bill to end unfunded mandates, many of which were entitlement oriented.

I tried to lead an effort in passing legislation to address reform of the Social Security system. I consider that to be a huge entitlement that we confront. My basic reason for seeking entitlement reform and responsibility was that I was concerned not only is what is driving the deficits of our country—which they continue to do—but, more importantly, as the demographics shifted in the Nation and we saw the baby boom generation, which represents a generation going toward retirement, we, as a nation, were going to be placing on our children and our children’s children an inordinate burden in the area of taxes in order to support the older generation—my generation—which would be retiring. It is because all the major programs, whether they are Social Security or Medicare, are built on the theory that there is a pyramid out there, that there will always be more people working and a lot more people working than those people who are retired. It benefits out of the system. That, of course, is the way it began.

Back in 1950, there were 12.5 people working for every person who retired under Social Security. Today, we are down to 3.5 people working for every 1 person retired on Social Security and under Medicare, and that is stressing the system.

Unfortunately, when we hit the retirement situation for the baby boom generation, the largest generation in the history of our Nation, the generation born between 1946 and 1955, we go down to two people working for every one person retired. We go from a pyramid to basically a rectangle, and the result is that we will end up putting an inordinate amount of stress on those people who are working to support those folks who are retired. So we need to address thoughtfully any entitlement expansion, to say nothing of the entitlements that are already on the books.

That is what brings me to the Chamber today to address this legislation because I believe very strongly that needy senior citizens should have a drug benefit. Clearly, prescription drugs have become the new way to treat disease and maintain public health in our Nation. We have been able to move from a system where you have a prescription activity in the health care system, where you had to go through surgery, to a system where people can, as result of the keen use of our scientific community, take a pharmaceutical and actually have a better life. If they were to go under the knife, have surgery.

This is a revolution, and it is a revolution that is exploding and growing. Biotech activity, the nanotech activity, is only going to lead to more and more better and better pharmaceuticals coming on the market to help people with their health.

It is absolutely unfair, in my opinion, that people who are in a low-income situation, especially retired people who are on a fixed low income, have to choose between their food and their health and may have pharmaceuticals. That is not right in our society, and we can certainly afford to have that addressed.

It was my hope as we brought forward a pharmaceutical drug benefit for senior citizens that we would do it in a way that would address low-income seniors. Equally important, it is important that a middle-income senior should not have to spend all their assets for health care as a result of pharmaceutical costs. After a certain amount of spending, there should be catastrophic coverage that kicks in, relieving that person of the full responsibility— or a large portion of their responsibility for the pharmaceutical cost. That is the type of structure at which we should be looking.

Putting in place this brand new drug benefit, we also have to look at the underlying Medicare system which we all know is fundamentally broken as we look out into the future. When the baby boom generation hits, it simply is not going to work. It is not going to support that generation. That is because it is a 1959 design, an automobile built in the fifties driving on the highways of the year 2000 which, when it gets to 2015, is going to be too old to function effectively. It needs to have put in place forces which are going to cause it to be more efficient, to be more effective in addressing a person’s approach to their health care. Those forces have to be basically marketplace oriented. They cannot be price-control oriented.

My hope, my goal, my belief was that we would create a drug benefit that would help low-income seniors and, at the same time, give catastrophic coverage, and that would, fundamentally, reform the Medicare system so that we would end up with a more market-oriented system, something that was going to contain costs as we moved into the outyears.
What did we get? What is before us today? Essentially, what we have before us today is a drug benefit that will plant a fiscal disease that will afflict our children and our children’s children. It is a drug benefit that is going to put in place a fiscal disease that will afflict all of our children for the next 75 years. By afflict them, I mean that our children and our children’s children, under the benefit in this bill, are going to have to pay $6 trillion. That is the estimate. That may be the high end. It is somewhere between $4.6 trillion and $6 trillion. When you get into those numbers, it is pretty hard to get very definitive.

That is the burden this drug benefit in this bill puts on our children and our children’s children to support my generation which is going to retire and take advantage of it.

That is a huge problem because what we are essentially saying to the person who is working in a restaurant or working in a garage or working on a computer line or working as a sales person, who is young and trying to raise a family, is that they are going to have to pay an inordinate amount of tax burden to support people who are retiring when you retired and move it out of the private sector under some sort of contractual agreement which you had successful where you were, or how aggressive your union was or how successful your company was, you received a drug benefit during your retirement package, depending on how aggressive your union was or how successful your company was, you received a drug benefit during your retirement. When you retired and move it out of the private sector and are now going to be migrated over to the public sector.

Mr. President, $4.5 trillion to $6 trillion is a huge amount of money, a huge burden and it is paid by your children, our children, your children’s children to support my generation. It is hard to put it in terms that are realistic and are visible when we are talking about how much a drug benefit costs and is going to cost taxpayers of America.

in my experience in 20 years in Government—a man named Barber Conable—one time on the floor of the House when I was mumbling about the fact that some bill was coming through that was a little expensive, you have to understand, Judd, all Government work depends on the capacity of the Senate to work together. It is just a question of how many engines are on that train—think of it as a train—as it moves to the left, and our job as fiscal conservatives is to limit the number of engines that go on that train.

This bill, in its present form, is going to be all engine, and it is going to undermine our capacity to assure our children they have the opportunity to have the type of lifestyle which we have, because it is going to put a huge and unfair tax burden on them.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Idaho.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, this afternoon one of the very able legislative assistants who has worked on this legislation for almost 7 years, going back to the time on the Medicare Commission when we first started doing Medicare reform, was on the floor working with us in amendments in this legislation. She had to temporarily leave because at 5:47 this afternoon she had a little baby girl. That is a very good excuse to not be on the Senate floor. But my legislative director, Sarah Walter, is on the floor. It is a baby girl. The name is yet to be determined, but I wanted to bring that to the attention of my colleagues and all of her colleagues on the professional staff.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Idaho.

AMENDMENT NO. 1087 WITHDRAWN

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, this afternoon I will speak to amendment 1087. That amendment was pulled up last night by the manager of the bill, Senator Grassley. I believe that amendment is at the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct. The amendment has been called up and is pending.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, it is my intent within a few moments to withdraw this amendment, but I thought I should speak to it tonight because I am disappointed at this time that we could not get across to CBO what we felt would produce a revenue-neutral bill, or a cost-neutral bill, going into the final hours of this debate.

This is an amendment that produces in this legislation, and hopefully to pass in conference, a consumer-driven health care plan under the new MedicareAdvantage program all of us are talking about at this moment. The Senator from New Hampshire gave a very impassioned speech from the depths of his heart, frustrated that this bill was getting filibustered. We felt we would produce a revenue-neutral bill, or a cost-neutral bill, going into the final hours of this debate.

This is an amendment that produces in this legislation, and hopefully to pass in conference, a consumer-driven health care plan under the new MedicareAdvantage program all of us are talking about at this moment. The Senator from New Hampshire gave a very impassioned speech from the depths of his heart, frustrated that this bill was getting filibustered. We felt we would produce a revenue-neutral bill, or a cost-neutral bill, going into the final hours of this debate.

For a few moments tonight, I did want to speak about that and explain it. As we get into conference with the House, the House has a consumer-driven health care concept within their legislation that is critical. It is something we ought to address.

First, the amendment before the Senate is designed to dovetail with and not disturb the overall MedicareAdvantage competitive dynamic. As a complement to MedicareAdvantage, consumer-driven health care plans would be subject to the same competitive rules as preferred provider organizations.

Second, I emphasize this amendment is carefully crafted. We thought it would ensure budget neutrality. But CBO says tonight, no, and I am not going to be too critical of them; we pushed them very hard in the last good number of days to quickly analyze and bring forth estimates. I think they are trying to do the best they can. We will continue to work with them. We believe what we are offering is budget neutral.

Additionally, the Finance Committee chairman, the majority leader, and the White House have expressed the kind of support for this amendment. I appreciate it. As everyone begins to examine this structure, they become increasingly enthusiastic that this could become a component of the MedicareAdvantage program.

For the benefit of my colleagues, let me describe for a moment the key features of this amendment. The amendment establishes a new category of competition within Medicare Advantage designed to encourage participation by consumer-driven health plans. These plans would be subject to the same requirements of PPOs in MedicareAdvantage, including prescription drug benefits and risk adjustment parameters.

Consumer-driven health care is one of the fastest growing innovations emerging in the employer health insurance market. Already 1.5 million Americans are estimated to be in consumer-driven health care plans. These accounts then roll over into the next year.

High deductibles, that is true insurance, to protect against financial ruin in an acute health care crisis, in other words, catastrophic insurance. A limit on annual out-of-pocket spending is an especially important feature. Traditional Medicare does not have an out-of-pocket limit and drives many seniors into bankruptcy. In other words, it limits financial risk when it kicks in at a certain point.

It includes care coordination, disease management, and provider network discounts. Consumer-driven health care gives control of health care back to patients. This is why more and more are enrolling in it. We know today, many who work in the health care area with our seniors know they look at the details of their spending: they look at the billing; they know more about their health care and what is being charged than most people realize. Patients and their physicians, ultimately, with this kind of insurance, join in partnerships to seek the finest care at the most reasonable costs.

Consumer-driven care is especially suited for patients who like to be personally involved in their health care decisions. More and more Americans who can use the necessary information want that kind of personal involvement.

Consumer-driven care eliminates wasteful Medicare spending, it increases patient awareness of health care costs, and encourages prudent purchasing of health care services. Any unsuitable funds in the personal savings account would be returned to the Medicare trust fund upon the death or the disenrollment. That is a key factor. Federal dollars go into the trust fund and, if there are dollars remaining, they flow back into the trust fund of Medicare upon disenrollment or the death of the individual.

This amendment would be an important addition to the bill. I wish we could get it into the bill tonight. But it would be unfair to the manager of the bill at this time because it cannot get scored. I would not want to drive the cost up of the already-fixed segment of the Medicare Advantage side. Already, it is less competitive than we would like it to be. I don’t want to add to that disadvantage.

We believe ultimately that this will be a budget-neutral program. At that time, it will be the right thing to offer as part of the dynamics that we want to see health care able to serve the needs of those with multiple chronic conditions. Medicare Advantage health plans would be required to offer at least the standard drug benefit, available through traditional fee-for-service Medicare.

The living wills would give an individual an opportunity to make that judgment, to make a decision as to how much care he or she wanted near the end of his or her life and that is, to re-prioritize at a time highly personalized for the individual. But if that decision was made to eliminate some of the very high costs at the very end of life, there would obviously be substantial savings to our medical system. As long as that comports with the will of the individual, that is something which ought to be considered.

The amendment directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to include in its annual “Medicare And You” handbook, to be provided to each beneficiary, a section that specifies information on advanced directives and details on living wills, durable powers of attorney for health care, and directs the Secretary of HHS, in the introductory letter to the “Medicare And You” handbook, to reference the inclusion of advanced directives.
Medicare Program; namely, physician participation and willingness to accept Medicare payments. This instability is a result of the sustainable growth rate, a system of annual spending which targets physicians' services under Medicare.

This sense-of-the-Senate amendment would provide that the conferences on Medicare reform and prescription drug legislation should include in the conference report provisions to establish a minimum percentage update in physician fees for the next 2 years, and should consider adding provisions which would mitigate the swings in payment, such as establishing multiyear adjustments to recoup the variance and creating tolerance corridors for variations around the updated target trend.

AMENDMENT NO. 118

I have also submitted an amendment designated as Amendment No. 1118, which provides for a lifestyle modification program demonstration. This is projected on the factor that heart disease kills some 500,000 Americans each year. The costs of coronary disease currently relate to an expenditure of some $58 billion annually. There has been a test program of the Medicare lifestyle modification program operating in some 12 States which has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent. This program could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by as much as $36 billion annually.

Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise affect heart disease and heart disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater. This program has also been applied to men with prostate cancer, who have shown significant improvements in prostate cancer markers using a simila approach in lifestyle modifications. My amendment expresses the sense of the Senate that the Secretary of Health and Human Services should carry out the lifestyle modification program demonstration at the national level and include it on our payment basis, and include as many Medicare beneficiaries as would like to participate in the project on a voluntary basis.

I have submitted one additional amendment, which is No. 1128 and which relates to State pharmaceutical assistance programs for the elderly and disabled. Currently, 18 States have comprehensive pharmacy assistance programs and private insurers. Without a coordination of benefits for State plans to facilitate enrollment in private plans, many of these State program beneficiaries will be unable to assess the new Medicare drug benefit.

This amendment provides for coordination of benefits between States and private insurance companies and facilitates the enrollment of State pharmacy assistance beneficiaries in the private plans. Without this amendment, the majority of seniors enrolled in their State pharmacy programs will not be able to effectively access private plans.

I note the presence of other Senators who are seeking recognition. I attempted to be brief in my general statement about the bill and also in my descriptions of these four amendments, one of which has already been adopted.

I ask unanimous consent that at the conclusion of my remarks, there be printed in the RECORD a summary of the end-of-life directive amendment, a summary of the updating of the Medicare physician fee formula, a summary of the lifestyle modification program, and a summary of the State pharmaceutical assistance programs for the elderly and disabled, and also printed in the RECORD at this point the amendments themselves.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SUMMARY ON THE END OF LIFE DIRECTIVE AMENDMENT

The purpose of this amendment is to make it easier to make their own choices regarding their treatment when nearing the end of their life. A health care advance directive is a document where a beneficiary gives instructions about his or her health care decisions on their behalf. They may also give instructions about the kind of health care they do or do not want. In a traditional Living Will, a beneficiary would state their wishes about life-sustaining medical treatments if he or she is terminally ill. In a Health Care Power of Attorney, a beneficiary would make medical treatment decisions for the beneficiary if they cannot make them on their own.

Unlike most Living Wills, a Health Care Advance Directive is not limited to cases of terminal illness. If the beneficiary cannot make or communicate decisions because of temporary or permanent illness or injury, a Health Care Advance Directive helps them keep control over important health care decisions.

Observers have long noted that individuals incur the majority of health care costs in the last few months of life. Nearly 30 percent of Medicare expenditures occur during a person's last year of life.

Your amendment directs the Secretary of HHS to include in its annual “Medicare and You” handbook, which is provided to each beneficiary, a section that provides information on advanced directives and details on living wills and durable power of attorney for health care, and directs the Secretary of HHS, in the introductory letter to the “Medicare and You” handbook, to reference the inclusion of advanced directives information.

SUMMARY ON THE AMENDMENT TO UPDATE THE MEDICARE PHYSICIAN FEE FORMULA

Earlier this year, Congress passed legislation as part of the Fiscal Year 2003 Omnibus Appropriations bill (H.J. Res. 2) that avoided an impending 4.4 percent cut in the Medicare conversion factor. Although this change resulted in a welcomed 1.6 percent increase in the Medicare conversion factor for 2003, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' (CMS) preliminary Medicare conversion factor figure predicts a 4.2 percent reduction for 2004.

It is clear that this scheduled 4.2 percent reduction in the physician fee schedule formula threatens to destabilize an important element of the Medicare program, namely physician participation and willingness to accept Medicare.

The primary source of this instability is the sustainable growth rate (SGR), a system of annual spending targets for physicians' services under Medicare.

The sustainable growth rate (SGR) system has a number of defects that result in unrealistically low spending targets, such as the use of a proxy for increases in the gross domestic product (GDP) as a proxy for increases in the volume and intensity of services provided by physicians, no tolerance for variance be- cause the growth in Medicare health care costs and our Nation's GDP, and a requirement for the immediate recoupment of the difference.

Both administrative and legislative action are needed to return stability to the Medicare physician payment system.

In its March 2003 report, the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (MedPAC) stated that if “Congress does not change current law, then payments may not be adequate in 2003 and a compensating adjustment in pay- ments would be necessary in 2004.”

With 17 percent of its population eligible for Medicare, the Pennsylvania Medical Society has calculated that Pennsylvania’s physicians have already lost $128 million loss, or $4,074 per physician, as a result of the 2002 Medicare payment reduction. If not corrected, the flawed formula will cost Pennsylvania physicians another $563 million or $17,396 per physician for the period 2003–2005.

Your amendment expresses the sense of the Senate that the conferences on Medicare reform and prescription drug legislation should include in the conference agreement a provision to establish a minimum percentage update in physician fees for the next 2 years and should consider adding provisions that would mitigate the swings in payment, such as establishing multiyear adjustments to recoup the variance and creating "tolerance" corridors for variations around the update target trend.

SUMMARY ON THE AMENDMENT ON THE LIFESTYLE MODIFICATION PROGRAM

Heart disease kills more than 500,000 Americans per year. The number and costs of interventions to treat heart disease are rising and currently cost the health care system $58 billion annually.
The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program (also known as the Dean Ornish Program for Reversing Heart Disease) has been operating throughout 12 states and has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent per year.

The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program is less expensive to deliver than interventional procedures and could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by $35 billion annually.

Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise affect cardiovascular disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater.

Intensive lifestyle interventions which include teams of nurses, doctors, exercise physiologists, dieticians and behavioral health clinicians have been demonstrated to reduce heart disease risk factors and enhance heart disease outcomes dramatically.

The National Institutes of Health estimates that 17 million Americans have diabetes and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that the number of Americans who have a diagnosis of diabetes increased 61 percent in the last decade and is expected to more than double by 2050.

Life-style programs are superior to medication therapy for treating diabetes. Individuals with diabetes are now considered to have coronary disease at the date of diagnosis.

The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been an effective lifestyle program for the reversal and treatment of heart disease.

Men with prostate cancer have shown significant improvement in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modification. These lifestyle changes are therefore likely to affect other chronic disease states, in addition to heart disease.

Your amendment expresses the sentiment of the Senate that the Secretary of Health and Human Services should carry out the Lifestyle Modification Program Demonstration at the national level on a permanent basis and include as many medicare beneficiaries as would like to participate in the project on a voluntary basis.

SUMMARY OF THE AMENDMENT ON STATE PHARMACUTICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS FOR THE ELDERLY AND DISABLED

Currently, 18 states have comprehensive pharmaceutical assistance programs that wrap prescription drug coverage to more than 1.1 million older and disabled residents.

The majority of these beneficiaries receive life-saving medications to treat high blood pressure, heart disease, arthritis, diabetes, and eye disease.

Pennsylvania’s Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly (PACE), established in 1984, provides prescription drug coverage to 230,000 Medicare beneficiaries, the vast majority of whom have incomes below 150% of the poverty level. This enrollment is comprised largely of 70 and 80-year-old widows who have multiple disease states, and less than a tenth grade education, and have been enrolled in PACE for more than a decade.

Currently, the pending bill the Senate does not provide for coordination of benefits, between state pharmaceutical programs and private insurers. Without a coordination of benefit mandate and a role for the state plans to facilitate enrollment in private plans, the state programs for beneficiaries will not be able to access the new Medicare drug benefit.

This amendment provides for the coordination of state pharmacy benefit programs and private insurers, and facilitates the enrollment of state pharmacy assistance beneficiaries into private plans, without this amendment the majority of the seniors enrolled in their state pharmacy programs will not be able to effectively access private plans.

Men with prostate cancer have shown significant improvement in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modification.

The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program is one of an effective lifestyle program for the reversal and treatment of heart disease.

To be 65 today is not like it was 65 when I was a young man. The idea of pushing senior citizens out of the door to make room for younger workers is, itself, antiquated.

I grew up during the Great Depres-

When I voted, way back in 1965, to es-the heart and soul.

Today, they are a primary form of medical care and often substitute for more costly treatments like hospitalization and surgery.

Today, 40 million Americans rely on Medicare to help provide for their medical needs—more than one-third of all Medicare beneficiaries lacking insurance coverage for the cost of needed medications, finding affordable prescription drug coverage is a critical issue for our Nation's seniors. Prescription drug coverage is essential to treating and preventing many acute and chronic conditions, but Medicare fails to cover them on an outpatient basis. Too many seniors and disabled persons in this country, especially those living on fixed incomes, are forced to choose each month between paying for food and paying for shelter, or buying the essential medicines that their doctors have prescribed.

Our Nation's senior citizens are losing their patience. They are losing their hope as they are fed up with fast-rising drug costs that they cannot afford. Older citizens should not have to travel in bus loads to Canada and Mexico just to obtain the medications their doctors prescribe. What does it say about this country and its values when we fail to take care of our elderly citizens whose lifetime of work and sacrifice and dedication and industry helped to endow this country with the greatness it now enjoys?

Mr. President, I fear that the legislation before us today is a glaring example of how this Nation shortchanges our senior citizens. We are not taking care of our elderly citizens as they wrestle with the most serious issue in their lives. We are offering a partial fix to assuage senior anger. This bill fails to go far enough to meet the needs of our Nation's senior citizens. I am concerned that this measure would force Medicare beneficiaries to rely on a private, untried, untested, drug-only insurance market for their prescription drug coverage, rather than the traditional Medicare program that they know and trust. We split drug benefit off from Medicare.

I am concerned that this administration and some Members of Congress plan to phase out the traditional Medicare plan as an option for new beneficiaries in the future. Some people have asserted that this legislation contains such glaring deficiencies that being offered to seniors is not difficult to understand—this administration and Congress have chosen to make tax cuts a higher priority than prescription drugs for senior citizens. Since the Federal Treasury has already been raided, there is no amount that we have yet heard so much about are only suggested amounts and certainly not a guarantee. A closer look at the fine print of this legislation reveals that private insurers could choose to charge senior citizens double or even triple these amounts.

Let's fact it, the kind of prescription drug benefit that we have repeatedly promised our Nation's elderly citizens, and that they now rightly expect, would not be covered through the next decade. Yet the administration and congressional Republicans have only allocated $400 billion for the next 10 years for a Medicare prescription drug benefit. And during this same period, drug costs for senior citizens alone, according to the Congressional Budget Office, are expected to total almost $2 billion.

One of the primary reasons this legislation contains such glaring deficiencies being offered to seniors is not difficult to understand—this administration and Congress have chosen to make tax cuts a higher priority than prescription drugs for senior citizens. Since the Federal Treasury has already been raided, there is no amount that we have yet heard so much about are only suggested amounts and certainly not a guarantee. A closer look at the fine print of this legislation reveals that private insurers could choose to charge senior citizens double or even triple these amounts.

What is the rationale for waiting until 2006—conveniently right after the next election cycle—to implement this legislation? Why wait? What are we so afraid of? We had Medicare up and running less than 12 months after creating it from scratch in 1965. So why can’t we do it now? Mr. President, it seems that this Congress is trying to pull the wool over the eyes of our Nation’s senior citizens. I would hope you and I would keep senior citizens in the dark until they become painfully aware of the fine print—the fine print—of this legislation upon a visit to their local pharmacist in 2006.

Mr. President, this legislation, as it stands, does not provide the real, guaranteed, defined benefit that our senior citizens desperately need and does little to address the high cost of prescription drugs. I had hoped we could improve this legislation through the amendment process, but that does not appear to be the will of this Senate in the mad dash—the mad dash—to reach final passage before the recess. We should do better for our older citizens. We owe them so much.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Florida.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Mr. President, this is a sad evening for me. I rise to oppose the prescription drug bill that we will be voting on shortly. No issue that we have debated over recent years has held so much promise, the promise that we could fundamentally reform Medicare from a program which today requires you to be sick enough to go to the doctor or the hospital in order to get services to one that would have its focus on wellness, including the opportunity to participate in a voluntary, comprehensive, universal, and affordable plan of prescription drugs.

Prescription drugs are, in today's health care system, a fundamental part of maintaining good health. I have spent the better part of the last 5 years, as have so many of my colleagues, working on this legislation. My colleagues, BYRD, many more than 5 years—attempts to deliver a meaningful drug benefit for our Nation's seniors. I have learned some things during this period. Unfortunately, what I have learned convinces me that the bill before us tonight is not worthy of America's seniors. Because what we are about to deliver is a hollow promise and little else.

Why do I believe this? Why have I come to the conclusion that this proposal is not worthy of using all of the years of enthusiasm and commitment of America's seniors and many of those such as myself who represent a substantial number of those seniors? Why do we feel that this path is not acceptable?

First, there are gaps in the benefit which are too large to overcome. I could not go home to Florida or to any other place in America and tell people that this legislation is a good deal. This is especially the case for those with large out-of-pocket expenses. How do we tell a senior who halfway through the first year in which this will be available, 2006, their drug costs will double but they will continue to pay the monthly premiums?

That would be analogous to car insurance which says: You will be covered in case you have an accident from January to December if you were involved from September to December it is out of your pocket. Who would buy that automobile coverage?

The worst thing is that millions of seniors will never realize they have bought into such an inadequate policy until it is too late.

Second, this bill does not provide a universal drug benefit. Under this plan, for instance, if you are a Medicare beneficiary but you are also poor, you will not get the prescription drug benefits for Medicare. That is right. Seniors at 74 percent or below the poverty level would be excluded from the Medicare benefit. They would get their prescription drugs through Medicaid. This is a clear case of the Federal Government to unload a substantial part of its prescription drug expenses on the States, States which are already struggling with serious financial problems.

It is for that reason that the National Association of Veterinary has opposed this design saying:

It is not good health policy. It is not good precedent.

The argument is made that this is all we can do. We cannot do better because we do not have the resources to do better. This is true for the child who just has shot his mother and his father and now throws himself on the mercy of the court claiming to be an orphan. We have made the decision to be in the financial status that we are, and the consequence of that decision, as we debated a few weeks ago when we adopted the Senate’s budget for the year, is that we are going to have to have an unnecessarily and unacceptably low level of financial support for a meaningful prescription drug benefit.

Third, this plan will cost many seniors more than they can afford. From repeated surveys, seniors have stated that they need a plan with no deductible so that coverage starts from the first prescription. And they need a premium of no more than $25 a month. Yet the sponsors of this bill suggest a $275 deductible and an average premium of $35 per month, an average premium which could actually be higher because the private insurance companies will determine the level of the premium.

You can look through the over 600 pages of this bill and not find the number $35. That is a hope number but the actual number will be determined by the private insurance carriers.

Fourth, this bill would subject millions of America’s seniors to a giant experiment, a giant experiment in delivering prescription drugs through an untested delivery system, a system which is unheard of in the private markets. It is stated that this system will be justified because it will be efficient and will use the power of competition to suppress cost. If this was such a good system, why don’t we provide it for all Federal employees so they can get, as Federal employees can get, the benefit of this greater efficiency and cost savings? The reason is because insuring drugs only is not an actuarially sustainable risk. It has been analogous to going on a policy just to cover the kitchen. No insurance company is going to sell you a policy for the most vulnerable area of your house to actually experience a fire.

That is why the private insurance plan is available today which will provide you a prescription-only coverage. That is the equivalent of the kitchen in terms of its intensity and potential for explosion of cost within health care. Yet we are about to say that some 40 million of the most vulnerable and frail Americans are going to be the experiment for this ideology.

I have said it before and I will say it again: There is simply no reason to subject our Nation’s seniors to this grand experiment when we already know what works. There is no reason to pump extra dollars into private insurance plans.

A few hours ago we adopted an amendment which will pump in $6 billion to HMOs. Those $6 billion could have been used to reduce the monthly premium, to close part of the gap of coverage. But what did we decide to do? We are going to give it to the HMOs so that the Federal Government is more aware of the risk of coverage as opposed to these plans whose reason for being is to assume the risk and, therefore, have the incentive to provide the most efficient plans.

We are begging these HMOs to participate in the Medicare Program for the sake of a private sector veneer, for the sake of an ideology untested. We actually tried a version of this before. Guess what. It didn’t work. I speak from the Washington experience, once the Federal Government is assuming more of the risk of coverage as opposed to these plans whose reason for being is to assume the risk and, therefore, have the incentive to provide the most efficient plans.

If we are assuming the risk, then we should be on the Medicare Program in those plans.

our current Medicare system—one of the most popular health care programs in this Nation’s history. We also ought to be seeing that we have a plan that is affordable and comprehensive.

I think the dice is cast and this bill is likely to pass, providing for a patient’s Bill of Rights, so that as we herd more seniors into HMOs, at least they will know the standards by which they will be asked to operate within that.

We are beginning to hear the first rumblings of the details of the current Senate Finance Committee. When that body falls back out of conference, it will be better but I think there is every likelihood to suspect that it will get worse.

It will be my intention to introduce legislation that will correct the flaws of this legislation which, among other things, would continue to leave seniors with a Bill of Rights, so that as we herd more seniors into HMOs, at least they will know the standards by which they will be asked to operate within that.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate has consumed 15 minutes.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Medicare has served our seniors superbly. And where it has not, as in the area of prescription drugs, it has been because Congress has not allowed it to do so.

I hope by Friday I will be back from conference, it will be better but I doubt that will be the case.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has consumed 15 minutes.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Mr. President, today I am in the hopes that soon we will have an opportunity to pass a prescription drug bill that will fully meet the needs and expectations of older Americans.

(From The Washington Post, June 26, 2003)
FOR STRUGGLING SENIORS, MEDICARE DRUG PLAN’S PROOF IS IN THE PURSE
(By Ceci Connolly)

CLEVELAND—As the Medicare drug program moves through Congress takes on an air of inevitability. Washington politicians are already in victory. But in this laboring class city 370 miles from Capitol Hill, prospects for the plan’s eventual success may lie deep inside the handbags of women such as Marie A. Urban.

Stashed in there are her monthly Social Security statement, a half-dozen prescription discount cards and insurance letters rejecting several recent medical claims. The scraps of paper—creased and scribbled on—document a life near the financial edge.

After working 24 years as the secretary at St. Paul’s Shrine, Urban, 72 collects $843.70 a month in Social Security. After housing and Medicare payments, she has $490 for utilities, food, car insurance, taxes and medication. Some months she even has to live on, she said. With her drug bills this year already exceeding $1,500, she said she probably will try to cobble together the money to buy the prescription coverage that lawmakers plan to offer Medicare recipients.

The houses don’t know, she said. “My finances right now are very tight. I guess I have to go with it.”

In interviews at two senior centers here, Urban’s neighbors expressed mixed feelings about the voluntary prescription drug benefit scheduled for votes in Congress as early as today. They exhibited a visceral distrust of government. The idea of a politicalaket of benefits in Medicare drug plans will be delivered to your email as soon as possible.
He will speak for 10 or 15 minutes, it is my understanding. We are at a point where we have very few amendments left. We have a couple that may take a little debate but I think most of them will be disposed of quickly with a lot of people understanding we are moving this along as quickly as possible. The managers have worked for 2 weeks on this matter.

After the Senator from Arizona finishes his statement, we should be in position to have a number of votes lined up for later this evening.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Arizona is recognized.

Mr. Mccain. Mr. President, the passage of the Medicare prescription drug benefits legislation is a difficult vote for me. It is unacceptable that in a country as wealthy as ours seniors across the country are struggling to afford the high cost of prescription medications. It is embarrassing to have a prescription drug benefit to Medicare because I believe no beneficiary should have to choose between life-sustaining medication, skip dosages, or cut pills in half.

In Arizona, busloads of seniors depart from Phoenix and Tucson every week, heading south to Mexico to purchase lower-cost prescription drugs. The story is similar across the northern border, where seniors make daily trips to Canadian pharmacies. Throughout the country, an increasing number of seniors are looking to online pharmacies, selling reduced-priced prescriptions imported from other countries, oftentimes with questionable safety.

That said, I also recognize, as does the other Member of Congress, that Medicare is on a fast track toward bankruptcy. The recent Green Book estimated the unfunded liability of the Medicare system will quickly become insolvent. Short years, millions of baby boomers will hit retirement age and the system will actually be enacted years of waiting.

The numbers speak for themselves. Medicare currently has an unfunded liability of $13.3 trillion. Some have estimated the unfunded liability of the package before us in the $6 to $7 trillion range. A scholar at the American Enterprise Institute Scholar estimated that if passed, the Senate’s prescription drug benefit legislation will result in a $12 trillion unfunded liability. Social Security and Medicare, with a prescription drug benefit, would consume an estimated 21 percent of income taxes by the year 2020.

Long after the Members of this Congress and administration have left office, our children and our grandchildren, and a future Congress and administration, will be struck with the burden of cleaning up the mess we have created.

In the past 2 years, we have passed two big tax cuts. Government spending, however, has continued to increase well above the inflation use. Much of that spending is unnecessary, and represents a lack of fiscal discipline more common in times of federal budget surplus rather than deficit than in a country as wealthy as ours seniors for me. Low-income seniors will benefit from this package, and I am pleased that they will. Many other seniors, however, will not receive a generous benefit, and might not even get out of the system what they will pay in deductible and premium costs. The non-prescription drug benefit which Office of Management and Budget estimates that 37 percent of employers currently providing coverage to Medicare eligible seniors, will drop coverage if this bill passes. Last week, the Wall Street Journal quoted one analyst who called this bill the “automakers’ Medicare.” Because companies such as the automakers who currently provide their retired employees with a prescription drug benefit are unlikely to continue doing so if the Federal Government assumes part of the burden for them.

I am concerned that we are about to repeat—I emphasize repeat—an enormous mistake. I have been around here long enough to remember another large Medicare prescription drug entitlement program which we approved in 1988, the Catastrophic. The image of seniors out-raged by the high cost and ineffectiveness of that package should be a cautionary tale to all of us.

Moreover, I am not confident that the Medicare Advantage portion of this new scheme, which establishes regional PPO options for seniors, will succeed. Many in the insurance industry have expressed skepticism and concern that such plans will not be profitable. In the end, the Federal Government, which acts as a fallback if no private plans are available, might end up covering the majority of the country. Not exactly the reform we all had hoped for.

The American people should be aware that this new benefit has substantial cost to seniors, and to current and future generations of taxpayers, who will bear the majority of a crushing financial burden. There will be unintended consequences of our actions. We can be sure that, in the future, we will be honest about the cost of this measure—$400 billion is merely a down payment for what we are creating. Given the fiscal realities we face, realities that will become more dire with every passing year, Congress and the administration should have committed to addressing the acute need for a drug benefit to alleviate the impossible choices confronting lower income seniors. And, most importantly, begun to seek consensus among responsible Members of both parties for the reforms we all know are necessary to save Medicare.

I recently heard a good assessment of this package: it is “an effort to do too much with too little, and thus doing nothing very well at all.”

There are several good amendments that have been adopted during this debate. I am encouraged that a bill Senator SCHUMER and I worked on for the last 4 years, might finally be enacted into law as part of this package. Our amendment would increase competition in the pharmaceutical industry and ensure that all Americans have access to lower cost generic drugs. That amendments, which would not have been possible without the leadership of Senator GRASSLEY and the support of Senator KENNEDY, will reduce the cost to the government of any Medicare prescription drug benefit.

I was happy to cosponsor an important amendment with Senators FEINSTEIN, NICKLES, CHAFEE, and GRAHAM, which I believe will add some fiscal discipline to the bill and the Medicare program. The amendment will add means testing to Medicare Part B—increasing co-payments for wealthier seniors.

I am also pleased that several measures which I have supported and co-sponsored as separate bills, have been adopted as part of this package, including the Immigrant Children’s Health Improvement Act, the Blind Empowerment Act, and funds to reimburse hospitals for the uncompensated cost of caring for undocumented immigrants. Additionally, there have been several good amendments that I think will improve overall health care in our country. In particular, I believe Senator GRASSLEY’s amendment which requires agreements between brand and generic pharmaceutical companies to be reported to the Federal Trade Commission and the Justice Department will shine some much-needed light on potential collusive agreements.

Despite these welcome improvements, and recognizing that this legislation will address the crisis faced by lower income seniors, the costs of this entitlement remain, simply put, beyond the means of this country absent real reform of Medicare. Therefore, after much thought, I regret that I cannot vote for this legislation. I have reached this conclusion, not because I believe our seniors and disabled do not need or deserve prescription drug coverage, but because I do not believe our country can sustain the cost of this benefit. Instead, it’s an staggering expense, provide the assistance many beneficiaries will expect.

As I noted, Congress and the administration should have addressed the acute need for assistance of lower income seniors. And before we consider extending that assistance to other seniors, we should save Medicare first by instituting the reforms we all know are necessary, but which we apparently prefer to defer until we have retired from public service. If those reforms pose a very difficult political challenge to us, and that the bipartisanism we have commended in the drafting and consideration of the legislation before us today would be put to a far more severe test should we genuinely attempt to save the Medicare system from insolvency. However, should we simply add another huge, new unfunded liability to an already fiscally unsound entitlement, imposing a breathtakingly heavy tax burden on our children, with devastating consequences for their prosperity and the national economy, we will have done the one thing no public servant should want to be remembered for, will have left the country worse off than we found it.

I yield the floor.

Mr. REID. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. ALEXANDER). The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, the Senator from Michigan, Mr. LEVIN, has been extremely patient. He has been waiting for us to get a unanimous consent for his amendment. We are very shortly going to get that, but prior to that being announced, the Senator from Michigan is going to offer amendment No. 1111. He is going to speak for 10 minutes. Senator STABENOW will speak for 5 minutes, and Senator GRASSLEY and Senator BAUCUS will speak for up to 10 minutes in opposition, if they need to. The leaders will arrange a vote at some time that they have agreed upon.

I seek unanimous consent that that be the case.

The PRESIDENT. The PRESIDENT. Mr. President, the amendment which I will be offering is designed to ensure that the CBO estimate of 37 percent of current retirees who now get their prescription drug coverage from their former employer and who will lose that coverage as a result of this bill will at least have the option of a prescription drug coverage under the Medicare fallback. There are a number of problems which have been identified with this bill. Some of them are significant problems which cause many of us, who very favor having a drug benefit available to our seniors, great pause before we support this bill. For instance, there is a so-called yo-yo effect in this legislation. Some have called it the revolving door effect. The problem there is that seniors who are offered two private plans in their service area must pick one of those two private plans. They cannot use the Medicare fallback. There will not be a Medicare fallback with a guaranteed premium because if two or more private companies offer a prescription drug program, with whatever premium they decide upon, then the seniors in that service area must pick one of those two private plans.

What happens then if the senior says, okay, I am going to pick that private plan A, and then a couple of years later the private sector decides to pull out of that service area? At that point, the senior must pick another Medicare fallback.

Then what happens if the private insurance folks decide to come back into that service area? Could the senior keep the Medicare fallback plan? No. They will be kicked out of that plan even if they want it. They have to go into one of the private plans again. Then that can be repeated over and over again, as private insurance companies decide to pull out of an area, the seniors then can get into a Medicare fallback, but when private companies come into the service area again, they are removed from the Medicare program and have to go back to one of the others. It is confusing, uncertain, unfair. It is the yo-yo effect, what others call the revolving door. It is a real problem with this plan. We ought to give much more certainty to that.

Another problem identified is the so-called donut hole problem. We have heard quite a bit about that problem where once a senior is told her drug spending reaches $4,500 for a year, she will have to pay 100 percent of the costs of prescriptions up to a total drug spending reaches $5,800. Now, premiums will continue to be paid during that period, but the gap in coverage will be there, so from $4,500 to $5,800. There is not a 50/50 deal between the premium and the deficit. It is a 100 percent burden of the senior during that period. That is a real gap in coverage. That is a gaping hole in coverage. I don’t know of any other insurance program that is so unfairly structured. That is another problem which has been identified. There have been efforts made to correct that, without success.

Another problem identified is that the private insurance plans that may come into a service area do not have a cap on the premium; it is an unlimited premium. That is a problem which has been identified. The effort to put a cap on the premiums has failed.

But of all the flaws that have been identified, the weaknesses in this program, the one that troubles me most, and that troubled seniors most is the fact that it has been estimated by the CBO and by the Health and Human Services folks who operate Medicare that 37 percent of current retirees who have a prescription drug program through their former employer are going to lose their prescription drug benefit following the enactment of the plan before the Senate; that is, a situation where we are actually going to see 37 percent of our seniors—this is the estimate—who currently have a benefit being worse off as a result of what we do.

There is a debate here as to whether the plan before the Senate is going to be good for seniors because of the donut hole or because of the fact there is no cap on premiums or because of this yo-yo effect, this revolving door effect. Is it a good plan? Is it not a good plan? Will seniors who don’t have health insurance, a prescription drug program, and so forth, want to opt into this program? That people can debate. But, at a minimum, we should do no harm. At a minimum, we should not have millions of seniors who will lose an existing prescription drug program as a result of our enacting a plan. That is the time bomb in the bill before the Senate. We should not leave people worse off than they otherwise would be.

During the markup of this bill, we had some experts who testified. One was Tom Scully, Administrator of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services at HHS:

Among employees who have employer-sponsored insurance, the CBO estimate is consistent with 37 percent having their coverage dropped.

A little later on, page 6 of the transcript of the markup of the Finance Committee:

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN: Thirty-seven percent of those retirees who have employer-sponsored coverage . . . [will lose their coverage].

Then, a little later on in the markup of the Finance Committee, Senator Conrad was going to ask a question of Mr. Scully, our CBO Director, about this issue, and the majority leader posed a question.

Senator Frist: Senator Conrad, could I on that last—I’m over here—on this employers dropping it, can I just ask a follow-up question please?

Senator Frist: You said—is it 37 percent of employers are going to drop—

Mr. Scully: Yes.

Colleagues, Senator Frist said something which I hope will reverberate in this Chamber:

Senator Frist: This has huge implications.

Then the Director of the CBO said the following:

Mr. Holtz-Eakin: Thirty-seven percent of employees—of retirees with such employee insurance.

Then there was a voice, unidentified by the reporter:

MALE VOICE: As I understand it, this 37 percent is the estimate of our legislation.

Mr. Holtz-Eakin: Correct.

Colleagues, Senator Frist is correct.

This has huge implications. And we ought to address it. The least we can do is to direct Health and Human Services to make available to designate a Medicare backup plan for the 37 percent of our current seniors who have a prescription drug program through their previous employer to make available to them the Medicare backup program so they at least know there will be a Medicare backup for them if they lose their current prescription drug program, as is projected by the Congressional Budget Office and by Health and Human Services. It seems to me that is the least we can do.

It still will be harmful because it is very unlikely for most of the people that the Medicare backup will be as good as their current prescription drug program. It is unlikely. But at least we can say, for those people, there will be a Medicare backup plan designated by HHS which will have the criteria established by HHS and the premium established by HHS. That is the least we can do for those who are going to lose their prescription drug benefit that they currently have following the enactment of this legislation.

I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment is pending.

Mr. Levin. I reserve the remainder of my time.

I ask unanimous consent to call up amendment No. 118.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment is pending.

Mr. Levin. I ask unanimous consent that my colleague from Michigan, Senator Stabenow, be listed as a cosponsor of this amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. Levin. I ask unanimous consent that the excerpts from the quoted testimony be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Senator Rockefeller. Okay. Actual dollars in the plan that are spent on, number one, the drug benefit itself, provider add backs and that’s all I can see. I don’t need the third one I’ve written down.

Tom Scully. These are figures that were in the table. We issued it to the Committee. Since this table was put together, there were some recent modifications to the drug benefit. In particular, putting the cap at $1,500.00 instead of $4,725.00. That changes the estimate on the drug benefit from $408 billion to $902 billion over three years.

Senator Rockefeller. Four hundred two?

Tom Scully. Four hundred two. Six billion dollars lower. And, the provider add backs are listed on pages 2 and 3—or, pages 1 and 2.

Senator Rockefeller. Could you give them to me?

Tom Scully. There’s a long list of them, and simply adding them up is not that—they interact in many ways.

Senator Rockefeller. [Unintelligible].

Senator Rockefeller. Next one is, percent of employers who drop retiree coverage. And, the number and percent of beneficiaries who will lose retiree coverage under this plan so far.

Tom Scully. We don’t have an estimate of the number of employers who have employer-sponsored insurance, our estimate is consistent with 37% having their coverage dropped. Of that 37% of those who have such coverage, about 11% of beneficiaries overall.

Male Voice. Could you repeat that?

I don’t get the—you might pull the microphone up a little closer to you.

Tom Scully. Thirty seven percent of those employers who have employer-sponsored coverage, it’s 11% of beneficiaries overall.

Senator Rockefeller. And, what percent would drop?

Tom Scully. We don’t know the number of employers who would drop coverage. We know the number of employees who are affected.

Male Voice. I thought you gave an estimate—excuse me—this is Senator Rockefeller’s time, and I just want to make sure I—

Tom Scully. Let me repeat so it’s—Male Voice. Just repeat what you said.

Tom Scully. Underlying our estimate are that 37% of employees who have beneficiaries who have employer-sponsored insurance, retirees who have employer-sponsored coverage, 37% will lose their coverage. And, that is 11% of total beneficiaries.
MALE VOICE. Could I also add into this, Senator Rockefeller? What we also need to know is, what percentage of the figure you said might drop—or, case would be dropped even.

Or, they could drop it entirely.

In those latter two cases, they can use the additional resources to provide other kinds of employee insurance.

What we've done is examine the literature to the extent that we can find it on employer responses to this type of compensation packages in shaping our estimate of the number that would drop.

Senator CONRAD. Okay. Let me go to something that I found difficult to follow. And, I'd like, if I could, to have the attention of the Chairman.

Senator FRIST. Senator Conrad, could I—on that last—I'm over here—on this employee getting dropped, can I just ask a follow up question just real quick.

Senator CONRAD. Yeah. Absolutely. Senator FRIST. You said—is it 37% of employers are going to drop—

TOM SCULLY. Yes. Senator FRIST. This has huge implications.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. Thirty seven percent of employees—of retirees with such employee insurance.

Senator FRIST. Okay.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. And, that's 11% of overall Medicare beneficiaries.

MALE VOICE. Okay. If we did nothing, how many would be dropped over the next ten years? If you look at these curves, the employer is getting out of the business, anyway—not out of the business, but the curve is going down.

What would it be ten years from now?

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. We don't have an estimate of that. We isolated our estimate on the impact of the bill above the baseline. That's a question about the baseline estimate, and I don't have that.

MALE VOICE. Okay.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. It's 37%, just so we're clear with each other. As I understand it, this 37% is the effect of our legislation.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. Correct.

MALE VOICE. I think the question Senator FRIST has is, in your baseline you have an assumption that there will be changes, though, correct? Or, don't you?

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. NO. We do not.

MALE VOICE. Why would you suggest that that's an inaccurate baseline?

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. In reality?

MALE VOICE. In reality is not that. And, I can have a few of my retirees in Pennsylvania give you a call if you have any questions on that subject.

I mean, I think that's an unfair—I mean, baselines are supposed to be real, but not supposed to be artificial. That's artificial.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. The baseline issue that we—that is most important, that we capture is new retirees not having such coverage.

This is a provision that would induce existing retirees who have such coverage to have their coverage dropped or modified by the their employer.

MALE VOICE. I understand what this provision does. I just want you—I just want an understanding of what would happen without this being calculated into the baseline.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. Senator Santorum, we've looked at the literature and the surveys of the employee benefits consultants of retiree offerings.

What we understand is mainly happening is that, for current workers who are newly hired, they are—employers are no longer putting as part of their compensation package a three health-care.

As far as we can tell, the base of people who are near retirement or retired are not having their healthcare—there's not that much erosion going on.

MALE VOICE. I’ll have the people from Bethlehem Steel and about seven other steel companies and Pennsylvania that I can just think of off the top of my head give you a call, and let you know that their retiree health benefits have been eliminated. I mean, we’ve done the work to Pennsylvania, Senator Rockefeller, would you like to join into this? I mean—so, I think you need to look at your baseline, please.

And, then give us an understanding of maybe looking back over the last few years and projecting forward given the trends that we've seen in that area would be sufficient enough. And, I think that would much—a much fairer score as to what the impact of this bill would be.

Senator CONRAD. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Senator Conrad.

Senator CONRAD. Let me just say that I agree entirely with Senator Santorum. We know that those are dropping—employers are dropping their plans.

And, I understand your answer to this question is the effect of this bill.

I think one of the things we’ve got to do—Senator Frist said it well—this has got major implications: 37% having their health benefits would be affected.

And, I think that would much—a much fairer score as to what the impact of this bill would be.

Senator CONRAD. Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Senator Conrad.

Senator CONRAD. And, I think the question Senator Santorum raised is, what percentage of the figure you know is, what percentage of the figure you have been fortunate enough to have a good-paying job with benefits, you are now retired and you are fortunate to have good health benefits and you find provision that, as a result of an action we take here—and certainly there is an effort to move forward and provide people with prescription drug coverage—but if those who already have coverage find, as a result of an action we take, there is an incentive for their employer to drop their coverage, how would you feel about that?

I know how I would feel about that. This amendment is about making sure those who have worked hard all of their lives, who have retired and have had the confidence and the security to know that those health care benefits, retirement benefits they have worked so hard to have in their retirement, would be secure—to make sure if someone who is covered, right now for prescription drugs that he or she not lose the ability to continue, at least to know that if their employer changes their benefit, they would have immediately the security of the backup Medicare prescription drug coverage.

This is very critical in a State such as Michigan where we have 37 percent of our retirees who have insurance, who right now are fortunate enough to have health care insurance and prescription drug coverage.

While there are positives in this bill so there are those who will receive help as a result of being low-income seniors, or those with very high prescription drug costs who will have continued coverage under this bill, one of the glaring omissions and great concerns that I have relates to what Senator Levin was just speaking about, the unfairness of saying to a group of people who have been fortunate enough to have lifetime benefits that as a result of something done by the Congress, they would potentially lose that coverage. That makes absolutely no sense.

What our amendment is saying is if, in fact, their employer would have the incentive to change or drop their coverage, they should be guaranteed that something else is right there, that Medicare as a backup should be there. And, I think the preference we have, change the formulas so there is not the incentive to drop anyone. That was one of the reasons I strongly supported Senator Rockefeller's amendment and other amendments that have been on the floor. Because my first choice is, we take away any incentive for anyone to lose their prescription drug coverage. But unfortunately those amendments were not successful. We did not have the support to do that here.

I hope that, we are now coming in and saying if, in fact, an employer, because of the incentives, makes a determination to drop coverage, that at a minimum, out of a sense of decency and fairness, at a minimum that retiree needs to know that Medicare prescription drug coverage, through Medicare, is available without wading through tons of insurance forms or picking through plans or going through all the ups and downs that have been described so many times in this Chamber, they need to know, after having coverage, having it available, having it dependable, that another plan is right there for them. That is the least we can do.

I hope, we will join together in a bipartisan way this evening to agree to this very important amendment, and let us send a message to those fortunate enough to have health care insurance and prescription drug coverage that we remember them, we care about them, and we are going to make sure no harm is done to them in the process of putting together this prescription drug plan.

I yield the floor.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I suggest the adoption of a resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.
Mr. REID. Mr. President, this is the greatest and most prosperous Nation in history. Nobody has worked harder to make this country great than our senior citizens. And few things weigh more heavily on their minds than the soaring cost of prescription drugs.

You would think such a great, prosperous Nation would honor its elders, by making sure they get the medicines they need. That is why a comprehensive, meaningful and voluntary drug benefit for our senior citizens has been among my highest priorities.

Over the last several weeks, this Senate has worked hard to achieve that. In the process, many of us who shared that goal have disagreed about how to react to it. In the end, we wound up with a bill that is not how I would have created a prescription drug benefit. But it is a start.

I am voting for this bill, because I believe some benefit is better than none. I am voting for it because of people like Shirley, who is 78 years old, raised eight children in the Sierra Nevada. She currently spends $400 a month on medicine, and has less than $400 left over to live on. This bill would reduce her monthly costs to less than $300 in medicine. And it would provide a similar level of assistance for tens of thousands of Nevada seniors.

I am voting for this bill in the hope it will be like the camel's nose under the tent—a foot in the door for our senior citizens. I am hoping we will pass this bill today, and then improve it in the future. And, yes, there is plenty of room for improvement.

For example, this bill will do little to help seniors whose income is $15,000 a year or more. Even if they spend more than $100 a month on prescription drugs. That is why I voted to make the program more generous.

The bill did not take effect soon enough. That is why I voted for and cosponsored the Lautenberg amendment to move the start date up to 2004, instead of 2006.

There are gaps in the coverage this bill provides. That is why I voted for Senator Boxers' amendment to close the coverage gap, and Senator Grains' amendment to cancel premiums while coverage is suspended.

There were other amendments that were not agreed to. Finally, this plan is just plain confusing—which means it won't give our senior citizens the peace of mind they deserve.

I voted to address all of these issues. I wish we had succeeded, and that this bill would provide the kind of coverage our senior citizens need. We didn't and it doesn't.

We have to be honest with our senior citizens, and with the American people. This isn't the best we can do for our senior citizens, but it is the best we can do tonight.

I will vote for this bill today, because it provides a start toward fulfilling our promise to senior citizens. It is a start, and I won't stop fighting until we finish the job.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The minority leader is recognized.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I know we are sitting here tonight on negotiations on an amendment. As I understand it, no one is seeking recognition to continue work on other amendments. So I will speak for a couple of minutes until somebody is prepared to come to the floor to continue our work. I don't want to delay the business of the Senate but I want to express myself, as the distinguished Democratic whip has been doing with regard to the legislation.

I, too, intend to support this bill. I am thinking of the old joke about a camel being designed by a committee. Oftentimes, I think of that as we work our will on legislation. In many respects, this is the legislative version of a committee horse, a camel, and the kind of bill I cannot write. It is not the kind of bill I would cosponsor. It is not the kind of bill I would enthusiastically endorse.

I look at some of the concerns we have about this legislation. About the adequacy of the coverage, the ability to access the rural needs to overcome the inequities that exist today—a lone merit consideration and I would suggest support for this legislation. The help for low-income seniors—tens of thousands of South Dakotans will get help they are not getting today in part because of this bill. The possibility that seniors could access generic drugs with far more regularly and successfully, and the possibility that we could reimport drugs at a lower price from Canada, all are reasons why I think this bill merits our support.

As I look to the balance and look to all of those things I wish were better, my response is that we are going to make them better. It may take months, if not years, but we are going to continue to work to make this a better bill and a better program.

There are so many ways that I hope we as Senates— Republic and Democrat—can work together to make this a better bill in future years.

There is a warning and a hope as we complete our debate tonight. The warning is that if this legislation comes back from conference in a significantly different form we will not be in the same position we are tonight. This bill will enjoy broad bipartisan support tonight. But if we fail, if we endorse a bill with some of the provisions that Senator Hagel and I have been working actually for the last several years. This amendment received bipartisan support in the last Congress as a
Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I commend Senator HAGEL and Senator ENZIGN because they have been working very carefully over the last few years to help move this along. They just had a different approach than I have had. I have had what I call a comprehensive, universal, voluntary approach. They have President Bush has proposed and our amendments to the Medicare Program that doesn't include any of the improvements that merely pay the claims Medicare benefits are today—by considering the issue. We debated this very issue. delivering the benefit, much as Senator this case we are talking about the tax—obvious from my point of view, allows their bill. We are going to drive drug costs. It seems to keep taxpayers' costs down. It seems to use competition to maximize value to the taxpayers. There has been some concern that S. 1 doesn't have as much competitive reform as many of us would have preferred. But the Hagel-Ensign plan has far less reform and is much more government run.

I would like to explain: First, this amendment would rule out any true competition in the delivery of Medicare services. Second, S. 1 would have competitive drug plans assume a modest amount of financial risk, giving them an incentive to drive hard bargains and keep taxpayers' costs down. It seems to me that is very significant—the difference between the underlying bill and their bill. We are going to drive drug prices down more through competition.

The Hagel-Ensign plan, it is pretty obvious from my point of view, allows for no such exemption, specifically mandating that the Government—in this case we are talking about the taxpayers—bears all the financial risk for delivering the benefit, much as Senator Bob Graham's did the last year when we debated this very issue.

Under this amendment, the benefit would be defined just like other Medicare benefits are today—by contractors that merely pay the claims that come in without any effort whatsoever, no effort to contain costs.

Second, the Hagel amendment doesn't include any of the improvements to the Medicare Program that President Bush has proposed and our bill includes. It does not include the role for private preferred provider organization plans to deliver an improved Medicare benefit package. It doesn't make modern innovations such as disease management services or rational cost sharing available to beneficiaries who choose them. It simply dumbs a catastrophic drug benefit onto to the 1965 vintage Medicare system.

What the people of this country need is improvement in Medicare, strengthening of Medicare, voluntary, universal, comprehensive. The Ensign plan wouldn't improve that, but it would make it substantially worse.

I urge my colleagues to defeat the amendment.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, I want to clear up something. We don't touch any of the other Medicare reforms in your bill. The whole thing with the PPOs, we talk about the prescription drug part of the underlying bill.

You mentioned competition. I practiced veterinary medicine, built, owned, and operated two different animal hospitals. Why do I bring that up? It is because in veterinary medicine people pay out of their own pocket. Veterinarians are in an incredibly competitive field because we know that if somebody brings a case to you, they are going to shop about half the time based on price. So veterinarians have to become price sensitive to that, so they work to become more efficient, to keep their costs down, because individuals shop.

In our health care system today, individuals do not shop because we have low deductible policies, and a lot of times the doctors waive those deductibles. Senator Frist will be able to tell you about that. The hospitals waive the deductibles. So the person receiving the care is not accountable for the care, and so they don't shop. The doctor tells them, go get this service or this drug, and they don't think about it. They have modest, low copays, and they don't think about it.

The cost control, the competition, is established by 40 million people on Medicare, 40 million people receiving drugs. If they are paying out of their own pocket or low-income people have the $500 in a pharmaceutical benefit account, they have something at stake, so they go shop.

They ask the questions: Do I need the drug in the first place? Maybe I can get a generic. So they do the shopping. Also, we have pharmaceutical benefit managers in the bill. That is what the whole drug discount card is about. So those pharmaceutical benefit managers help lower the costs as well.

We have several reforms in this bill that are true reforms, that introduce competition to keep the costs down. That is why our bill actually scored lower in the CBO.

Because of that, we were able to add a couple other things. When Senator HAGEL arrives, he will modify the amendment. For instance, we will allow Medicaid, the dual eligibles that people have been talking about today, to give States help in handling those dual eligibles through Medicare because our prescription drug cost to the taxpayer was less. It is because we have more reform on the prescription drug part of it than the underlying bill. It just a difference of philosophy of how you do it.

I come to this based on my experiences in the private sector and how health care can be delivered by individuals shopping.

I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum and ask unanimous consent that the time be equally charged.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, in the last 2 weeks the Senate has engaged in an historic effort to reform and strengthen Medicare. When we opened this debate 2 weeks ago, I said that what we would do here debating this bill would define every American and future generations.

Health care is a defining issue for our Nation and future generations. Just a reminder: When Medicare was enacted in 1965, the Federal Government's lead actuary at that time projected that the hospital program, Medicare Part A, would grow to $9 billion by 1990. In fact, the program, in 1990, had then cost the taxpayers $6 billion. So we have some sense of how these programs can get out of hand if not defined clearly at the front end.

In addition to the internal problems of the changing realities of health care, Medicare is facing a looming external problem. The largest generation in American history, the baby boomers, are aging. These Americans—over 75 million of them—will be added to the Medicare rolls over the next few years. The baby boom generation has changed Medicare for the very first time. It is not defined clearly at the front end.

We have a responsibility to address this demographic pressure now or risk the system collapsing under its own weight in the future.

Senator Ensign and I have come to this floor to offer an amendment to substitute only title I of the Finance Committee's bill, providing a prescription drug benefit for seniors. We believe any Medicare drug benefit must be sustainable for future generations. The benefit must deal with the realities that people are living longer and have higher health care expectations than ever before. We believe we can do better with our amendment.
Our amendment is a simple amendment. Seniors will be able to understand it clearly. Unlike the underlying bill, our amendment contains no premiums, no deductibles, and no gaps in coverage. Our modified amendment addresses the need of these major issues we have tried to deal with in constructing this plan. First, it helps low-income seniors, those who need it the most. Two, it protects seniors from high out-of-pocket expenses, and it eases the burden prescription drug costs have placed on the States.

Our modified amendment would replace the prescription drug benefit in the Finance Committee plan with, No. 1, a prescription drug discount card for all seniors on Medicare with $20 billion in added funds for low-income seniors; No. 2, catastrophic coverage for all seniors; No. 3, $25 billion in cost-sharing for catastrophic drug costs with the States for the lowest income seniors eligible for both Medicare and Medicaid. We request the Secretary of Health and Human Services the discretion to divide $65 billion for seniors and for help with drug costs at the State level. With our amendment, the Secretary will provide low-income seniors with money on a drug discount card to help defray their drug expenses.

States would also benefit under our amendment, and $35 billion is available to help States cover the catastrophic drug expenses for the dual eligibles. These are the very poorest of seniors.

These modifications to the amendment make it stronger by targeting aid to those who need it the most. This bill has been scored. We fall within the $400 billion budget number that is required. This is a commonsense plan that is workable and responsible, and it addresses prescription drug concerns in the right way.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, I have a modified desk to the amendment No. 1026. I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be modified. The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment is so modified. The amendment (No. 1026), as modified, is as follows:

‘‘Effective date. Sec. 1860L. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the Voluntary Medicare Prescription Drug Discount and Security Program under this part shall apply only during the period beginning on January 1, 2005 and ending on December 31, 2010.’’. Mr. Hagel. Mr. President, I now ask for the yeas and nays. The PRESIDING OFFICER. There is a sufficient second. There is a sufficient second. The yeas and nays were ordered. Mr. Hagel. I thank the Chair and yield the floor. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields the floor? The Senator from Nevada is recognized. Mr. Ensign. Mr. President, the prescription drug bill, Medicare reform bill combination that we have before us today, as we all know, is a freight train coming through this piece of paper and there is no stopping it.

What is very unfortunate is that we have a very legitimate amendment on the floor today that is getting 20, 30 minutes' worth of debate. I put up some examples on the chart here of how this amendment we are offering is superior. I have tried to be objective, to say that above 200 percent of poverty, between 200 and 400 percent of poverty, up to 200 percent of poverty, and beyond.

For the very low income, our amendment is slightly less generous, but it keeps the low-income people with something at stake so they will shop. We have heard nothing about that from the other side. There has been no debate, in other words. It is because there is an agreement to defeat any substantive amendment. It is unfortunate.

This is probably the most important vote, as far as an entitlement program, that any of us in our careers will ever take, and this bill is being rushed through so that we can get a "bill" to conference, where all of the improvements are going to be made.

We have an amendment before us that should be debated. If you disagree, fine, but let's debate it and vote on it up or down. But I don't think this kind of a process is healthy for the Senate. I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Louisiana is recognized.

Mr. BREAUX. Mr. President, I yield myself whatever time we have in opposition to the amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Of whose time?

Mr. BREAUX. Off of the chairman, Senator Grassley's time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is recognized.

Mr. BREAUX. Mr. President, I start off by commending the authors of the amendment for a real serious effort to try to improve the bill. But I rise in opposition because there is not any segment of the senior population that you could not isolate and target and say we can not do better than this, or at least the same, or better deal than they have in this bill. That is not the purpose of this legislation.

The purpose of Medicare is that it is universal. It is not a welfare bill. It is not just for low-income individuals. It is for every American citizen who has reached the age of 65, or older, and qualifies for the program. That is one of the greatest features of the Medicare Program—that everyone is essentially treated equal.

So it is easy, if you want to isolate a low-income group and say we are going to give them a better deal. But when you are looking at the entire population of almost 40 million Americans with whom we have to deal, that, indeed, is the real challenge, and that is why the content of this bill is far superior than to narrowly isolate only low-income people and say we can do a better deal for them. Of course, but you are not going to be able to do that in keeping with the general theme of what Medicare is all about and taking care of all Medicare seniors with the best possible deal.

I think that is what the goal of this Congress should be, and that is why what we have in the provisions here to give them prescription drugs, which would be within the Medicare Program, that people can voluntarily continue to accept the traditional Medicare or, if they want, they can expanded Medicare Advantage and get all of the benefits through a private, competitively delivered system.

What we have is the beginning of a program that can be improved upon. It is a form of an insurance-type program, similar to what we have as Federal employees, which can be improved upon. But it is for everybody. We, too, give special attention to lower income individuals, and maybe they can do it better, but it is going to have to come from somewhere else, and the somewhere else is the vast number of other seniors who would have some of their benefits diluted and reduced in order to make this a little bit better than what is in this bill.

The goal is to try to create a universal program across the board, and one that is fair to everyone. I think that is what is in the bill as it now stands.

Mr. GRIGG. Will the Senator yield for a question?

Mr. BREAUX. Yes, I am happy to yield.

Mr. GRIGG. Would the Senator agree that there wasn't, in the original Medicare program, an insurance program, which you would pay into during your working life under the Part A part of the insurance program, with the concept that when you retire, you would have paid for your health insurance. That is why everyone is covered under it. But is it not also true that under this drug benefit as proposed, nobody will have paid into the Medicare insurance plan for the purposes of this drug program? This drug program will be a new entitlement, and therefore it is reasonable that since it is going to be borne not by the people who worked for it but by the people who are working—it is going to be borne by them rather than the recipients—then it should be set up in a different structure along the lines that are proposed, which is you benefit the low income and you benefit people who have a catastrophic event rather than have a program that puts the benefit out to everyone and forces 37 percent of the population off those insurance plans and on to a public plan.

Mr. BREAUX. I am not sure whose time this is on. I will respond to the Senator's question. We have a health delivery system supervised by the Federal Government, as all the beneficiaries are going to contribute to it. Those benefiting from it are going to have an average premium of $35 a month, a $275 deductible, and 50 percent copayment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator's time has expired.

Mr. BREAUX. I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Montana.
I encourage a "yes" vote on this amendment.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, to summarize our amendment is simple: It helps those who need it most. It helps the States provide a discount drug card. It is affordable, with no monthly premiums, no deductibles, catastrophic coverage, and accountable market-based tools. It is a complete, affordable, discount drug plan that the next generation of this country can support. We can be proud of what we are doing for our senior citizens.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Montana.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, the major fatal problem with this amendment is it dispenses with the underlying principle of the underlying bill. That is universality. We are, in the legislation before us, providing for universal benefits.

This amendment violates that principle by saying no, not across the board for Americans but, rather, it introduces a whole new means testing provision for catastrophic. I just think it fatally violates the spirit of the legislation we are about to pass.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. All time has expired. The question is on agreeing the amendment No. 1026, as modified. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. MCCONNELL. I announce that the Senator from New Mexico (Mr. DOMENICI) and the Senator from Oklahoma (Mr. INHOFE) are necessarily absent.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, the Senate from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) and the Senator from Connecticut (Mr. LIEBERMAN) are necessarily absent.

I further announce that, if present and voting, the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) would vote "yea."

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. GREGG). Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 42, nays 54, as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1026, AS MODIFIED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Before we can go to the next amendment, we will have to have order in the Senate. There are 2 minutes equally divided. Who seeks recognition? The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. ENSIK. Mr. President, I will use 30 seconds and Senator HAGEL will use 30 seconds on this side.

The Hagel-Ensign amendment corrects several problems in the bill. Let me go over those real briefly.

We have no monthly premiums. We do not make middle-class taxpayers pay for prescription drugs for wealthy seniors. We preserve the State and the private plans that are already out there, which the underlying bill does not do. We give most of our help to low- and moderate-income seniors but we still control costs in our bill.
Mr. BYRD. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Mr. President, for the information of Senators, we have made tremendous progress today, and we are on the final leg. In conversations with the managers, it appears we will have one more series of stacked votes tonight and that will include final passage. That series will be the. The bill will be done.

We need somewhere between 45 minutes and an hour—hopefully 45 minutes, and hopefully people can yield back their time—before we can begin those votes. I think that is all we can say at this juncture, working in good faith. They have been careful about the details. We are waiting for some of the final wording to come through in terms of the managers’ package. Once we have that, we will be able to proceed with the voting.

I don’t know how many amendments it will be. It could be two amendments; it could be four amendments; it could be one amendment or passage. But it is going to be probably two or four amendments beginning in about 45 minutes to an hour.

Mr. BYRD. Will the leader yield?

Mr. FRIST. Yes.

Mr. BYRD. On the preceding rollcall vote, 28 minutes were required. On this rollcall vote, 22 or 23 minutes were required. So we have over 50 minutes on two rollcalls today. Now, time is worth a little something around here to many of us who don’t have much time left. I wonder if we can’t do better than that. I think the Senate ought to treat itself better than that. Senators owe to it other Senators to not just lag and cause rollcall votes to last so long. Twenty-eight minutes on a rollcall vote? Why can’t we go over to tomorrow? We are going to be here anyhow. Why can’t we go over? Here it is 15 minutes after 10. Do I have the floor, Mr. President?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Mr. President, we are falling into this way of doing things. Three-day work weeks. I will tell you, Mr. Leader, one night I am going to get the floor and Senator and work and vote.

Mr. FRIST. If the Senator will yield, I have the floor.

Mr. BYRD. Will the Senator yield?

Mr. FRIST. The Senator is happy to yield to the Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, we are falling into this way of doing things. Three-day work weeks. I will tell you, Mr. Leader, one night I am going to get the floor and be the planner and on finishing and going home the next day. They won’t get to do that. I have seen this happening over and over and over more recently. Three-day work weeks, and we don’t come in on Friday and work and vote.

If the Senator will continue to yield, just briefly?

Mr. FRIST. If the Senator will yield for a couple more minutes because we do have people who want to get on to the business. I certainly do yield for a few more minutes.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I don’t want to overtax the leader at this point or overtax other Senators. Just suffice it to say at this point in this habit of just having 3-day workweeks, staying here until 10, 11, 12 on Thursday night so that people can go out on Friday. I started this thing of having a week at home every 4 weeks, but we worked 5 days. We worked 5 days in each of the 3 weeks in between, and we started voting early on Mondays and we voted a full day on Friday. I know things have changed. I am not majority leader. I don’t mean to be a probationary to the majority leader. But this is getting to be a problem with some of us.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, let me just reply and say: Last Friday, you and I were on the floor at 3 in the afternoon, and we are not voting—doesn’t mean we are not working. Some of us do have constituents we go back to and spend time with. Some of us are working on bills and reading. Just because we are not voting does not mean we are not working.

Mr. BYRD. I understand that.

Mr. FRIST. Again, I suggest that we go back so we can work and debate and get these two or four amendments finished. I would be happy to talk to the Senator. I understand he wants us to be efficient and work 5 days a week. I would like to work 6 days a week.

Mr. BYRD. I have a wife at home and she needs me there. I ought to be there. I have stopped early on two occasions lately just to go be with her and let the Senate run its course. There is going to be a time when this Senator is going to keep the Senate in session a while. He can still do it.

I say this in the very best of spirit to the leader—and he is doing the best he can—there comes a time when some of us have duties elsewhere and we would like to keep our rollcall records clean. Soon I will have cast 17,000 rollcall votes. So I have been here for my share of the votes. I am getting a little bit fed up staying around here. This last rollcall vote was 23 minutes and the one before that was 28 minutes. There is a lot of hooping and hollering. What do the American public think of us? It is time we went home if we don’t work.

I hope, Mr. Leader, that those of you who are so good at working out these things can get people to have voice votes or maybe cut down the time on their amendments.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I suggest that, since we have our colleagues here and ready to work, we go back to work now. I think the Senator made his point. I am listening and I will heed that advice and counsel. I suggest we go back to work so we can get home tonight to our families as well.

I yield the floor. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who seeks recognition? The Senator from Oklahoma is recognized.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, I believe we are in the process of trying to wrap up debate on a few amendments. I believe momentarily Senator FEINSTEIN and Senator CHAFEE and I will be discussing our amendment. I will make my comments very brief. I know Senator FEINSTEIN wishes to speak on it. I hope we can conclude debate. I think there will only be two more amendments. I urge colleagues to make their comments brief and let’s vote and finish action on this bill. I will defer my comments on the amendment because I believe the Senator from California is ready to speak.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from California is recognized.

Mr. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, I call up amendment No. 1060, as modified.

Mr. FEINSTEIN. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the amendment, as modified, is now the pending business. The amendment (No. 1060), as modified, is as follows:

At the end of title IV, insert:

"(B) Transfer to Part B Trust Fund.—

"(A) in general.—The Secretary shall transfer amounts recovered from this subsection to the Federal Supplementary Medical Insurance Trust Fund.
Much has changed since the creation of Medicare in 1965. People are living longer, due in large part to improved diagnostic tools and treatment. There is no way Congress could have predicted the number of people who would come to rely on Medicare or the rate at which medical costs were likely to grow. When Medicare was established in 1965, the Part B premium was set at a level to cover about 50 percent of program costs. With medical inflation, the dollar amount of the premium has declined to cover only 25 percent of program costs.

The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 established the Medicare Part B premium to equal 25 percent of the program cost from 1996 to 1998. The Balanced Budget Act of 1997 permanently established the Part B premium at 25 percent. The bill to balance the budget in 1997 that passed out of the Senate Finance Committee included a provision to inject revenue in the Medicare Part B premium. So this is nothing new.

The provision included in 1997 would have had beneficiaries with incomes over $50,000 for an individual and $75,000 for a couple paying a greater share of the Part B premium. This provision was stripped out during conference.

Well, we were in a different financial situation when Congress made the decision to set the beneficiary's share of the Part B premium at 25 percent in 1997. It was at that time a $22 billion deficit. The next year the budget was in surplus to the tune of $69 billion.

With a Federal budget deficit of over $400 billion in the year 2003 and an increase in the Federal debt of $5.3 trillion, for a total of $12 trillion in debt expected by 2013, I believe that now is the time to rethink the premium structure of Medicare Part B.

As the baby boomers age, there will be a growing need for greater demand and demand for the Medicare Program.

The number of people age 65 and older will more than double over the coming decades, rising from 37 million today to 70 million in 2030 and 82 million in 2050. Over the next 75 years, the Medicare program will cost 71 percent more than that provided under current law in order to meet its needs.

It is predicted the Medicare hospital trust fund will be insolvent by 2030. The cost projected then—will nearly quadruple by 2075 in order to meet the growing need for the program, with budget outlays of $277 billion in 2003. This means spending for the program could reach $1.1 trillion by 2017.

With the legislation currently before the Senate, Congress is proposing some major changes to the Medicare Program. I am in full support of adding a drug benefit, but Congress should also rethink the financing mechanisms of the program, and this bill is a part in that direction. High-income beneficiaries can afford to pay a larger share of Medicare's costs, at least of the premium. They can afford to pay for the benefits they receive.

In light of the fact the Federal Government has just provided tax cuts in the range of $1,841 for people with incomes between $77,000 and $154,000 and up to $3,900 for people with incomes above $374,000, it seems to me people with annual incomes above $200,000 can afford to pay $2,793, which is the annual premium for Medicare Part B this year.

We should focus funding so that 98 percent of Medicare beneficiaries, who have an annual adjusted gross income of less than $100,000 can continue to access benefits. I think it is reasonable to ask those who can afford it to pay a greater share of the premium. We are still waiting for an official cost savings score from CBO, but I believe this amendment could save billions of dollars.

Once again, Mr. President, this amendment affects less than 2 percent and only those with incomes of more than $200,000 a year adjusted gross income would pay the full premium of about $2,900 a year. We think this is a reasonable proposal. It is scaled up. It impacts no one below $100,000 adjusted gross income a year, and at the maximum, a couple could make $400,000 before in adjusted gross income, the premium would be just $2,900.

The income limits would be indexed to medical inflation and, according to current population survey data from 2002, or about 1 million people of the 38 million Medicare beneficiaries, have incomes of over $100,000 a year. This would protect the tax subsidy for people who need it by encouraging those who have the dollars simply to pay either a greater share of the premium cost or the full premium cost.

I thank the Chair. I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. ENZIGN). The Senator from Rhode Island.

Mr. CHAFEE. Mr. President, I join with Senator FEINSTEIN, Senator NICKLES, and others in presenting this amendment this evening. I believe this income-related Part B premium for only the wealthiest of seniors, a little over 1 percent of the entire Medicare population, is necessary to sustain the long-term solvency of the Medicare Program.

I wish to make just three points on this issue. First, as Senator FEINSTEIN has said, previous Congresses have worked on this issue. In 1997, the Senate voted 70 to 30 to do exactly what we are doing here, and most of those Senators are still here today.

Second, many of these seniors can afford this added premium. Most seniors, it is safe to say, who are making over $100,000 a year have already paid off their mortgages. They have paid off their loans. They have educated their children. They can afford these higher premiums which would go from only $1,400 a year in 2002 to $2,793 in 2006. As the President said yesterday, a strong majority looking at the people who voted for it—are still here. I hope we vote for it again.

Medicare has some big problems long term. The bill before us has a lot of new subsidies but does not have a lot of reform to make it affordable for future generations.

Part B right now is subsidized by general revenues 3 to 1 Federal Government and individuals. The amendment before the Senate includes individuals with income above $100,000, they should pay at least 50 percent. If they have income above $200,000, they should pay it all. For couples, that would be $400,000. A couple could make $400,000 before they pay all the premium. Surely we can do that. Why should we ask our kids and/or our grandkids, who might have incomes of $20,000 or $30,000, to be subsidizing individuals to that degree?

I compliment my colleagues for this amendment. I will read from the annual report of the board of trustees of the HI trust fund. It says:

Similarly, SMI general revenues in the year 2002 were equivalent to about 7.8 percent of personal and corporate Federal income tax collected in that year. If such tax revenues remain at the current level relative to the national economy, then SMI—

That is Part B—

It is safe to say, who are making over $200,000 a year to $2,800 a year, at the most, depending on the income they make. So seniors who are making $100,000 at the most will pay only $1,400 a year, and those making $200,000 will pay $2,800 a year. I do not think that is too much to ask to help keep this program solvent.

Finally, if we do not do this today, some other Congress is going to do it. In 1997, the National Bipartisan Commission on the Future of Medicare was created to resolve the long-term insolvency of the system. That was in 1997 and it was known as the Breaux-Frist Commission. They did not report their work to Congress. They fell short of the votes necessary to report their work to Congress.

However, it is interesting to note that one of the reasons they failed to get the votes to report to Congress was the President at the time, President Clinton, called for putting aside 15 percent of budget surpluses the next 15 years to pay down the debt and to shore up Medicare. Fifteen years of budget surpluses—when will we see those again?—to shore up Medicare. Because the Breaux-Frist plan did not include that, they did not get the votes necessary.

Mr. President, now is the time to adopt this amendment. If we do not adopt it, future Congresses will have to wrestle with this dilemma.

I thank the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Oklahoma.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, for the information of our colleagues, I am going to make a couple comments on this amendment. There may be an amendment by the Senator from Pennsylvania that will require a vote on or in relation to Congress's amendment. I think we are close to finishing. I hope we can. I just make those comments.

I compliment Senator FEINSTEIN and also Senator CHAFEE, Senator McCAIN, and others for supporting this amendment. Senator CHAFEE mentioned we passed the income-related Part B premium several years ago with 70 votes. I believe the majority of those Americans are still here today. I hope we vote for it again.

That is Part B—

It is safe to say, who are making over $200,000 a year to $2,800 a year, at the most, depending on the income they make. So seniors who are making $100,000 at the most will pay only $1,400 a year, and those making $200,000 will pay $2,800 a year. I do not think that is too much to ask to help keep this program solvent.

Finally, if we do not do this today, some other Congress is going to do it. In 1997, the National Bipartisan Commission on the Future of Medicare was created to resolve the long-term insolvency of the system. That was in 1997 and it was known as the Breaux-Frist Commission. They did not report their work to Congress. They fell short of the votes necessary to report their work to Congress.

However, it is interesting to note that one of the reasons they failed to get the votes to report to Congress was the President at the time, President Clinton, called for putting aside 15 percent of budget surpluses the next 15 years to pay down the debt and to shore up Medicare. Fifteen years of budget surpluses—when will we see those again?—to shore up Medicare. Because the Breaux-Frist plan did not include that, they did not get the votes necessary.

Mr. President, now is the time to adopt this amendment. If we do not adopt it, future Congresses will have to wrestle with this dilemma.

I thank the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nebraska.

Mr. REID. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF STROM THURMOND

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, a few moments ago we were made aware that at 9:45 tonight a close friend, a confidant, a colleague to most of us in this body, Strom Thurmond, passed away.

It was a century ago when Mark Twain was alive and Teddy Roosevelt was President that James Strom Thurmond was born in South Carolina and at that time began a life unmatched in public service. Just about all of us in this body have had the real privilege of serving alongside Strom Thurmond. A long-time friend of Senator Thurmond, Hortense Woodson, once said of him:

"Whatever he’s done has been done in the full. There’s no halfway doings about Strom.

Indeed, Strom Thurmond will forever be a symbol of what one person can accomplish when they live life, as we all know he did, to the fullest. To his family and his friends, we offer our sincerest sympathies.

It was unexpected that he would die this evening while we are in the middle of completing a very historic bill, and it would be clearly appropriate for us to make recognition of his passing for a moment now, with plans, either after completion of the bill tonight or tomorrow, for people to make more extended statements.

Again, we extend to his family our deepest sympathies and our continued prayers.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Democratic leader.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I join with the majority leader in expressing the PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report. The legislative clerk read as follows: The Senator from Pennsylvania [Mr. SANTORUM] proposes an amendment numbered 1132.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the reading of the amendment be dispensed with. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows: (Purpose: To allow eligible beneficiaries in Medicare Advantage plans to select zero premium, stop-loss drug coverage protection) On page 343, between lines 15 and 16, insert the following:

(i) ZERO PREMIUM STOP-LOSS PROTECTION AND ACCESS TO NEGOTIATED PRICES FOR ELIGIBLE BENEFICIARIES ENROLLED IN MEDICARE ADVANTAGE PLANS.—

(ii) Notwithstanding any provision of this part or part D, a Medicare Advantage plan shall be treated as meeting the requirements of this section if, in lieu of the qualified prescription drug coverage otherwise available, such plan makes available coverage with the following modifications:

(a) No premium—Notwithstanding subsection (d) or sections 1860D-13(e)(2) and 1860D-17, the amount of the Medicare Advantage monthly beneficiary obligation for the indicated prescription drug coverage shall be zero.

(b) Beneficiary receives access to negotiated prices and stop-loss protection for no additional premium—Notwithstanding section 1860D-6, qualified prescription drug coverage shall include coverage of covered drugs that meets the following requirements:

(i) The coverage has cost-sharing (for costs up to the annual out-of-pocket limit under subsection (c)(4) of such section) that is equal to 100 percent.

(ii) The coverage provides the limitation on out-of-pocket expenditures under such subsection (c)(4), except that in applying such subsection (c)(4), the Administrator shall substitute for $3,700 in subparagraph (B)(ii)(D) of such subsection.

(iii) The coverage provides access to negotiated prices under subsection (c) of such section during the entire year.

(c) Application of low-income subsidies.—Notwithstanding subsection (f) or section 1860D-13(e) of this title, the Administrator shall not apply the following provisions of subsection (a) of such section:

(i) Subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) of paragraph (1).

(ii) Subparagraphs (A), (B), and (D) of paragraph (2).

(iii) Clauses (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) of paragraph (3).

(iv) Penalty for enrolling in a zero premium stop-loss protection plans after initial eligibility for such enrollment.—In the case of an eligible beneficiary that enrolled in a plan offered pursuant to this subsection at any time after the initial enrollment period described in section 1860D-2, the Secretary shall establish procedures for imposing a monthly beneficiary obligation for enrollment under such plan. The amount of such obligation shall be an amount that the Administrator determines is actuarially sound for each full 12-month period (in the same continuous period of eligibility) in which the eligible beneficiary could have been enrolled but was not so enrolled. The provisions of subsection (b) of such section shall apply to the penalty under this paragraph in a manner that is similar to the manner such provisions apply to the penalty under part D.

(3) PROCEDURES.—The Administrator shall establish procedures for submission of such section. Under such procedures, the Administrator may waive or modify any of the preceding provisions of this part or part D to the extent necessary to carry out this subsection.

(4) No effect on Medicare drug plans.—This subsection shall have no effect on eligible beneficiaries enrolled under part D in a Medicare Prescription Drug plan or under a contract under section 1860D-13(e)."

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, one of the key components that many Members on this side of the aisle would like to see accomplished is to draw as many people as possible into the competitive model set up in this bill. We believe it is the more efficient, higher quality delivery of health care services, the Medicare Advantage plan.

Unfortunately, through negotiations, a lot of the incentives the President has to encourage people to get into those plans and thereby make them work have been taken out in the current version on the floor. That is to the great consternation, I know, of the White House and many Members on this side of the aisle.

For quite some time I have been trying to think how they can create incentives—carrots, if you will, as opposed to sticks—to encourage people to get into these kinds of plans. Originally, I intended to offer a differential benefit—in other words, a benefit that would have what I call a standard benefit in the fee-for-service option and an enhanced benefit in the Medicare Advantage option. I was fairly convinced, in discussing with the people on my side of the aisle, we probably would not have a chance to succeed; that there were people who had made commitments that a differential benefit was not something you could do.

I went about trying to figure out, could we create incentives to people to come into Medicare Advantage, which I believe is the future of Medicare and the best way to run the system without creating a differential benefit. The amendment before the Senate does that. The amendment before the Senate creates an option for beneficiaries who participate in Medicare Advantage. It is a pharmaceutical option. Instead of just having no pharmaceutical benefit, which you could if you do not get into the Medicare Advantage Program, we have the standard benefit which is required if you participate in the PPOs, HMOs, and POSs that will be created here.

What I will do with this amendment is create another option for seniors who select Medicare Advantage. That option would be a zero premium catastrophic benefit. So you could choose between the standard benefit, the $35 premium, and the 50 percent copay, and the donut hole, or you could choose the catastrophic described over and over again, or if you did not want to pay a premium but wanted some catastrophic coverage,
For the information of our colleagues, I think we are very close to finishing this bill. We may have one or two rollcall votes. I think we are just about ready to vote on the Feinstein-Chafee amendment and possibly one other amendment, and I think we are very close to be able to vote on final passage, for the information of our colleagues.

I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

AMENDMENT NO. 1060

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I will just take a moment to address the amendment of the Senator from California, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, and her colleagues in terms of means testing the Medicare system. That is what we would be doing, changing what is effectively an insurance system into a welfare system. There is, really, no question about that.

The fact is, the Part B of the Medicare system is basically a progressive system as it is at the present time. Wealthy people are paying a great deal more into that system than they are taking out.

With the roadblock that this bill has run into the competitive model and CBO and their estimation of costs, there are all sorts of things we have done to eliminate adverse selection and all the other problems inherent in offering two different benefits. We believe we actually address the vast majority of those problems in this amendment. Nevertheless, we have run into the roadblock that this bill has run into the entire time when it comes to the competitive model and CBO and their estimation of costs.

For the record, the White House does not see it that way. The White House sees the competitive model as saving money. Under their scoring, this would pose on both beneficiaries and providers. And God bless the CBO; that is the best they could do at this late hour.

I firmly believe this is a reasonable compromise between those who would not want to have differential benefit and those who would because it is unfair to the fee-for-service participants and those who believe we need to have an incentive for people to get into the Medicare Advantage Program. This is where we could go.

There are all sorts of things we have done to eliminate adverse selection and all the other problems inherent in offering two different benefits. We believe we actually address the vast majority of those problems in this amendment. Nevertheless, we have run into the roadblock that this bill has run into the entire time when it comes to the competitive model and CBO and their estimation of costs.

AMENDMENT NO. 1122 WITHDRAWN

As a result of the fact of the score which is $20 to $25 billion, and we do not have that, I am going to withdraw my amendment and hope this idea which I believe is in the center here is in a compromise between two competing ideas of how to structure this bill.

It will be considered in conference as a way of trying to bring the two sides together in something that does not disadvantage the fee-for-service plan but creates an opportunity for incentives to go to the Medicare Advantage plan.

Mr. President, with that I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment is withdrawn.

The Senator from Oklahoma.

Mr. NICKLES. I compliment my colleagues from Pennsylvania. Especially this late at night, when a lot of us are thinking about our departed friend and colleague, Senator Thurmond, I appreciate his withdrawing this amendment.
(1) reduce the number of words comprising all regulations by at least two-thirds by October 1, 2004, and
(2) ensure the simple, effective, and efficient operation of the medicare program.

(c) APPLICATION OF THE PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT.—The Secretary shall apply the provisions of chapter 35 of title 44, United States Code (commonly known as the “Paperwork Reduction Act”) to the provisions of this Act to ensure that any regulations issued to implement this Act are written in plain language, are streamlined, promote the maximum efficiency and effectiveness of the medicare and medicaid programs without harming beneficiaries or providers, and minimize the burdens the payment systems affected by this Act impose on both beneficiaries and providers.

If the Secretary determines that the two-thirds reduction in words by October 1, 2004 required in (b)(1) is not feasible, he shall inform Congress in writing by July 1, 2004 of the reasons for its infeasibility. He shall then establish a possible reduction to be achieved by January 1, 2005.

(2) is located in Indiana.

(c) LIMITATION.—The payment adjustment described in subsection (a) for fiscal year 2004 and each fiscal year thereafter shall not exceed 15 percent of the costs of furnishing hospital services described in section 1922(c)(4)(A) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396r-4(c)(4)(A)).

SEC. ... TREATMENT OF GRANDFATHERED LONG-TERM CARE HOSPITALS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The last sentence of section 1886(d)(1)(B) is amended by inserting "and the Secretary may not impose any special conditions on the operation, size, number of beds, or location of any hospital so classified for continued participation under this title or title XIX or for continued classification as a hospital described in clause (iv)" before the period at the end.

(b) TREATMENT OF PROPOSED REVISION.—The Secretary shall not adopt the proposed revision to section 412.22(f) of title 42, Code of Federal Regulations contained in 48 Federal Register 27154 (May 19, 2003) or any revision reaching the same or substantially the same result as such revision.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to cost reporting periods ending on or after December 31, 2002.

AMENDMENT NO. 1013 (Purpose: To ensure that patients are receiving safe and accurate dosages of compounded drugs) At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. ... COMMITTEE ON DRUG COMPOUNDING.

(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall establish an Advisory Committee on Drug Compounding (referred to in this section ‘‘Advisory Committee’’) within the Food and Drug Administration on drug compounding to ensure that patients are not exposed to unsafe and inaccurate dosages of compounded drugs.

(b) MEMBERSHIP.—The membership of the Advisory Committee shall be appointed by the Secretary of Health and Human Services and shall include representatives of—

(1) the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy;

(2) pharmacy groups;

(3) physician groups;

(4) consumer and patient advocate groups;

(5) the United States Pharmacopoeia; and

(6) other individuals determined appropriate by the Secretary.

(c) REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS.—Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit to Congress a report concerning the recommendations of the Committee to improve and protect patient safety.

(d) TERMINATION.—The Committee shall terminate on the date that is 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act.

AMENDMENT NO. 1121 (Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate concerning the structure of Medicare reform and the prescription drug benefit to ensure Medicare’s long-term solvency and high quality of care) At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. ... SENSE OF THE SENATE CONCERNING THE STRUCTURE OF MEDICARE REFORM AND THE PRESCRIPTION DRUG BENEFIT.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) America’s seniors deserve a fiscally strong Medicare system that fulfills its promise to them and future retirees.

(2) The impending retirement of the “baby boom” generation will dramatically increase the costs of providing Medicare benefits. Medicare costs will double relative to the size of the economy from 2 percent of GDP today to 4 percent in 2025 and double again to 8 percent of GDP in 2050. This will accelerate substantially when Congress adds a prescription drug benefit.

(3) Medicare’s current structure does not have the flexibility to quickly adapt to rapid advances in modern health care. Medicare lags far behind other insurers in providing prescription drug coverage and Medicare’s health care to seniors is at the most affordable price.

(4) Private-sector choice for Medicare beneficiaries would provide two key benefits: it would be tailored to the needs of America’s seniors, not the government, and would create a powerful incentive for private-sector Medicare plans to provide the best quality health care to seniors at the most affordable price.

(5) The method by which the national premature retirement of the health care industry in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program has been reimbursed has proven to be a reliable and successful mechanism for providing Medicare’s millions of beneficiaries with excellent health care choices.

(6) Unlike the Medicare payment system, which has had to be changed by Congress every few years, the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program has existed for 43 years with minimal changes from Congress. It is the Sense of the Senate that Medicare reform legislation should:

(1) Ensure that prescription drug coverage is directed to those who need it most.

(2) Provide that government contributions used to support Medicare Advantage plans are based on market principles beginning in 2006 to ensure the long and short term viability of such options for America’s seniors.

(3) Develop a payment system for the Medicare Advantage program similar to the payment system used for the national preferred provider organizations similar to the payment system used for the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program.

(4) Limit the addition of new unfunded obligations in the Medicare program so that the long-term solvency of this important program is not further jeopardized.

(5) Incorporate private sector, market-based elements, that do not rely on the inefficient Medicare price control structure.

(6) Keep the cost of structural changes and new benefits within the $400 billion provided for under the current Congressional Budget Resolution for implementing Medicare reform and providing a prescription drug benefit.

(7) Preserve the current employer-sponsored retiree health plans and not design a benefit which has the unintended consequences of supplanting private coverage.

(8) Reform reform proposals to eliminate red tape and reduce costs.

(9) Restore the right of Medicare beneficiaries and their doctors to work together to pursue new private prospective service plans to set their own premiums, and permit seniors to add their own dollars beyond the government contribution.

SEC. . . . INCREASE IN MEDICARE PAYMENT FOR CERTAIN HOME HEALTH SERVICES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1895 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395f(f)) is amended by adding at the end of such section the following:

(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, effective for discharges occurring on or after October 1, 2003, for purposes of payments to hospitals (as defined in section 1886(d) and 1833(t) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395d(d) and 1395m(t)) under the medicare program under title XVIII of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395 et seq.), Iredell County, North Carolina, and Rowan County, North Carolina, are deemed to be located in the Charlotte-Gastonia-Rock Hill, North Carolina Metropolitan Statistical Area.

(b) INCREASE IN MEDICARE PAYMENT FOR CERTAIN HOME HEALTH SERVICES.

(Sec. 1886(d)(2)(D)) on or after October 1, 2003, for purposes of making payments to skilled nursing facilities (SNFs) and home health agencies (as defined in sections 1861(j) and 1861(o) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395j(j) and 1395o(o)) under the medicare program under title XVIII of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395 et seq.), Iredell County, North Carolina, and Rowan County, North Carolina, are deemed to be located in the Charlotte-Gastonia-Rock Hill, North Carolina, South Carolina Metropolitan Statistical Area.

(c) APPLICATION AND BUDGET NEUTRAL.—Effective for fiscal year 2004, the skilled nursing facility PPS and home health PPS rates for Iredell County, North Carolina, and Rowan County, North Carolina, will be updated by the prefloor, preclassified hospital wage index available for the Charlotte-Gastonia-Rock Hill, North Carolina, South Carolina Metropolitan Statistical Area. This subsection shall be budget neutral in a manner, using a methodology that ensures that the total amount of expenditures for skilled nursing facility services and home health services in a year does not exceed the total amount of expenditures that would have been made in the year if this subsection had not been enacted. Required adjustments by reason of the preceding sentence shall be done with respect to skilled nursing facilities and home health agencies located in North Carolina.

(d) CONVERSION.—The provisions of this section shall have no effect on the amount of payments made under title XVIII of the Social Security Act to entities located in States other than North Carolina.

SEC. 6. AMENDMENT NO. 1188 (Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate regarding the establishment of a nationwide permanent lifestyle modification program for Medicare beneficiaries)

At the end of title VI, insert the following:

SEC . . . SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATION-WIDE PERMANENT LIFESTYLE MODIFICATION PROGRAM FOR MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that:

(1) Heart disease kills more than 500,000 Americans per year.

(2) The number and costs of interventions for the treatment of coronary disease are rising and currently cost the health care system $38,000,000,000 annually.

(3) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been operating throughout 12 States and has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent per year.

(4) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program is less expensive to deliver than interventional cardiac procedures and could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by $36,000,000,000 annually.

(5) Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise affect heart disease and heart disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater.

(6) Intensive lifestyle interventions which include teams of nurses, doctors, exercise physiologists, registered dietitians, and behavioral health clinicians have been demonstrated to reduce heart disease risk factors and enhance heart disease outcomes dramatically.

(7) The National Institutes of Health estimates that 17,000,000 Americans have diabetes and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that the number of Americans who have diabetes increased 61 percent in the last decade and is expected to more than double by 2050.

(8) Lifestyle modification programs are superior to medication therapy for treating diabetes.

(9) Individuals with diabetes are now considered to have coronary disease at the date of diagnosis of their diabetic state, and diabetes is a leading cause of death in the United States and has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent per year.

(10) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been an effective lifestyle program for the reversal and treatment of heart disease.

(11) Men with prostate cancer have shown significant improvement in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modification.

(12) These lifestyle changes are therefore likely to affect other chronic disease states, in addition to heart disease.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) The Secretary of Health and Human Services should carry out the demonstration project known as the Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program Demonstration, as described in the Health Care Financing Administration Memorandum of Understanding entered into on November 12, 2000, on a permanent basis.

(2) The project should include as many Medicare beneficiaries as would like to participate in the project on a voluntary basis; and

(3) The project should be conducted on a national basis.
AMENDMENT NO. 1005
(Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate regarding payment reductions under the Medicare physician fee schedule)

At the end of title VI, insert the following:

SEC. 1010. SENSE OF THE SENATE ON PAYMENT REDUCTIONS UNDER MEDICARE PHYSICIAN FEE SCHEDULE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—
(1) the fees Medicare pays physicians were reduced by 5.4 percent across-the-board in 2002;
(2) recent action by Congress narrowly averted another across-the-board reduction of 4.4 percent for 2003;
(3) based on current projections, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) estimates that either legislative or administrative action, fees will be reduced across-the-board once again in 2004 by 4.2 percent;
(4) the prospect of continued payment reductions under the Medicare physician fee schedule for the foreseeable future threatens to destabilize an important element of the program, namely physician participation and willingness to accept Medicare patients; and
(5) the primary source of this instability is the sustainable growth rate (SGR), a system of annual spending targets for physicians' services.

(b) RECOMMENDATIONS.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall conduct an analysis of the regulations issued under title XVIII of the Social Security Act and related laws in order to determine how such regulations may be streamlined and simplified to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of the Medicare program without harming beneficiaries or providers and to decrease the burdens the Medicare payment systems impose on both beneficiaries and providers.

Great relationships were established, and good constituent service. He won his last election by getting more African-American votes than any Republican in the South.

All I can say about Senator Thurmond is that we pray for his family, we mourn his loss, but we thank God that He provided us a great public servant.

Well done, Senator Thurmond.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I move unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerks will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, is that the business before the Senate?

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, what is the quorum call to rescind?

The Senator from Texas.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The amendment (No. 1060), as modified, was rejected.

Mr. BAUCUS. I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. REID. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I have a unanimous consent request to correct a previous unanimous consent request. In a previous unanimous consent request, I referred to amendment No. 990 when I meant to refer to the previously adopted Murray amendment No. 961.

I ask unanimous consent to make that change.

I referred to the Kyl amendment No. 1128 when I meant to refer to Kyl amendment No. 1121.

I also ask unanimous consent to make that change.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerks will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I send an amendment to the desk.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will report.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senate from Iowa (Mr. GRASSLEY) proposes an amendment numbered 1133.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

(The amendment, No. 1133, is printed in today’s RECORD under “Amendments Submitted.”)

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, is there no discussion necessary on the amendment?

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Who seeks recognition?

The Senator from Texas.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, I would just like to say that we have help for our teaching hospitals in the managers’ amendment. It is not much. But I am working with all of the managers, the ranking member as well as the chairman, to try to increase funding for teaching hospitals.

I want to point out our teaching hospitals must have the support that is in this bill at a higher percentage if we are going to keep the young physicians trained and if our country will keep the greatest health care system in the world.

I thank the managers for helping me put that in the managers’ amendment.
The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Pennsylvania.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I oppose the managers' amendment because of an amendment that is in the managers' amendment, the Corzine amendment provides three States the opportunity to basically opt out of the Medicare Program for prescription drugs and have an entitlement flow of funding going to the States for the States to develop their own drug benefit. As a result of that, States like mine and two others will not have the advantage of an integrated drug benefit which I fought very strongly for on this floor and which I believe will also lead potentially to this unlimited entitlement flow of funds to the States because of the way this language is drafted, the potential for lots of mischief in respect to double dipping, inter-government transfers, disproportionate share payments. We could be opening a virtual Pandora's box. Yes. For my States and two others. But I think, frankly, it is not good policy and does not do the kind of improvement of the overall Medicare program which my State should participate in as well as the other States represented here.

There is no Federal oversight by the Secretary of Health and Human Services for this plan.

There are a host of other problems with this amendment. It is my understanding that the managers gave a commitment that this amendment be included in the package. And so to honor the chairman's commitment, I will not object to this amendment nor call for a vote to strike the amendment. But I, unfortunately, will have to vote against this bill.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there further debate?

Mr. GRASSLEY. I agree. REPEAL OF THERAPY CAPS

Mr. GRASSLEY. I agree. REPEAL OF THERAPY CAPS

Mr. GRASSLEY. I agree. REPEAL OF THERAPY CAPS

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, I will withdraw my amendment to repeal the arbitrary beneficiary caps on therapy. However, I would urge my colleague from Nevada, the Chairman from the Finance Committee, to work in conference to find a way to delay this law. As you know, the beneficiary caps will have one of three results—beneficiaries will either: (1) pay 100 percent out-of-pocket for the caps are exceeded; (2) self-ration therapy care; or (3) forgo medically necessary care altogether. Mr. President, I recognize that the Chairman has been a voice to eliminate these caps and hope that a final Medicare bill further delays implementation of them.

Mrs. LINCOLN. Mr. President, I would like the opportunity to join my colleague from Nevada to speak in support of repealing the caps on outpatient physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech-language pathology.

The current therapy cap discriminates against the most vulnerable of Medicare beneficiaries. While the majority of enrollees will not exceed an annual $1,500 limitation on rehabilitation services, approximately 13 percent of seniors and individuals with disabilities covered by Medicare will be forced to pay for medically necessary services out of pocket.

This is a particularly burdensome situation for beneficiaries living in rural communities. Most likely to be harmed are beneficiaries who have experienced a stroke or hip fracture or who have Parkinson's disease or other conditions that require an caps rehabilitation following injury or illness.

I urge the Chairman and Ranking Member of the Finance Committee to work with me and my colleague, the Senator from Nevada, on repealing this cap. Mr. Chairman and Senator SANTORUM, I appreciate your least some discussion about repealing it for 1 or 2 years. My colleague and I have sponsored legislation (S. 569) to permanently repeal this cap. Our bill has
Mr. GRASSLEY. I thank both the Senator from Nevada and the Senator from Arkansas for their comments and for withdrawing the amendment. As you are aware, the Administration asked CMS Administrator Scully at the Finance Committee markup to further delay implementation of these beneficiary caps. Unfortunately, as a result of the Senate Budget Resolution constraints, I do not have Medicare dollars to repeal the beneficiary cap on therapy services. I agree that this arbitrary limit does not make sense and have sought to address this issue in the past. I will work in conference to enact a therapy cap moratorium and appreciate your hard work and passion on this issue.

Mr. ENSIGN. I appreciate the Chairman’s leadership on this issue and I thank my colleague for agreeing, at a minimum, to work toward another moratorium on implementation of the therapy cap, and also to thank the Chairman for suggesting the Senator from Arkansas for her words of support. Mr. President, I yield the floor.

I ask unanimous consent that this full statement be included in the Record as if read.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I strongly support Senator Kyl’s sense of the Senate resolution to S. 1. His resolution asks Congress to rectify problems with the formula that is used to update Medicare physician reimbursement.

Due to flaws in this formula, payment rates for physicians and other practitioners are predicted to fall by 4.2 percent in 2004. This cut in physician compensation would be the fifth since 1991 that reduces the reimbursement that physicians and other health professionals received in Medicare physician reimbursement.

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I joined my colleague, the distinguished Senator from Oregon, Mr. Smith, in offering an amendment to promote better care for frail elderly and disabled. This amendment will allow the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to designate health plans that disproportionately serve special needs beneficiaries as special needs Medicare Advantage plans.

In order to qualify for these programs, a person must be Medicaid-eligible, have physical disabilities or frailties of aging, and require a level of care provided by nursing homes. Through programs provided by the Wisconsin Partnership Program, these frail elderly and disabled beneficiaries are able to receive quality preventive care upfront, which allows more beneficiaries to stay in their communities and reduces the rate of hospitalization.

In Wisconsin, 26 percent of all Medicaid recipients age 65 or older are in nursing homes. This rate drops dramatically for those enrolled in the Wisconsin Partnership Program, where only 5.9 percent of recipients age 65 or older are in nursing homes.

While the Wisconsin Partnership Program is a success, we must ensure that the Federal Government continues to support these State innovations to our long-term care needs and other specialty managed care programs that focus on frail, chronically ill seniors. Last year I introduced the Frail Elderly Act of 2002, which promoted specialty managed care programs and helped those already in existence to continue to operate. This amendment will work to accomplish both goals by providing a population-based designation that allows plans to be recognized for specialization in services for special needs beneficiaries. By establishing this specialized designation, we hope to be able to more easily move specialized plans from demonstration status to mainstream provider status, helping to minimize this more effective way of caring for the frail elderly and disabled.

Mr. President I also want to point out that this amendment does not change payments, does not change administrative rules, and therefore does not have a fiscal effect.

Fundamental long-term care reform is vital to any health care reform that Congress may consider. As part of these reforms, we must support State and local efforts to encourage care for the most vulnerable populations. We must provide our seniors and disabled with real choices. They are entitled to the opportunity to continue to live in the homes and communities that they helped build and sustain. I urge my colleagues to support this amendment that will help provide a measure of support for the most frail elderly and disabled to allow them to stay in their own homes.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that two letters of support for this amendment, from the Community Health Partnership and Elder Care of Dane County be printed in the RECORD.

Community

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I rise to speak on the Gregg-Schumer amendment which was adopted last week. This amendment was based on a piece of legislation, S. 1225, the Greater Access to Affordable Pharmaceuticals Act of 2003, reported by the HELP Committee on June 11th.

I want to take this opportunity to explain why I cast the lone vote against this amendment. It is my hope that when my colleagues consider my explanation that they may consider making additional changes to this very important amendment as the process moves forward.

Let me start by commending Senators GREGG, SCHUMER, MCCAIN, and KENNEDY for their work in developing this provision which I believe is a significant improvement on legislation that was adopted by the Senate last Congress, S. 812.

The Gregg-Schumer amendment relates to a complex and often confusing law I coauthored with my friend, Representative HENRY WAXMAN of California in 1984 the Drug Price Competition and Patent Term Restoration Act.

I voted against a hearing of the Senate Judiciary Committee in May of 2001 that helped document some abuses that were occurring in the law. Since our last hearing on this issue, much has happened.

Both the Federal Trade Commission and the Food and Drug Administration played a constructive role in attempting to end several mechanisms by which some research-based and generic... drug firms were attempting to game the system put in place by the 1984 and subsequent court decisions to avoid competition in the marketplace.

The FTC succeeded in achieving several widely-publicized consent decrees with a variety of offending firms under the existing antitrust statutes.

In addition, the FTC conducted an exhaustive survey and study of how certain provisions of the 1984 Waxman-Hatch Act affected competition in the pharmaceutical industry.

The FTC study contained two major recommendations. The first addressed the use of the statutory 30-month stay granted by the 1984 law in situations where patents are challenged by generic competitors. The FTC recommended that the law:

- Permit only one automatic 30-month stay per drug product per ANDA to resolve patent infringement disputes over patent listed... prior to the filing date of the generic applicant's ANDA.

This was precisely the position that I suggested in testimony before the HELP Committee on May 8, 2002 and argued during the Senate debate on the Edwards-Collins substitute amendment to the McCain-Schumer legislation.

I would note that the 30-month stay provision in the McCain-Schumer bill last year, S. 812, and in the Edwards-Collins substitute, were both at variance with this central recommendation of the FTC report.

The second major FTC recommendation responds to those situations in which generic firms were entering into agreements not to impede generic competition. The FTC recommended that Congress:

Pass legislation to require brand-name and first generic companies applicants to provide copies of certain agreements to the Federal Trade Commission. Senator LEAHY, working very closely with the FTC, developed legislation, the Drug Competition Act, S. 946, that squarely addressed this second recommendation.

During the 107th Congress, I worked with Senator LEAHY on refining that bill. I supported it in committee, and worked with him to pass it through the Senate late last year. I supported his efforts to have it attached to the Medicare vehicle earlier this week. I expect that the 108th Congress will adopt this measure.

The FTC study served an important purpose of cataloging the facts surrounding certain abuses of the 1984 act. In formulating public policy, the facts should matter and a legislative or regulatory response should be tailored to fit the problem.

Unfortunately, the timing of the issuance of FTC study did not allow the report to get the attention it deserved by the Senate. The FTC report was published only one day before the Senate adopted S. 812, the Greater Access to Affordable Pharmaceuticals Act of 2003, last July 31st.

The GAAP Act, developed by Senators MCCAIN and SCHUMER, was substantially altered by the Edwards-Collins substitute, with active involvement of Senator KENNEDY.

While there is no question my colleagues were motivated by their goal of making drugs more affordable for seniors, I want to note the fact that it garnered 78 votes in the Senate, there were significant shortcomings in the bill.

Let me briefly review a few of the most troublesome provisions of the Edwards-Collins substitute to S. 812. The proposed legislation would have created for the first time a private right of action in the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. The last thing the already overburdened FDA staff needs is a bunch of trial lawyers bringing the agency to a screeching halt by second-guessing its judgment calls.

The bill that passed last year would have resulted in the waiver of patent rights apparently against even third parties—if pioneer drug firms did not file its patents with the FDA and, if challenged by a generic drug applicant, pursue expensive litigation within tight time frames.

In sharp contrast to the FTC recommendation, S. 812 basically made any patents listed with the FDA after a month from the date the pioneer drug application was approved by the FDA ineligible for the 30-month stay. In my view, this is at least four years earlier than what I and the FTC recommended—freezing the Orange Book to patents listed before a generic drug application was filed.

The American Intellectual Property Law Association opposed S. 812. The patent-dependent biotech industry worked against the bill. The Patent and Trademark Office found that "S. 812 would forfeit unnecessarily the core right of patent holders—the right to exclude others from practicing the inventions for the entire patent term. After years of research and development and significant investment, the patent right is extinguished for the mere failure to satisfy an administrative task or respond in a timely manner."

Here is what the July 18, 2002 Statement of Administration Policy said about the Edwards-Collins-McCain-Schumer legislation:

- The Administration opposes S. 812 in its current form because it will not provide lower drug prices. S. 812 would unnecessarily encourage litigation around the initial approval of drugs and duplicate the process of filing and protecting patents on new drugs. The resulting higher costs and delays in making new drugs available will reduce access to new breakthrough drugs. Moreover, the new cause of action is not necessary to address patent process abuses.

Clearly, the bill would benefit from consideration by the Senate experts on Hatch-Waxman law on the Judiciary Committee, the proper committee of jurisdiction for this bill.

While S. 812 passed by a very wide margin, it was certainly not without its criticisms.

Comes now S. 1225. This bill emerged from the HELP Committee. Once again, it is entitled the Greater Access to Affordable Pharmaceuticals Act. Once again, it is cosponsored by Senators MCCAIN, SCHUMER, and KENNEDY.

Due in large part to the leadership of Chairman GREGG and Majority Leader Frist for their work in developing the differences of last year's legislation.

While I have significant concerns over certain aspects of S. 1225 as adopted in its amended form on June 19, 2003, I must acknowledge Chairman GREGG and Majority Leader Frist for their recent work in working with the cosponsors of last year's bill to make substantial improvements in the legislation.

Likewise, I commend Senators SCHUMER, MCCAIN and KENNEDY for abandoning many of the troublesome features of a bill that garnered 78 votes last Congress.

I can only believe that the factual presentation, analysis, and recommendations contained in the FTC report and subsequent public notice and comment process surrounding the recently issued FDA final rule on patent listings and the application of the statutory 30-month stay both played a constructive role in helping to form the basis of the Gregg-Schumer legislation.

It is appropriate to recognize the efforts of the Bush administration for tackling the problem of multiple, successive 30-month stays through rulemaking. Secretary Thompson, Commissioner McClellan, and FDA Chief Counsel Dan Troy operated for their roles in so promptly completing a rulemaking regarding patent listing that generally embraced the one-and-only-one 30-month stay policy recommended in the FTC Report. Chairman Muris and the FTC staff deserve credit for a report that helped shape a more carefully targeted policy response.

There can be no doubt that this year's vehicle, S. 1225, is superior to S. 812. This new Gregg-Schumer bill, S. 1225, embraces exactly the one-and-only-one 30-month stay policy that I suggested to the HELP Committee last May, argued for on the floor last July, and was ultimately recommended by the FTC.

The Gregg-Schumer legislation, S. 1225 in the form adopted by the Senate, also addresses some problems that the FDA rule perhaps did not resolve satisfactorily. As FDA Chief Counsel Dan Troy stated at the June 17th Judiciary Committee hearing:

We tried as best we could to cut down on all opportunities for gaming. We did not succeed in cutting down all opportunities for gaming, because nothing, no legislation is so tight. The rule could not cut down all opportunities for gaming, because there are unforeseen circumstances and unintended consequences.

I think Mr. Troy is correct about the nature of the inherent limitations of regulatory and legislative solutions for complex problems where there are powerful incentives to game the system to gain financial advantage. We need to keep this in mind as we analyze further the amendment the Senate adopted last week.

As I stated at the June 17th hearing, it was unfortunate that the PTO was unable to present a witness. Admittedly, this was due in large part to short notice. I have asked PTO for its formal comments on the Gregg-Schumer amendment. I would also be interested in the PTO’s comments on whatever language the House adopts. We would also be wise to hear from the Office of the United States Trade Representative if USTR finds that the legislation raises any concerns for international trade and intellectual property under the TRIPS provisions.

It is my understanding that FDA and FTC staff provided a great deal of what is known as “technical assistance” on the Gregg-Schumer amendment, a good deal of it between the markup on June 11th and the time the amendment was offered on June 19th. I am not aware whether FTC or PTO were consulted. FDA, PTO and USTR should understand that this is a fast moving train, so they should be prepared to give us any comments they may have in short order. President Bush and the congressional leaders should realize it plain that they expect the conference report on the Medicare bill to be completed as soon as possible.

One special area of concern to me as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee is that one provision of the amendment overwhelmingly adopted by the Senate raises significant issues with respect to civil justice policy, including a constitutional concern. Specifically, proposed section 271(e)(5) of title 35, would make the failure of a patentee to file a patent infringement action within a specified time frame sufficient to establish “an actual controversy” for the purpose of establishing subject matter jurisdiction for a declaratory judgment action by a generic drug firm challenging a patent.

Whether the Congress can, or should, by statute grant subject matter jurisdiction for a declaratory judgment action by a generic drug firm challenging a patent.

I have requested the Department of Justice for its formal views on this language. At this point, I think it premature to embrace this language. It is my understanding that the bill that the House will take up does not contain the controversial case or controversy provision. The committee has prepared to work with the sponsors of the amendment, DOJ and others on this important issue.

Yet another improvement of S. 1225 over the Senate last year relates to the manner in which the 180-day rule is addressed. In short, I am pleased that the policy embraced last year, the rolling exclusivity policy, was replaced in favor of a “use it or lose it” approach. I have long stated a preference for the consumer friendlier “use it or lose it” rule over the too open-ended rolling exclusivity.

The Waxman-Hatch law provides an incentive for generic firms to challenge patents. To encourage generic competition, the 1984 law provided 180 days of marketing exclusivity in situations where a generic drug firm could show the pioneer’s patents were invalid or not infringed. For many years the General Accounting Office concluded that this valuable 180-day period of exclusive marketing would be granted to the first generic firm to successfully invalidate or invent around the pioneer’s patents.

FDA regulations issued in 1994 required that the first generic applicant had to defend successfully against a patent claim made by a brand name company to receive the 180-day exclusivity. In a 1998 D.C. Circuit case, Mova v. Shalala, the court construed the plain language of the statute to strike down the successful defense requirement. As a result FDA now makes 180-day exclusivity decisions by applying the literal words of the statute. This results in a system that rewards first filers, not necessarily successful challengers.

The Gregg-Schumer amendment retains the preference for first filers. I believe that re-instating the successful defense requirement may prove preferable than intentionally sanctioning a first filer regime.

Frankly, I am uncertain of the policy justification for S. 1225’s retention of granting the 180-day reward to the first filer rather than the first successful defendant. I believe that there is a lot to be said for giving the reward to the actual winner in court or the first not to be sued, not just the first one to enter the Parklawn Building with an application.

The amendment places a high premium on being a first filer. At our hearing last week, FTC Chairman Muris characterized the rush to be a first filer as “the shantytown problem” among the generic firm. I stand by my determination that right now, there are sometimes limousines, sometimes vans, sometimes cars, sometimes even tents in the Metro North parking lot that come days, weeks, and in some cases even months in advance of a particular date. Why we should reward someone because they camp out longer in the parking lot is a good question?

I am concerned that the language that passed the Senate could allow some unintended and, in fact, counterproductive, results. Changes in current law with respect to the court decision and commercial marketing triggering mechanisms for the 180-day exclusivity provision demand careful attention and analysis. The amendment does not appear to adopt all the FTC recommendations in this area.

Other questions should be raised. What if, for example, the generic applicant that successfully challenges the validity of the patent is not also a first filer? Why should such a non-first filer but successful invalidity challenger not be granted the 180 days exclusivity? Stated another way, why should the first filer—or Muris’ “shantytown” situation, a whole group of first-day, exclusivity-sharing, first-filers, gain while the actual successful challenger waits out the 180-days? I am not sure that such an outcome is fair or even rational. Moreover, such a system may not result in the most efficient or aggressive pursuit of patent challenges.

One thing is for sure: You can expect a lot more first filers to appear at the door of the FDA building on the first day that successful drugs become eligible for patent challenges. As I pointed out at the Judiciary Committee hearing, some have already suggested that the first to file system might result in an increase in willful infringement cases. In fact, there was a decision last month by a Federal court in Chicago that ruled against a generic firm which filed a generic drug challenge before obtaining the opinion of outside counsel. The court was not non-infringement or invalidity.

Another type of potential problem could arise, and frankly I am not certain how it can be avoided, if a non-first filing generic drug challenger wins a court decision on grounds of non-infringement. Unless I am wrong in my understanding of the Gregg-Schumer amendment, a generic challenger that prevailed on a non-infringement theory would have to wait for the 180-day period to elapse before the non-infringing firm could enter the market. Such an outcome only hurts consumers by needlessly delaying introduction of the non-infringing generic product for long days.

Unlike a determination of patent invalidity, a finding of non-infringement does not accrue to third parties. It is important to understand that there are two ways for a generic firm patent challenger to be awarded the 180-day exclusivity under the Gregg-Schumer amendment. The first generic challenger can show that the pioneer’s patent is invalid. And second, the generic challenger can demonstrate that its product will not infringe a pioneer's patent.

These are two very different theories. Al Engelberg, a highly successful and highly respected attorney engaged by generic drug firms to attack pioneer patents, writes the following observation about the difference between invalidity and non-infringement challenges:

In cases involving an assertion of non-infringement, an adjudication in favor of one challenge may leave a direct benefit to any other challenger and does not lead to multisource competition. Each case involving non-infringement is decided on the specific facts related to that challenger's product and provides no direct benefit to any other challenger. In contrast, a judgment of patent invalidity or enforceability creates an estoppel against any subsequent attempt to enforce the patent against any party. The drafters of the 180-day exclusivity provision failed to consider this important distinction.

As one of the drafters of the 1984 law, I must point out that the 180-day exclusivity provision was not intended to solve this problem. It is not clear, however, that S. 1225 has addressed this issue in a satisfactory fashion. The language adopted in the Gregg-Schumer amendment does not appear to solve the problem created by the 1998 Mova decision that effectively eliminated the successful defense requirement.

Frankly, I think we need further thought on how best to address the implications of the distinction between invalidity and non-infringement claims in the context of multisource competition and 180-day exclusivity awards. Specifically, I question the appropriateness of continuing to group together patent invalidity and patent non-infringement challenges, particularly in light of the fact that the latter may in practice extend longer than the purported 180-day award. From what I know now, there are strong arguments to prefer the reinstatement of the supposed 180-day award. From what I know now, there are strong arguments to prefer the reinstatement of the supposed 180-day award.

Let me close by once again commending Senators Gregg, Schumer, McCain, and Kennedy for all their hard work in reaching the compromise amendment that was so overwhelming and successfully adopted by the Senate. The Gregg-Schumer amendment represents significant improvement over the legislation passed by the Senate last year. I am pleased that the amendment adopts the stand-alone 30-month stay policy that I, and the FTC, advocated last year.

I am also pleased that the Senate has adopted Senator Leahy's Drug Competition Act, which also addressed a major recommendation of the FTC. I have worked with Senator Leahy to perfect and pass this measure.

As a co-author of the 1984 Drug Price Competition and Patent Term Restoration Act, I support efforts to bring affordable and innovative drugs to the American people. While I support the spirit and much of the letter of the Gregg-Schumer amendment, for the reasons I have set forth, I was unable to fully support this measure at this time.

Mr. BUNNING. Mr. President, during consideration of S. 1, an amendment was introduced by Senators Santorum and Schumer dealing with payments to the Medicare+Choice program. This amendment provided payments to the M+C plans over the next two years, to make sure they are still viable when the Medicare Advantage program takes effect in 2006.

I regret this amendment was withdrawn because of the lack of funding in the Senate bill, but it is still an important issue I would like to lend my support to.

The Medicare+Choice program already provides a good prescription drug benefit to many seniors across the country, and gives these seniors another option to the Medicare fee-for-service program.

Unfortunately, many Medicare+Choice plans are pulling out of the program because their reimbursement levels are too low. This is leaving many seniors scrambling for a new Medicare+Choice plan or having to go back into fee-for-service Medicare which doesn't offer them the same type of hard M+C plan.

In fact, it seems like every year, more and more Medicare+Choice plans leave the market.

I am concerned if we do not provide these plans with enough funding over the next two years while the MedicareAdvantage program is being implemented, these M+C plans will continue to leave the program and more seniors will be left in the lurch.

This isn't fair to our seniors.

I had hoped we could provide some additional funding for the Medicare+Choice plans over the next 2 years so the plans currently in the program will remain and we might actually attract new plans to other areas that have been left out.

In Kentucky, we have a limited number of Medicare+Choice plans. In fact, only seniors in certain counties in Northern Kentucky and around Louisville have access to these plans. With higher payments to Medicare+Choice plans, we might actually get some more plans to come into our state and cover more counties.

We shouldn't give up on the Medicare+Choice plans, or the seniors who enroll in them. I think the solution to this issue is to resolve the conference with the House, and I commend Senators Santorum and Schumer for bringing this issue before the Senate.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I am pleased that late last night the Senate again supported lowering drug prices and maintaining a fair generic drug approval process by adding the Drug Competition Act of the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003. S. Lac, November, the Drug Competition Act of 2003 that I introduced in the Senate by unanimous consent. On Monday, Senator Grassley and I, along with Senators Cantwell, Durbin, Feingold, Koil, and Schumer, offered our bill as an amendment to the larger Medicare bill. I hope that in this Congress it is actually enacted into law as part of the larger effort to improve the health care of millions of Americans. Prescription drug prices are rapidly increasing, and this unprecedented collaboration concerns many Americans, especially senior citizens and families. Generic drug prices can be as much as 80 percent lower than the comparable brand-name medications.

While the Drug Competition Act is small in terms of length, it is large in terms of impact. It will ensure that law enforcement agencies can take quick and decisive action against companies that are driving up the prices by more than the prevailing under good sense. It gives the Federal Trade Commission and the Justice Department access to information about secret deals between drug companies that keep generic drugs off the market. This is a practice that hurts American families, particularly senior citizens, by denying them access to low-cost generic drugs, and further inflating medical costs.

Last July, the Federal Trade Commission released a comprehensive report on barriers to the entry of generic drugs into the pharmaceutical marketplace. The FTC had two recommendations to improve the current situation and to close the loopholes in the law that allow drug manufacturers to manipulate the timing of generics Introduction to the market. One of those recommendations was simply to enact our bill, as the most effective solution to the problem of “sweetheart” deals between brand name and generic drug manufacturers that keep generic drugs off the market, thus depriving consumers of the benefits of quality drugs at lower prices. Indeed, at a hearing just yesterday in the Judiciary Committee, Chairman Timothy Muris of the FTC praised the Drug Competition Act in his testimony and urged its passage. In short, this bill enjoys the unqualified endorsement of the current FTC, which follows on the support by the Clinton administration's FTC during the initial stages of our formulation of this bill. We can all have every confidence in the commonsense approach that our bill takes to ensuring that our law enforcement agencies have the information they need to take quick action, if necessary, to protect consumers from drug companies that abuse the law.

Under current law, the first generic manufacturer that gets permission to sell a generic drug before the patent on the brand-name drug expires, enjoys protection from competition for 180 days—a head start on other generic companies. That was a good idea, but the unfortunate loophole exploited by a few is that secret deals can be made between a company that has already gotten approval to market a drug before it's generic competitor, to delay the generic's entry for 180 days. It provides the generic manufacturer with a windfall of 180 days to block other generic drugs from entering the market, while at the same time, getting paid by the brand-name manufacturer not to sell the generic drug.

Our legislation closes this loophole for those who want to cheat the public but keeps the system the same for companies engaged in true competition. It importantly tells Congress not to overreact and throw out the good with the bad. Most generic companies want to take advantage of this 180-day provision and deliver quality generic drugs at much lower cost for consumers. We should not eliminate the incentives. Instead, we should let the FTC and Justice look at every deal that could lead to abuse, so that only the deals that are consistent with the intent of that law will be allowed to stand. The Drug Competition Act accomplishes precisely that goal, and helps ensure effective and timely access to generic pharmaceuticals that can lower the cost of prescription drugs for seniors, for families, and for all of us.

The effects of this amendment will only benefit the effort to bring quality health care at lower costs to more of our citizens. The Drug Competition Act enjoyed the unqualified support of the Senate last year, and I am pleased that my colleagues and I have been consistent in our support. The legislation is a part of any final agreement with the House on the larger Medicare prescription drug bill.

At the request of Mr. DASCHLE, the following statement was ordered to be printed in the Record:

Mr. KERRY. Mr. President, I wish to express my enthusiastic support for the amendment Senators SCHUMER and SANTORUM offered to increase funding for the Medicare+Choice Program in 2004. This amendment addresses a critically important issue that has far-reaching implications affecting the health care benefits of millions of low-income and minority seniors. I am pleased to be a cosponsor of this amendment to ensure that this urgently needed funding increase is included in the Medicare bill.

I believe we must take bold action to address the fact that Congress has not provided adequate funding for the Medicare+Choice Program since 1998. These increases are inadequate at a time when health care costs are rising by 8 to 10 percent annually. This level of inadequate funding is unfair to the 170,000 Medicare beneficiaries in Massachusetts who have selected Medicare+Choice plans. In addition, I am a strong supporter of the wonderful health plans we have in Massachusetts—Harvard, Tufts, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, and Fallon Community Health Plan. We must step up to the plate to help these plans—nonprofit plans in my State—in their time of need.

The Schumer-Santorum-Kerry amendment takes important steps to add funding for Medicare+Choice. Providing funding now to stabilize existing private health plan options for Medicare beneficiaries, we can help ensure that the proposed Medicare Advantage Program will be successful in the future. Our amendment lays the groundwork for success. It is important to provide beneficiaries with high-quality health care choices.

As the Senate continues to debate changes in Medicare, it is important for us to remember that, for more than 4.5 million Medicare beneficiaries across America, Medicare+Choice is an essential program that provides high-quality, comprehensive, affordable coverage that is not always available, or affordable under the Medicare fee-for-service program. In particular, seniors and disabled Americans have voluntarily chosen to receive their health coverage through Medicare HMOs and other private sector plans because they recognize the value they offer.

Seniors in Massachusetts have come to rely on the high-quality health care they receive through their Medicare+Choice plans. Prescription drugs coverage, disease management services, physician exams, vision benefits, and the like are examples of the additional benefits that are routinely offered by their Medicare+Choice plans.

These additional benefits are valued by all seniors, but they are particularly important to low-income seniors who cannot afford other Medicare supplementary plans that might provide them such benefits but at a greater cost.

As the Medicare debate moves forward, it is important for Congress to remember that Medicare+Choice serves as a vital safety net for many of our Nation’s most vulnerable seniors. For millions of beneficiaries who cannot afford to purchase a Medicare policy, Medicare+Choice is their only hope for obtaining comprehensive health coverage.

The Schumer-Santorum-Kerry amendment focuses on protecting this important option for seniors who have nowhere else to turn for quality health care they need. I urge my colleagues to support the additional funding that is urgently needed to strengthen the Medicare+Choice Program for seniors. This should be among our highest priorities in this year’s Medicare debate.

Mr. CARPER. Mr. President, when I ran for the U.S. Senate, I promised Delawareans that I would work in a bipartisan fashion to provide a Medicare prescription drug benefit for our Nation’s seniors. I pledged that I would seek consensus around what is right with competing Republican and Democratic plans. Along with my Demospending in the gap. To see how this works, we need to understand how the coverage gap works. Once seniors reach $4,500 in total drug costs, they fall into the coverage gap. They then have to spend a certain amount of their own money. Their Medicare bill report issued by the Finance Committee is $1,300—before their coverage resumes, or they get out of the coverage gap.

The effect of not allowing seniors to count payments made by their retiree health plans toward this out-of-pocket requirement is to ensure that seniors will remain in the gap longer and fewer will get out of it. This allows the level of spending at which the gap ends to be set at a lower level than would otherwise be possible for the same budgetary cost. The problem with this, however, is that it also provides an unintended incentive for employers to drop or scale back their retiree drug coverage.

The majority’s proposal for prescription drug plans, like our Delaware Pharmacy Assistance Program, count toward the out-of-pocket requirement, which should encourage States to ‘stay in the game.’ Employers, that effectively bars health plans from wrapping their coverage around Medicare in the way that would be most beneficial for their retirees, which would be by filing Medicare’s coverage gap.

In the course of our consideration of this legislation here on the floor of the Senate, I have urged my colleagues to address these shortcomings in the bill, even if that means reconsidering the major provisions of the plan and the other-source allocation for this program. I supported an amendment by Senator BOXER to eliminate the gap in coverage. And I cosponsored an amendment offered by Senator ROCKEFELLER to allow employer-provided coverage to wrap around the Medicare benefit and thus to eliminate the incentive for employers to drop coverage for their retirees.

The majority has made clear, however, that they are unwilling to reorder their priorities or to find the possibility of finding the necessary resources elsewhere in the budget to fix what they acknowledge are shortcomings in this legislation. Thus, the rest of us are left to choose between a prescription drug benefit that provides some, but not all, of the assistance that seniors deserve, or no prescription drug benefit at all.

Congress has been debating this issue for more than a decade. In many ways, it has been debating the issue since Medicare was first created back in 1965. I ran for the Senate in part because I was frustrated at the inability or unwillingness of the parties in Washington to come together to do what they could to solve problems and get things done. I am unwilling to walk away from the table this year with nothing for Delaware’s seniors. They have waited too long and the need is too great.

In light of the budgetary priorities of the Republican majority, I am also very concerned about our future prospects. Should we let the present opportunity pass us by? I am concerned that if we do not act to get started with prescription drug coverage this year, even the limited resources that now remain may get used up by other purposes—most likely another round of top-heavy, upper bracket tax cuts. This is a first step. It is a downpayment. Just as I pledged when I ran for the Senate to work in a bipartisan fashion to get results, I pledge to continue to work to build on these results. I continue to believe that we should provide our seniors with quality coverage without gaps or caps. I will work to ensure that filling the gap of coverage that exists in the present bill is given greater priority in future budgets than it was in this year’s Republican budget. I also believe that it is a mistake to shun rather than welcome employer efforts to wrap around the new Medicare benefit, and I will work to rectify that mistake as we move toward implementation of this program over the next few years.

Mr. President, it is often said that politics is the art of the possible. The bounds of the possible are a bit narrower now than they need to be, thanks to our Republican friends. But, as the ranking member of the Budget Committee has said, this may be the best bill that could be written under the constraints of the Republican budget.

For that reason, I commend the authors of this legislation—Chairman GRASSLEY and Senator BAUCUS, among others—for their work. I urge my colleagues to support this compromise as an important, if limited, first step toward addressing what clearly is a pressing priority, not just for our elderly population, but for our Nation as a whole.

Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, as we debate the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003, I would like to take a few minutes today to speak in support of the overall bill, but I would also like to highlight several provisions in the bill that are of particular importance to me and my State of Vermont.

Over the last several days, we have focused much of our discussion on the aspects of this bill related to prescription drugs and the Medicare Advantage Program. These are clearly among the most important provisions of this bill and these issues warrant the attention and debate they are receiving. I especially appreciate the close relationship this bill has to last year’s bipartisan effort—which effectively is the parent of the current bill. Last year, my friends—Senators GRASSLEY, SNOWE, HATCH, and BREAUX—and I set out to design a bill that provided a prescription drug benefit along with other improvements, what we called “enhancements,” to the basic operation of the Medicare Program. That was a very good legislation—something all of its original cosponsors were very proud to work on together.

This year, I am pleased to say that the Grassley-Baucus bill is even better than our effort from last year, and I commend Chairman GRASSLEY and Ranking Member BAUCUS for their leadership and initiative in bringing it to the Senate floor.

One of the most important reasons that the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act is stronger than the bipartisan plan from last year is that it includes that start in 2006 that begin to resolve longstanding inequities in payments to rural doctors, hospitals, and other providers. This problem can be stated simply. Rural health care providers are paid less than providers in more densely populated areas for the same exact services. Earlier this year, I joined with my colleagues, Senators HATCH, GRASSLEY, LINCOLN, and BINGAMAN, in introducing the legislation that addressed geographic inequities in Medicare reimbursement formulas.

As many of our colleagues are aware, Senator GRASSLEY fought to include rural provisions to wrap existing prescription drug benefit along with other improvements in the tax bill that was signed by the President. And although I strongly disagreed with enacting further tax cuts, I was doubly disappointed to see the rural health provisions stripped out in the conference with the House. These unfair geographic differences in reimbursement rates have gone on far too long, and I am especially pleased to see reimbursement issues for rural providers getting the attention they deserve—issues that the committee has long pressured the President to my friend from Iowa pledging his support for rural health relief as part of the effort we have underway. I am, therefore, very pleased to see that these provisions are included in the chairman’s mark and are now part of this bill.

I am also glad that Chairman GRASSLEY and Ranking Member BAUCUS have worked with me to address another important issue: The small access hospitals provide care in the most remote regions of my State of Vermont and all other rural States. These hospitals are small, yet serve as critical resources to their communities. The managers have agreed to include a provision in their amendment that will make a technical correction to current law, allowing hospitals like the Mt. Ascutney Hospital in Windsor, VT, to expand access to psychiatric and rehabilitative services to the most vulnerable citizens in that community.

I would also like to speak today in support of a provision in this bill that establishes Medicare demonstration programs to improve health care quality—pleased that Senators FRIST, BEHRING, and GREGG joined me in introducing S. 1148, the Medicare Quality Improvement Act. I want to thank Chairman
Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, over the last 2 weeks the Senate has debated the most significant changes to the Medicare Program since it was created in 1965. Today, we passed this legislation by a 76 to 21 vote, and I would like to take a few minutes to explain why I supported this bill.

This bill will, for the first time, provide the option of modest prescription drug coverage for nearly 39 million Medicare beneficiaries, including about 103,000 beneficiaries in North Dakota. It is also intended to give Medicare beneficiaries more choices of health plans. And it takes significant steps toward equalizing the Medicare payments that rural health care providers receive, compared to their urban counterparts.

There is no question that, if Medicare were being created today, it would include prescription drug coverage. Prescription medicines are a vital part of modern medicine. Last year alone, pharmaceutical companies introduced 26 new prescription medicines into the marketplace. But these advancements in medicine mean little if Americans cannot afford to access them. That is especially true for senior citizens who have reached their declining income years.

For years now, Congress has been debating proposals to add a prescription drug benefit to Medicare. Unfortunately, however, in past years we have not been able to reach an agreement on just how to do this. With each passing year, older Americans continue to struggle to pay for their medicine. In North Dakota, about 48,000 Medicare beneficiaries have no prescription drug coverage, and many more have limited drug coverage. I hear from North Dakota seniors regularly who tell me that they have to choose between taking the medicines they need and the food on their table.

These older North Dakotans say that they want and need Medicare drug coverage, and they want it now. If Congress doesn't enact legislation this year, chances are that several more years will go by before there is another serious opportunity to consider this issue. In other words, we could pass the legislation before the Senate today or we could do nothing for yet another year. In my judgment, doing nothing is not an option.

The prescription drug benefit in this bill is not as helpful to seniors as I would like or as generous as I think Medicare beneficiaries deserve—but it is a start.

Frankly, I think our budget priorities have been wrong. If I had my way, Congress would have reduced the size of the tax cuts for the very wealthy and instead set aside more money for improving and modernizing Medicare. During the Senate's debate earlier this year on the budget, I offered an amendment to set aside a total of $620 billion over the next 10 years for a Medicare prescription drug benefit. This is the amount of funding I felt was needed to provide a more generous and reliable benefit. Unfortunately, the majority in the Senate rejected my amendment, so we are limited to a package of just $400 billion over 10 years. When you consider that Medicare beneficiaries are now being asked to spend on prescription drugs over the next 10 years, it is impossible to develop a robust benefit within the $400 billion budget constraint, in my judgment.

The benefit provided for in this legislation is better than that which President Bush proposed in proposed several key respects. Most importantly, this bill will not force seniors to leave the traditional Medicare Program—and the doctors they depend on—in order to get the prescription drug coverage they also need. I could not support a bill that coerces seniors out of the traditional Medicare Program that virtually all of North Dakota's Medicare beneficiaries rely on.

In addition, this bill provides extra assistance above the basic drug benefit for those older or disabled Medicare beneficiaries who have low incomes or very high drug expenses. Medicare beneficiaries with incomes below about $14,400 for individuals and $19,400 for couples—about 40 percent of North Dakota's beneficiaries—would qualify for extra assistance. And those with the highest drug costs—totaling more than about $5,800—would qualify for catastrophic drug coverage. About 7 percent of North Dakota Medicare beneficiaries would qualify for this type of assistance.

Despite these improvements over the President's proposal, there are other concerns that I worked to address during the Senate's debate. In some instances, we were able to make changes to address these concerns, and in other cases, those efforts were rejected. In those instances where concerns still exist, I intend to continue working to fix them in conference with the House of Representatives.

For instance, as I have already mentioned, I am concerned that this coverage is not as generous as it should be on the basic benefit. Unfortunately, the majority in the Senate rejected my amendment, so we are limited to a package of just $400 billion over 10 years.
don’t have to pay premiums for the periods when they aren’t receiving coverage. Regrettably, however, those efforts were rejected.

I am also concerned that rural Medicare beneficiaries may not receive a benefit that is as stable or as generous as other beneficiaries receive. This bill envisions that seniors will basically have two options for receiving drug coverage. First, this bill creates a new Medicare Advantage Program through which beneficiaries could choose to get their drug coverage, as well as the rest of their medical care, through an HMO or a PPO. Frankly, however, I am very skeptical that HMOs or PPOs will want to serve rural areas, and even if they do, I don’t think most North Dakota beneficiaries will want to leave the traditional Medicare Program.

Those seniors who want to remain in the traditional Medicare Program will be able to do so and get their prescription drug coverage through private “drug-only” Medicare plans. Budget experts estimate that Medicare beneficiaries who sign up for these drug-only plans will pay an average monthly premium of about $35. However, this is only an estimate, and the actual premium that a beneficiary could pay could vary substantially from area to area. That is already the case in the current Medicare HMO program—for instance, a Medicare HMO with drug coverage currently charges $99 per month in Connecticut and only 62 cents in Canada, even though it is the same FDA-approved prescription drug. This inequity in Medicare reimbursement stops unless they already have cardiovascular disease. That makes no sense, and I am glad the Senate has taken steps to provide this coverage.

I am also pleased that this bill improves Medicare’s coverage of preventive services, especially by including a provision that I authored to provide for a cholesterol screening benefit for Medicare beneficiaries. I have felt for a long time that Medicare needs to do a better job of preventing disease, rather than just paying to treat it. In the case of cholesterol screening in particular, high cholesterol is one of the major, changeable risk factors for heart attacks, stroke and other cardiovascular diseases. Yet when Americans turn 65 and enter the Medicare Program, their coverage for cholesterol screening stops unless they already have cardiovascular disease. That makes no sense, and I am glad the Senate has taken steps to provide this benefit.

Finally, I am very happy that this bill includes a range of provisions that will make Medicare reimbursement more fair and equitable for our rural hospitals, physicians, and other health care providers. It is not right that Medicare has historically reimbursed urban health care providers at a much higher rate than their urban counterparts. This inequity in Medicare reimbursement has very real consequences for hospitals and clinics in rural States like ours. They have to reduce services, have greater difficulty recruiting staff, are less able to make capital improvements, struggle to give their patients access to the latest innovations in medical care, and in some instances, they even have to close.

I have been fighting for a long time to correct this inequity. In fact, some of the provisions in this bill are similar to legislation that I introduced in the Senate earlier this year, and I am glad they have been included in this bill. I know there will be some who feel that this bill should have been rejected by the Senate because it relies too heavily on private plans and others believe it does not put enough emphasis on enrolling seniors in private plans. Others will feel that the Medicare benefit is not generous enough, and some feel its coverage is too liberal. I agree that this legislation isn’t perfect—far from it, in fact. In the coming months and years, I will continue working to improve it. But it is a start in the right direction, and that is why I have supported it.

The House of Representatives is also expected to pass this version of Medicare reform this week. The House and the Senate will now need to have a conference committee to work out the differences between the two bills. I have some serious concerns about the House-passed bill. I hope these concerns and the concerns that I have with the Senate bill can be resolved in the final bill, so that we can send a bill to the President for his signature this year.

Mr. SARBANES. Mr. President, I rise today to speak on S. 1, the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003. I applaud my colleagues in working toward enactment of legislation to provide a prescription drug benefit under Medicare. However, I am deeply concerned that the bill before us today would not ensure an affordable, guaranteed benefit that would cover seniors’ outpatient prescription drug expenses.

Under this legislation, the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services would temporarily issue prescription drug discount cards for seniors until the drug benefit begins in 2006. At that time, all Medicare beneficiaries would receive a standard prescription drug benefit whether they remained in traditional fee-for-service or in a private plan. For a $275 deductible and an estimated $35 per month, 50 percent of a beneficiary’s drug costs would be covered up to $4,500. A beneficiary would receive no coverage for drug costs between $4,501 and $5,800, though they are still responsible for paying the monthly premium during this coverage gap. Furthermore, any assistance by employer-sponsored plans or third parties on behalf of the beneficiary does not count toward the out-of-pocket costs. After drug expenses reach $5,800, the plan would cover 90% of drug expenses.

The bill creates a new Medicare Advantage program, which would replace Medicare+Choice, and create a new agency, the Center for Medicare Choices, CMC, with authority parallel to the existing Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. The CMC would administer the Medicare Advantage program and the prescription drug plans. The drug plans would be administered through private plans, but when no private plans exist, the government would provide a fallback plan for seniors in fee-for-service. However, if a new private plan decides to enter an area, beneficiaries would again be forced to receive their coverage through that plan.

It is not an easy issue, and it is confusing. It is one hundred Senators and their staffs found it difficult to work through this bill and understand exactly how the benefit would work. Senators who don’t sign up as soon as they are eligible are subject to a penalty.

I want to highlight one amendment that would have provided Medicare beneficiaries with a substantial, reliable and straight-forward prescription drug benefit. I cosponsored and voted for this amendment offered by my colleague from Illinois, Senator DURBIN. His alternative would have provided a Medicare-delivered drug benefit that allows the Secretary of HHS to employ negotiating strategies used by the VA and other government entities to bring down drug prices. Under Senator DURBIN’s amendment, seniors who don’t deduct, pay only 30 percent of costs until reaching the catastrophic limit, and face no coverage gap. In addition, employer contributions would count toward out-of-pocket limits so there would be much less risk of employers dropping retiree coverage. This was the proposal we should be working from today, but unfortunately the Durbin alternative was defeated by a vote of 56 to 39.

Those opposed to providing a richer benefit argue we don’t have the money. The selective amnesia of these so-called fiscal conservatives is baffling. Not too long ago, this body passed a tax cut that primarily benefited the wealthiest Americans. Where was their sense of fiscal responsibility then? As my colleagues Senators DURBIN and HARKIN pointed out yesterday, this is about priorities. I’m sure others have raised the very good point that we can risk greater budget deficits to give huge tax cuts to Americans who are already prospering, but we cannot provide the necessary resources for millions of Medicare beneficiaries to get an affordable, reliable drug benefit that they can understand?

I have long been a strong supporter of providing older Americans and disabled individuals who rely on Medicare an affordable, comprehensive, reliable and voluntary prescription drug benefit. However, I want to ensure we do so in a way that does not worsen the situation in which many seniors find themselves as they face rapidly rising drug costs. As we consider proposals to expand our Nation’s major entitlement programs, it is appropriate to follow a guiding principle in the practice of medicine—do no harm. Our seniors deserve a drug benefit that is a real improvement, not a complex experiment that may cause more problems than it’s worth. We must not enact a law intended to help that might eventually harm millions. The American people deserve better.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, for over 35 years, Medicare has been a savior for our seniors citizens. It has helped pay their doctor bills, their hospital bills, and their home health bills. But it has not paid for their prescription drug bills, and millions of seniors across the country have been waiting a long time for the day when prescription drug coverage is offered through Medicare. That day is getting closer.

It is not paid for their prescriptions, but millions of seniors across the country have been waiting a long time for the day when prescription drug coverage is offered through Medicare. That day is getting closer.

I want to highlight one amendment that would have provided Medicare beneficiaries with a substantial, reliable and straight-forward prescription drug benefit. I cosponsored and voted for this amendment offered by my colleague from Illinois, Senator DURBIN.

Finally, because this proposal relies on private plans to deliver the drug benefit, seniors could be forced to shift from plan-to-plan, year-to-year as they did when Medicare+Choice HMOs pulled out of the Medicare program a few years ago. In my own State of Maryland, insurance companies left the Medicare Advantage plans to deliver the drug benefit, whereas Marylanders were left with no coverage for prescription drugs for seniors at the very time when it is needed most.

Unfortunately, the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Congress did not ensure an affordable, reliable drug benefit that they can understand?

I want to tell you a few of their stories. I recently heard from a California woman who told me she struggles to survive on $950 a month income. She cannot, she says, afford all of her prescription drugs. She is, unfortunately, all too typical.

A constituent from San Marcos, CA told me that her annual costs for prescription drugs this year will top $10,000.

Another constituent from Indio, CA told me that she has made five trips to Mexico over the last several years to purchase her prescriptions. She drives all day long to Mexico in order to purchase affordable heart medication. She wanted me to remind my colleagues that “thousands of seniors are forced to do this.”

A retired physician from Marina Del Rey told me that a pill he takes for his heart disease has gone up 600 percent from $15 per month to $95.

The anguished soul of our seniors—need and deserve to have Medicare help pay for their prescription drugs. We need to end this situation where seniors are cutting their pills in half or forgoing their medications altogether or skin themselves in order to pay for their prescription drugs. That is unacceptable.

Today, we are making a prescription drug benefit a part of Medicare. And that is why I am supporting this bill because, at long last, it puts a Medicare prescription drug benefit on the books.

But, this bill is wanting. It has problems. And I have voted for amendment after amendment to fix those problems. I offered an amendment to close the benefit shutdown. Under this bill, even when seniors have paid and continue to pay premiums, Medicare stops covering prescription drugs, forcing seniors to pay the entire cost. When that failed, I offered an amendment to ensure that seniors with cancer would never have their benefit stopped.

I supported an amendment by Senator STABENOW to ensure that all seniors could get prescription drug coverage from Medicare itself—the tried and proven system—rather than from a private insurance company.

I supported an amendment by Senator GRAHAM to stop charging seniors premiums when they are not getting any benefits.

I supported an amendment by Senator LAUTENBERG to start this benefit next year not 2 and a half years from now.

I supported an amendment by Senator DION to encourage employers not to drop their retiree health coverage so seniors who have good coverage can keep it. And the Levin amendment, which I also supported, would have ensured that if employers did drop such coverage, Medicare would be there to provide prescription drugs.

I supported an amendment by Senator DORGAN to reduce the premiums that beneficiaries must pay each month. And I supported an amendment by Senator DASCHLE to limit the disparities in premiums so that seniors in different parts of the country are not paying different premiums for the same benefit.

These amendments would have made the Medicare drug benefit a better drug benefit for seniors. Unfortunately, none of them passed.

But we should not—and I will not—stop trying to make it the best benefit it can be.

The good news is that Medicare will soon, for the first time ever, cover prescription drugs. The better news will be when we fix the problems with this bill and improve the coverage for our seniors. I look forward to the day when enough of my colleagues will join me in that effort.

Finally, let me say that I hope the conference report on this bill—the final version of this bill before it goes to the President—does not come back to the Senate in a way that would provide even less help to seniors or in a way that would undermine the entire Medicare program.

Mr. MIKULSKI. Mr. President, senior citizens are facing a crisis—a crisis in affording health care and a crisis in affording prescription drugs.

I have been in communities all over Maryland. Listeners to seniors who are desperate. Listening to their families in the diners—who want to help their parents, yet face stresses of their own. Listening to the employers in the boardrooms—who want to help their retirees, but can no longer afford to.

Here is what they tell me. They say: We need a prescription drug benefit in Medicare. We need a safety net for seniors and families. Congress must enact a Medicare prescription drug benefit, and must do so now.

I absolutely agree. It is time Congress made Medicare prescription drug coverage a national priority.

For so many years, Congress has talked about prescription drugs and Medicare. Today, you can’t talk yourself out of high cholesterol; you need Lipitor. You can’t talk your way out of diabetes; you need insulin.

The problem with the Senate is—when all gets said and done—more gets said than gets done. Finally—the Congress is acting.

Here are my principles. These principles are the yardstick by which I measure any proposal.

The benefits must be for seniors, not for insurance companies. That means the cornerstone must be Medicare. This bill does that. It does not force seniors to give up the Medicare they love to get the drugs they need.

It must be accessible. It must be affordable. It must be beneficial to all seniors, regardless of where they live. This bill does that. It must be meaningful. It must cover the kind of drugs your doctor says you need, not what an insurance executive thinks you should get. This bill does that by creating a medical necessity override. This means your doctor has the final say on which drugs you get, not an insurance company. I feel pretty good about that.

I tried to improve the bill. I voted for amendments to improve the bill. For example: For the Durbin substitute which would have created a stronger, more comprehensive benefit at a lower cost to seniors.

For an amendment to get rid of the coverage gap. This would guarantee that seniors would have continuous coverage for their prescription drug costs.

For an amendment to provide seniors with a guaranteed prescription plan that is under Medicare. This would allow seniors to stay in a prescription drug plan that is operated by Medicare and not have to move in and out of private plans and a Medicare fallback plan that is only available when the private plans leave the market.

For amendments to protect the benefits of retirees who already have drug coverage. These amendments would help employers to continue to be able to offer quality health care to their retirees.

For an amendment to implement the drug benefit next year—instead of waiting until 2006 to start these benefits.

I am sorry all these amendments failed on party line votes.

This legislation is a beginning. It is something we can build on. What it comes down to for me is—will it help the majority of seniors in Maryland? The answer is, yes; it will help over 394,000 people. For people who spend at least $1,110 a year on prescription drugs—it will help. For someone who is facing a catastrophic disease like cancer and has very high drug costs—it will help. So I will vote for this bill. It is not the bill I want. Yet we can’t let the perfect be the enemy of the good. We can’t do nothing—as seniors struggle to pay for the drugs they need.

But let me be very clear, this is as far as I will go. If this bill comes back from conference and it is a benefit for insurance companies, I do not vote. If it increases costs for seniors, say goodbye to my vote. If it cuts benefits, say goodbye to my vote.
So I will vote for this legislation tonight because I don't want to say goodbye to this opportunity to provide a Medicare prescription drug benefit for seniors.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I rise today in objection to the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003.

The Senate has spent the last 2 weeks debating how to help our Nation's senior citizens afford their prescription drugs. The Kaiser Family Foundation estimates that annual out-of-pocket drug spending for Medicare beneficiaries grew from $443 3 years ago to $999 this year and will reach $1,454 by the time this bill takes effect in 2006. As a result, 26 percent of seniors without drug coverage declined to fill a prescription and 27 percent of seniors without drug coverage skipped doses to make their prescriptions last longer. This is unacceptable. These citizens deserve affordable, comprehensive, stable drug coverage. Unfortunately, the legislation now before us fails to provide sufficient coverage.

From the outset this proposal will confuse seniors. Enrollees in private plans will not get too comfortable because their plans could be gone in 2 years if the HMOs find them unprofitable just like they have with Medicare+Choice in my state of South Carolina. The same goes for enrollees in fallback plans. They will be kicked out of their plans as early as a year if enough private plans enter their area. This volatile system could force seniors to move in between three separate plans, with three separate formularies, in 3 years. This bill should create a sense of stability in the system and reduce the confusion over coverage. That is why I supported first the Stabenow amendment and then the Lincoln-Conrad amendment, which would have extended the availability of fallback plans to ensure that seniors will have access to stable drug coverage.

Senior citizens will need to hire an accountant just to comprehend the benefits available to them under this legislation. Once seniors select their Medicare drug plan, they will have to maneuver a maze of premiums, deductibles and copayments for benefits that contain huge gaps in coverage. On top of their premiums, which will vary by region and plan, if they plan to use a plan, seniors will get no help for the first $275 of their drug costs, pay half of costs from $276 to $4,500, pay all the costs from $4,501 to at least $5,813, and then pay a tenth of costs above $5,828. With a breakeven point of $1,115, many healthier Medicare beneficiaries will opt not to participate. With a coverage gap of $1,302, many of the sickest patients will still have to continue paying premiums even though they may have to resort to rationing their care until they can spend their way out of the "doughnut." Once again, the Senate defeated a number of amendments that I supported that would have brought much needed simplicity and fairness to the bill including the Boxer amendment, which would have closed the coverage gap for all seniors, and the Daschle amendment, which would have limited the region that would have to cover premiums to 110 percent of the national average. Finally, we chose to provide $13 billion in new subsidies to HMOs and PPOs instead of using that money to reduce premiums or fill in the coverage gaps for senior citizens.

All in all, the bill provides Medicare beneficiaries with a benefit valued at about $1,000 less than the drug coverage available to Federal employees.

This is a plan only Washington could dream up. It should come as no surprise that the authors of this convoluted mess and their friends in the White House have decided to wait until after the 2004 election before allowing Medicare beneficiaries to see what they are in for.

I should also note that this Nation is more than $6.6 trillion in debt. This bill is part of budget resolution and economic plans that will run up an average deficit of $600 billion a year for the next 10 years. Make no mistake about it, we will borrow every red cent to pay for this program. And what do we get in return? Massive subsidies for HMOs, spotty drug coverage for senior citizens, and a lack of attention to the factors driving the rapid increase of health care costs in this country. If we are going to borrow from future generations to pay for this benefit, we should get it right.

Now that we have disposed of all amendments and final passage appears imminent, I have concluded taxpayers and Medicare beneficiaries would be better served if we go back to the drawing board. We should come back with a proposal with affordable premiums and cost sharing requirements with no gaps in coverage that is administered in a manner that gives seniors the same sense of security they receive under the current program. I have heard many of my colleagues say this is an important first step and it is important that we get something on the books. Nonsense. Thirty months will pass before this new benefit receives coverage. That was enough time to draft and ratify the Constitution. It was enough time to complete the Manhattan Project. Thirty months should be more than enough time for us to create a real meaningful prescription drug benefit for our senior citizens. I hope this body will have the wisdom to vote no and do this right.

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I will vote for passage of the Medicare prescription drug provisions that has been debated over the past several weeks.

I do so, however, with great reservations about many of the provisions in the bill. I am voting for this measure for two principal reasons.

First, I believe that we owe our seniors a Medicare prescription drug benefit. I believe such a benefit is long overdue for our Nation's seniors. For years we have promised them we would give them the crucial help they need with their skyrocketing prescription drug costs. And I believe that it is finally time to deliver on that promise. But I know that we still have more to do to reverse the Medicare discrimination against States like Wisconsin.

The second reason I am voting for this benefit is that it takes a big step in addressing what I see as one of the biggest flaws of the current Medicare system—the geographic inequities within the Medicare reimbursement system. We need to end Medicare's continued discrimination against Wisconsin's seniors. As I have previously discussed on this floor, Wisconsin seniors already receive the short end of the stick when it comes to Medicare. Wisconsinites pay the same payroll taxes to Medicare as all American workers do, but receive fewer benefits in return. Instead, Wisconsinites' Medicare dollars are used to subsidize higher reimbursements in other parts of the country.

Wisconsin Medicare beneficiaries receive on average $4,318 in Medicare benefits per year, the eighth lowest in the country. By contrast, beneficiaries in the State with the greatest per capita reimbursement receive $7,209. This distribution of Medicare dollars among the 50 States is grossly unfair to Wisconsin. I thank the leadership of the Finance Committee for including provisions to begin to address this inequity in this prescription drug bill. But I know that we still have more to do to reverse the Medicare discrimination against States like Wisconsin.

I am pleased that key provisions have been accepted that greatly improve this bill. The Senate adopted the Gregg-Schumer-McCain-Kennedy amendment, which I was proud to cosponsor and support, which will bring more competition to the prescription drug market by preventing pharmaceutical companies from blocking generic drugs from the market. This amendment is one of the only provisions that will help to bring cost savings to seniors.
By adopting Senator Dorgan’s amendment relating to the reimportation of prescription drugs from Canada, the Senate will help seniors obtain affordable prescription drugs. This legislation helps both consumers who buy prescription drugs and businesses which sell them. I supported this provision, both in its earlier legislative form and in this amendment, because it is the right thing to do. Our seniors and other Americans in need of affordable prescription drugs deserve no less.

I also supported Senator Enzi’s amendment, which passed overwhelmingly, that will make sure that community pharmacies, like the ones in my home State of Wisconsin, can still operate within this new prescription drug program. Smaller pharmacies will be protected from being shut out by larger pharmacies through this amendment, and that means helping seniors to access the prescription drugs they need in their own communities.

I also worked with Senator Allard on an amendment to provide regulatory relief for home health care providers. My amendment, which Senate adopted. The Medicare Program already provides regulatory relief to these Medicare beneficiaries, and that means helping seniors who are leaving the home health industry because of burdensome paperwork requirements.

And I am pleased that an amendment I offered to bring some clarity to the Medicare Program, for our seniors was adopted. The Medicare Program is already full of bureaucratic red tape, often creating barriers for seniors looking for basic information about their health care options. This prescription drug benefit is the biggest expansion of the Medicare Program since its inception in 1965. We are adding an entire new part to the program, and we need to help guide our seniors through it.

My amendment establishes a Medicare Beneficiary Advocate Office within the Department of Health and Human Services, with the sole function of providing clear information to all beneficiaries. The office will serve as a one-stop information source on all of Medicare for our seniors.

This new office will provide a toll-free phone number, a regularly updated website and regional publications that will give our seniors all of the information they need to make informed health care decisions.

This is the news. But as I said earlier, I have many reservations about this bill. This is not the bill I would have proposed.

This bill does not go far enough to deliver the kind of choice that seniors want when it comes to prescription drug plans. Under this bill, premiums are not defined. The premiums for the Medicare prescription drug plan will be dictated by the private insurers who will offer the plans. The only thing we know for sure is that the Congressional Budget Office estimates that the national average for premiums will be $35. However, those premiums may vary dramatically. Just look at Medicare HMOs. Medicare HMO premiums in Connecticut are $99, but in Florida they are only $16.

Who will offer the plans is also uncertain. There is no guarantee that plans will be offered in regions where there may not be enough profit. History again shows us that private companies do not always find rural and smaller urban areas profitable enough to move into. All too often companies that do move into less desirable Medicare markets end up deciding to leave the region, leaving Medicare beneficiaries scrambling to figure out where they will turn for coverage.

Furthermore, my understanding is that this plan only offers a guaranteed Medicare-administered plan, or “fallback plan,” if there are less than two private plans. This means that, if only one private plan offers a prescription drug benefit in the region that includes Almena, WI, a Medicare beneficiary living in Almena may instead choose the Medicare-administered fallback plan. While on the fallback plan, my Almena constituent would become familiar with the medications that are included in their formulary and the cost of their premiums. If a second private plan subsequently decides to move into that region, my understanding is that my constituent will be dropped from the Medicare fallback plan, and forced to join one of the private plans even if those plans have higher premiums, or do not include their medications in their formularies.

Further, my Almena constituent can be forced to leave the plan that he or she has come to know, if that plan leaves the region. This leads to instability and uncertainty for seniors.

Benefits are also uncertain under this proposal. Again, benefit packages will be determined by the private insurers who offer the plans. And we can assume, from experience with the Medicare-Choice Program, that the benefits will vary widely. I am concerned about what this may mean for States like my home State of Wisconsin, States that have had a difficult time attracting and keeping private Medicare plans. Medicare prescription drug plans may be able to offer more brand name drugs at a lower cost to beneficiaries, while others in less profitable areas may limit the amount of brand name drugs they can offer at affordable prices.

I fear that as with Medicare HMOs, Wisconsin seniors may be faced with little choice with Medicare prescription drug plans.

And I am concerned that the uncertainty in this bill regarding monthly premiums, the possible differences in benefits packages and the stability of private plans that will deliver these benefits may lead to more inequity for Wisconsin seniors.

I was disappointed that Senator Dorgan’s amendment, the MediSAVE Act, was not adopted in the Senate. Senator Dorgan’s amendment, which I strongly supported, would have fixed most of the errors that exist in this bill. The MediSAVE Act would have made this benefit one that would truly help all seniors with all of their prescription drug benefit. Senator Dorgan’s proposal offered a meaningful, enhanced prescription drug benefit that would have covered all seniors regardless of whether their prescription drug costs are high, low, or somewhere in between.

The MediSAVE Act not only put forth cost controls so that taxpayers as well as seniors could save money, but it also would have given seniors certainty. Seniors would have known exactly what their premiums and benefits were going to be. We would have the certainty of knowing that a Medicare-administered prescription drug benefit would be available to them, no matter what private plans were offered to them. Most importantly, the MediSAVE Act proposed that all seniors would have assistance with their prescription drug costs year-round and would never be caught in the so-called “donut hole” of coverage that this bill provides.

I am voting for this bill because something, some help for our seniors with their pressing prescription drug costs, is better than nothing. I will support this legislation with the intention of working with my colleagues over the next 2 years to improve this bill and finally deliver on our promise to give seniors a meaningful prescription drug benefit under Medicare.

Mr. Jeffords. Mr. President, this bill is a landmark piece of legislation—the most significant modernization of the Medicare Program since its inception in 1965. Its passage by the Senate is a major accomplishment on the path toward enacting a prescription drug benefit for our seniors. It is the result of years of bipartisan, and I might even say tripartisan, effort and it puts in place many long-sought changes. It has many significant features for the citizens of my home State of Vermont. It provides a sustainable, universal, and comprehensive prescription drug benefit. It guarantees access to traditional Medicare for all beneficiaries. It allows Medicare beneficiaries to participate, if they choose, in new systems of care that better reflect today’s dynamic health care environment. The bill recognizes the high cost of providing quality care in rural settings and closes the reimbursement gap. gap between rural providers and their urban counterparts. Finally, it contains a provision that will allow us to better understand how to provide quality health care—not care driven by using more and more resources, but instead one based on ensuring quality patient outcomes.

Over the past 2 weeks, I have applauded the work of my colleagues who have labored over this bill. Today, I have the pleasure of congratulating them on their success and thanking them for their hard work.

I have worked for more than 3 years with my good friends, Chairman Grassley and Senators Snowe, Breaux, and Hatch. In many meetings over many months, we delved into the details of what came to be called the Tripartisan Bill. This has been one of the finest experiences of my many years in Congress. I am very proud to have been a part of that group and that our efforts led the way to our success today.

I especially want to salute the efforts of Senator Baucus and Senator Kennedy without whose hard work and commitment to working through an agreement we would not have accomplished this legislative victory, and they deserve our accolades.

A bill such as this is the result of great effort on the part of many different people who are not elected to this body, but upon whom we all rely. I would like to recognize the staff members who have worked so hard on this bill and deserve much of the credit for its successful passage.

On Senator Grassley's staff: Ted Tottman, Linda Fishman, Colin Geier, and Carolyn Holmes from my staff; Jeff Forbes, Liz Fowler, Jon Blum, Pat Bousliman, Kate Kirschgraber, and Andrea Cohen deserve considerable recognition for their tireless work.

On Senator Baucus' staff: Jeff Forbes, Liz Fowler, Jon Blum, Pat Bousliman, Kate Kirschgraber, and Andrea Cohen deserve considerable recognition for their tireless work.

On Senator Breaux's legislative director Sarah Walters deserve enormous credit for this bill. Finally, we would not be claiming a victory today if it were not for the contributions of Senator Kennedy's staff, especially, David Naxon and Michael Meyers.

On my own, I particularly want to recognize the contributions of Paul Harrington during the last Congress, and most especially the work of Sean Donohue who took up that effort on the tripartisan bill and who has continued and seen it through to today's success, with the recent assistance of David Crimmins, our Robert Wood Johnson Health Policy Fellow. Each and all have worked tirelessly to gather the input, analyze the issues, and build a consensus toward achieving this final product.

Mr. LEVINE. Mr. President, I support making a prescription drug benefit available to seniors. Most Members of the Senate do. However, there are honest disagreements about how to get it done and whether the bill before us will strengthen or weaken Medicare.

My principles are simple. The benefit should be voluntary, guaranteed, universal, and afforded at a reasonable price.

Perhaps my greatest concern with the bill before us is the effect its passage is likely to have on retirees who currently have prescription drug coverage provided by their former employers. Many retirees currently enjoy good prescription drug coverage from their former employer. However, the Congressional Budget Office has indicated that if we adopt the legislation before us approximately 37 percent of retirees who are currently receiving prescription drug coverage from their former employers will lose that coverage. Specifically, on June 12, the Director of the Congressional Budget Office, CBO, Mr. Douglas Holtz-Eakin, who previously served as chief economist for President Bush's Council of Economic Advisers, testified at a Finance Committee markup that 37 percent of retirees would be dropped from their former employers' coverage.

I also want to applaud the work of my colleagues who have worked tirelessly to gather the input, analyze the issues, and build a consensus toward achieving this final product.

As the founder and cochair of the Senate Diabetes Caucus, I have learned a great deal about this serious disease and the difficulties and heartbreak that it causes for so many Americans and their families as they await a cure. Earlier this week, I had the privilege of chairing a hearing featuring young delegates from the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation's Children's Congress who had traveled to Washington from every state in the country to tell Congress what it is like to have diabetes, just how serious it is, and how important it is that we find a cure.

Diabetes is a devastating, lifelong condition that affects people of every age, race, and nationality. It is the... leading cause of kidney failure, blindness in adults, and amputations not related to injury. Moreover, a study released by the American Diabetes Association earlier this year estimates that diabetes cost the Nation $132 billion last year, and that health spending for people with diabetes is double what it would be if they did not have diabetes.

The burden of diabetes is particularly heavy for people with juvenile diabetes. Juvenile diabetes is the second most common chronic disease affecting children. Moreover, it is one that they never outgrow.

In individuals with juvenile diabetes, the body’s immune system attacks the pancreas and destroys the islet cells that produce insulin. While the discovery of insulin was a landmark breakthrough in the treatment of people with diabetes, it is not a cure, and people with juvenile diabetes face the constant threat of developing life-threatening complications associated with juvenile diabetes.

Amazingly, many of the transplant recipients have even reported a reversal of some of their complications, such as improved vision and less pain from neuropathy.

Thankfully, there is good news for people with diabetes. We have seen some tremendous breakthroughs in diabetes research in recent years, and I am convinced that diabetes is a disease that can be cured and will be cured.

I am encouraged by the development of the Edmonton Protocol, an experimental treatment developed at the University of Alberta involving the transplantation of insulin-producing islet cells, which has been hailed as the most important advance in diabetes research since the discovery of insulin in 1921. Of the 257 patients who have been treated using variations of the Edmonton Protocol, all have seen a reversal of their life-disabling hypoglycemia, and 80 percent have maintained normal glucose levels without insulin shots for more than 1 year. Amazingly, many of the transplant recipients have even reported a reversal of some of their complications, such as improved vision and less pain from neuropathy.

Earlier this year, I joined with my colleague from Wisconsin, Senator PATTY MURRAY, as well as my colleagues and cochair of the Senate Diabetes Caucus, Senator JOHN BREAUX, in introducing the Pancreatic Islet Cell Transplantation Act of 2003, which will help to advance this significant research that holds the promise of a cure for the more than 1 million Americans with juvenile diabetes. The amendment we are introducing today is based on one of the provisions of that bill, which currently has 48 Senate cosponsors.

Diabetes is the most common cause of kidney failure, accounting for 40 percent of new cases, and a significant percentage of individuals with Type 1 diabetes will experience kidney failure and become Medicare-eligible before they are 65. Medicare currently covers both kidney transplants and simultaneous pancreas-kidney transplants for these individuals. To help Medicare deto make up the Medicare shortfall. The bill before us changes many of Medicare’s payment systems, especially for rural areas, and a long way toward making Medicare fair for seniors and providers, no matter where they live. I am also pleased that the bill includes provisions to make generics drugs more available to all Americans. It will close loopholes in our current law that keep generics off the market and keep drug prices too high for too long. The CBO estimates that this provision will save Americans $60 billion over 10 years.

I hope, but don’t expect, that these two important provisions will survive the upcoming conference with the House of Representatives. And while I continue to hope that the conference will come back with a better Medicare drug benefit, I regret that it is unlikely to be the case. The House bill is in many ways even worse than the Senate bill before us.

Mr. President, I regret that none of the amendments that I supported during this debate prevailed. These amendments would have greatly improved this bill and provided a real prescription drug benefit to seniors—a benefit that most Americans expect. Instead, this bill is an empty promise to seniors and the disabled on Medicare. This is not the kind of plan they have been asking for or have a right to expect. We could and should have done better minimum, we could and should be able to hold our work here to the standard set in the Hippocratic Oath: do no harm. And we have failed. I yield the floor.

MS. COLLINS. Mr. President, I want to thank the chairman of the Finance Committee for including provisions in S. 1 that will provide a measure of relief to rural health care providers, and in particular to home health agencies serving patients in rural areas. I am concerned, however, that the underlying bill does not go quite far enough and have filed an amendment with Senator Bond to increase the rural add-on payment for home health agencies to 10 percent. This was the amount of the payment prior to its expiration on April 1, and I believe it is the amount that is necessary to ensure that Medicare patients in rural areas continue to have access to the home health services that they need.

Home health has become an increasingly important part of our health care system. The kinds of highly skilled and often technically complex services that our nation’s home health agencies provide have enabled millions of our most frail and vulnerable older persons to avoid hospitals and nursing homes and stay just where they want to be—in the comfort and security of their own homes.

Surveys have shown that the delivery of home health services to rural areas can be as much as 12 to 15 percent more costly because of the extra travel time required to cover long distances between patients, higher transportation expenses, and other factors. Because of the longer travel times, rural caregivers are unable to make as many visits in a day as their urban counterparts. Saundra Scott-Adams, the executive director of the Visiting Nurses of Aroostook in Aroostook County, ME, where her agency covers 6,600 square miles with a population of only 72,000. Her costs are understandably much higher than the average agency due to the long distances her staff must drive to see clients. And, her staff is not able to see as many patients.

Agencies in rural areas are also frequently smaller than their urban counterparts, which means that their relative costs are higher due to smaller scale operations. Smaller agencies with fewer patients and fewer visits mean that fixed costs, particularly those associated with meeting regulatory requirements, are spread over a smaller number of patients and visits, increasing overall per-patient and per-visit costs.

Moreover, in many rural areas, home health agencies are the primary care-givers for homebound beneficiaries with limited access to transportation. These agencies require more time and care than their urban counterparts, and are understandably more expensive for agencies to serve. If the rural add-on payment is not reinstated, agencies may be forced to make decisions about which patients with greater care needs, and access will suffer further.

The loss of the rural add-on has already caused many agencies to reduce their service areas. Some are eliminating services altogether in remote areas. There are some counties in Montana, for example, that have no home health services. And agencies in my home State of Maine have had to eliminate delivery of services to some of our outlying areas. If the 10 percent rural add-on payment is not restored, it will only put more pressure on rural home health agencies that are already operating on very narrow margins and could force more of these agencies to close. Many home health agencies operating in rural areas are the only home health providers in a vast geographic area. If any of these agencies are forced to close, the Medicare patients in that region will lose complete access to home care.

There is strong support in the Senate for restoring the rural add-on. Earlier this month, 55 Senators joined me in sending a letter to the chair and ranking member of the Senate Finance Committee urging that they extend the 10 percent rural add-on for home health agencies, and I ask unanimous consent that this letter be printed in the RECORD.

The chairman of the Finance Committee and his staff have been working with us to try to accommodate my amendment, and I am very appreciative of their efforts. I am hopeful that we will be able to work this out so that we will be able to ensure that Medicare patients in rural areas continue to have access to the home health services that they need.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

U.S. SENATE

Hon. Charles E. Grassley, Chairman,
Hon. Max Baucus, Ranking Member,
Senate Committee on Finance
Office Building, Washington, DC.

Dear Senators Grassley and Baucus:
Home health has become an increasingly important part of our health care system. The kinds of highly skilled and often technically complex services that our nation’s home health agencies provide have enabled millions of our most frail and vulnerable older persons to avoid hospitals and nursing homes and stay just where they want to be—in the comfort and security of their own homes.

By the late 1990s, home health was the fastest growing component of Medicare spending. The rapid growth in home health spending understandably prompted the Congress and the Administration—as part of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997—to initiate changes that were intended to slow this growth in spending and make the program more cost-effective and efficient. These measures, however, produced cuts in home health spending far beyond what Congress intended. Home health spending dropped to $10 billion in FY 2002, nearly half the 1997 amount, and it is clear that the savings goals set for home health in the Balanced Budget Act have not only been met, but far surpassed.

According to the Congressional Budget Office (CBO), the post-Balanced Budget Act reduction in home health expenditures was an installed more than $72 billion between fiscal years 1998 and 2002. This is over four times the $16 billion that the CBO originally estimated for that time period and is a clear indication that the Medicare home health cuts have been far deeper than Congress intended.

As a consequence of these cuts, over 3,500 home health agencies have either closed or stopped serving Medicare beneficiaries. Moreover, the number of Medicare patients receiving home health care nationwide has dropped by more than one-third. Which points to the central and most critical issue—cuts of this magnitude simply cannot be sustained without ultimately affecting patients’ care.

On October 1, 2002, home health agencies received an additional across-the-board cut in Medicare home health payments, and the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services has dramatically reduced projections for home health spending under the Medicare program over the next ten years. We are concerned that any further cuts for home health services simply cannot be sustained without affecting patient care, particularly for those Medicare beneficiaries who are complex care recipients.

As you begin consideration of a Medicare modernization package, we urge you to avoid any further cuts in payments for home health services and to prevent the third payment basket update for payments for home health services for 2004. In addition, we urge that you extend the 10 percent add-on payment for home health services that expired on April 1, 2003. Surveys have shown that the delivery of home health services in rural areas can be as much as 12 to 15 percent more costly because of the extra travel time required to cover long distances between patients, higher transportation expenses, and other factors. Extension of this add-on payment will therefore help to ensure that Medicare patients in rural areas continue to have access to the home health services they need.

Thank you for your consideration, and we look forward to working with you to ensure that the elderly and disabled Americans continue to have access to quality home health services.

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I rise today to speak in support of S. 1, the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003. However, I do so for a number of reasons. While I intend to vote for the bill that is presently before the Senate, I believe that drastic changes are still necessary to make the benefit created by this legislation one that meets the needs of our senior citizens.

I am also deeply concerned that Members on the other side of the aisle—as well as those in the House of Representatives, and the administration—will attempt to move this bill in a direction during conference. Let me reiterate what I said in an earlier statement on this issue: we must not approve any Medicare reform measure that would force seniors to join private plans in order to receive a more generous prescription drug benefit. Such a measure would signal an end to the Medicare Program as we know it and should be rejected out of hand. I urge my colleagues to protect the Medicare that our seniors have come to rely on, and I urge the President to veto any bill that privatizes Medicare. If such changes are made, I will not hesitate to oppose the conference report.

Given these concerns, it is reasonable to ask why I am supporting this bill. The answer is simple. I, regret to say, have spent the past month in my home State of Connecticut and across the country have been waiting far too long for a prescription drug benefit under Medicare. And it is time that we in Congress heard them.

Over the past several months I have had the opportunity to convene a series of forums on senior health care in Connecticut in an attempt to frame the scope of this debate. At these forums I heard from my constituents on many matters regarding their health care. But the present lack of coverage for prescription drugs under the Medicare program was by far the issue raised most often. At these forums from seniors who literally could not afford to fill prescriptions called for by their doctors. I heard from elderly Medicare beneficiaries forced to choose between purchasing groceries or filling their prescriptions. I heard from seniors who were forced to skip dosages of their medicines in an attempt to stretch their limited supplies of needed medicines. I heard from Medicare beneficiaries requiring more than 10 prescribed medicines a day unable to afford even half of these prescriptions. Clearly, what I heard from hundreds of Connecticut’s more than 500,000 Medicare beneficiaries is their grave concern over the present lack of a prescription drug benefit under the Medicare Program.

I believe that the legislation about to be approved by this body offers an answer to those concerns. It is not the most complete answer, but it is a start—based on which we can improve the future of the Medicare program. Because it will make so many seniors better off than they are today. And that should be our ultimate goal as legislators—to make people’s lives better. Often this must be done incrementally, in steps. This bill is a positive first step.

What do I mean when I say that it will make people better off? In Connecticut, one-third of all Medicare beneficiaries have incomes below 160 percent of poverty. For many of these seniors, drug costs can be crippling. They are forced to choose between putting food on the table, and buying the medicines that they need to live healthy lives. With the passage of this bill, these seniors will no longer have to make this choice. The Medicare prescription drug benefit will cover most, if not all, of their drug costs. I congratulate Senator GRASSLEY and Senator BACCUS, and other members of the Senate Finance Committee for including in this bill such a generous benefit for those low-income seniors.

This legislation is not as clear cut for those seniors who have incomes above 160 percent of poverty. However, I believe that the majority will be helped by this prescription drug benefit. The Medicare prescription drug benefit will cover most, if not all, of their drug costs. I congratulate Senator GRASSLEY and Senator BACCUS, and other members of the Senate Finance Committee for including in this bill such a generous benefit for those low-income seniors.

These are the seniors facing the most severe health problems, and most in need of financial assistance. That is what this bill provides—even if it is not to the extent that many of us would have liked. I am voting for this bill because so many seniors in Connecticut and throughout the country stand to benefit. However, no bill is perfect and S. 1 clearly still leaves much room for improvement even as it moves toward final Senate passage. I am particularly disheartened that, despite numerous attempts over the past 2 weeks, we have failed to address concerns over the present bill’s lack of adequate provisions to ensure that those companies presently providing their retirees with prescription drug coverage receive adequate Federal support for their laudable efforts. While the creation of a prescription drug benefit under the Medicare program is laudable, it should not come at the price of destroying the benefits that so many seniors have come to rely on.

Additionally, I remain concerned that the gap in coverage in the present bill, the so-called donut hole, will leave many Medicare beneficiaries facing high prescription drug costs with no assistance at the very time when it is most needed. Over the past 2 weeks, I have both offered and supported amendments designed to provide assistance to those with drug costs within the hole, especially those with lower incomes who can least afford any gap in coverage, that have failed to win support by the Senate. Failure to close this gap, in my view, constitutes a glaring failure, one that I hope can be reversed as this bill moves into conference.

I also am concerned that S. 1 falls to adequately protect Medicare beneficiaries form the very understandable confusion and uncertainty that may surround them just as they begin to navigate the intricacies of a brand-new program. Specifically, if enacted the underlying bill will require Medicare beneficiaries choosing a prescription drug plan to stay with that plan for a minimum of 1 year. With the enactment of such broad and weeping changes to the Medicare program, I am fearful that many Medicare beneficiaries will face great uncertainty as they seek to determine which plan fits their particular needs. For this reason, I offered an amendment to S. 1 that would have simply granted Medicare beneficiaries navigating this new benefit for the very first time the ability to switch plans as they seek to determine which plan fits their particular needs. For this reason, I offered an amendment to S. 1 that would have simply granted Medicare beneficiaries navigating this new benefit for the very first time the ability to switch plans as they seek to determine which plan fits their particular needs. Unfortunately, this amendment was not agreed to and I remain concerned that without its protections, senior Medicare beneficiaries will be unfairly locked into plans that do not meet their needs.

Mr. President, I am pleased that S. 1 represents a significant departure from previous plans supported by the administration that would have required Medicare beneficiaries to leave the traditional fee-for-service Medicare Program in order to receive coverage for their prescribed medicines. Such a move was being considered by less than 1 percent of all Medicare beneficiaries today are in the traditional program.

To force these beneficiaries to leave their present system of coverage, and most likely the doctor that they have come to know and trust, would not only create great disruption, it would also for the first time since the program’s inception create a tiered benefit system under Medicare that would more greatly reward those who choose to join a private preferred provider organization, PPO, or health maintenance organization, HMO.

And while I am pleased that the bill before us soundly rejects a tiered benefit system, I am deeply concerned that the plan presently taking shape in the House of Representatives appears to rely on such a flawed plan. As I said earlier, such a measure should be soundly rejected.

So it is with great caution that we come to the final moments of debate on this important Medicare legislation. Medicare’s nearly 41 million beneficiaries clearly need assistance in affording their needed medicines. The result of our efforts over the past 2 weeks, and more important, the result of the coming conference on this legislation will greatly determine to what extent we assist our Nation’s Medicare beneficiaries to afford their needed medicines.

Clearly, a great opportunity is presently before us. As the underlying bill moves to conference committee, I look forward to working with my colleagues to ensure that we seize this opportunity by strengthening the underlying bill. With passage of the bill presently before us, we have the choice. We can insist on the good start that we have made here with passage of S. 1, and work to strengthen its provisions. Or, conversely, we can accede to the House legislation that in my view unfairly jeopardizes the traditional Medicare Program by tilting the system in favor of risky privatization schemes and against seniors.

I ask my colleagues to join with me in working to ensure that any Medicare drug legislation passed by this Congress is at least as strong as the bill we are about to vote on. A tilt toward the House-drafted language would signify not a strengthening of Medicare, but rather a weakening of this vital program’s foundation and must be avoided at all costs.

Nearly 38 years ago on July 9, 1965, this body passed the legislation creating the Federal Medicare Program sending it to a conference committee with the House. On that day, President Lyndon Baines Johnson remarked, “This is a great day for older Americans. And it is a great day for America. For we have proved, once again, that the vitality of our democracy can shape the oldest of our values to the needs and obligations of today.” Nearly four decades later, we are on the cusp of a similar challenge. Let us move Medicare toward the future without threatening its proven ability to provide for the care of this Nation’s senior citizens.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I am proud to mark this extraordinary day by coming to the floor of the Senate to celebrate the imminent passage of a legislation that builds on Medicare. This is a triumph not for a party or a President, but for America’s seniors and their families. This is an incredibly hopeful day for all Americans who long for a national government that can get things done for people.

Thirty-eight years ago Congress voted to create a health care program that would be the primary source of health insurance for this Nation’s seniors. Most people would agree that this program has worked well for almost four decades. However, the practice of medicine has changed. Drug therapies, medical devices, and human genome research all hold great hope for breaking through physical limitations that hinder many of our seniors from enjoying the later years of life.

The question we now ask is what level of care are we going to provide our seniors and is the current system equipped to provide the type of care our seniors need? The benefits provided under Medicare, considered generous at its inception in 1965, pale in comparison to those enjoyed by Federal employees and most workers in the private sector today. A recent report submitted by the Joint Economic Committee found that Medicare has the least generous benefit package among leading forms of insurance. Medicare covers 56 percent of total health care expenses, while typical employment-based health insurance covers 78 percent.

Seniors need prescription drug coverage. Seniors need better access to preventative care and disease management. Seniors need more choices in their health care options than they have today. Without updating, it may take years to add this kind of care to the current program—after all, it has taken over 30 years to add a prescription drug benefit.

The Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003 is a step toward meeting the needs of this Nation’s seniors.

This bill provides a solid drug benefit that will provide assistance to every senior struggling to pay for prescription drugs as well as the security of knowing they are covered for unforeseen drug expenses.

Under this plan, the average senior’s annual drug costs will be reduced by 53 percent each year. That amounts to $1,677 per year in savings, a $3,700 in out of pocket drug costs, stop-loss coverage kicks in and the senior is only responsible for 10 percent of costs beyond this amount.

This bill is also about expanding options for this generation and future generations of seniors. The incremental improvements to the Medicare program have largely been the result of legislative action over the last 40 years. The legislative process, however, is not a quick process, and it is simply not possible to keep the program current in the first parcel environment we currently live.

The Medicare Advantage program allows seniors so our bill offers seniors the choice of receiving their health care benefits in a Preferred Provider Organization, PPO, the same type of health plan enjoyed by many families.

Under this tiered benefit option—not mandate—seniors will have increased access to the latest advances in care such as desire management and better preventive screenings. Additionally, seniors who chose this option will also have a lower deductible for inpatient and hospital care than those in traditional Medicare.

This bill lays the foundation for a Medicare program that is better able to respond to an evolving health care system by harnessing the efficiencies of the health care market, while preserving traditional Medicare for those seniors who are satisfied with their current coverage.

This bill is about expanding options for seniors so our parents and grandparents have access to the type of care best suited for them.

Is this bill everything everyone wants? Of course not. Are there decisions still to be made as it is implemented? Absolutely. And we will ultimately work in the marketplace? Certainly. But this bill says we are not going to let the lack of perfection stop us from doing real good for people as soon and as effectively as we practically can. I would be remiss if I didn’t express my appreciation to Senators Grassley and Baucus for their leadership in including many provisions in this bill to strengthen rural health care.

The availability of hospital care in rural areas in Minnesota is absolutely critical to the stability and viability of many communities.

The provisions in this bill to improve payments to hospitals in rural areas and to address the geographic disparity in physician payments are critical to ensuring that these hospitals that threat not only seniors, but entire communities continued to receive care.

I am pleased that we did not allow perfect to be the enemy of good as we considered this package.

This is a substantial and dependable benefit for America’s seniors. Again, it's not everything everyone wants. There are still decisions to be made as it is implemented and we monitor how it works in the marketplace. But today we are delivering on a promise to provide quality care to our seniors. I am hopeful that with bipartisan support this landmark legislation will pass the Senate and the House of Representatives by the July 4th holiday. When it does, there may not be any firework and parades but millions of seniors will be able to declare their independence about getting the prescription drugs they need to live a quality life.

Mr. BIDEN. Mr. President, after many years of preparation and deliberation, and following weeks of debate and discussion on the floor this year and last, we in the Senate are about to vote on a bill providing some prescription drug benefits for Medicare beneficiaries that is widely expected to pass.

Seniors have been demanding prescription drug coverage for many years now. They need it and they deserve it, and I believe what we should be passing here today is a bill that will bring the American people the type of prescription coverage they have been waiting for— one that is easy to understand and use, one that covers a substantial portion of all their costs, and one that is affordable.

But to the many Medicare beneficiaries who read the details of this bill and say, "there isn't much in here for me and it will cost me more than I am now paying for drugs," I would say: I hear you. This bill is not everything; it's not everything everyone wants.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that following passage of S. 1, the bill be held at the desk; further, when the Senate receives from the House the companion measure to S. 1 the Senate proceed to its consideration, all after the enacting clause be stricken, and the text of S. 1 as passed be inserted in lieu thereof; the bill then be read a third time and passed with the motion to reconsider laid upon the table; further, that the Senate then is amend its amendment and request a conference with the House, and the Chair be authorized to appoint conference with a ratio of 5 to 4; finally, with that action, I ask unanimous consent that passage of S. 1 be vitiating the bill be placed back on the calendar.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I want to take a few moments to return to the basic reasoning. Too many seniors do without drug coverage. The Congressional Budget Office reports that roughly a quarter of Medicare beneficiaries have no drug coverage. Ten million people. They have to pay all of their drug costs out of their own pockets. They pay full price. Lack of coverage means poorer health. Seniors who get along without drug coverage get fewer of the healing benefits, that prescription drugs provide. CBO reports that when seniors do not have drug coverage, they fill about a quarter fewer prescriptions, on average, than those who have coverage.

But whether seniors have coverage or not, they still this bill is all about. Let's keep our eyes on the ball.

We are working here to make a meaningful improvement in health care for seniors. We are working to bring prescription drug coverage to Medicare beneficiaries.

rate of more than 10 percent a year over the next decade. That is far faster than the cost of living. That means that without this legislation, seniors will need to devote larger and larger shares of their income to paying prescription drug bills.

So let me tell you why this is so important and why we need to pass Medicare drug legislation. Why we need to make prescription drug protection permanent and affordable for all seniors.

First, every senior who is on average to the roughly 10 million seniors who have no prescription drug coverage at all.

Second, this is a historic opportunity. Let us finally seize that opportunity, and improve prescription drug care to all seniors. Let us finally seize the opportunity, and bring prescription drug coverage to all seniors. Mr. GRASSLEY, Mr. President, we are about to take a historic vote.

Since 1965, Medicare hasn’t covered prescription drugs. Now, 38 years later, we’re changing that—on a strong bipartisan basis.

Because of this bill, on January 1, 2004, seniors across America will have immediate help with prescription drug costs. Moreover, on January 1, 2006, seniors will have access to affordable, comprehensive drug coverage as a permanent part of Medicare.

No longer will seniors have to make hard choices when it comes to paying for prescription drugs.

This bill also strengthens and improves Medicare, giving seniors more choices and better benefits than they have today.

At the same time, it brings long overdue Medicare equity to the people of Iowa and to other rural States.

We are on the verge of a major victory.

I urge my colleagues to support S. 1. MR. BAUCUS, Mr. President, we are about to vote. I want to thank all Senators for their tremendous patience. It is not an easy task. I particularly thank the chairman of the committee but also all Senators.

Second, I thank the staff who have not had any sleep in the last two or three weeks. I don’t know how they are still standing. A lot of people have been working on this bill. My thanks. I know I speak for all the Senators in thanking all the staff that worked so hard to help achieve this end.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The bill having been read the third time, the question is, shall it pass?

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll. Mr. MCCONNELL. I announce that the Senator from Oklahoma (Mr. INhofe) is necessary absent.

Mr. REID. I announce that the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) and the Senator from Connecticut (Mr. LIEBERMAN) are necessarily absent.

I further announce that, if present and voting, the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) would vote “nay”.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 76, nays 21, as follows:

NOT VOTING—3

The bill (S. 1), as amended, was passed.

(The bill will be printed in a future edition of the RECORD.)

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, the title amendment is agreed to.

The title was amended so as to read: “A bill to amend title XVIII of the Social Security Act to provide for a voluntary prescription drug benefit under the Medicare program and to strengthen and improve the Medicare program, and for other purposes.”.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair, in my capacity as a Senator from the State of Alaska, moves to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. INhofe. Mr. President, because of current business back in my State of Oklahoma, I will be unable to be in attendance to vote on S. 1. It makes no difference, however, because I would have voted against it.

Last week, I addressed this Chamber regarding S. 1, the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act. At that time, I said I could not support the legislation in its current form and expressed my hope that it could be improved on the floor. Unfortunately, that has not occurred. I am restating my opposition to this legislation.

This is simply another Federal entitlement program designed to balloon past expected costs of $400 billion. For example, in the past, Medicare expenses have soared nearly five times the projected costs. I remember that well because I remember in 1965 when it was passed. This trend will only escalate if we continue to add unfunded obligations with little assurance of the long-term solvency of the entire program. We must examine the necessity of such obligations prior to placing the burden on the backs of the future taxpayers. And is a full prescription drug benefit necessary? Currently, 76 percent of seniors already have some form of prescription drug coverage. A recent Zogby poll found that three-fourths of seniors thought the coverage offered under this plan would be no better than what they currently have. In fact, less than one-half would even purchase the option if given the choice. However, with the passage of S. 1, those individuals may not be given that choice. CBO estimates that one-third of Medicare beneficiaries with employer-sponsored coverage will lose those benefits once the bill takes effect. Seniors who currently have private coverage that they like will be forced to buy the Government-sponsored benefit simply because it is the only thing that will be available.

There is something wrong with that picture. The Government should not be replacing coverage that already exists. However, this legislation opens the door for continued Government interference in the private sector. Under this plan, beneficiaries with employer-sponsored coverage would be coerced into enrolling in the Medicare plan. CBO estimates that one-third of Medicare beneficiaries with employer-sponsored coverage will lose those benefits once the bill takes effect. Seniors who currently have private coverage that they like will be forced to buy the Government-sponsored benefit simply because it is the only thing that will be available.

I am concerned about the effect this bill could have on the future of the entire Medicare Program. I have worked with my colleagues to support improvements to this legislation. I am concerned that the inclusion of the fall-back provision, this benefit has the potential to become fully federalized if private plans do not surface. Once again, we are placing more and more expense at the door of the taxpayers, our children, and our grandchildren.

I am also pleased that the amendment maintained the balance that has been so important in what I set out a few weeks ago—to be a truly bipartisan effort. The bill devotes increased resources and expands opportunities within the traditional Medicare Program for chronic care coordination, for disease management, for preventive care.

As many people have stated, it is not a perfect bill, but we will continue to move this legislation forward now to conference once, later in the evening or in the hours of the morning. After the Senate passes its legislation, we will have the opportunity to make the private sector provisions more flexible, more competitive, and more like the Federal Employees Health Benefits Plan. I am familiar with the impressive record of that plan, the Federal employees plan. Every Member of Congress and over 8 million other Federal workers and retirees enjoy the ability to choose the plan that best suits their medical needs.

Indeed, as we go through conference and once the bill is signed by the President of the United States, all seniors will have that same opportunity to vote with their feet and choose the plan that best meets their medical needs.

I look forward to working with my colleagues to improve the Medicare program to provide real health care security to seniors all across the Nation.

We stand on the shoulders of many in this body and in the House of Representatives who providedights to the Government to improve the Medicare Program. We have reached a point of success because of the commitment of the leadership in the House as well as the Senate. Above all, we are indebted to the bold leadership of the President of the United States without whom we would not be transforming or improving this program.

Certainly, the President has been the leader in providing real, long-term solutions to the Medicare expense at the door of the taxpayers. Yet through the hard work of our colleagues—again, on both sides of the aisle—we have fulfilled that vision. Again, it is the first step, a step that will be improved in that conference before us. Nevertheless, we succeeded in what we set out to do with the legislation that is built upon the work of many Members of the Senate, as well as the House of Representatives.

Again, it is a first step, a step that will be improved in that conference before us. Nevertheless, we succeeded in what we set out to do with the legislation that is built upon the work of many Members of the Senate, as well as the House of Representatives.

I want to take a brief moment to thank all of my colleagues for their hard work and dedication over the last several weeks. It has been about 3 months ago that I set out that we would address Medicare for these 2 weeks—the 2 weeks prior to the July 4 recess. Many people said we were trying to do too much in too short a period of time. Others said it is something that has been debated for weeks and months, and indeed years, and that is no way we can finish it before July 4.

Yet through the hard work of our colleagues—again, on both sides of the aisle—we have fulfilled that vision. Again, it is the first step, a step that will be improved in that conference before us. Nevertheless, we succeeded in what we set out to do with the legislation that is built upon the work of many Members of the Senate, as well as the House of Representatives.
As I have said, passage of this legislation was made possible in the United States Senate because of the genuine spirit of bipartisan cooperation. Both the Republican and Democratic staff of the Senate Finance Committee worked incredibly hard, long hours, these past several weeks and months. Their expertise, support, and stamina has been invaluable.

I would like to thank Kolan Davis, Ted Totman, Linda Fishman, Colín Roskey, Leah Kegler, Mark Hayes, Jennifer Rosch, Alicia Ziemiecki of Chairman Grassley’s staff.

And I would also like to thank Jeffrey Forbes, Elizabeth Fowler, Bill Dauster, John Blum, Pat Bousilman, Kate Kirchgraber, and Andrea Cohen of Senator Baucus’ staff for their contributions.

Hazen Marshall, Stacey Hughes, and Megan Hauck of the Senate Budget Committee staff are also commended for their efforts.

Thank you to you all.

I look forward to working with Chairman Grassley and our colleagues in the House of Representatives to produce a conference report that can pass both Houses and be signed by the President in a timely manner later this year.

Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Mr. BYRD. Madam President, the Senate is poised to adjourn, but before we adjourn, I want to call us away from the onrushing press of Senate business and impending airline schedules to pay tribute to Independence Day. Next Friday is the glorious Fourth of July, that most patriotic and star-spangled of holidays. With the Fourth of July holiday, summer is at its Halcyon best, with temperatures still enjoyable, skies richly blue, and trees and lawns still lush and green, and gardens coming into bewildering abundance. In fields and along the roadsides, wildflowers bloom in profusion, and wild blackberries earn our forgiveness for their thorns by offering the tender treasures of their glossy berries.

It is a golden period of enjoyment for students on summer holiday, the respite still feels luxuriously long, full of golden days of enjoyment.

The Fourth of July this year falls on a Friday, easily making a long weekend for summer pleasure. With luck, the Fourth will be clear and cooler, comfortable for marching bands and hometown parades, bathed in glorious sunshine for family picnics and perfect for evening symphonies and fireworks to compete with the glittering stars above.

If the weather is sweltering, however, then we might be better able to empathize with the Delegates to the Second Continental Congress, who met in Philadelphia in the spring and summer of 1776. In hot and muggy weather, the delegates that were designed for a cooler European summer, the Delegates debated and amended, reportedly fending off flies from a nearby stable that swarmed the Hall and bit the Delegates through the silk hose on their lower legs. But they persevered in their momentous task.

On June 7, 1776, Richard Henry Lee of Virginia offered a motion to declare independence from England. His resolution declared:

These United Colonies are and of right ought to be free and independent States. His resolution passed on July 2 by a 12-0 vote, with New York temporarily abstaining.

The next day, on July 3, John Adams wrote to his wife, Abigail, rejoicing over the decision to secede. To Abigail, he wrote:

The 2nd of July will be a memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to be thus overjoyed that it is solemnized by succeeding generations as the Great Anniversary Festival. He further suggested that it ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty.

This is John Adams speaking. This is not some rustic bobby like I was when I came to the House more than half a century ago. Listen to him again:

It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty.

It ought to be solemnized with pomp, shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, illuminations, from one end of this Continent to the other, from this time forward, forever. How remarkably prescient. Adams was off on the date, as we celebrate the approval of the Declaration of Independence rather than of the adoption of the motion, but he certainly knew how Americans like to celebrate. As well, he accurately predicted the explosive growth of an embryonic nation into a continent-spanning colossus.

That vision took great courage, coming as it did on the eve of putting his signature to a document that could easily become his death warrant. Every signer of that Declaration of Independence committed treason against England, against the King of England, and against the crown. Every signer could have been arrested, put in chains and sent by boat to England; tried, convicted, and hanged. The delegates to the Continental Congress had, with the act, committed treason against the crown and set their nascent nation-state on the road to war. After the failed Jacobite uprising against England in 1745 under Bonnie Prince Charles, only 31 years before the delegates met in Philadelphia, the Scottish leaders had been beheaded in public ceremonies.

One Delegate to the Congress, John Witherspoon, put it thus:

There is a tide in the affairs of men, a nick of time. We perceive it now before us. To hesitate is to consent to our own slavery. That noble instrument upon your table, that insures immortality to its author, should be subscribed this very session by every man in this house. He that will not respond to its accents, and strain every nerve to carry into effect its provisions shall be worthy of the name of free man. For my own part, property, I have some; of reputation, more. That reputation is staked, that property is pledged on the issue of this contest, and although these grey hairs must soon descend into the sepulcher, I would infinitely rather that they descend thither by the hand of the executioner than desert at this crisis the sacred cause of my country.

What beautiful words. The signers knew full well what risks they were running.

The first anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence took place in a nation at war, with our battle fortunes at low ebb. But Americans still celebrated in Philadelphia, U.S. ships of war were decked in red, white, and blue. At 1 o’clock, each ship fired a volley of 13 cannon for the 13 States. Members of Congress dined in state with other civil and military dignitaries and made toasts to liberty and to fallen patriots. After dinner, the Members and officers of the Army reviewed the troops, followed by a ringing of bells and a show of fireworks.

In 1788, Philadelphia was serving as the U.S. Capital. On that year, not only was the Declaration of Independence celebrated, but also the U.S. Constitution, which had recently been ratified by 10 States. This July Fourth celebration included another new feature—a parade with horse-drawn floats. One float, that of an enormous eagle, carried the Justices of the Supreme Court in lieu of today’s beauty pageant queens.

In 1826, the Nation achieved a milestone when the 50th Independence Day celebration was being planned. The mayor of Washington wrote to invite the surviving ex-Presidents and Signers of the Declaration to attend the festivities. The five men, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, James Monroe, and Charles Carroll, were unable to attend. Why? Because of age or infirmity, or other reasons. Indeed, at 10 minutes before 1 o'clock on July 4, 1826, Thomas Jefferson, principal drafter of the Declaration, passed away. John Adams, too, breathed his last on the same day. In his 90s and gravely ill, he had determined to hold on until the 50th anniversary of independence. That morning, he roused long enough to confirm to a servant that he knew that the 50th anniversary Fourth of July, God bless it. God bless you all," before fading into unconsciousness. Rousing later that afternoon, he confided unknowingly as he passed on to that other shore that "Thomas Jefferson still survives." He did not know that Jefferson had died earlier that day.

James Monroe, who fought in the Revolutionary War and became the fifth President of the United States, also died on July 4. In 1831, James Madison, the fourth President, died a week before the 50th anniversary of Independence Day, on June 28, 1836.

The last living Signer of the Declaration of Independence, Charles Carroll, performed one of his last public acts on July 4, 1836. He participated in a ground-breaking ceremony initiating construction of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway, the first important railroad in the Nation. He died in 1832, at the age of 95. Also in 1826, President John Quincy Adams led an unusual 4th of July parade, up the Potomac River and the old Washington Canal to the site where construction was to start on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. These two acts underscore the vital link between the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution which followed it, and the vibrant economy which has made and kept the United States economy vibrant and strong for so many years.

Our Nation is a union of disparate States, each of which has considerable power in its own sphere. But those boundaries, linking the Union into a seamless web of bustling commerce and economic might, is the national infrastructure. Just as the Constitution provides for the common defense, so it promotes the common good by linking markets and people across States. Over the Years, Federal support for great infrastructure projects, from the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to the National Highway System, have woven the country into a unified economic structure. Federal support for rural electrification and rural telephone and Internet access have spread opportunity and progress from border to border and coast to coast, just as John Adams foretold in 1776.

This 4th of July, as we all visit national parks, tour Federal monuments, drive on interstate highways, call friends and family around the country, and buy picnic goods grown all over the United States, we celebrate a national Federal holiday under the protective watch of the U.S. military and Federal law enforcement agencies—we unconsciously enjoy the benefits of the Federal Government and of belonging to a union that is the United States.

Each star on the flag, the flag beside the President's Office, the salute so proudly represents a single state, but only when they are aligned together do we feel the strength and the glory that were won for us, beginning on July 4, 1776. This Independence Day, we will all do well to read and cherish the Declaration of Independence. Even more, we would do well as a Nation to study and cherish our Constitution, by which our freedom, so dearly won and so costfully held, lives on.

Too often in recent years and months have I seen unwise attempts to erode the checks and balances of the Constitution, unknowing or unthinking efforts to dissolve the institutions and practices established to make our Nation the free and representative government by our Founding Fathers. Attacks on the United States from without are met with instant, unhesitating defense by all Americans, but we are not so knowledgeable vigilant against the insidious weakening from within, even within the Chamber of 50 do we, with all our wit and our votes, the last, best guardians of American freedom and independence. We lack only the weapons of knowledge and awareness.

I close with a poem by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, entitled "O Ship of State."

Thou, too, sail on, O Ship of State! Sail on, O Union, strong and great! Humanity with all its fears, Are hanging breathless on thy fate!
With all the hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate!
We know what Master laid thy keel!
We know what Workmen wrought thy ribs of steel,
What Workmen wrought thy ribs of steel,
What anvil rang, what hammers beat,
In what a forge and what a heat!
Were shaped thy bow and stern! Were shaped thy bow and stern!
Fear not each sudden sound and shock,
'Tis of the wave and not the rock;
'Tis but the flapping of the sail,
'Tis but the flapping of the sail,
In spite of false lights on the shore,
In spite of false lights on the shore,
Sail on, nor fear to bear the sea!
Sail on, nor fear to bear the sea!
Our hearts, our hopes, all with thee.
Our hearts, our hopes, all with thee.
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee—are all with thee!
Mr. President, I yield the floor and suggest the absence of a quorum. The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll. The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the order for the quorum call be rescinded. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

THANKING SENATOR BYRD

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I wish that I were able to express myself in a manner that is worthy of my feelings about the Senator from West Virginia. I can't do that, but I can do the best I can.

There isn't a day that goes by that I don't recognize personally how fortunate I am to live in this country and to represent the sovereign State of Nevada and to be a Member of the Senate. It is a blessing that I have had, for whatever reasons. Whether I am worthy or not, that is for someone else to decide. But one important aspect of my life has been my association, my friendship, my service with the Senator from West Virginia, a man who served in the Congress for more than 50 years, who, like clockwork, comes to the Senate floor on special occasions like the Fourth of July or Thanksgiving, and makes us all feel better for having had the opportunity to listen to a speech by the Senator from West Virginia.

As I look back over the time I spent here on the Senate floor, listening to the Senator from West Virginia, I am drawn to a number of things I will never forget. I remember the speeches—of course I sat with every one of them. I missed a couple of them, but I watched them in my office—the speeches on the fall of the Roman Empire that were based on the line-item veto. The Senator from West Virginia was indicating that the line-item veto. The Senator from West Virginia was indicating that this was the beginning of the end of the Senate. The Senator delivered those speeches without a note. I didn't realize at the time, but the Senator knew every word he intended to say. They were not extemporaneous in the sense that they gave an extemporaneous speech. He knew before he gave the speech, beforehand, every word he was going to deliver.

I was so impressed with that series of speeches that I sent them to the head of the political science then at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas, Andrew Tuttle. Tuttle was so impressed—I sent him the speeches so he could watch them—he started a course at UNLV based on the lectures of Senator BYRD.

I am not going to go on, other than to say our country is so much better as a result of the service granted by the people of West Virginia. The Senator from West Virginia. People may not always agree with the Senator from West Virginia, but no one can take away the fact he is the epitome of the Senate. And when the history books are written—and they will be written—there will be a place where they will list the great Senators of this body, and in the top two or three will be the Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I thank my dear friend, the distinguished Senator from Nevada, who is also the Democratic whip here in the Senate. Tennyson in Ulysses says: I am a part of all that I have met.

Mr. President, I don't know how long the great God of the universe will spare me, but however long it may be, the distinguished Senator from Nevada, Mr. REID, will always be a part of me.
Many of us in this Chamber had the ex-pertence of Strom Thurmond holding our arm tightly as he explains a viewpoint and asked for our support. I might add that this proved to be a very effective approach.

Strom was also known to have a kind goodness that was extremely good to his staff. Despite his power traits—his devotion to the Constitu-sion. Our country is better for the during these and so many other accomplishments over the years, he has witnessed—those who were too as “an institution within an institution.”

In 1902, the year Strom Thurmond began, life expectancy was 51 and today it is 77 years. Strom continued to prove that, by any measure, he was anything but average.

He saw so much in his life. To pro-provide some context, let me point out that during his lifetime, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Alaska and Hawaii gained Statehood, and 11 amendments were added to the Constitution.
The technological advancements he witnessed, from the automobile to the airplane to the Internet, literally witnessed, from the automobile to the airplane to the Internet, literally

The story of his remarkable political career truly could fill several volumes.
It began with a win in 1928 for the Edgefield County Superintendent of Schools. Eighteen years later, he was Governor of South Carolina. Strom was even a Presidential candidate in 1948, running on the "Dixieocrat" ticket against Democrat Harry Truman.
I must admit, he came a long way in his political career, given that he originally came to the Senate as a Democrat. I was happy to say that wisdom

Strom was also known to have a kind of friends. With a friend like Strom Thurmond, this sentiment could not be more true. I am a great admirer of Strom Thurmond, and am proud to have called him my friend.

One final note about Strom Thurmond. He was a great patriot. A decodorated veteran of World War II who fought at Normandy on D-day, Strom Thurmond loved this country. Let me close by saying that this country loved him, too.

A SALUTE TO PAUL GALIS

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, the great State of West Virginia has produced numerous individuals who have dedicated their lives to the service of the Nation. These sons and daughters of West Virginia have contributed to the betterment of their communities, their State and their country. One such pubclic servant is Paul L. Galis, who for 35 years has served admirably in the Federal Aviation Administration, and has contributed to the development of an aviation system unsurpassed in the world.

Mr. Galis retires in July as the Deputy Associate Administrator for Airports in FAA. In this position as well as his previous position of Director of the Office of Airport Planning and Program, Mr. Galis has overseen the planning and development of over 3,000 airports in the national plan for airports.
This has been no small task and Mr.
Galis has served with distinction.
All of us in the State of West Virginia assign Mr. Galis for his career and wish him the best in his future endeavors. Our country is better for the work he has done and the example of public service he has provided. His able leadership and steady hand will be

OREGON’S TANF WAIVER

Mr. WYDEN. Mr. President, on June 12, 2003, I published a notice in the CONGRES-Sional Record of my intent to object to moving to H.R. 2350, a bill to extend the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, or “TANF,” our Nation’s welfare program. My good friend from Oregon, Senator SMITH, joined in this effort because the legislation does not contain a provision critical to Organ’s welfare program: a waiver of certain provisions that gives Oregon flexibility to operate a successful welfare program. Because of its waiver, which expires on June 30, 2003, Oregon has reduced its welfare rolls nearly 60 percent since 1994. It is clear that the waiver has allowed Oregon to meet local needs and craft what has been heralded as one of the best welfare programs in the country.

Since Senator SMITH and I announced our public holds, the distinguished chairman of the Finance Committee, Senator GRASSLEY, and the ranking member, Senator Baucus, have worked closely with us to find a way so that Oregon can continue to operate under its waiver until TANF is fully reauthorized. They have helped obtain a letter for the Department of Health & Human Services Secretary Tommy Thompson to Oregon Governor Ted Kulongoski, myself and Senator SMITH assuring us that Oregon can continue to operate without penalty under its waiver. I believe this letter provides Oregon the assurances necessary to continue to operate as if the waiver were still in place, and ask unanimous consent to insert the letter in the RECORD.

Mr. SMITH. I join Senator WYDEN in expressing deep pride in Oregon’s TANF program and in thanking the Chairman, Senator SMITH, joined in Oregon can continue to operate without penalty under its waiver.

I also express my appreciaiton to Senators GRASSLEY and BAUCUS for their efforts on TANF reauthorization.
We have been working together for months to ensure that all TANF proposals, including those elements which have made Oregon’s TANF program so successful, are carefully considered as we move toward TANF reauthoriza-

Oregon’s TANF program, often called the Oregon Option, works because it recognizes local barriers to work and works with individuals to assess their needs and get them onto a path toward independence. For example, Oregon al-loids individuals with severe substance abuse problems to seek treatment. This helps people address the root of their problems—not just the symptoms. The Oregon Option has put people into real work situations—not just make work—and this has helped Oregon move people off the welfare rolls and into real, sustainable jobs. I believe the Senate can learn from the lessons of Oregon’s program, and I will continue to work with my colleagues to ensure that all state TANF programs have the flexibility they need to operate successfully.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I understand the concerns of the Senators from Oregon, and I look forward to working with them to reauthorize the TANF program in the coming months. I appreciate their concern for the need for Oregon to retain flexibility in TANF. I hope the Senator from Montana will agree that the Finance Committee, on both sides of the aisle, should discuss this issue as we move to reauthorize the TANF program.

Mr. BAUCUS. I agree with the chairman and look forward to moving on these issues. My home State of Montana is currently operating under a waiver that expires on December 31st of this year. I know that Montana, like Oregon, has been able to craft a successful TANF program because of its waiver, and I look forward to working with my distinguished colleagues to see that it is retained.

RECOGNIZING SENATOR TED STEVENS, THE RECIPIENT OF THE ARLEIGH BURKE AWARD FROM THE CENTER FOR STRATEGIC AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Mr. INOUE. Mr. President, our distinguished colleague, the Honorable Ted Stevens, was presented with the Arleigh Burke Award on June 11, 2003, by the Center for Strategic and International Studies. The award, named after the famed Admiral, who was the longest serving Chief of Naval Operations, recognizes Senator Stevens’s leadership in the fields of strategy, source, and policy affairs, as well as his hard work and selfless devotion to promote public service and the ideals of freedom.

When Senator Stevens accepted the Burke Award, he delivered a thoughtful speech that underscored Admiral Burke’s convictions that duty to country is more important than duty to the Commander-in-Chief, and that we should oppose the concentration of power.

I ask unanimous consent that Senator Stevens’s speech be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SPEECH BY SENATOR TED STEVENS AT THE CSIS ARLEIGH BURKE MEMORIAL DINNER ON JUNE 11, 2003, IN WASHINGTON, DC

Good evening. Thanks to my good friend and colleague Senator Warner for that warm introduction.

My congratulations to General Keene, the Army’s new Acting Chief of Staff. I wish him success in the coming months.

It is a tremendous honor to receive an award named after Admiral Burke. Like many of you, I am familiar with the Admiral’s distinguished life of dedication, service, and achievement. During World War II, he was an admiral in the Navy, and the battles that made him one of that war’s greatest combat leaders were well known. Admiral Burke was the Chief of Naval Operations. Like everything he did, Admiral Burke served as CNO with tremendous distinction. He was the longest serving CNO in history, and during his tenure he fought for technologies and strategies that continue to form the foundation of our Armed Services.

To refresh my memory of Admiral Burke’s accomplishments, I went back to E.B. Potter’s book about him.

Poter reported that in January of 1958, the year Alaska’s Statehood Bill was enacted, Burke opposed the Gaither Report, which recommended streamlining and centralization of defense. At the National Press Club on January 22, 1958, he warned all 12 forces of “one man, a military Solomon.”

Notwithstanding that position of the CNO, in April 1958, and I quote from Potter’s book on Arleigh Burke.

“...Eisenhower sent to Congress a special message on reorganization of the Department of Defense. Its chief recommendations were (1) to withdraw forces from the operation chain of command; (2) to restrict Service Secretaries to administrative functions; (3) to restrict duties of Joint Chiefs of Staff mainly to advising the Secretary of Defense; (4) to enlarge the Joint Staff; and (5) to limit control of operating forces to the President and the Secretary of Defense.”

Eisenhower sent word through Secretary of Defense McNary that he wanted all senior officers and officials to support his plan.

Arleigh was called before the Senate Armed Services Committee. As Potter stated, Admiral Burke “put duty to country over duty to the chief of the operating forces.” He proposed this concentration of power in the Secretary of Defense.

The Defense Reorganization Act of 1958 did not make的重大 than the Gaither Report. It followed many of Admiral Burke’s suggestions.

To his great credit, Ike appointed Admiral Burke to a third term as CNO in August 1959.

It is my hope that in reviewing the current proposals from D.O.D. before Congress, senior officers and officials of D.O.D. and all members of Congress will follow the great traditions Admiral Burke upheld.

Arleigh Burke lived his life by principles which guided him through the perils of World War II and still pertain today.

He once described his philosophy as: “An old-time philosophy—a philosophy of realism. You must always ask yourself the question, ‘What is important in life?’... I don’t think it’s very important to be remembered... The ideas I stood for should be remembered.”

Admiral Burke evidenced that dedication to the men under his command. The spirit of Admiral Burke’s commitment to his sailors is reflected in the steps the Congress has taken to support our troops and honor our promises to our veterans.

Admiral Burke was a hero and a visionary, and I have no greater honor than to be your guest at this evening’s event. Thanks again for this award.

LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ACT OF 2003

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today to speak about the need for hate crimes legislation. On May 1, 2003, Senator KENNEDY and I introduced the Local Law Enforcement Act, a bill that would codify current hate crime laws. This legislation would send a signal that violence of any kind is unacceptable in our society.

I would like to describe a terrible crime that occurred in New Bedford, Massachusetts, on June 12. Rahul Bhalerao, a 24-year-old graduate student, was ambushed by four men and savagely beaten when the assailants mistook the student for a Muslim. Mr. Bhalerao, a Hindu Indian, works part-time as a pizza delivery man. One of the suspects placed a phone order at the local pizzeria where Mr. Bhalerao is employed. When Mr. Bhalerao arrived with the order, two men shoved him into the apartment and pushed him to the floor. After Mr. Bhalerao was lying on the floor, the attackers kicked and beat him. At one point, one suspect hit him with a kitchen chair. The perpetrators also burned Mr. Bhalerao’s beard and hit him with a lit cigarette when they were unable to locate court documents, one of the attackers told Mr. Bhalerao to “Go back to your own country.” Mr. Bhalerao eventually escaped from the trunk of an assailant’s car after he managed to loosen the fisherman’s rope binding his hands and feet. He is currently in the intensive care unit at a local hospital.

I believe that Government’s first duty is to defend its citizens, to defend them against the harms that come out of hate. The Local Law Enforcement Enhancement Act is a symbol that can become substance. I believe that by passing this legislation and changing current law, we can change hearts and minds as well.

NOMINATION OF JOSHUA BOLTEN TO BE DIRECTOR OF THE OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

Mr. CONRAD. Mr. President, I rise in support of Joshua Bolten as Director of the Office of Management and Budget, and to urge Mr. Bolten to do everything within his power to help put the Federal budget back on sound footing.

The position of OMB Director is always one of the most demanding posts in our Government, but it is especially so right now. The tax cuts pushed through by the President over the last 21/2 years, combined with the continuing economic slowdown and increased spending to respond to the September 11 terrorist attacks and prosecute the military efforts in Afghanistan and Iraq, have pushed the budget deep into deficit. And despite the fact that we desperately need to get our fiscal house in order to be ready for the imminent retirement of the baby-boom population, this administration and its allies in Congress have not yet accepted that the policies they have advocated are leading us in the wrong direction.
I support the nomination of Joshua Bolten as OMB Director because I believe he is a very capable and honorable man, with a distinguished record both in public service—including serving as a Senate staffer—and in the private sector. I think that will not only help to achieve the goal of getting the budget back on a sustainable path even if those policies may be politically difficult.

In a written response to a question by the Governmental Affairs Committee, Mr. Bolten reiterated the position of the Bush administration about the deficits facing us, stating that: “Our current deficit—as measured as a percentage of gross domestic product (GDP)—is not large by historical standards and is manageable within the overall context of our economy.”

I hope when Mr. Bolten assumes his post as head of OMB, he recognizes the reality of the budget situation and leads the administration to reassess that position. That reality is that the deficit we are currently facing is enormous by any standard. According to CBO, the total deficit will exceed $400 billion this year, more than $100 billion higher than the all-time record deficit of $250 billion recorded in 1992. As a percentage of GDP, the deficit will be about 4 percent, a level that has been reached only eight times in the 57 years since the end of World War II. More troubling, when Social Security is excluded from the calculation, this year’s deficit is likely to total about 5.5 percent—a level reached only twice in the last 57 years.

I hope Mr. Bolten accepts how serious the budget situation is and how important it is that we do not delay beginning the difficult work of turning the deficit around. I hope that he will advise the President to work with the Congress in a truly bipartisan way to reach agreement on and enact policies that will put the budget back on track.

COMBATING TORTURE AND ASSISTING VICTIMS OF TORTURE

Mr. CAMPBELL. Mr. President, I rise today to address the barbaric practices that constitute torture as we mark the United Nations Day in Support of the Victims of Torture. Astonishingly, an estimated 500,000 victims of torture live in the United States today, including many individuals who were tortured abroad. The United States has provided vital leadership in the campaign to prevent torture around the world. The United States must not equivocate on this most basic of human rights.

While the United States has consistently spoken out forcefully against the use of torture around the world, serious questions have been raised suggesting U.S. complicity in torture as part of the war against terrorism. This prompted me to join other members of the Helsinki Commission in writing to the White House recently urging an investigation of “serious allegations that the United States is using torture, both directly and indirectly, during interrogations of captured combatants.” In response to this call, President Bush announced a review of torture and issued a “zero tolerance” policy. It is important that we do not delay beginning that process, and enact policies that will put the budget back on track.

As Cochairman of the Helsinki Commission, I am particularly concerned that torture remains a tolerated if not condoned form of punishment throughout the world. According to the State Department, the number of torture victims continues to grow, and “security forces continued to torture, beat and otherwise abuse detainees.” The U.S. government claims to be seeking information about torture, yet torture remains a victim of neglect. The United States has become a global leader in combating torture, and the White House has set the highest standards in this regard. As we mark the United Nations Day in Support of the Victims of Torture, I urge the administration to issue a forthright statement on torture. In his State of the Union Address, President Bush described the horrific forms of torture employed by the Hussein regime and concluded, “If this is not evil, then evil has no meaning.” Even as experts document the scope of torture in Iraq, there must be no doubt concerning U.S. policy and practice.

In some places, like Uzbekistan, members of the political opposition or religious minorities are especially likely to be the victims of torture. Tragically, two more people there have been added to the list of those who have died in custody amid credible allegations of abuse and torture, just weeks after the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development hosted a prestigious meeting in Tashkent, and days after the Secretary of State determined Uzbekistan is eligible for continued U.S. assistance. Moreover, the shortsighted practice of making martyrs out of Islamic extremists may have exactly the opposite effect the government claims to be seeking in its efforts to combat terrorism.

In Georgia, torture and abuse comes hand in hand with police corruption. In the most recent State Department Country Report on human rights in Georgia, the United States noted: “[s]ecurity forces continued to torture, beat, and otherwise abuse detainees. . . . NGOs also blamed several deaths in custody on physical abuse, torture, or inhumane and life-threatening prison conditions.” Even President Shevardnadze has, in the past, acknowledged the prevalence of abuse against detainees and prisoners. I welcome a new initiative of the OSCE Mission in Georgia to combat torture, but we must work as a country to ensure initiatives have come and gone in Georgia with little to show for it. Without real political will, I am afraid this latest initiative may end up like the others.

In Turkey—a country which has been given particular attention by the Helsinki Commission—even the doctors who treat the victims of torture have become targets themselves. Their offices have been raided, records seized, and even some doctors have been arrested and tortured. Moreover, the patients whom these doctors have already suffered at the hands of the authorities, have often been re-arrested, retortured and recharged based on their testimonies given to the medical authorities.

As a result of these practices, Turkey has been repeatedly sanctioned by the European Court of Human Rights. The Turkish nongovernmental organization, the Human Rights Foundation, confirmed that the court had the authority to order Turkey to pay $95,000 for the murder of Dr. Melek Elbeyli, whom the Turks tortured in questioning about his role in defending these doctors. Last year, Turkey’s Grand National Assembly has passed significant legislation with severe penalties for those convicted of torture. A major effort still needs to be made to conform the application of the law in the regional courts of Turkey with the intent of the parliamentarians. The Helsinki Commission will continue to monitor developments in Turkey and the implementation of this law.

In the 1999 OSCE Istanbul Charter, the participating States committed themselves to “eradicating torture and cruel, inhumane or degrading treatment or punishment throughout the OSCE area. To this end, we will promote legislation to provide procedural and substantive safeguards and remedies to combat these practices. We will assist victims and cooperate with relevant international organizations and nongovernmental organizations, as appropriate.”

Clearly a strategy to confront and combat torture must emphasize prevention of torture, prosecution of those who commit torture, and assistance for the victims of torture. As we mark the United Nations Day in Support of the Victims of Torture, I note the good work being done by the Rocky Mountain Survivors Center, located in Denver. The center is part of a nationwide network committed to assisting the victims of torture living in the United States.

HONORING PRIVATE FIRST CLASS MICHAEL DEUEL

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. President, I am saddened to report the passing of Private First Class Michael Deuel of Nemo, SD, Pfc. Deuel was killed on June 18, 2003, while serving in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Michael moved from his home in Cheyenne, WY to attend school at Boxelder Job Corps in South Dakota in May 2000. His friends and teachers described him as an unassuming, yet confident student. Focused and hard working, Michael was determined to perform well in school. He received his general education diploma and certification from the culinary arts program shortly before enlisting in the Army. Following service in the military, he dreamed of becoming a chef and owning his own restaurant.

After enlisting in the Army, Michael entered airborne school to become an Airborne Ranger. He went on to Army Ranger training. A member of the Army’s 325th Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Airborne Division, which is based in Fort Bragg, NC.
NEW HOMESTEAD ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY ACT

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today with great concern. As you are aware, President Bush named June National Homeownership Month 2003. I am proud that our President has seen fit to promote an aggressive homeownership campaign, and I support this administration's efforts to see more Americans reach the American Dream of homeownership. As a member of the Finance Committee, I have had the opportunity to learn of important ways that we can make that a reality. In January I introduced the New Homestead Economic Opportunity Act, better known as the Homeownership Tax Credit. This legislation will create a single-family housing tax credit for developers who build in low income areas, and allow more Americans to reach their dream of homeownership. It will also encourage developers of single family units to invest in low income areas and improve our communities.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development has stated that one of its goals is to allow every citizen—regardless of race, creed, color, or place of birth—the opportunity to own their own home. To reach this goal, there must be affordable homes to purchase.

In his testimony before the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs earlier this month, James Rayburn, the Vice President of the National Association of Home Builders stated that the Homeownership Opportunity Act seeks to bridge the gap in homeownership rates among Americans. While 82 percent of households earning 100 percent or more of the national median income now own homes, only 53 percent of households earning less than the national median are homeowners. The homeownership rate for families earning 80 percent or less of the national median is only 40 percent to 45 percent. Homeownership for whites is 75 percent, while the ownership rate for African Americans is just 48 percent and 48 percent for Hispanics.

We can all agree that the quality of life in distressed neighborhoods can be improved dramatically by increasing home ownership. Existing buildings in these neighborhoods often need extensive renovation before they can provide decent owner-occupied housing. It is also difficult for renovations to occur because the cost of construction costs and market prices and will revitalize these areas.

I would like to see every American given the opportunity to succeed at the goal of owning their own home. I am proud to be the sponsor of this legislation, and I plan to continue to work to see it become law. I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting the American Dream by supporting S. 198.

HONORING MAYNARD H. JACKSON, JR.

Mr. CHAMBLISS. Mr. President, as Atlanta's first black mayor, Maynard Jackson dedicated his career and his life to showing the rest of the country that surrounded him and ensuring that the city of Atlanta was a thriving, inclusive community.

Working to expand Hartsfield International Airport, Maynard fought for equal treatment for minority workers and businesses. He sought to bring diversity to government as well as Atlanta's business community. Through the equality he fought for all racial groups, he was able to foster economic expansion and growth for Atlanta and greater equality for her citizens.

Working to secure the 1996 Olympics, Maynard ensured that Atlanta shined for the world and was recognized as a city that offered opportunity for everyone regardless of race or socio-economic class.

Serving as the president of the National Conference of Democratic Mayors and the National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials, he became a role model for young African Americans hoping to someday make their mark on this world and worked tirelessly to improve interracial relationships in the South's largest city.

His contributions and accomplishments to help our State thrive economically and to expand opportunities for minorities will be remembered for generations to come. The legacy he leaves behind is one of a greater respect for all people, greater opportunity for all people and greater hope for the world.

Our thoughts and prayers are with his loved ones left behind, and his memory will forever be with us.

IN SUPPORT OF THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. President, recently, I visited with Reverend Jacob Bazzel Mull and his wife, Elizabeth, in Knoxville, TN. They host the Mull Singing Convention, a popular gospel radio program.

Reverend Mull is a legend with an interesting story to tell. He was born in the rural town of NC, NC, and is the first musi cal family. When he was 11 months old, he lost his eyesight after falling into an open-pit fireplace. As a child, he played in a gospel group made up of his mother, father, brothers and sisters.

He began preaching in 1939 and hasn't stopped since. In 1962, he moved to Knoxville to start his first radio program, and the rest is history. He became well-known nationwide during the 25 years he sold Chuck Wagon Gang Records on several 50,000-watt radio stations.

This year, all of his many accomplishments were recognized when he was honored by the Gospel Music Association for his "outstanding contributions to gospel music."

During our visit in April, Reverend Mull gave me 2,000 letters and a number of petitions with thousands of names on them from Americans angry over the Ninth Circuit's decision declaring the Pledge of Allegiance unconstitutional. He also solicited these letters from his listeners across the country, and I was delighted to see the passion people across America have for the Pledge. It made me proud to answer all of those letters.

I am inspired to do that every day Reverend Mull brings out the best in America. He challenges us to think, and he encourages us to be involved in issues. He also reminds us to turn to our religious faith for guidance. I ran for the U.S. Senate because I wanted to find out how to bring out the best in people in Tennessee and across this country, all day, every day.

I believe the answer to how we do that lies with the people. In August of 2002, I spent the night with Jim Coley, a Tennessee Government high school teacher, and his family. One idea that came out of that visit was the importance of putting the teaching of American history and civics back into our classrooms. From that discussion, we came up with the framework for the American History and Civics Act of 2003 that just passed the Senate.

The bill establishes summer residential academies for teachers and students to encourage and learning of American history and civics in a more inspired way than is happening today. We can't expect our students to learn what it means to be an American if we don't teach them.

I would also like to see students in every classroom across this Nation beginning each schoolday with the Pledge of Allegiance. That could be followed with a student or teacher explaining in his or her own words what it means to them to be an American.

After the tragic attacks of September 11, 2001, we saw how quickly we Americans could come together as one people, united in purpose, despite our

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE

S8715

WELCOME BACK TO ALASKA, MR. CONSUL GENERAL

Ms. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, next week the people of Alaska will welcome Mr. Yossi Amrani, the Consul General of the State of Israel for the Pacific Northwest, back to our State. He will begin his trip in Fairbanks, meeting with students and members of the community at the University of Alaska, visiting with members of Congregations Or Hatzafon, which has the northernmost synagogue building in the world, and speaking to the Greater Fairbanks Chamber of Commerce. He will also visit Anchorage on this trip and I look forward to meeting with him then.

This is not Mr. Amrani’s first visit to my State, but it is his first visit to Fairbanks, the “Golden Heart City.” Although the Fairbanks Jewish community is small in numbers, the fundamental Jewish values of tikkun olam, making the world a better place: tzedakah, charity; and chesed, kindness, are deeply ingrained in the Fairbanks culture, as they are in the culture of Alaska as a whole.

Like the Fairbanks Jewish community, the Alaska Jewish community is small in numbers, but large in spirit. In the late 1990s, Professor Bernard Reisman from Brandeis University visited Alaska on several occasions to learn more about our Jewish community. He concluded that in virtually all areas, the Alaska Jewish community has a higher level of identity than do American Jews generally. He found this to be true not only in places like Anchorage and Juneau, but also in the smaller communities, where “conveners” organize regular get togethers, especially on Jewish holidays.

Members of the Jewish community occupy a prominent role in the social, economic, cultural and political life of Alaska. A few weeks ago, I welcomed the internationally known Holocaust scholar, Dr. Michael Saldinger of the University of Alaska Fairbanks, to my office in Washington. Dr. Schuldiner discussed his work with the United States Holocaust Memorial. Another UAF scholar, Dr. Michael Krauss, has worked closely with the Alaska congressional delegation for many years in efforts to preserve Alaska Native languages. And let us not forget the many contributions of the Gottstein family to virtually every aspect of Alaska’s fabric.

This is not a new phenomenon. The beautiful municipal library in Anchorage is named for Zachary J. Loussac, a Russian Jewish immigrant, who served as Mayor of Anchorage. The Girl Scout camp in Fairbanks is named for Jessie Bloom, who along with her husband Robert, are regarded as the founding leaders of the Fairbanks Jewish community. In 1926, Jessie started the first Girl Scout troop in Alaska, while Robert was a founder of what was later to become the University of Alaska. Our striking new courthouse in Fairbanks is named for Jay Rabinowitz who served for many years on the Alaska Supreme Court.

The survival of the State of Israel is important to the people of Alaska as it is to the American Jewish community and the American people. In Washington, I stand shoulder to shoulder with my colleagues in praying for peace in the Middle East while standing firm on the principle that terrorism is morally and politically unacceptable. Terrorism will not undo Israel’s future. When the Senate returns in July, it will consider comprehensive energy legislation and I hope that my amendment to guarantee that Israel will have a secure source of petroleum in the event it cannot independently acquire it due to an embargo will be in the bill when it passes the Senate.

During this visit to Alaska, as on previous visits, the Consul General will encounter the vast natural beauty of our state. But he will also discover, as in previous visits, that it is the people of Alaska that make this place truly special. Shalom, Mr. Consul General. I hope that you will visit with Alaskans often.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the message of Consul General Yossi Amrani be printed in the Record.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the Record, as follows:

MESSAGE OF CONSUL GENERAL YOSSE AMRANI TO THE PEOPLE OF ALASKA

The friendship and mutual respect between the United States and Israel have many varied faces, moral, political, economic and strategic. The partnership is on the federal and state levels alike. Local Jewish communities in the country and in Alaska share the common goal of strengthening the State of Israel, thousands of miles apart, the Consulate General of Israel to the Pacific Northwest Region works with state leaders and the Jewish community to bring the two nations together in sharing the values, ideals and concerns of both people. The Consulate provides seminars and speaking engagements in the community and seeks out different ingredients and examples to educate public opinion on the complexity of the situation in the Middle East and the importance of the U.S. role in that region. The Consulate also promotes Israeli culture and business opportunities. Mutual values are the corner stones of the relationship and affirmative between the people of and the United States. As we maintain U.S. support for Israel’s existence and well being, we aspire to continue building stronger relations.

HONORING THE LATE DAVID BRINKLEY

Mrs. DOLE. Mr. President, I am honored today to talk about a pioneer for North Carolina in the field of journalism... the late David Brinkley.

David died on June 12, at the age of 82, from complications resulting from a fall. He was laid to rest in his beloved home, Wilmington, North Carolina... beside his father—William Graham Brinkley and mother—Mary MacDonald West Brinkley.

David was born in Wilmington... He attended high school at New Hanover High School. While there... and after several long hours pouring over books in the Wilmington Library... David got an itch for journalism... and the newspaper.

He didn’t wait. He took a part-time job while still in high school, working for the Wilmington Morning Star and its afternoon edition, the Wilmington News. He said he made about $11 a week.

But the young boy, who once made extra money by changing light bulbs and running a soft-drink stand at Wrightsville Beach’s Lumina Pavilion, went on to become an icon for millions of viewers who watched him each night. He and co-anchor Chet Huntley had the highest rated news program on American television during the 1960’s with “The Huntley-Brinkley Report.” Many of us still remember their familiar sign-off of “Good night, Chet.”

Good night, David.

David went on to host “This Week With David Brinkley,” until he retired in 1996.

Mr. President, at a time when we often get news that is too short, too sensationalized and sometimes too slanted, David Brinkley was the consummate newsmen. He knew the issues and his intelligence, quick wit and thirst for answers kept us all glued to the television.

I had the pleasure of personally knowing David Brinkley, and in addition to sharing a distinctive Southern twang, we shared a fondness for our home state. David wrote about Wilmington in his 1995 memoir and even with all this success, all his fame, David and his wife, Susie, returned to his home in North Carolina often and supported his hometown. He was an ardent supporter of downtown Wilmington preservation. The University of North Carolina at Wilmington presented him with an honorary Doctor of Letters degree in 1996. He was added to Wilmington’s Walk of Fame in 2001.

As much as David loved North Carolina—North Carolina loved him, too.
His life has been a model for so many North Carolinians—the local boy doing good... remembering his roots.

We will forever be indebted to David Brinkley for solid Washington reporting and his wry sense of humor. The Senate paid a rich tribute, which I am sure will inspire the life he led and be a gift to all who follow in his footsteps.

In an interview 11 years ago, David said this of his profession, 'People go and come, but it is the happenings that I then tell what they have seen. That's all a reporter ever did. I think it's a very honorable thing to do.' Indeed, it is, David, indeed, it is.

Mr. President, I send out my heartfelt condolences—and those of all North Carolinians—to Susan and to David Brinkley's family.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

WIND RIVER INDIAN RESERVATION'S 140TH ANNIVERSARY

• Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize the 140th Anniversary of the Wind River Reservation.

On July 2, 1863, the U.S. Government and the Shoshone people signed the Fort Bridger Treaty, creating the Shoshone Reservation, which included over 44 million acres in what is now Colorado, Utah, Idaho, and Wyoming. This area was reduced to roughly 3 million acres by the second Fort Bridger Treaty of July 3, 1868, and was later renamed the Wind River Reservation during the 1930s. Today, the reservation is roughly more than 2 million acres, one of the largest in the country, and is located in central Wyoming's beautiful Wind River Basin. It remains the contemporary home of the Eastern Shoshone and Northern Arapaho tribes.

Chief Washakie, a distinguished statesman of the Shoshone people, was one of the few Indian leaders to successfully negotiate with the U.S. Government in determining the reservation's location. For centuries, American Indians who traveled through this area referred to it as the Warm Valley of the Wind River because of surrounding hot springs. Renowned for his courage on the battlefield, and talent in diplomacy, the people of Wyoming selected Chief Washakie to represent our State, in the U.S. Capitol Building, as one of our two contributions to Statuary Hall.

The northern band of Arapahos began to make the Wind River Reservation a more permanent home during the late 1870s, though they were not signatories to either of the Fort Bridger Treaties. Under the leadership of men such as Black Coal, Sharp Nose, Little Wolf and White Horse, the Northern Arapahos settled in Wyoming, while the northern band of Arapahos moved to a reservation in western Oklahoma. Wind River country encompasses mountains, streams, lakes and forests, and was favored by the Northern Arapahos over the hot and arid Oklahoma landscape.

The Wind River Indian Reservation is one of Wyoming's great historical, cultural, and natural treasures. A grave site for Sacajawea, the young Shoshone woman who helped guide the Lewis and Clark expedition through Shoshone lands in the early 1800s, can be visited on the reservation. Both tribes continue to honor this Powwow due to the spring and summer months that draw visitors and members of tribes from across the country. Later this week, the Eastern Shoshone will be celebrating the Treaty Days Powwow.

As we look back on the past 140 years, I would like to pay tribute to the important contribution American Indians have made to our history and our culture. Throughout my time in Congress, I have had the pleasure to work with representatives from both tribes on the Wind River Reservation. I would like to thank Vernon Hill, chairman of the Eastern Shoshone Business Council and Burton Hutchinson, Sr., chairman of the Northern Arapaho Business Council, for their leadership as we work to ensure the prosperity of the Wind River Reservation for future generations.

A GREAT MONTANAN—ANTHONY J. PREITE

• Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I rise today in celebration of a great Montanan and American, Anthony J. Preite.

Today, Mr. Preite, the director of the Denver Regional Office of the U.S. Department of Commerce Economic Development Administration is retiring. I have known Tony Preite for about 30 years. His Department’s “High Line” in Havre, MT. After a short time as a high school teacher and coach, he was lured by the Bear Paw Development Corporation, an EDA designated economic development agency, to come to work for them in 1968. A year later, he became the executive director of that fledgling organization and thus began a career in economic development that is virtually unparalleled today. Under Tony’s leadership, Bear Paw Development Corporation quickly developed a reputation as one of this Nation’s premiere economic development organizations. Tony spearheaded literally hundreds of economic development projects and programs in that part of northern Montana. These projects resulted in hundreds of jobs, scores of infrastructure improvements, and other activities that have improved the lives of people in this area. Among his other accomplishments at Bear Paw, he was a founding member of the Montana Economic Developer’s Association, served on the Montana Private Industry Council, and was chairman of the Governor’s Economic Development Council.

Tony’s work at Bear Paw Development Corporation was so successful that I felt the need to bring the benefit of his expertise and enthusiasm to more Montanans. That is why, in 1993, I recommended his appointment by President Clinton as State Director of the Montana Farmers Home Administration. Through a reorganization at the Department of Agriculture, Tony served on the new Executive Council, and was chairman of the Northern Arapaho Business Council, and was chairman of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and is credited with helping the agency during its formative years. The success of the Rural Development Agency and the value of its programs today are largely due to the efforts that Tony made during his tenure there.

In December 1999, Tony accepted the position as Regional Director for the Economic Development Administration. In this position, Tony has continued to impart his expertise and enthusiasm to this and to a 10 State region. In his professional life, Tony has received accolades and awards too numerous to mention here. Instead, let me say that I have not met anyone as dedicated to public service as Tony Preite. Tony does not leave his work at the office. He lives and breathes “public service” every day, all day. It’s immediately apparent to anyone who meets him that he always cares about the people he serves. His works has made an enormous difference for all of us who work and play there.

While Tony’s retirement is a sad occasion to all of us who work with him, it is well deserved. I can take comfort that he will be returning to Montana and that he will find some other way to continue to serve his State. I wish Tony and his wife Betty all the best and I thank him for more than 35 years of public service. Good luck, Tony, and welcome back to Montana!

AL BRAIMAN: DEPAUL UNIVERSITY CLASS OF 2003

• Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, I rise today to honor Al Braidman, graduate of DePaul University’s Class of 2003. Al was the oldest graduate of DePaul’s Class of 2003 when he graduated on June 14. Al completed a degree in library science at DePaul’s New Learning with a grade point average of 3.92 out of a possible 4.0.

HONORING SUPERINTENDENT GERALD WAYNE COBB, ED.D
Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, every session in Congress we spend a large amount of time discussing education in this country. Debates range from accountability to school construction to teacher recruitment. While our discussions are of the utmost importance, it is the implementation of our decisions by the individuals within the education system that changes how our children learn. I rise today to honor a man who had dedicated his life to improving education for children in Louisiana, Dr. Gerald Wayne Cobb.

In 1960, Dr. Cobb received his bachelor’s degree in health and physical education from Louisiana Tech University. Since that time he has been a crucial part of school improvements within the Lincoln Parish School System. Dr. Cobb has served as principal of Hillcrest Junior High School, Simsboro High School, and Ruston High School. He has worked as visiting associate professor at Louisiana State University and Louisiana Tech University.

Dr. Cobb has also served in the Louisiana Department of Education, working as the director of secondary education, the executive director of academic programs, and the executive assistant to the superintendent. While with the Louisiana Department of Education, he has been instrumental in developing the Compensatory Education Program in Louisiana which provided remediation for students not meeting the passing scores on the State’s Basic Skills Testing Program. Dr. Cobb also served as director of the Louisiana Academic Bulleted Sum, which is the Louisiana Handbook for School Administration and served as the basis for the State’s accreditation program. Dr. Cobb worked to increase in-service training for principals by co-authoring the Louisiana Accountability for School Administrators Program and representing Louisiana at the Leadership Training for Principals.

After working with the Department of Education and serving as principal for schools throughout Lincoln Parish, Dr. Cobb continued his public service in the area of education by serving as superintendent for the Lincoln Parish School System. For the past 15 years, Dr. Cobb has helped the 14 schools and 6,865 students in the Lincoln Parish School System. During his tenure, Dr. Cobb helped to construct the Lincoln Parish Secondary Alternative School at no cost to local taxpayers. As a result, Lincoln Parish receive the highest ACT scores throughout the State in 1996. In 2000, Ruston High School graduated seven National Merit Finalists, the most of any public, nonmagnet high school in the State. Dr. Cobb’s motto was always: "We have named above. Dr. Cobb has spent the past 43 years giving his kindness, his leadership to his service. It is to educators like Dr. Cobb that we owe many of the successes of our education policy. My best wishes are with Dr. Cobb and his family as he enters retirement.

HONORING LOUIS AND LUJUANNA CARNEY
Mr. CRAPO. Mr. President, I rise today to congratulate my good friend, Louis Carney and his wife LuJuanna. Just last week, the Carneys, who live near my family’s home in Idaho Falls, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. I am honored to know them and pleased that I was asked to join the celebration.

I can think of no better way to commemorate their 50 years together than to mention that they are the proud parents of eight children, six who are still with us—Don, Nancy, Bob, Terry, Kevin, and Kenneth; and two who have rejoined their Heavenly Father—Laurie Ann and Jean Marie; the even prouder grandparents of sixteen; and the great grandparents of one. It speaks very highly of their commitment to each other and their family that so many of their family members were on hand to mark the occasion. Louis has been a very good friend to me over the years, and I appreciate his wisdom and guidance on many matters. He has been a strong supporter of the Boy Scouts of America program, and I share his enthusiasm for this program which can be so important in helping young men to learn new skills and achieve goals.

Louis and LuJuanna have been important members of our community. They are always available for those who are in need. They radiate happiness and contentment, and can be counted on by not only their friends, but so many others. I am proud to mark their anniversary, and even more pleased to call them friends.

TRIBUTE TO GARY R. COOPER
Mr. GREGG. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize and commend Gary R. Cooper upon his retirement after serving for 20 years as Executive Director of SEARCH, the National Consortium for Justice Information and Statistics.

SEARCH is a national organization dedicated to enhancing the use of information and identification technology in law enforcement. SEARCH provides invaluable no-cost technical assistance, training and support to criminal justice agencies all over the country. The organization’s members are Governors appointees from each State and their common goal is to ensure that the criminal justice community has access to services that will allow them to use the best technology for communications, information sharing, and identification. SEARCH has been a tremendous asset to our Nation’s law enforcement and this is due in no small part to the work of Gary Cooper.

Under Gary’s leadership over the past 20 years, SEARCH has truly become a leader in encouraging States to participate in national information and identification technology programs. For instance, under Gary’s leadership, SEARCH made a profound contribution to the States’ effective participation in the Interstate Identification Index and the National Fingerprint File, and the National Crime Information Center (NCIC 2000) program.

Through SEARCH, Gary has also helped to implement the Interstate Identification Index on the national level. While Gary has headed SEARCH, it has made a profound contribution to the development and implementation of the National Criminal Background Check System. SEARCH also played a pivotal role in the development and enactment of the Crime Identification Technology Act which today creates the legal and funding platform for the Federal/State criminal justice technology partnership. Because of Gary, SEARCH was, and is, the engine of national support for the successful and ongoing national adoption of the Interstate Identification Index and Privacy Compact and the development of the Compact Council.

At every important moment in the past 20-year history of criminal justice information and identification technology, Gary Cooper has been a courageous leader, an unting champion and an insightful and influential national voice.

On the occasion of his retirement, I thank Gary R. Cooper for all that he has accomplished on behalf of criminal justice in the United States.
HONORING HUGH BRADY

Mr. CRAPO. Mr. President, I rise today to congratulate Mr. Hugh Brady of Boise, Idaho who will be inducted into the Idaho High School Activities Hall of Fame on August 6th, 2003. In 1954 Mr. Brady started working at Idaho Sporting Goods, and he has been dedicating his career to the youth of Idaho. There have been numerous instances when a student could not afford the cost of equipment to participate in a sport and Mr. Brady made sure that they got it. Mr. Brady, you make Idaho proud.

For the past 4 years, Mr. Brady has battled lung cancer. My wife, Susan, and I along with many Idahoans will keep him in our thoughts and prayers.

HONORING VICTIMS OF GUN VIOLENCE

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, earlier this week, more than 35 dedicated cyclists with People Pedaling Peace made the 200-mile trip from Hampton, VA, to Washington, DC, to honor and remember victims of gun violence. In partnership with the Alliance for Justice, the People Pedaling Peace cyclists rode not only in honor of the victims of gun violence, but for stronger, more sensible gun safety laws in America and to raise awareness of violence against children in this country.

Pedaling for Peace was started in 2001 by Sandra and Mike McSweeney whose 17-year-old daughter Stephanie was killed while walking out of a roller rink in Hampton, VA. Mr. and Mrs. McSweeney, as well as several other individuals affected by gun violence and violence against children made the journey this year. Others who made the trip include Craig Scott, whose sister Rachel is a Columbine survivor; Amber Hensley, a student at Thurston High School in Eugene, OR, who witnessed the shootings; and Lorraine Reed, mother of two daughters, one of whom was murdered and one of whom was seriously assaulted. Unfortunately, the total number of people like them who have lost family and friends to gun violence continues to grow.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the total number of gun deaths in the United States has been dropping since 1993, when it peaked at nearly 40,000, to around 28,000 annually 1999 through 2001. However, guns still kill more young people in America than the most common disease of our time. Thousands more children are injured, lose a loved one, or live in fear of gun violence.

I hope my colleagues will join me in commending all of the cyclists who pedaled for peace, and join me in supporting sensible gun safety legislation.

DELBERT L. LATTA POST OFFICE BUILDING

Mr. VOINOVICH. Mr. President, I rise today on behalf of a bill considered by the Senate, S. 985, to designate a post office in Bowling Green, OH, as the Delbert L. Latta Post Office Building. I strongly support this bill honoring a long-time member of the Ohio congressional delegation. Naming this post office after Del Latta is a fitting way to honor him. The building that houses this post office also served as a district office for Mr. Latta during his 30 years of service in Congress.

Delbert Latta is a native and lifelong resident of Ohio. Born in the small, northwestern town of Weston, OH, Mr. Latta attended Bowling Green State University and the Ohio Northern University Law School.

Mr. Latta began his service to our Nation as a member of the Ohio National Guard. During World War II, Mr. Latta served with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves.

After his military service, Mr. Latta practiced law in Bowling Green, but in 1953, he again answered the call to public service by running for the State legislature. Mr. Latta was elected to the Ohio State Senate. After serving three terms, Mr. Latta was elected by the people of Ohio's fifth congressional district to the U.S. House of Representatives. During his long and distinguished career in Congress, Mr. Latta fought hard against wasteful government spending and to balance the Federal budget, a passion that I share.

During his 30 years in Congress, Mr. Latta earned prominent committee assignments in the House, including serving as the ranking member of the Budget Committee, and as a member of the powerful Rules Committee, and the Agriculture Committee.

Naming this post office the Delbert L. Latta Post Office Building is a wonderful tribute to a man who served Ohio and our Nation with distinction throughout his life.

I thank my colleagues for their consideration of this matter.

TRIBUTE TO ARTHUR G. STEPHENSON

Mr. SHELBY. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize the outstanding accomplishments and distinguished career of Mr. Arthur G. Stephenson upon his retirement as the Director of the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center. It has been a privilege for me to get to know Art. While retirement announcements are things that we do not like to hear when it involves someone who has been an integral part of an organization as Art has been to Marshall’s, I would like to say how much I have enjoyed working with Art and his staff during his tenure as the Director of the Marshall Space Flight Center.

As the Director of one of NASA’s largest field installations, with more than 6,500 civil service and contract employees and an annual budget in excess of $2 billion, Art successfully managed a very broad range of activities for the U.S. space program. Some of these critical NASA initiatives included development of new reusable launch vehicles, propulsion advanced space transportation systems, second and third generation propulsion technology development programs, research in microgravity, and science payload operations aboard the International Space Station. He also oversaw the establishment of the National Space Science Technology Center, a partnership with universities and Federal agencies to conduct cutting-edge research. Art also oversaw the planning and establishment of the Propulsion Research Laboratory, a world-class laboratory for research into future space transportation and propulsion technology. Art has led the Marshall Center in numerous successful space shuttle missions for which Marshall was responsible for all propulsion elements. Under Art’s direction, the Marshall Center has completed testing of the truss and pressurized modules for the International Space Station, and provided support for the construction and operation of the International Space Station, including Marshall’s Payload Operations Center which controls all the science experiments aboard the space station.

Art brought more than 35 years of experience in the space industry to NASA and used it to the great benefit of the Marshall Center and the U.S. space program. I could list many additional achievements and professional accomplishments, and I believe that success is directly attributable to Art’s record as an extraordinary leader throughout his career.

Art has been an important and respected member of the Huntsville community. I know that I speak for many people in Huntsville and everyone in the NASA family when I say that we all thank Art for his tireless commitment to NASA and to Marshall. We sincerely hope that he and his family will remain part of the Huntsville community for many years to come.

In his remarks Lord Black spoke vividly and in detail about Depression-era America, and the “bold experimentation,” as he put it, of the New Deal years.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of Lord Black’s remarks be printed in the Record.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the Record, as follows:

ADDRESS OF LORD BLACK AT FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT DISTINGUISHED PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD DINNER

On election night, 1932, unemployment stood at approximately 30%. There was minimal direct government relief for the 14 million or so unemployed. Their condition was alleviated by private sector charity, and by theft and begging.

The Soviet Union advertised in the United States for 6,000 skilled workers to go to Russia in 1932 for a period of several years; it’s New York office was swamped with 100,000 applications. The natives of West Africa sent New York $100,000 to help with relief for the poor. When the city of Birmingham, Alabama, advertised for 750 ditch-diggers to work ten-hour days for $2 per day, 12,000 applied in two days.

In the coal-mining regions of Kentucky and West Virginia, over 90% of children were suffering from malnutrition. The country had suffered a deflation of more than 20%. Millions of Americans faced the distinct possibility of death by starvation or exposure to the elements. Large numbers of people lived from the scraps and leftovers thrown out in the garbage by restaurants and hotels.

The volume of cheque transactions and of stock exchanges in the United States had declined by 60% since 1929. The amount of new capital financing had declined by over 95% since 1929. The volume of new building contracts had declined by 75%.

By inauguration day in March 1933, the Dow-Jones Industrial Average was down by 90% from its high in September, 1929.

BANK FAILURES

There had been 5,600 bank failures in three years, wiping out nine million individual bank accounts. Steel production was under 20% of capacity, and United States Steel Corporation—which had 220,000 full-time employees in 1929, now had no full-time employees, apart from those in the executive offices.

Total non-agricultural production was less than half of its 1929 level. Manufacturing income has shrunk by 65%. Agricultural production, while approximately equal in physical volume to that of 1929, had shrunk by 8% in farm income from $12 billion to slightly over $5 billion.

About 45% of the residential homes in America were in danger of being foreclosed by mortgage-holders. Through the first six months of 1933, 250,000 homes were foreclosed, well over a thousand per day, the families pitched out into the streets. The money supply, deflation-adjusted, had declined by 25% in four years.

Many local and state governments, including Chicago and Georgia, could not pay their schoolteachers. Georgia closed over a thousand schools attended by 170,000 students.

Most rural Alabama white schools were closed by the state on the 20th of March. On the day before inauguration day, 32 states had closed all their banks indefinitively. Six other states had closed almost all their banks.

In the District of Columbia, withdrawals were limited to 5% of deposits and in Texas to $10 per day. The U.S. financial system had reached the last extremity before it would collapse completely, taking the life’s savings of tens of millions of people and what was left of the international economic system with it.

American literature achieved a virtual golden age with writers such as John Steinbeck, Erskine Caldwell, Edmund Wilson, and John Dos Passos describing depression conditions.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT’S FIRST INAUGURAL ADDRESS

Over 400,000 people came out to hear Franklin D. Roosevelt’s famous first inaugural address; they covered 40 acres of lawns adjacent to the Capitol, the first time since the Civil War, soldiers in full combat gear and machine gun emplacements surrounded by sand-bags were visibly guarding the U.S. Capitol. Roosevelt promised bold experimentation. In the Hundred Days of the spring of 1933, the Roosevelt administration reorganized and reopened the banks and guaranteed their deposits, a great monetary step as bank deposits now joined most definitions of the money supply.

The legislation of the Hundred Days incentivized price and wage increases, reduced the working week, cut government salaries, increased some marginal taxes, tolerated a degree of cartelism to raise prices and avoid over-production, encouraged collective bargaining, and engaged in massive workfare schemes that employed nearly half the unemployed in projects of conservation and public works. In the first year of these programs, 500,000 miles of roads and 40,000 schools, 3,500 parks, and 1,000 airports were built or upgraded. The Civilian Conservation Corps, the ‘thirties, thinned four million acres of trees, stocked one billion fish, and built 30,000 animal shelters.

Ordinary unemployment declined by four million through 1933, partly due to the reduction in the work week. Farmers voted by category to approve production cutbacks, permitting farm price increases, and some of the agricultural surpluses thus taken for distribution to the needy. The Tennessee Valley Authority was launched and great progress began on rural electrification, flood control, and drought control.

The Hundred Days also refinanced the nation’s mortgages, effectively departed the gold standard, exchanged embassies with the Soviet Union in 1933.

The second New Deal

The second New Deal, in 1934 and 1935, was built around Social Security and included the Labour Relations Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the New Deal in 1938 with the Fair Labor Standards Act and massive public works and conservation employment schemes. These were successful and reduced unemployment in mid-1939 to about 8%, less than two points above where it stands today, if the public sector relief workers are considered to be employed people.

Thereafter, like other countries, the United States relied on rearmament and the post-war selective service and unemployment, which fell by up to 500,000 per month coming up to the 1940 election, and had almost vanished before the entry of the United States into the war in 1941.

THE GI BILL OF RIGHTS

Finally, came the GI Bill of Rights, which greatly subsidized the education, and home and farm and business ownership of veterans. In the late ’forties, nearly half the male university students of the United States were beneficiaries of that act and the barriers to advancement for working class families were largely removed.

I yield to few people in my enthusiasm for the capitalist system, but we must all remember that in 1933, America had failed, and the political system was in danger of failing with it.

Roosevelt developed a refrain in his later speeches that served him well and was unanswerable. It went: ‘You are, most of you, old enough to remember what things were like in 1933.

The voters did remember, as people remember horrible nightmares; but it had not been a dream; it was the United States in 1933.

STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. LEVIN.

S. 1338. A bill to decrease the matching funds requirement and authorize additional appropriations for Keweenaw National Historical Park in the State of Michigan; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the Keweenaw National Historical Park bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1338

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. FUNDING FOR KEWEENAW NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK.

(a) MATCHING FUNDS.—Section 8(b) of Public Law 102–543 (16 U.S.C. 410yy–7(b)) is amended by striking “$4” and inserting “$1”.

(b) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—Section 10(a) of Public Law 102–543 (16 U.S.C. 410yy–9(a)) is amended—

(1) by striking “$25,000,000” and inserting “$10,000,000”; and

(2) by striking “$50,000,000”;

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce legislation that will authorize additional judgeships in the Middle and Southern Federal Judicial Districts of Florida.

Additional judgeships are needed in these two districts in order to deal with a large volume of filings, heavy caseloads, the considerable number of senior judges, and a rapidly growing population. It is vital that we add two additional permanent and one temporary judgeship in the Middle District and four additional permanent judgeships in the Southern District of Florida.

Florida’s Middle District is one of the busiest Federal district courts in the Nation. In 2001 it was ranked fifth in the Nation for the number of criminal defendants charged with fraud and drug related offenses among all district courts. It handles cases filed in three of the four largest cities in the State of Florida; Jacksonville, Orlando and Tampa, which comprise 60 percent of the State’s population.

In 1999 four judges were added to the Middle District of Florida. The numbers of weighted filings and pending caseload both decreased in 2000. However, numbers quickly rose again in 2001. A judicial caseload survey conducted in 2000 estimated that in 2001 there were 553 weighted filings in this district versus the national average of 490. In addition, the United States Department of Justice has identified Central Florida as a High Intensity Drug Trafficking Enforcement Area.

The Southern and Middle Districts are parallel in some of the challenges that they face. Despite the additional judgeships created in the Southern District in 2001, the amount of weighted filings continues to rise. Since 1994, civil and criminal filings per judgeship have stayed above the national average, with civil filings rising by 67 percent and criminal filings by 49 percent. Many of these increases in criminal filings are linked to the increase in fraud, drugs, firearms and immigration prosecutions.

The administration of justice will continue to be a challenge in Florida’s Federal courts unless adequate resources are committed. It is projected that by 2015 Florida may surpass third-ranked New York in population. As the population increases, so do the number of people seeking justice from the Federal courts in our State. I ask that my colleagues join me in supporting this important legislation.

By Mrs. FEINSTEIN: S. 1342. A bill to amend the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act to give the Secretary of the Interior discretion regarding taking land into trust; to the Committee on Indian Affairs.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce legislation that will authorize additional judgeships in the Middle and Southern Federal Judicial Districts of Florida.

By Mrs. FEINSTEIN:

S. 1342. A bill to amend the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act to give the Secretary of the Interior discretion regarding taking land into trust; to the Committee on Indian Affairs.

WASHINGTON.—Legislation to formally re-establish the identity and standing of Marin’s band of Coast Miwok Indians appears all but dead in the face of a House-Senate dispute over how tight guarantees must be that the tribe will never allow casino gambling.

“This is insane, this is frustrating, and I just can’t see we can’t find a way out of this,” said Greg Sarris, the tribe’s chief who is an English professor at UCLA.
Rep. Lynn Woolsey, the Petaluma Democrat who authored the original bill, said she shares the frustration but sees little hope other than the fact that “down the road there will be something.”

The problem is that the bill to restore the all-but-vanquished tribe, approved by the full House in June, included specific language that waived in perpetuity any right to establish gaming on the tribe’s remaining one-acre ancestral plot in the Sonoma County town of Graton.

Woolsey sought that waiver in agreement with the tiny tribe. In hearings last spring and summer, she and Sarris said the tribe was happy enough with the way it was. They were not interested in gaming, and their acreage was too small even if they were interested.

Additionally, the fine print in a state-passed referendum in California to divide gaming reserves among tribes prevents them from operating any kind of casino.

Adding a federal gaming ban on top of an existing state ban was an easy and harmless layer of extra insurance to reassure the community that the tribe would not be bringing high-stakes bingo to Marin.

“All of the tribes are formally recognized as Indians and have the same rights that other Indians do for education and health care,” said Sarris, one of some 300 descendants of the government’s all-but-vanquished claimed extinct in the 1950s. “We are not interested in gambling.”

But when the bill reached the Senate in an identical form, the bill sponsored by Sen.
Barbara Boxer, D-Calif., numerous Indian advocates and the government’s Bureau of Indian Affairs objected. The surrender of sovereignty by the Miwoks, however well-intentioned, would set a precedent that could be used against other tribes in other states—in effect a means to pressure tribes on the sensitive issue of gambling.

“It’s not that we don’t have sympathy with what the Miwoks want to do, or in this case don’t want to do. It’s a question of ero-don’t want to do. It’s a question of erosning the hard-won sovereignty that is the legal basis for the gambling that has been an important resource of many tribes,” said John Sanchez, an expert on Indian sov-erness at Pennsylvania State University and a member of the Apache tribe.

Boxer’s spokesman, David Sandretti, said his boss “fully supported” the bill, but the key maker on the issue is Sen. Daniel Inouye of Hawaii, vice chairman of the Indian Affairs Committee and long a powerful voice on behalf of tribes and native Hawaiians. Without his support, the bill wouldn’t survive in the Senate, Sandretti said.

Inouye made it clear this week that the bill is dead unless Woolsey agreed to drop the gambling ban in her legislation.

“If you set that precedent, that creates a lot of problems,” Inouye said. “I would prefer to answer the waiver, and if I do I’d be likely to support it.”

Inouye added that it’s a meaningless, symbolic waiver to begin with, because the tribe is already from opening a casino by state law.
“I just don’t think this is something that the federal government should be involved in,” he said.

Woolsey said she has no intention of agreeing to anything that doesn’t include the anti-gaming clause as written.

“I don’t want to be forced, and now it’s in the Senate, and I guess that’s just where it is,” Woolsey said. “I’ve heard some proposals for compromise, but I haven’t seen anything that would move the level of protection against gaming that the community and the 6th Congressional District would be prepared to accept.”

Gene Bravolot of Novato, vice chairman of the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, said his group is disappointed in Woolsey, because members believe she should allow the bill to go forward without the clause.

“We’re disappointed, deeply disappointed with Woolsey because she seems to be the one who dropped the ball on this, not Barbara Boxer,” he said. “It’s a shame that it’s going this far and that Woolsey is letting it degraded this way.”

Whereas, such lands provide one of the Bay Area's most cherished community separators, and represent an important scenic gateway to Sonoma County;

Whereas, these lands, agriculture and wet lands have been the focus of preservation and conservation efforts by environmentalists and local communities for many years;

Whereas, the impacts of approximately 2,000 acres of such lands are presently in imminent danger of being withdrawn from County land use control and placed under the purposes of casino development—including the potential of an extensive gaming complex, including a hotel, parking and other support services as well as possible road development, by Station Casinos, a Las Vegas-based developer and the Federated Indians of the Graton Rancheria ("Tribe");

Whereas, the Tribe was restored in 2000 based, in part, on its promise not to engage in Indian casino gaming;

Whereas, the federal legislation restoring the Tribe contains language that could be used to circumvent the normally required environmental review and administrative regulatory process for taking land into trust by the United States government on behalf of the Tribe;

Whereas, the Tribe's gaming plans were announced in the media without any government to government consultation with affected local communities;

Whereas, the Board and Tribe have initiated dialogue and correspondence regarding the proposed casino but details regarding the project and siting have not yet been made available;

Whereas, the proposed project could overwhelm the local infrastructure in the area in which the casino project is proposed;

Whereas, the environmental impacts of the proposed potential development are reaching and of such a magnitude that they would negatively affect a significant portion of the North Bay, including grossly aggravating existing traffic problems along State Highways 37 and 101 (as well as County roads in the project vicinity), pose severe water quality risks, and have profound negative visual impacts in the scenic area;

Whereas, when California voters approved Proposition 1A (Indian Gaming) in March 2000 as a means of supporting the laudable goal of Indian economic development and self-sufficiency, they were not aware that such approval would allow Nevada developers to seize prized off-reservation environmental resources and development without regard to locally approved general plans or any meaningful environmental review or protection;

Whereas, under the provisions of Proposition 1A and the Tribal-State Compact, local communities have been granted control and public safety requirements that other federal and state environmental, public health, and conservation efforts by environmentalists, proposing legislation, participating in administrative proceedings, and initiating litigation. Moreover, the casino development project in Sonoma County complies with the county General Plan and meets all federal and state environmental, public health, and traffic safety requirements that otherwise would apply to a non-Indian development project, and to require that any land proposed to be taken into trust goes through a thorough regulatory and environmental review process.

RESOLUTION NO. 2003-70

Whereas, the agricultural lands and wetlands fronting the San Francisco Bay along Highway 37 constitute one of the most environmentally sensitive regions in the entire Bay Area in light of their proximity to and drainage directly into the Bay; and

Whereas, the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria have announced their intention to acquire 2,000 acres of land along Highway 37 and develop a casino, hotel, housing and related development on this precious natural resource; and

Whereas, the impact on traffic of a development of this magnitude will be felt throughout the North Bay, with this single development jeopardizing all traffic capacity with local jurisdictions mandated for purposes consistent with their respective General Plans; and

Whereas, when Congress passed the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act, the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria had not pledged to engage in gaming on any lands placed in trust by the federal government; and

Whereas, the Federated Indians of the Graton Rancheria take the position that under the provisions of the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act, and the tribal-state compact, local jurisdictions have no effective input into the development of the proposed tribal casino, yet these residents nevertheless bear the resultant environmental, societal, traffic, infrastructure, public safety, and other burdens which these gambling casinos impose on their communities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors of the County of Napa strongly oppose the creation of a gambling casino along highway 37 on an undeveloped site, and be it further

Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors of the County of Napa calls on Governor Davis, the California State Legislature, the U.S. Congress, and the U.S. Department of the Interior to take any and all steps within their powers and prerogatives to block the creation of new tribal land bases that are intended for gambling casinos and other development inconsistent with local zoning and controls and to require that all commercial development on new and existing tribal lands comply with federal, state, and local laws and regulations intended to safeguard the environment and to protect public health and safety;

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Let me just read one part of the Resolution from Marin County which will give you an idea of the opposition to the Graton tribe's proposed casino:

RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin calls on its elected members of the United States Senate, DIANNE FEINSTEIN and BARBARA BOXER, and its elected member of the House of Representatives, LYNN WOOLSEY, to assist the residents of Marin and the entire North Bay to preserve their environment by introducing legislation that would amend the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act and/or the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act to stop the unregulated creation of tribal lands and to subject any development of the newly acquired tribal lands by the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act.

RESOLUTION NO. 03-94

Whereas, the agricultural lands and wetlands fronting the San Francisco Bay along Highway 37 constitute one of the most environmentally sensitive regions in the entire Bay Area in light of their proximity to and drainage directly into the Bay; and

Whereas, the agricultural lands along Lakeville Highway provide unique agricultural and scenic resource, not only to the people of Sonoma County but also to the populace of the entire Bay Area; and

Whereas, such lands provide one of the Bay Area's most cherished community separators, and represent an important scenic gateway to the Marin and Sonoma Counties at a minimum to the regulatory and approval processes applicable to newly acquired tribal lands by the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act.

While the counties acknowledge that the Graton have a right to be recognized, they object to the site selected by the tribe and they especially object to language in the Restoration Act that precludes the local community, the Governor, or the Secretary of the Interior from providing input on the suitability of this location for land taken into trust for gaming purposes.

There is a problematic section of the Restoration Act which states, "Upon application by the Tribe, the Secretary shall accept into trust for the benefit of the Tribe any real property located in Marin or Sonoma County ...." According to the Department of the Interior, this language removes any discretion by the Secretary as well as any tribal obligations for consultation with the surrounding community or environmental review, as required by the normal process under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act for newly acquired land taken into trust for gaming purposes.

According to the Department of the Interior, the tribe must only conduct a hearing and then review the application with the Secretary to "shall" take the land into trust. This could be completed in 9 months—and it is an inadequate review in my opinion.

Since the local communities are seeking a resolution which would restore the Secretary's discretion in approving its land trust application and allow local government to provide input in the process, I am introducing this legislation today that will change the "shall" and inserting "may" to "may take land into trust." This legislation will also require the two-part test that is standard under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988 to apply so that the State and local communities have input in the process.

There is precedent for this change. In 1994, legislation was passed restoring the United Auburn Tribe with the same language which would restore the Secretary's discretion in approving its land trust application and allow local government to provide input in the process.

One of the restoration act's sponsors, Congressman JOHN DOOLITTLE sponsored an amendment to change "shall" to "may" after it had been passed, thereby allowing the Secretary of Interior to carry out its obligations for consultation with the” shall" the local communities.

The result of that change was that the Auburn Tribe and Placer County officials successfully cooperated in not only identifying a mutually agreeable site, but they signed a Memorandum of Understanding to mitigate potential impacts from the proposed Thunder Valley Casino. And earlier this month, the tribe opened its casino.

Today California is home to 109 federally recognized tribes. 61 tribes have gaming compacts with the State and there are 35 casinos. With more than 50 tribes seeking Federal recognition and approximately 23 recognized tribes seeking gaming compacts from the Governor, revenues from California's tribal gaming industry are expected to surpass Nevada's by the end of the decade.

The dramatic growth in tribal gaming in California has the potential to yield much needed benefits for tribal members in terms of healthcare, education and general welfare, as Congress and California voters intended. However, the question is not whether gaming should be permitted, but rather how and where. Those questions were asked and answered in the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988, IGRA. But without the modest change made by this legislation, the Graton tribe will be allowed to develop an off-reservation casino outside the requirements of the act. Without this change, such an exception has ever been made for a California tribe. Allowing this to happen would set a dangerous precedent not only for California, but every State where tribal gaming is permitted.

The changes we are seeking today are extremely modest. We are not reversing any restoration of the tribe. We are not infringing on Native American sovereignty. We are not even blocking the casino proposal, according to the tribe. We do not want to give the State and the local communities a voice in the process. They were promised the tribe would not open a casino. That promise was broken, so the least we can do is ensure a normal review will take place.

I hope my colleagues will support this legislation and I look forward to working with the Chairman and Ranking Member of the Indian Affairs Committee to pass this legislation quickly.

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT TO GIVE SECRETARY DISCRETION CONCERNING LANDS TAKEN INTO TRUST

(a) REVIEW.—Section 1404 of the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act (25 U.S.C. 1300n-2) is amended by adding at the end the following new subsection:

"(d) REVIEW.—No land taken into trust for the benefit of the Tribe shall be construed to satisfy the terms for an exception under section 20(b)(1)(B) of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (25 U.S.C. 2719(b)(1)(B)) to the prohibition on gaming on lands acquired by the Secretary in trust for the benefit of an Indian tribe after October 17, 1988, under section 20(a) of such Act (25 U.S.C. 2719(a))."

By Mr. CORZINE (for himself, Mr. SCHUMER, Mr. AKAKA, and Mrs. BOXER).

S. 1344. A bill to amend the Electronic Fund Transfer Act to require additional disclosures relating to exchange rates in transfers involving international transactions, and for other purposes; reported by the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

Mr. CORZINE. Mr. President, today, along with my distinguished colleagues

Senators SCHUMER, AKAKA, and BOXER, I am introducing "The Money Wire Improvement and Remittance Enhancement Act" (The "Money WIRE Act"), legislation that will protect consumers who send cash remittances through international money wiring services by disclosing the exchange rate and service fees, as well as hidden costs, for those transactions. The legislation also expands access to mainstream money wiring, check cashing, and other important financial services for the unbanked in America, particularly immigrants, through our Nation's credit unions.

Every year, thirty million Americans send their friends and relatives $40 billion in cash remittances through wire transfers. The majority of these transfers are remittances sent to their native countries by immigrants to the United States. For these individuals, many of whom are in low-to-middle income jobs, sending money essentially increases their own personal financial burdens—but they do so to aid their families and their loved ones.

Unfortunately, these immigrants increasingly find themselves being preyed upon by the practices of some money wire transfer providers who not only charge consumers with an upfront charge for the money wire transfer service, but also hit them on the back end with hidden costs. Many of these charges are extracted when the dollars sent by the consumer are converted to the foreign currency value that is supposed to be paid out to the friend of the family member.

This exploitation is especially pervasive in Latin American and Caribbean countries, where much of these types of transactions occur. According to the Multilateral Investment Fund and the Inter-American Development Bank, Latin American and Caribbean immigrants sent a record $106 billion back to their home countries in 2002—a dramatic increase compared with $23 billion in 2001. Many of these dollars were used to pay for basic needs, such as food, medicine, and schooling, and to alleviate the suffering of loved ones during a difficult economic year.

To bring this amount into even greater perspective, the remittances that flowed into Latin America and the Caribbean last year equaled roughly one-fifth of direct foreign investment that flowed into the region, and exceeded the amount of development aid to Latin America from all sources. For this decade alone, Latin America and the Caribbean could receive more than $300 billion. And experts believe that number is likely to grow significantly in coming years.

These large cash flows have proven to be a powerful incentive for greed in the case of some wire transfer companies. Customers wiring money to Latin America and elsewhere in the world lose billions of dollars annually to undisclosed "currency conversion fees," and other service costs.
In fact, many large companies aggressively target immigrant communities, often advertising “low fee” or “no fee” rates for international transfers. But these misleading ads do not always clearly disclose the fees charged when the currency is exchanged.

While large wire service companies typically obtain foreign currencies at bulk rates, they charge a significant currency conversion fee to their U.S. customers. For example, customers wiring money to Mexico are charged an exchange rate that routinely varies from the benchmark by as much as 15 percent. These hidden fees create staggering profits, allowing companies to reap billions of dollars on top of the stated fees they charge for the wire transfer services.

Last year alone, immigrants who sent money to Latin America and the Caribbean paid approximately $4 billion in transaction costs to the money wire transactions that enable this business. In other words, for every $100 that an immigrant sent home, to help their family and loved ones, $12 was siphoned off by these businesses in order to “service” that transaction.

That adds up to a $20-$30 average cost, occasionally it can be considerably more, for poor, hard-working folks for whom the typical remittance—around $250 to $300 a month—represents a significant percentage of their monthly income.

Multiplied by millions, these excessive charges constitute a significant major economic force. These millions could have otherwise been used to feed children, house a family, or invest in a small business—all of which markedly improve overall quality of life.

The “Money Wire Act” would require money wire transmitting businesses to disclose to senders, and receivers, of international money transfers the exchange rate used in association with the transaction; any surcharges, commissions or fees charged to the customer for the service; and the exact amount of the foreign currency to be received by the recipient in the foreign country.

It also requires that that rate and fee information be prominently displayed at the wire transmitting service location and on all receipts associated with the money wire transaction—and it ensures that those disclosures occur in the same language as that predominantly used by the business to advertise its money transmitting services, if that language is other than English.

The bill also requires Federal banking regulators and the Department of Treasury to conduct a study, and submit a report to Congress, of the fees and fees disclosure at traditional financial institutions compared to those that occur at money transmitting businesses for money wire transactions.

Finally, the Act includes a provision that expands the “field of membership” definition for credit unions to give nonmembers, particularly unbanked and immigrant communities, access to credit unions for international money transfer, money order, and check cashing services, where the costs for these services are significantly less.

This legislation does more than merely provide better information to consumers—it actually helps them and their families financially. Consumers will see increased competition among wire transfer service providers because they are better-informed and more knowledgeable. Competition will result in lower fees for the wire transfer services that will free up a greater portion of these cash remittances to go to the friends and families that they were originally intended for.

In short, this is sound public policy that empowers those who do their part to help America’s economy move forward.

I hope that my colleagues will support this legislation and I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

Remittance Enhancement Act has species. Products, such as check cashing services, are often associated with remittances processed by certain other entities. In addition, unaffected immigrants who take advantage of the remittance services offered by banks and credit unions, they will be more likely to open an account. This will allow immigrants to take advantage of the opportunities for saving and borrowing found at mainstream financial institutions and offer them alternatives to fringe banking products, such as check cashing services.

The Money Wire Improvement and Remittance Enhancement Act has special significance to my home State of Hawaii. Hawaii is home to significant numbers of recent immigrants from many nations, including the Philippines, who send remittances to their relatives abroad. We must do what we can to ensure that their hard-earned dollars are not eroded by unnecessary fees or a lack of transparency regarding exchange rates.

I encourage my colleagues to support this much-needed legislation.

By Mrs. MURRAY (for herself, Mrs. BOXER, Mrs. CANTWELL, Mrs. CLINTON, Mr. CORZINE, Mr. EDWARDS, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, Mr. KENNEDY, Mr. LUTTENBERG, Mr. SCHUMER, and Mr. HOLLINGS):

S. 1345. A bill to extend the authorization for the ferry boat discretionary program, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Environment and Public Works.

Mrs. MURRAY. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce legislation that will greatly enhance Federal participation in financing and improving our Nation’s ferry system.

Today I am introducing the Ferry Transportation Enhancement Act. I am proud to have Senators BOXER, CANTWELL, CORZINE, CLINTON, EDWARDS, FEINSTEIN, HOLLINGS, KENNEDY, LUTTENBERG, SCHUMER, and HOLLINGS as original cosponsors. This bill will provide significantly more resources to state governments, public ferry systems, and public entities responsible for developing facilities for ferries.

Specifically, the bill would provide $150 million a year for the Federal Highway Administration’s Ferry Boat Discretionary Program for fiscal years 2004 through 2009. This is approximately four times the $38 million a year that is currently being provided under this program; add “ferries” to the Clean Fuels Program; and establish an information database on ferry systems, routes, vessels, passengers and vehicles carried; and establish an institute for ferries to conduct R&D, conduct training programs, encourage collaborative efforts to promote ferry service, and conserve historical information. This will parallel institutes that now exist for highways, transit, and rail.

Currently, the Federal investment in ferries is only one-tenth of one percent of the total Surface Transportation Program. There is virtually no coordination at the Federal level to encourage and promote ferries as there are for other modes of transportation. We need better coordinated ferry services because it is the sole means of surface transportation in many areas of the country, including Hawaii, Alaska and my home State of Washington.

Ferries are also the preferred, and the only feasible, method of commuting from home to work in places like Washington State, New York/New Jersey, North Carolina, Hawaii and Alaska.

Currently, in many States—like my home State of Washington—they are an important part of the tourism industry and represent a part of our cultural identity.

The symbol of ferries moving people and vehicles on the waterways of the Puget Sound is as much a part of our cultural identity as computers, coffee, commercial aircraft and the Washington Apple.

Ferry use is growing. In Washington State, our ferry system—the Nation’s largest—currently transports 26 million passengers each year and carries 11 million vehicles.

Other systems that serve New York/New Jersey, North Carolina, San Francisco, and Alaska also have significant numbers of passengers using the ferries.

The Nation’s six largest ferry systems carried 73 million people and 13 million vehicles last year.

The growth projection for ferry use is very promising. For the Nation’s ferry systems, it is projected that by 2009 there will be a 14-percent increase in passengers and a 17-percent increase in vehicles being carried by ferries compared to 2002.

In San Francisco, that projection is a 46-percent increase. It is clear that many people are using ferries and more will be using them in the future.

This is all with very little help from the Federal Government.

Our investment in ferries pales in comparison to the Federal investments in highways and other forms of mass transit.

Our bill would provide the needed funding for these growing systems for new ferry boat construction, for ferry facilities and terminals, and for maintenance facilities.

The bill also would make ferries eligible under the Clean Fuels Program.

Like buses, ferries are a form of mass transit that is environmentally cleaner than mass use of cars and trucks. Making them eligible for the Clean Fuels Program will encourage boat makers to design cleaner and more efficient vessels in the future. This will also make ferry travel an even more environmentally friendly means of transportation than it already is today.

Finally, setting up a Ferry Joint Program Office, keeping track of ferry statistics, and establishing a National Ferry Institute will increase the profile of ferries as part of our Nation’s infrastructure and provide a method to analyze and research ways to improve their use.

In the end, I hope this proposal can be included in the TEA-21 Reauthorization.

Ferries are an important part of our Nation’s transportation infrastructure.
This bill recognizes their importance by providing the resources and support they need to grow and serve passengers.

I urge the Senate support this bill, and I look forward to working with my colleagues to see it passed.

By Ms. CANTWELL: S. 1346. A bill to amend the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 to provide for strategic sectoral skills gap assessments, strategic skills gap action plans, and strategic training capacity enhancement seed grants, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

By Ms. CANTWELL: S. 1348. A bill to amend the Higher Education Act of 1965 to modify the computation of eligibility for certain Federal Pell Grants, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

Ms. CANTWELL. Mr. President, I come to the floor today to discuss a topic that I believe is critical to our Nation's economic growth and future competitiveness—the training of our workforce.

We are living in tough economic times. The economy of the State of Washington and the Nation at large are suffering through a recession where jobs are scarce and workers are scrambling to pay the bills. The most recent employment data available from the Bureau of Labor Statistics have offered little comfort in Washington where the unemployment rate is 7.3 percent. Washington, along with the other Pacific Northwest States of Oregon and Alaska, continues to have among the highest unemployment rates in the Nation.

Just a month ago, the Senate moved quickly to extend the temporary extension of unemployment compensation program, so that approximately four million workers across this country will not lose their Federal extended unemployment benefits. I am proud that the Senate acted quickly to extend this important program. This means that over 100,000 unemployed workers in Washington State will receive 26 weeks of Federal extended benefits. I am disappointed, however, that we were not able to pass coverage for the estimated 1.1 million unemployed workers who have entirely exhausted their State and Federal benefits. Therefore, I am fighting to pass a bill that would extend coverage to the long-term unemployed, so that help is available to the hardest hit workers in this weak economy.

Nonetheless, our efforts should not stop with an unemployment insurance extension. We must continue to pursue long-term strategies for a sustained economic recovery. The fundamental strength of our economy lies in the working men and women of this Nation whose innovation and hard work propelled the massive economic expansion of the past decade.

The competitive edge that will keep our workers ahead in this changing global economy is their skills. Our economy is global, linked by international trade and communications networks. The sustained success of U.S. companies depends on adaptability and innovation, which means that workers themselves need to remain flexible and continually update job skills.

Even in this time of high unemployment, businesses throughout the country cannot find workers with the skills they need. According to a study completed by Heldrich Work Trends Survey, American employers are finding it difficult to find skilled workers. Nearly half, 46 percent, of American businesses say they have trouble finding workers with the necessary skills. At the same time, over three million workers are laid off each year, yet nearly half of the people who need job training and learning to get the skills demanded by those businesses that face worker shortages. Job training is an answer to meeting those skill demands and bridging the skills gaps that persist in our workforce. However, without a strong financial commitment from the Federal Government to ensure access to job training programs, and ongoing efforts to maximize the effectiveness of those funds that we already invest.

Investment in job training must be our first priority not our last—the decisions we make today to invest in our workers will pay off many times over in the form of stronger local economies, healthier communities, and improved quality of life.

But the reality is that we are delivering a trickle of funding while faced with a tidal wave of need. I have traveled across my state, from Olympia to Kelso, Vancouver to Bellingham, the Tri-cities to Spokane and received a great deal of feedback from Washingtonians who are seeking training, are providing it, or are serving as employers who need to hire skilled workers. The feedback was consistent. There is a need for training programs throughout the State of Washington, and the availability of training to learn the skills demanded by those businesses that face worker shortages. Job training is an answer to meeting those skill demands and bridging the skills gaps that persist in our workforce. However, without a strong financial commitment from the Federal Government to ensure access to job training programs, and ongoing efforts to maximize the effectiveness of those funds that we already invest.

training may not be aware of online distance learning opportunities and may not be able to take advantage of them even if they do know about them. I believe, it is not enough to create a distance learning curriculum and passively push it through an educational institution website. Rather, comprehensive solutions need to be developed that integrate curriculum innovations, technological access, and the promotion and linkage of workers in need of training with such opportunities especially to help workers in rural areas. That's why my bill encourages the local workforce development boards to plan a comprehensive approach to improve access to and delivery of employment training services by using technology and online resources to connect workers with the information and tools they need to upgrade their skills.

The third bill that I am introducing today is designed to help local workforce development boards better understand regional labor market dynamics and improve system performance by identifying emerging sectors and industries with chronic worker shortages. My legislation encourages local workforce development boards to target employment and training resources so that workers can get training in occupations where employers need workers. My legislation provides new resources to the States so that states can direct funding down to the local workforce development boards to form partnerships with employers, unions, service providers and other key players in order to develop a strategic plan for addressing regional industry and workforce needs.

I want to make clear that this legislation is not intended to reinvent the wheel for areas that are already developing sectoral approaches within existing workforce development systems. In fact, Washington State is a leader in sector approaches: in 2000, the Washington State Legislature enacted legislation to support industry skills panels known as the "Skills Initiative." The Skills Initiative provides grants to local workforce development councils to engage business and industry in strategies to close the skill gaps in my State. My legislation emphasizes this work by providing funding to support these partnerships.

This is a first step on a long journey as we work to improve Federal job training systems, and it is critical, now more than ever, that Congress increase funding for the job training programs under the Workforce Investment Act. By providing the necessary resources, we send a strong message to the American public that our government must invest in our greatest resource—the American worker. Each of these bills is an important component of that broader strategy, and I look forward to working with my colleagues as we begin to look at the reauthorization of WIA and the Higher Education Act this year and next.

To identify theft until May 24, 2002—17 days later.

On December 14, 2002, TriWest Health Care Alliance, a company that provides health care coverage for military personnel and their families, was burglarized at its Phoenix, AZ offices. Thieves broke into the mainframe, and stole laptop computers and computer hard drives containing the names, addresses, telephone numbers, birth dates and Social Security numbers of 562,000 military service members, dependents and retirees, as well as medical claims records for people on active duty in the Persian Gulf.

In February 2003, a hacker gained access to 10 million Visa, MasterCard, American Express Card and Discovery Card numbers from the databases of a credit processor, DFI Merchant services of Omaha, NE. Company officials maintained that the intruder did not obtain any personal information for these card numbers such as the account number, cardholder’s name, address, telephone number or Social Security number. However, at least one bank canceled and replaced 8,800 cards when it found out about the security breach.

And in March of this year, a University of Texas student was charged with hacking into the university’s computer system and stealing 55,000 Social Security numbers.

These are just some examples of the types of breaches that are occurring today. Except for California, which has a notification law going into effect in July, no State of Federal law requires companies or agencies to tell individuals of the misappropriation of their personal data.

I strongly believe Americans should be notified if a hacker gets access to their most personal data. This is both a matter of principle and a practical measure to curb identity theft.

Let me take a moment to describe the proposed legislation.

The Notification of Risk to Personal Data Act will set a national standard for notification of consumers when a data breach occurs.

Specifically, the legislation requires a business or government entity to notify an individual when there is a reasonable basis to conclude that a hacker or other criminal has obtained unencrypted personal data maintained by the entity.

Personal data is defined by the bill as an individual’s Social Security number, State identification number, driver’s license number, financial account number, or credit card number.

The legislation’s notification scheme minimizes the burdens on companies or agencies and introduces a management suite that must report a data breach.

In general, notice would have to be provided to each person whose data was compromised in writing or through e-mail. But there are important excepment regime. Entities that fail to com-nation requirements.

Second, encrypted data is exempted.

Second, encrypted data is exempted.

Third, where it is too expensive or impractical, e.g., contact address informainformation is incomplete, to notify every individual who is harmed, the bill alows entities to send out an alternative form of notice called ‘‘substitute notice.’’ Substitute notice includes post-ning notice on a website or notifying major media.

Substitute notice would be triggered if any of the following factors exist: 1.
the agency or person demonstrates that the cost of providing direct notice would exceed $250,000; 2. the affected class of subject persons to be notified ceeds 500,000; or 3. the agency or per-sion does not have sufficient contact formation to notify people whose information is at risk.

The bill has a tough, but fair enforcence regime. Entities that fail to comply with the bill will be subject to fines by the Federal Trade Commission of $5,000 per violation or up to $25,000 per day while the violation persists. State Attorneys General can also file suit to enforce the statute.

Additionally, the bill would allow California’s new law to remain in ef-effect, but preempt conflicting State laws. It is my understanding that legislators in a number of States are developing bills modeled after the California law. Reportedly, some of these bills have requirements that are inconsistent with the California legislation.
It is not fair to put companies in a sittuation that forces them to comply with database notification laws of 50 different States.

I strongly believe individuals have a right to be notified when their most sensitive information is compromised—because it is truly their information.
Ask the ordinary person on the street if he or she would like to know if a criminal had illegally gained access to their personal information from a database—the answer will be a resounding yes.

Enabling consumers to be notified in a timely manner of security breaches involving their personal data will help combat the growth scourge of identity theft. According to the Identity Theft Resources Center, a typical identity theft victim takes six to 12 months to discover that a fraud has been perpetuated and to be in compliance with the ir information.

As Linda Foley, Executive Director of the Identity Theft Resources Center puts it: ‘‘Identity theft is a crime of opportunity and time is essential at every junction. Every minute that passes after the breach until detection and notification increases the damage done to the consumer victim, the commer, the commercial entities, and law enforcement’s ability to track and catch the crimials. It takes less than a minute to fill out a credit application and to start an action that could permanently affect the victim’s life. Multiply that times hundreds of minutes, hundreds of opportunities to use or sell the information stolen and you just begin to understand the enormity of the problem that the lack of notification can cause.’’

If individuals are informed of the theft of their Social Security numbers or other sensitive information, they can take immediate preventative action.

They can place a fraud alert on their credit report to prevent crooks from obtaining credit cards in their name; someone who later reports to see if unauthorized activity has occurred; they can cancel any affected fi-ancial or consumer utility accounts; they can change their phone calls if necessary.

I look forward to working with my colleagues to pass this vitally needed legislation. This bill will give ordinary Americans more control and confidence about the safety of their personal information. Americans will have the security of knowing that should a breach occur, they will be notified and be able to take protective action.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

First, the bill prioritizes our efforts. Many people believe that we should protect communities first. The bill does so. Seventy percent of the funding is directed to the wildland-urban interface near communities. Of course, conditions may vary by State. The bill allows Governors to adjust the percentage of work that is to be done within the wildland-urban interface for their State, up to a maximum of 75 percent, or down to a minimum of 50 percent.

By way of contrast, H.R. 1904, which passed the House, includes no focus on protecting communities. All the money can be spent far from communities under H.R. 1904, even if the Governor of a State wishes otherwise.

Senator Wyden and I believe that in addition to protecting communities, there are some forest lands that should be thinned to ensure that catastrophic fires have lower fuel loads and eliminate habitat for the species that have there. In the last century, Americans have rigorously suppressed fires, stamping them out before they spread. In certain forests like ponderosa pine, these fires would naturally have cleared out the brush and small trees every 10 or 20 years or so.

In the absence of these fires, brush has grown into "dangerous thickets" with dangerous levels of fuel loadings. When fires burn now in these forests, they will be so hot that they won't just clear out the brush but will kill the large trees and often scorch the soil. These are the forests where we need to focus our efforts. We thus target thinning projects to forests that are both Fire Regime I and Condition Class 3. Fire Regime I forests are those that used to have low-intensity, brush-clearing fires; and Condition Class 3 forests are the most altered from their natural condition. The combination of Fire Regime I and Condition Class 3 are the highest priority lands for treatment.

We also direct projects to municipal watersheds and diseased or windblown forests that are in Condition Class 3. If we don't protect the municipal watersheds, catastrophic fires could strip off the tree cover that prevents soils from eroding into creeks and lakes. Municipalities' water quality could suffer.

In contrast to our bill, H.R. 1904 fails to prioritize brush-clearing projects for the areas that need it the most. Instead, H.R. 1904 provides expedited processes for lands that are only moderately altered by fire suppression—Condition Class 2 lands in addition to Condition Class 3.

In many of the forests where H.R. 1904 would direct brush-clearing work, there naturally would have been severe fires that burned all the trees in the stand. After a thinning project, fires in these forests will still behave the same way, scorching and killing most of the trees. That's why the thinning called for in H.R. 1904 would have little effect on the fire behavior or forest health.

Senator Wyden and I have also sped up the process for projects outside the immediate vicinity of communities. These projects are more controversial, so we want to make sure that the public has some opportunity for input. In the past, the Forest Service and the Department of the Interior have been able to conduct the majority of brush-clearing mechanical treatment following a National Environmental Policy Act process known as environmental assessments. Our bill simplified these environmental assessments in several ways.

The bill provides one round of public comment—the administrative appeal process—rather than two. The bill shortens the time frame for administrative appeals from 90 to 60 days.

Finally, the appeal deciding officer can make necessary changes rather than having to send the project back to the original decisionmaker for further time-consuming review.

Together, these changes will likely speed up the process by a few months or more. We do all this without eliminating public comment or gutting core parts of the environmental analysis.

In contrast, the House-passed bill does not require any assistance to thinning projects in the immediate vicinity of communities, even though everyone agrees on the need for these projects.

In contrast, the House-passed bill does not require any assistance to thinning projects in the immediate vicinity of communities. There is little controversy or debate over these projects.

The Forest Service has proposed an analytical short-cut for these projects, requiring very little environmental analysis and no formal public comment process or administrative appeal.

There is some uncertainty, however, over the Forest Service's proposed approach. People can claim that laws Congress has previously passed will require some of these projects to be held up by more environmental analysis or administrative appeals.

Our bill eliminates this uncertainty. When the Forest Service works in the immediate vicinity of communities, the bill would make absolutely clear that there need to be no environmental analysis or administrative appeals. The only exception is where there might be extraordinary circumstances, such as a major threat to endangered species. We also prohibit the Forest Service from conducting clearcuts around communities, requiring them to focus on clearing out the brush.

By way of comparison, the House-passed bill does not provide any assistance to thinning projects in the immediate vicinity of communities, even though everyone agrees on the need for these projects.

The bill provides one round of public comment—the administrative appeal process—rather than two. The bill shortens the time frame for administrative appeals from 90 to 60 days.

Finally, the appeal deciding officer can make necessary changes rather than having to send the project back to the original decisionmaker for further time-consuming review.

Together, these changes will likely speed up the process by a few months or more. We do all this without eliminating public comment or gutting core parts of the environmental analysis.
Today, the Forest Service doesn’t have to study other, less damaging ways of undertaking the project—it can just do the project the way it wants. Many people think that public debate over alternatives is the core of the National Environmental Policy Act. Our bill does not eliminate this important environmental protection.

Another important part of our bill is its protection of magnificent old growth forests. The remaining groves of these trees provide a connection to nature untrammeled by human activity, a connection that many of us cherish. Our bill would require full protection of these old growth stands. In addition, outside old growth stands, the bill focuses on small-diameter trees and protects large trees that promote fire-resistant stands and species diversity.

By way of contrast, H.R. 1904 provides no protection for these magnificent resources.

Let me now talk about judicial review. No one wants court cases to go on too long. In addition, people should not be able to tie up projects by gaming the system and picking and choosing the friendliest courts to hear their lawsuits.

Our bill addresses these problems. The bill encourages courts, to the maximum extent practicable, to resolve lawsuits over brush-clearing projects quickly. These are important projects for the safety of our communities and our forests, and it is appropriate to give them some priority.

In addition, we require that potential litigants file suit in the same judicial district where a fuels reduction project takes place. No one can game the system by looking for a friendly judge somewhere else.

Finally, we limit temporary injunctions that are typically issued at the outset of a case to 60 days. They can be renewed if necessary—but the challengers to a project must submit updated explanations why the injunction should be extended. This provision prevents projects from being held up any longer than is strictly necessary.

These changes will expedite the process—but they still respect our court system’s essential autonomy. As a member of the Judiciary Committee, I spend much of my time trying to make sure our court system is as fair as possible.

Americans count on a judiciary independent of the executive branch to preserve our rights and to right any wrongs that their government commits. I think it is very important that we do not interfere with the independence of our judiciary.

The House-passed bill would require the courts to give weight to certain findings by the Forest Service and the Department of the Interior. Even if projects had been found to violate the environmental laws, courts would be told to give weight to the agencies’ findings and allow many of the projects to go ahead anyway.

This is a dangerous provision for a bill to include, and I cannot support it.

I believe our bill includes more sensible provisions on judicial review that will help projects go forward quickly without compromising the independence of our judiciary.

Our bill includes several provisions to address forest health problems on private and State lands. We authorize $50 million annually in emergency grants to States and localities where lives are at risk. The last few years have seen vast insect epidemics killing millions of trees in Southern California, Arizona, and elsewhere.

In places like Lake Arrowhead, Big Bear and Idyllwild in Southern California, communities are surrounded by dead and dying trees that are perfect kindling for a catastrophic fire. There is a real threat to people’s lives that we must address.

There is now no good funding source for clearing evacuation routes and clearing around schools and other emergency shelters that are on State and private lands. The emergency grants in the bill would authorize funds for these essential purposes.

The bill also includes two measures to encourage homeowners to clear brush and install non-flammable roofs. A study of Southern California fires by Forest Service researcher Jack Cohen has shown that these measures could reduce a blaze’s threat to homes by as much as 85 to 95 percent.

Our bill would encourage these home-saving practices in two ways:

The bill would prioritize grants to those communities that encourage brush-clearing and use of non-flammable roofs or develop comprehensive fire plans.

The bill would record the Sense of Congress that insurers should offer lower premiums to homeowners who take steps to protect their homes.

Our bill would also include grants to encourage the use of woody material, or biomass, for energy production. Biomass-to-energy plants serve multiple beneficial purposes: one, they are a clean and renewable source of energy; and two, they make brush-clearing projects more cost-effective, so we can protect more with the finite Federal dollars available.

Finally, our bill would also include contracting provisions to benefit rural communities. The Forest Service and the Department of the Interior would be required to use “best value contracting” for brush-clearing projects under the Act.

This contracting approach requires the agencies to consider other factors besides the price of the bid in awarding contractors. Bidders would be rewarded for such factors as their commitment to hire local workers, and their past record of environmental stewardship.

I would like to close by saying that this is truly a bipartisan issue. All of us, Democrat and Republican, have an interest in clearing out dangerous accumulations of brush in our national forests. All of us have an interest as well in protecting the magnificent old growth stands and species habitat that Americans cherish, and in upholding our environmental laws.

I look forward to working with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to pass a bill as soon as possible.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

(a) Cape Fox Corporation (Cape Fox) is an Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act related to Cape Fox Corporation and Sealaska Corporation, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Ms. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, I rise today to reintroduce a bill that passed the Senate with bipartisan support in the 107th Congress. This legislation addresses an equity issue for one of Alaska’s rural village corporations.

The Cape Fox Village Corporation, organized pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, by the Native Village of Saxman, near Ketchikan, AK. As with other ANCSA village corporations in Southeast Alaska, Cape Fox was limited to selecting 23,040 acres under Section 16. However, unlike other village corporations, Cape Fox was further restricted from selecting lands within 6 miles of the boundary of the home rule city of Ketchikan. All other ANCSA corporations were permitted to select within 2 miles of such a home rule city.

The 6-mile restriction went beyond protecting Ketchikan’s watershed and damaged Cape Fox by preventing the corporation from selecting valuable timber lands, industrial sites, and other commercial property, not only in its core township, but in surrounding lands far removed from Ketchikan and its watershed. As a result of the 6-mile restriction, the abandoned lands in southeast Alaska, including the mountainous northeast corner of Cape Fox’s core township, which is nonproductive and of no economic value, was available for selection by the corporation. Cape Fox’s land selections were further limited by the fact that the Annette Island Indian Reservation is within its selection area, and those lands were unavailable for ANCSA selection. Cape Fox is the only ANCSA village corporation affected by this restriction.

Clearfield, Cape Fox was placed on unequal economic footing relative to other village corporations in Southeast Alaska. Despite its best efforts during the years since ANCSA was signed into law, Cape Fox has been unable to overcome the disadvantage the law built into its land selection opportunities by this inequitable treatment.

To address this inequity, I have introduced the Cape Fox Land Entitlement Adjustment Act of 2003.

(1) The obligation of Cape Fox to select and seek conveyance of the approximately 160 acres of unusable land in the mountainous northeast corner of Cape Fox’s core township will be annulled.

(2) Cape Fox will be allowed to select and the Secretary of the Interior will be directed to convey 99 acres of timber lands adjacent to Cape Fox’s current holdings on Revilla Island.

(3) Cape Fox and the Secretary of Agriculture will be authorized to enter into an equal value exchange of lands in Southeast Alaska that will be of mutual benefit to the Corporation and the U.S. Forest Service. Lands conveyed to Cape Fox in this exchange will not be timberlands, but will be associated with a mining property containing existing Federal mining claims, some of which are patented. Lands anticipated to be returned to Forest Service ownership will be of wildlife habitat, recreation, and watershed values and will consolidate Forest Service holdings in the George Inlet area of Revilla Island. Cape Fox’s land exchange provisions of this bill will help rectify the long-standing inequities associated with restrictions placed on Cape Fox in ANCSA. It will help allow this Native village corporation to make the transition from its major dependence on timber harvest to a more diversified portfolio of income-producing lands.

The bill also provides for the resolution of a long-standing land ownership problem with the Tongass National Forest. The predominant private landowner in the region, Sealaska Corporation, holds the subsurface estate on several thousand acres of National Forest System lands. This split estate poses a management problem which the Forest Service has long sought to resolve. Efforts to address this issue go back more than a decade. Provisions in the Cape Fox Land Entitlement Act of 2003 will allow the agency to consolidate its surface and subsurface estate and greatly enhance its management effectiveness and economic efficiency in the Tongass National Forest. I urge my colleagues to support this important legislation. I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled.

SEC. 1. SHORT TITLE.
This Act may be cited as the “Cape Fox Land Entitlement Adjustment Act of 2003”.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.
Congress finds that:

(1) Cape Fox Corporation (Cape Fox) is an Alaska Native Village Corporation organized pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA) (48 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.) for the Native Village of Saxman.

(2) As with other ANCSA village corporations in Southeast Alaska, Cape Fox was limited to selecting 23,040 acres under section 16 of ANCSA.

(3) Except for Cape Fox, all other Southeast Alaska ANCSA village corporations were restricted from selecting within two miles of a home rule city.
SEC. 5. EXCHANGE OF LANDS BETWEEN CAPE FOX AND THE TONGASS NATIONAL FOREST.

(a) GENERAL.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall offer, and if accepted by Cape Fox, shall convey to Cape Fox lands described in subsection (b) for lands and interests therein identified by Cape Fox under subsection (c) and, to the extent necessary, lands and interests therein identified under subsection (d).

(b) LANDS TO BE EXCHANGED TO CAPE FOX.—The lands to be offered for exchange by the Secretary of Agriculture are Tongass National Forest lands comprising approximately 2,683.9 acres in T. 36 S., R. 62 E., C.R.M., and T. 35 S., R. 62 E., C.R.M., as designated upon a map entitled “Proposed Kensington Project Land Exchange”, dated March 18, 2002, and available for inspection in the Forest Service Region 10 regional office in Juneau, Alaska. Within 60 days after receiving notice of the identification by Cape Fox of the exchange lands under section 5(b), Cape Fox shall be entitled to identify in writing to the Secretary of Agriculture and the Interior the lands and interests in lands that Cape Fox proposes to exchange for the Federal lands described in subsection (b). The lands and interests in lands shall be identified from lands previously conveyed to Cape Fox comprising approximately 2,506 acres as parcels A-1 to A-3, B-1 to B-3, and C upon a map entitled “Cape Fox Corporation ANCSA Land Exchange Proposal”, dated March 15, 2002, and available for inspection in the Forest Service Region 10 regional office in Juneau, Alaska. Lands identified for exchange within each parcel shall be contiguous to adjacent National Forest System lands and in reasonably compact tracts. The lands identified for exchange shall include a public trail easement designated as D on said map, unless the Secretary agrees otherwise. The value of the easement shall be included in determining the total value of lands exchanged to the United States.

(c) VALUE OF LANDS.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall determine whether the lands identified by Cape Fox under subsection (b) are equal in value to the lands described in subsection (b). If the lands identified under subsection (c) are determined to have insufficient value equal to the value of the lands described in subsection (b), the Secretary shall mutually identify additional Cape Fox lands for exchange sufficient to equalize the value of lands conveyed to Cape Fox. Such land shall be conveyed to the Secretary of Agriculture, and not to the Tongass National Forest, for exchange.

(d) CONDITIONS.—The offer and conveyance of Federal lands to Cape Fox in the exchange shall, notwithstanding section 14(f) of ANCSA, be of the surface and subsurface estate, subject to valid existing rights and all other provisions of section 14(g) of ANCSA.

(e) TIMING.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall, within 90 days after receipt of the selection of lands by Sealaska under subsection (b), enter into an agreement with Sealaska to convey to Sealaska lands selected and conveyed by the Secretary of Agriculture consistent with this Act. The lands identified in the exchange agreement shall be conveyed by exchange at the earliest possible date after the exchange agreement is signed. Subject only to conveyance from Cape Fox to the United States of all its rights, title and interests in the Cape Fox lands included in the exchange consistent with this title, the Secretary of Agriculture shall complete the interim conveyance to Cape Fox of the Federal lands included in the exchange within 180 days after the execution of the exchange agreement by Cape Fox and the Secretary of Agriculture.
SEC. 7. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(a) Equal Value Requirement.—The exchanges described in this Act shall be of equal value.

(b) Cape Fox and Sealaska shall convey and provide evidence of title satisfactory to the Secretary of Agriculture for their respective lands to be exchanged to the United States under this Act, subject only to exceptions, reservations and encumbrances in the interim conveyance or patent from the United States or otherwise acceptable to the Secretary of Agriculture.

(c) Hazardous Substances.—Cape Fox, Sealaska, and the United States each shall not be subject to liability for the presence of any hazardous substance in land solely as a result of any conveyance or transfer of the land or interests under this Act.

(d) Effect on ANCSA Selections.—Any conveyance of Federal surface or subsurface lands to Cape Fox or Sealaska under this Act shall be considered, for all purposes, lands conveyed pursuant to ANCSA. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to change the total acreage of land entitlement of Cape Fox or Sealaska under ANCSA. Cape Fox and Sealaska shall be charged for any lands they exchange under this Act and any lands conveyed pursuant to section 4, but shall not be charged for any lands received under section 5 of the exchanges described in this Act shall be considered, for all purposes, actions which lead to the issuance of conveyances to Native Corporations pursuant to ANCSA. Lands or interests therein transferred to the United States under this Act shall become and be administered as part of the Tongass National Forest.

(e) Foreclosure Selections.—Lands conveyed to or selected by the State of Alaska under the Alaska Statehood Act (Public Law 85–508; 72 Stat. 339; 48 U.S.C. 1606) are authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary of the Interior such sums as may be necessary for land surveys and conveyances necessary for land surveys and conveyances pursuant to this Act.

(f) Maps.—The maps referred to in this Act shall be considered a part of this Act and shall be on file in the Forest Service Region 10 Regional Office in Juneau, Alaska. The acreages cited in this Act are approximate, and if there is any discrepancy between cited acreage and the land depicted on the specified maps, the maps shall control. The maps do not constitute an attempt by the United States to convey State or private land.

(g) Easements.—Notwithstanding section 17(b) of ANCSA, Federal lands conveyed to or selected by Cape Fox or Sealaska pursuant to this Act shall be subject only to the reservation of public easements mutually agreed to and set forth in the exchange agreements executed under this Act. The easements shall include easements necessary for access across the lands conveyed under this Act for use of national forest or other public lands.

(h) Old Growth Reserves.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall add an equal number of acres to old growth reserves on the Tongass National Forest as are transferred out of Federal ownership as a result of this Act.

SEC. 8. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

(a) Department of Agriculture.—There are authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary of Agriculture such sums as may be necessary for value estimation and related costs of exchanging lands specified in this Act, and for road rehabilitation, habitat and timber management, including thinning and pruning, on lands acquired by the United States under this Act.

(b) Disposition.—There are appropriated to be authorized to the Secretary of the Interior such sums as may be necessary for land surveys and conveyances pursuant to this Act.

By Mr. AKAKA (for himself, Mr. GRASSLEY, Mr. LEVIN, Mr. LEAHY, and Mr. DURBIN):

S. 1358. A bill to amend chapter 23 of title 5, United States Code, to clarify the disclosure of information protected from prohibited personnel practices, to require a statement in non-disclosure policies, forms, and agreements that such policies, forms, and agreements conform with certain disclosure protections, to provide certain authority for the Special Council, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Governmental Affairs.

Mr. AKAKA. Mr. President, I rise today to discuss the Federal Employee Protection of Disclosures Act. I offered legislation under this title earlier this month. I am modifying that measure, S. 1229, by introducing a new bill today which is cosponsored by Senators GRASSLEY, LEVIN, LEAHY, and DURBIN.

This bill, as with S. 1229, amends the Whistleblower Protection Act, WPA. These amendments are necessary to safeguard Federal employees from retaliation and protect American taxpayers from government waste, fraud, and abuse. Our bill follows S. 1358.

This bill, as with S. 1229, amends the Whistleblower Protection Act, WPA. These amendments are necessary to safeguard Federal employees from retaliation and protect American taxpayers from government waste, fraud, and abuse. Our bill follows S. 955 and S. 3070, the latter of which was favorably reported by the Governmental Affairs Committee in the 107th Congress. The bill we introduce today is the result of a bipartisan compromise to protect our federal whistleblowers.

Our bill would codify the repeated and unequivocal statements of congressional intent that Federal employees are to be protected when making “any disclosure” evidencing violations of law, gross mismanagement, or a gross waste of funds. The bill would also clarify the test that must be met to prove that a Federal employee reasonably believed that his or her disclosure was evidence of wrongdoing. The clear language of the WPA says that an employee is protected for disclosing information he or she reasonably believes evidences a violation. However, the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, which has sole jurisdiction over whistleblower cases, ruled in 1999 that the reasonableness review must begin with the presumption that public officers and abuse. Our bill follows S. 1229, amends the Whistleblower Protection Act, WPA.

An employee making a covered disclosure may nonetheless sever his employment relationship with the Government or any other entity, or may begin legal proceedings in accordance with the provisions of this Act or other applicable law, in order to prevent any retaliatory action that is inconsistent with the terms of a security clearance or classification determination or otherwise inconsistent with this Act or other applicable law, including a claim that the action was taken in violation of this section.’’.

(3) in a final judgment, the Board or court shall impose disciplinary action, unless that employee demonstrates, by a preponderance of evidence, that the employee's decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action was a significant motivating factor, even if other factors also motivated the decision, for the employee’s decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action that was inconsistent with the employee’s decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action, in the absence of such protected activity.

(b) An allegation that a security clearance was violated;

(3) or (9), the Board shall impose disciplinary action, unless that employee demonstrates, by a preponderance of evidence, that the employee's decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action was a significant motivating factor, even if other factors also motivated the decision, for the employee’s decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action that was inconsistent with the employee’s decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action, in the absence of such protected activity.

(d) by inserting at the end the following:

“(14) conduct, or cause to be conducted, an investigation of an employee or applicant for employment because of any activity protected under this section.

(8) or (9), the Board shall impose disciplinary action, unless that employee demonstrates, by a preponderance of evidence, that the employee's decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action was a significant motivating factor, even if other factors also motivated the decision, for the employee’s decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action that was inconsistent with the employee’s decision to take, fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take a personnel action, in the absence of such protected activity.

“(e)(1) Except as provided under paragraph (2), this paragraph shall apply to any review obtained by the Special Counsel. The Special Counsel may obtain review of any final order or decision by filing, within 60 days after the date the Director received notice of the final order or decision of the Board, a petition for judicial review in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit if the Special Counsel determines, in the discretion of the Director, that the Board erred in deciding a case arising under section 2302(b)(8) of chapter 73 and that the Board’s decision will have a substantial impact on the enforcement of section 2302(b)(8) or subparagraph (b)(1) and inserting the following:

“(d)(1) Except as provided under paragraph (2), this paragraph shall apply to any review obtained by the Special Counsel Management. The Director of the Office of Personnel Management may obtain review of any final order or decision by the Board by filing, within 60 days after the date the Director received notice of the final order or decision of the Board, a petition for judicial review in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit if the Director determines, in his discretion, that the Board erred in interpreting a civil service law, rule, regulation, or policy directive. “(k) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 7703(b) of title 5, United States Code, is amended by striking paragraph (1) and inserting the following:

“'(b)(1) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) and paragraph (2) of this subsection, a petition to review any final order or decision of the Board shall be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or any court of appeals of competent jurisdiction as provided under subparagraph (b)(1) and inserting the following:

If the Special Counsel was not a party or did not intervene in a matter before the Board, the Special Counsel may not petition for review of a Board decision under this section unless the Special Counsel first petitions the Board for reconsideration of its decision, and such petition is denied. In addition to the named respondent, the Board and all other parties to the proceedings before the Board shall have the right to appear in the proceedings before the Court of Appeals. The granting of the petition for judicial review shall be at the discretion of the Court of Appeals.

If the Director did not intervene in a matter before the Board, the Director may not petition for review of a Board decision under this section unless the Director first petitions the Board for reconsideration of its decision, and such petition is denied. “(m) CLARIFICATION OF WHISTLEBLOWER RIGHTS FOR CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE INFORMATION.—Section 214(c) of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (Public Law 107–296) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“'(n) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This Act shall take effect 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

“Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I am pleased to join Senators AKAKA, GRASSLEY, LEAHY, and DURBIN today in introducing the Federal Employees Protection of Disclosures Act. This bill strengthens the law protecting employees who blow the whistle on fraud, waste, and abuse in federal programs. Whistleblowers play a crucial role in ensuring that Congress and the public are aware of serious cases of waste, fraud, and mismanagement in government. Whistleblowing is never more important than when our national security is at stake. Since the terrorist attacks of September 11, ingenious individuals have stepped forward to blow the whistle on significant lapses in our efforts to protect the United States against potential future attacks. Most notably, FBI Agent Coleen Rowley alerted Congress to serious institutional problems at the FBI and their impact on the agency’s ability to effectively investigate and prevent terrorism.

“In another example, two Border Patrol agents from Michigan, Mark Hall and Bob Lindemann, risked their careers when they blew the whistle on Border Patrol and INS policies that were compromising security on... the Northern Border. Their disclosure led to my holding a hearing at the Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations in November 2001, that exposed serious deficiencies in the way Border Patrol and INS were dealing with alien immigrants who were interested while entering the country illegally. Since the hearing, some of the most troublesome policies have been changed, improving the security situation and validating the two agents’ concerns. Despite the fact that their concerns proved to be dead on, shortly after they blew the whistle, disciplinary action was proposed against the two agents. Fortunately in this case, whistleblower protections worked. The Office of Special Counsel conducted an investigation and the decision to discipline the agents was reversed. However, that disciplinary action was proposed in the first place is a troubling reminder of how important it is for us to both strengthen protections for whistleblowers and create additional protections for federal employees who are retaliated against for blowing the whistle.

LaChance versus White represents perhaps the most notable example of the Federal Circuit’s misinterpretation of the whistleblower law. In LaChance, decided on May 14, 1999, a federal agent then assigned to the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Northern Border, disclosed to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Navy, and the Federal Circuit ruled that a whistleblower’s disclosures to co-workers, or to the wrong-doer, or to a court ruled that a whistleblower’s disclosures to official in the agency chain of command or those made in the course of normal job duties were not protected.

In Huffman versus Office of Personnel Management, the Federal Circuit reaffirmed Horton and Willis. And in Meuwissen versus Department of Interior, the Federal Circuit ruled that a whistleblower’s disclosures to co-workers, or to the wrong-doer, or to a court ruled that a whistleblower’s disclosures to official in the agency chain of command or those made in the course of normal job duties were not protected. All of these rulings violate clear Congressional intent to afford broad protection to whistleblower disclosures.

In order to make it clear that any lawful disclosure that an employee or job applicant reasonably believes is evidence of waste, fraud, abuse, or mismanagement? It is virtually impossible standard of proof to meet. Moreover, there is nothing in the law or legislative history that even suggests such a standard applies to the Whistleblower Protection Act. The intent of the law is not to hand over a federal employee to be an investigator and compile “irrefragable” proof that the Federal Government, in fact, committed fraud, waste or abuse. Rather, under the clear language of the statute, the employee has only to have “a reasonable belief” that there is fraud, waste or abuse occurring in order to make a protected disclosure. It is virtually impossible standard of proof to meet. Moreover, there is nothing in the law or legislative history that even suggests such a standard applies to the Whistleblower Protection Act. The intent of the law is not to hand over a federal employee to be an investigator and compile “irrefragable” proof that the Federal Government, in fact, committed fraud, waste or abuse. Rather, under the clear language of the statute, the employee has only to have “a reasonable belief” that there is fraud, waste or abuse occurring in order to make a protected disclosure.

LaChance is only one example of the Federal Circuit misinterpreting the law. Our bill corrects LaChance and as well as several other Federal Circuit holdings. In addition, the bill strengthens the Office of Special Counsel and creates additional protections for federal employees who are retaliated against for blowing the whistle.

One of the most important issues addressed in the bill is to clarify again that the law is intended to protect a broad range of whistleblower disclosures. The legislative history supporting the 1994 Whistleblower Protection Act emphasizes: “It also is not possible to further clarify the clear language in section 2302(b)(8) that protection for ‘any’ whistle-blowing disclosure truly means ‘any’.” A protected disclosure may be made as part of an employee’s job duties, may concern policy or individual misconduct, and may be oral or written and to any audience inside or outside the agency, without restriction to time, place, motive or content.”

Despite this clear Congressional intent that was clearly articulated in 1994, the Federal Circuit has acted to push a number of whistleblower disclosures outside the protections of the whistleblower law. For example, in the case of Horton versus the Drug Enforcement Agency, the Federal Circuit ruled that a whistleblower’s disclosures to co-workers, or to the wrong-doer, or to a court ruled that a whistleblower’s disclosures to official in the agency chain of command or those made in the course of normal job duties were not protected.
cover any disclosure of information without restriction to time, place, form, motive or context, or prior disclosure made to any person by an employee or applicant, including a disclosure made in the ordinary course of an employee's duties that the employee reasonably believes is credible evidence of any violation of any law, rule, or regulation, or other misconduct specified in the whistleblower law. I want to emphasize here that, other than an explicitly listed exception identified in the statute, we intend for there to be no exceptions, inferred or otherwise, as to what is a protected disclosure. And the prohibition on inferred exceptions is intended to apply to all protected speech categories in section 2302(b)(8) of the law.

The intent here, again, is to make it clear that when the WPA speaks of protecting disclosures by Federal employees "any" means "any." The Federal Circuit has recognized the clearly erroneous standard established by the Federal Circuit's LaChance decision I mentioned earlier. Rather than needing "irrefragable proof" to overcome the presumption that a public officer performed his or her duties correctly, fairly, in good faith, and in accordance with the law and regulations, the bill makes it clear that the whistleblower can rebut this presumption with "substantial evidence." This burden of proof is a far more reasonable and appropriate standard for whistleblowing cases.

The Federal Circuit's repeated misinterpretations of the whistleblower law are unacceptable and demand Congressional action. In response to the court's inexplicable and inappropriate rulings, our bill would suspend for five years the Federal Circuit's exclusive jurisdiction over whistleblower appeals. It would instead allow a whistleblower to file a petition to review a final order or final decision of the MSPB in the Federal Circuit or in any other United States appellate court of competent jurisdiction and defined under 5 U.S.C. 7703(b)(2). In most cases, using another court would mean going to the federal circuit where the contested personnel action took place. This five year period would allow Congress to evaluate whether other appellate courts would issue whistleblower decisions which are consistent with the Federal Circuit's interpretation of WPA protections and guide Congressional efforts to clarify the law if necessary.

In addition to addressing jurisdictional issues and troublesome Federal Circuit precedents, our bill would also make important additions to the list of protected disclosures. First, it would subject certain disclosures of classified information to whistleblower protections. However, in order for a disclosure of classified information to be protected, the employee would have to reasonably believe that the disclosure was direct and specific evidence of a violation of law, rule or regulation, gross mismanagement, a gross waste of funds, an abuse of authority, a substantial and specified danger to public health or safety, or a false statement to Congress on an issue of material fact. A whistleblower must also limit the disclosure to a member of Congress or staff of the executive or legislative branch holding the appropriate security clearance and authorized to receive the information disclosed. Federal agencies covered by the WPA would be required to publish a whistleblower disclosure policy. The law also includes provisions to provide confidential advice to employees on how to lawfully make a protected disclosure of classified information to Congress.

Current law permits Federal employees to file a case at the MSPB when they feel that a manager has taken a personnel action against them in retaliation for blowing the whistle. The legislation would add three new personnel actions to the list of adverse actions that could be challenged in court by whistleblowers for engaging in protected activity. These new actions would include enforcement of any nondisclosure policy, form or agreement against a whistleblower for making a protected disclosure; or challenging an agency's security clearance decision. An investigation of an employee or applicant for employment if taken due to their participation in whistleblowing activity.

It is important to note that, if it is demonstrated that a security clearance was suspended or revoked in retaliation for whistleblowing, the legislation limits the relief that the MSPB can provide in such a case. The bill specifies that the MSPB or reviewing court may issue declaratory and other appropriate relief but may not direct a security clearance to be restored. Appropriate relief may include back pay, an order to reassign the employee, attorney fees, or any other relief the Board or court is authorized to provide for other prohibited personnel practices. In addition, if the Board finds an action on a security clearance to have been illegal, it may bar the agency from directly or indirectly taking any other personnel action based on that illegal security clearance decision. Our legislation would also require the agency to review and provide a report to Congress detailing the circumstances of the adverse action in question, the decision made by the Board or court, and authorizes expedited MSPB review of whistleblower cases where a security clearance was revoked or suspended. The latter is important because a person whose clearance has been suspended or revoked and whose job responsibilities may be unable to work while their case is being considered.

Our bill would also add two prohibited personnel practices of the whistleblower law. First, it would codify the "confidential policy-making positions." In 1994, Congress amended the WPA to keep agencies from designating employees confidential policymakers after the employees were identified as whistleblowers. The WPA also allows the President to exclude from WPA jurisdiction any agency whose principal function is the conduct of foreign intelligence or counterintelligence activities. Our legislation maintains this authority but makes it clear that a decision to exclude an agency from WPA protections must also be made prior to a personnel action being taken against a whistleblower from that agency. This provides a way to ensure that agencies cannot argue that employees are exempt from whistleblower protections after an employee files a claim that they were retaliated against.

Another key sector of the bill would strengthen the Office of Special Counsel. OSC is the independent federal agency responsible for investigating and prosecuting federal employee complaints of whistleblower retaliation. Currently, law, however, limits the OSC's ability to effectively enforce and defend whistleblower laws. For example, the law provides the OSC with no authority to request the Merit Systems Protection Board to reconsider one of its decisions or to seek appellate review of an MSPB decision. Even when another party petitions for a review of an MSPB decision, OSC is typically denied the right to participate in the proceedings.

Our bill would provide explicit authority for the Office of Special Counsel to appear in any civil action brought in connection with the whistleblower law. In addition, it would authorize OSC to obtain circuit court review of any MSPB order in a whistleblower case if the OSC believes the Board erred and the case would have a substantial impact on the enforcement of the whistleblower statute. In a letter to me addressing these provisions, special Counsel Elaine Kaplan said, "I believe that these changes are necessary, not only to ensure OSC's effectiveness, but to address continuing concerns about the whittling away of the WPA's protections by narrow judicial interpretations of the law." I ask unanimous consent that the OSC letter be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

U.S. Office of Special Counsel,

Hon. Carl Levin,
U.S. Senate, Russell Senate Office Building,
Washington, DC,

Dear Senator Levin: Thank you for giving me the opportunity to comment on the proposed Title VI of H.R. 5005, concerning... the protection of federal employee whistleblowers.

As the head of the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC), the independent federal agency charged with investigating and prosecuting federal employees’ complaints of whistleblower retaliation, I share your recognition that laws intended to protect whistleblowers are strong and effective. Federal employees are often in the best position to observe and identify official misconduct as well as dangers to the public health and safety, and the national security.

Now, perhaps more than ever before, our national interest demands that federal workers feel safe to come forward to bring appropriate attention to these conditions so that they can be addressed. Further, and even more than ever, the public now needs assurance that the workforce which is carrying out crucial operations is alert, and that its leaders encourage and promote their constructive participation in making the government a highly efficient and effective steward of the public interest.

To these ends, Title VI contains a number of provisions that will strengthen the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA) and close loopholes. This legislation will reverse the effects of several judicial decisions that have imposed unduly narrow and restrictive tests for determining whistleblower status and liability for the protection of the WPA. These decisions, among other things, have held that employees are not protected against retaliation when they make disclosures in the line of duty or when they confront subject officials with their suspicions of wrongdoing. They have also made it more difficult for whistleblowers in the line of duty to prove that the retaliation is connected to the employee’s protected activity.

In addition to reversing these rulings, Title VI would grant the Special Counsel independent litigation authority and the right to request judicial review of decisions of the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB). This legislation would also enable OSC to seek declaratory and injunctive relief from the Federal Circuit in cases that will have a substantial impact on the enforcement of the WPA. I firmly believe that these changes are necessary, not only to ensure OSC’s effectiveness in its responsibility of determining what the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit has called an “irrefragable” presumption that government officials perform their duties lawfully and in good faith.

In addition to reversing these rulings, Title VI would also provide that, for a period of five years, beginning on February 1, 2003, there would be multi-circuit review of decisions of the MSPB, just as there is now multi-circuit review of decisions of the MSPB’s sister agency, the Federal Labor Relations Authority. This experiment will give Congress the opportunity to judge whether providing a broader perspective of all of the nation’s courts of appeals will enhance the development of the case law under the WPA.

There are several other provisions of the amendments that would strengthen the Act’s coverage and remedies. The amendments, for example, would extend coverage of the WPA to circumstances in which an agency initiates an investigation of an employee or applicant in reprisal for whistleblowing or where an agency implemented an illegal non-disclosure policy. The amendments would also extend compen-satory damages in federal employee whistleblower cases. Such awards are authorized for federal employees under the civil rights acts, and for environmental and nuclear whistleblower, among others, under other federal statutes. Given the important public policies underlying the WPA, it seems appropriate that the same sort of make whole relief should be available to federal employee whistleblowers.

Finally, Title VI contains a provision that would provide relief to employees who allege that their security clearances were denied or revoked because of protected whistleblowing, without proof of an underlying authority of the President to make security clearance determinations. The amendment would allow employees to file OSC complaints alleging a violation of adverse security clearance determination.

This amendment provides a balance resolution of the tension between protecting national security whistleblowers against retaliation and maintaining the President’s traditional prerogative to decide who will have access to classified information. Especially in light of the current heightened concerns about issues of national security, this change is necessary to hold managers accountable.

Thank you again for providing me with an opportunity to comment on these amendments, and for your continuing interest in the work of the Office of Special Counsel.

Sincerely,

ELAINE KAPLAN.

Mr. LEVIN. OSC currently has the authority to pursue disciplinary action against managers who retaliate against whistleblowers. However, Federal Circuit decisions, like LaChance, have undermined the agency’s ability to successfully pursue such cases. The Special Counsel has said that “change is necessary in order to ensure that the burden of proof in these cases is not so onerous as to make it virtually impossible to secure disciplinary action against retaliators.” In addition to it being difficult to win, if the OSC loses a disciplinary case, it has to pay the legal fees of those against whom the OSC files a suit. Under current law, if OSC ultimately does not prevail in a case it brings against a manager whose investigation shows has engaged in retaliation, then we must pay attorney fees, even if our investigation was an entirely reasonable one. For a small agency like OSC, with a limited budget, the specter of having to pay large attorney fee awards simply because we do not ultimately prevail in a case, is a significant obstacle to our ability to use this important authority and hold managers accountable. It is, moreover, an unprecedented burden; virtually all fee shifting provisions which could result in an award of fees against a government agency, depend upon a showing that the government agency has acted unreasonably or in bad faith.

In addition to these provisions, the bill would also provide that, for a period of five years, beginning on February 1, 2003, there would be multi-circuit review of decisions of the MSPB, just as there is now multi-circuit review of decisions of the MSPB’s sister agency, the Federal Labor Relations Authority. This experiment will give Congress the opportunity to judge whether providing a broader perspective of all of the nation’s courts of appeals will enhance the development of the law under the WPA.

Finally, the bill addresses a new issue that has arisen in connection with the recent enactment of the Homeland Security Act or HSA. To evaluate the vulnerability to terrorist attack of certain critical infrastructures, the Homeland Security Act or HSA asks private companies that own vital computer networks and other key facilities, the HSA asks private companies that own these facilities to submit unclassified information about them to the government. In doing so, the law also created some ambiguity on the question of whether Federal employee whistleblower whistleblowers would be protected by the WPA if they should disclose information that has been independently obtained by the whistleblower about such facilities but which may also have been disclosed to the government as part of the critical infrastructure information program.

While I believe it was Congress’s intent to extend whistleblower protections to Federal employees who disclose such independently obtained information, the law’s ambiguities are troublesome in the context of the tendency of the Federal Circuit to narrowly construe the scope of protections afforded by the WPA. Our bill would thus clarify that whistleblower protections do extend to Federal employees who disclose independently obtained information that may also have been disclosed to the government as part of the
We need to encourage Federal employees to blow the whistle on waste, fraud and abuse in Federal Government agencies and programs. These people take risks and often face enormous obstacles in doing what they believe is right. The Congress and the country owe a particular debt of gratitude to those whistleblowers who put their careers on the line to protect national security. As September 2002, we have seen a number of examples of how crucial people like Coleen Rowley, Mark Hall and Bob Lindermann are to keeping our country safe. I request unanimous consent that a letter from Agent Rowley be printed in the RECORD. In the letter she says that when she blew the whistle, she was lucky enough to garner the support of many of her colleagues and members of Congress. However, her letter to her supervisor, Tony Tohill, says that "there are many more who do not benefit from the relative safety of public notoriety." It is to protect those responsible, courageous many that we offer this legislation. We need more like them.

I ask unanimous consent to print in the RECORD a section-by-section explanation of the bill.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SEPTEMBER 2, 2002.

DEAR SENATORS: I have proudly served in federal law enforcement for over 21 years. Prior to my involvement in specific matter, I did not fully appreciate the strong disincentives that sometimes keep government employees from exposing waste, fraud, abuse, or other failures they witness on the job. Nor did I appreciate the strong incentives that do exist for agencies to avoid institutional embarrassment.

The decision to step forward with information that exposed my agency to scrutiny was one of the most difficult of my career. I did not come forward lightly. I attempted to warn my superiors through regular channels. Only after those warnings failed to bring about the necessary response and our country was injured did I go outside the agency with my concerns. I had no intention or desire to be in the public spotlight, so I did not go to the news media. I provided the information to Members of Congress with oversight responsibility. I felt compelled to do so because my responsibility is to the American people, not to a government agency.

Unfortunately, the cloak of secrecy which is necessary for the effective operation of government involved in national security and criminal investigations fosters an environment where the incentives to avoid embarrassment and the disincentives to step forward are not balanced. What happens to the public loses. We need laws that strike a better balance, that are able to protect effective government operation without sacrificing accountability and public. I believe to gain the good of support of my colleagues in the Minneapolis office and Members of Congress. For every one like me, there are many more who do not benefit from the relative safety of public notoriety. They need credible, functioning rights and remedies to be able to do so.

I also need to state that I write this letter in my personal capacity, and that it reflects my personal views only, not those of the government agency for which I work.

Thank you for your consideration,

COLEEN ROWLEY.

There being no objection, the analysis was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE FEDERAL EMPLOYEE PROTECTION OF DISCLOSURES ACT

The Federal Employee Protection of Disclosures Act would strengthen protections for Federal employees who blow the whistle on waste, fraud and abuse in the Federal Government.

Protected Whistleblower Disclosures—To correct court decisions improperly limiting the disclosures protected by the Whistleblower Protection Act, Section (b) of the bill would clarify Congressional intent that the law covers "any" whistleblowing disclosure, whether that disclosure is made as part of an employee's job duties, concerns policy or individual misconduct, is oral or written, or is made to any audience inside or outside an agency, and without restriction to time, place, manner or context. This section would also protect certain disclosures of classified information to Congress when the disclosure is to a Member or legislative staff, to protect the confidentiality of an employment clearance and authorized to receive the type of information disclosed.

Inferential disclosures—Section (c) would clarify the definition of "disclosure" to include a formal or informal communication or transmission.

Irrefragable Proof—In LaChance v. White, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit imposed an erroneous standard for determining when an employee makes a protected disclosure under the Whistleblower Protection Act. Under the clear language of the statute, an employee need only have a reasonable belief that he or she is providing evidence of fraud, waste or abuse to make a protected disclosure, but the court ruled that an employee had to have "irrefragable proof"—meaning undeniable and incontestable proof—to overcome the presumption that a public officer is performing their duties in accordance with law. Section (d) would replace this unreasonable standard of proof by providing that a whistleblower can rebut the presumption with "substantial evidence."

Prohibited Personnel Actions—Section (e)(1) would add three actions to the list of prohibited personnel actions that are retaliatory. These actions include: unauthorized disclosures to agents of the Mt. Healthy standard.

Retaliations Involving Security Clearances—Section (e)(3) would make it a prohibited personnel practice for a manager to issue a reprimand as a retaliatory action with respect to an employee's security clearance in retaliation for whistleblowing.

The section would also authorize the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) to review its security clearance decision and issue a report to Congress explaining its decision. Exclusions From WPA—Current law allows the President to exclude certain employees and agencies from the WPA if they perform certain intelligence related or policy making functions. In 1994, Congress amended the WPA to stop agencies from removing employees from WPA coverage after the employees filed whistleblower complaints. Section (f) would also require MSPB to take action against a whistleblowing employee prior to a personnel action being taken against a whistleblower at that agency.

The Special Counsel, OSC, has authority to pursue disciplinary action against managers who retaliate against whistleblowers. Currently, if OSC loses a disciplinary case, it must pay the legal fees of those against whom it initiated the action. Because the amounts involved could significantly deplete OSC's limited resources, section (g) would prohibit the employing agency, rather than OSC, to reimburse the manager's attorney fees.

Burden of Proof in Disciplinary Actions—Congress, when OSC undertakes a disciplinary action, determines whether an adverse personnel action which has occurred was a "significant motivating factor" in the decision by the manager to take the adverse action, even if other factors also motivated the decision. This is equivalent to the Mt. Healthy standard.

Disclosures to Congress—Section (j) would require agencies to establish a process to provide confidential advice to employees on how to lawfully make a protected disclosure of classified information to Congress.

Authority of Special Counsel—Under current law, OSC has no authority to request MSPB to reconsider a decision or seek appellate review of a MSPB decision. This limitation undermines OSC's ability to protect whistleblowers and integrity of the WPA.

Section k would authorize OSC to appeal to any civil action brought in connection with the whistleblower's protected disclosure that was a "significant motivating factor" in the decision by the manager to take the adverse action, even if other factors also motivated the decision. This is equivalent to the Mt. Healthy standard.

MSPB Order Reversal—Section (l) would provide for Federal Circuit appellate review of MSPB decisions with regard to '"prohibited personnel actions' that MSPB order where OSC determines MSPB erred and the case would have a substantial impact on WPA enforcement.

Judicial Review—In 1982, Congress replaced normal Administrative Procedures Act appellate review of MSPB decisions with exclusive jurisdiction in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. While the 1989 WPA and its 1994 amendments strengthened and clarified whistleblower protections, Federal Circuit holdings have repeatedly been misinterpreted, to OSC's confusion. Subject to a five year sunset, section (m) would suspend the Federal Circuit's exclusive jurisdiction over whistleblower appeals involving the right of federal employees to disclose certain protected information. This section would codify the so-called anti-gag provision that has been included in federal appeals court decisions.
the Homeland Security Act, HSA, maintains existing WPA rights for independently obtained information that may also qualify as critical infrastructure information under the HSA.

By Mrs. BOXER: S. 1339. A bill to allow credit unions to provide remittance services and to require disclosures in connection with international money transfers from all money transmitting service providers; to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, today, I am introducing the International Remittances Services Enhancement and Protection Act of 2003. Remittances are the funds that immigrants send to their families abroad to help those relatives meet their basic needs. In the Latino community, 47 percent of all Latinos born outside the United States regularly send money to their country of origin. But, in contrast, only 5 percent to 58 percent of those who send remittances abroad regularly do not have a bank account, much of their hard earned money is lost in fees paid to check cashing agencies and wire transfer agencies, which rely on check cashing services to cash their paychecks at hefty fees and then pay another fee to send some portion of that money through a wire service to their relatives in Latin America and elsewhere at varying exchange rates.

This legislation will increase competition and transparency in the remittances market. It will provide immigrants with access to more choices for sending remittances by allowing credit unions to provide wire transfer and check cashing services to nonmembers. It will also provide immigrants with access to information in more than one language from all money transmitters about their country of origin. But, since immigrants rely on check cashing services to cash their paychecks at hefty fees and then pay another fee to send some portion of that money through a wire service to their relatives in Latin America and elsewhere at varying exchange rates, that information will make it easier for consumers to compare the value of the services they can receive from different service providers.

The larger goal is to provide immigrant control over their finances. I believe this bill will encourage financial institutions to develop better services for immigrants and build stronger relationships with immigrant communities.

According to the Multilateral Investment Fund, immigrants living in the United States sent $23 billion to Latin America in 2001. More than $3 billion of that total was consumed in fees paid to money transfer agencies. If current growth rates in remittance transfers are maintained, cumulative remittances to Latin America could reach $300 billion for the 10-year period ending in 2010. We need to work to ensure that immigrants can use the market and modern technology come together to lower the portion of those monies lost in fees and instead are used for productive purposes.

By Mr. GRAHAM of Florida:

S. 1360. A bill to amend section 7105 of title 38, United States Code, to clarify the requirements for notices of disagreement for appellate review of Department of Veterans Affairs activities; to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce legislation that will remove a significant and arbitrary barrier to appellate review of veterans' benefits claims. In 1988, when Congress created judicial review for veterans' claims, it intended to provide an opportunity for those aggrieved by VA decisions to have those decisions reviewed by a court and found such review “necessary in order to provide such claimants with fundamental justice.”

A veteran or survivor of a veteran seeking VA benefits must file a claim for such benefits, generally at a VA Regional Office. If the VA denies the claim for benefits, the claimant must file a “Notice of Disagreement,” or NOD, as defined in section 7105 of title 38 of the United States Code. This NOD initiates appellate review by the agency and begins a series of events where VA communicates the basis of the denial to the claimant and allows various levels of review of this denial at the regional offices. If the claimant still disagrees with the VA decision, the claimant may file a “Substantive Appeal” that vests jurisdiction of the claim with the Board of Veterans’ Appeals, the appellate arm of VA.

Section 7105 of title 38 of the United States Code requires that a valid NOD be filed within 1 year from the notice of the initial denial, in writing, and filed with the regional office that issued the decision over which there is disagreement. The NOD may be filed by the claimant or the claimant’s guardian or representative. VA has promulgated regulations to implement section 7105. In Section 20.201 or title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the Secretary defined a NOD to not require special wording. The regulation does require that the NOD “must be in terms which can be reasonably construed as disagreement with the determination and a desire for appellate review.” The second component of that sentence—“a desire for appellate review”—is not required under the statute.

In 1997, Raymond Gallegos, a veteran, again filed an application for service connection for psychiatric stress disorder that had been previously denied. The VA regional office granted his claim. However, Mr. Gallegos believed the effective date assigned to his claim was wrong and filed what was then thought to be a NOD. He appealed this issue to the Board, which reasoned that the letter expressing his disagreement was not a valid NOD because it did not express his desire for appellate review. Mr. Gallegos appealed the Board’s determination to the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims, or the CAVC.

In 2000, the CAVC determined in Gallegos v. Gober that the VA regulation was invalid because it required more of the claimant than Congress required in statute. Last year, in Gallegos v. Principi, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit reversed the CAVC and upheld the VA regulation, finding that the agency interpretation was entitled to deference because Congressional intent was not clear in limiting the requirements of a NOD to those in section 7105.

Congress never intended to require that level of formality from veterans, in this uniquely pro-claimant system. Therefore, I offer legislation that would specify that if a claimant’s filing meets the criteria defined in section 7105 of title 38, United States Code, the document will be deemed a Notice of Disagreements with all the rights and procedures that accompany that determination. It will also ensure that claimants whose NODs were found to be defective since the court decision and will have the opportunity to have their NOD reevaluated under this new provision.

This is very significant because there are two key consequences of having a valid, timely NOD. First, if a claimant fails to file a timely, valid NOD, the VA denial becomes final. The claimant will need to submit “new and material evidence” that VA erred in order to reopen the case. Second, the claimant will only be able to receive benefits dating to the beginning of the newly reopened claim, potentially losing years of retroactive benefits. This may affect a veteran’s ability to receive VA health care, a dependant’s ability to use educational benefits, and all the other benefits that flow from a finding of service-connection.

Second, if a claimant has not been deemed to file a NOD, there can be no appeal of the VA decision. A NOD is required to initiate an appeal. It is a prerequisite to review by the Board of Veterans’ Appeals and ultimately judicial review at the CAVC. This continues Congress’s intent to remove arbitrary barriers to judicial review as it did in Public Law 107–103.

We face the tragic fact that in 2002, America lost 646,264 veterans. The many aging veterans who still await justice cannot afford this debate. I ask my colleagues to support this critical measure and restore this fundamental justice to our veterans.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of this bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1360

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled.

SECTION 1. CLARIFICATION OF NOTICE OF DISAGREEMENT FOR APPELLATE REVIEW OF DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS ACTIVITIES.

(a) CLARIFICATION.—Section 7105 of title 38, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:
“(3) A document that meets the requirements of the second sentence of paragraph (1) and the first sentence of paragraph (2) shall be recognized as a notice of disagreement under section 7105 of title 38, United States Code (as added by subsection (a) of this section), shall apply to any document—

(A) filed under section 7105 of such title on or after the date of the enactment of this Act; or

(B) filed under section 7105 of such title before the date of the enactment of this Act and not rejected by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs in accordance with section 7105 of title 38, Code of Federal Regulations, as of that date.

(2) In the case of a document described in paragraph (1) of this subsection, the Secretary shall, upon the request of the claimant or the Secretary’s own motion, order the document treated as a notice of disagreement under section 7105 of such title as if the document had not been rejected by the Secretary as a notice of disagreement pursuant to section 20.201 of title 38, Code of Federal Regulations.

(3) A document described in this paragraph is a document that—

(A) was filed as a notice of disagreement under section 7105 of such title during the period beginning on March 15, 2002, and ending on the date of the enactment of this Act; and

(B) by the Secretary as a notice of disagreement pursuant to section 20.201 of title 38, Code of Federal Regulations.

(4) A document may not be treated as a notice of disagreement under paragraph (2) unless a request for such treatment is filed by the claimant, or a motion is made by the Secretary, not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this Act.

By Mr. SMITH.

S. 1361. A bill to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to provide that foreign base company shipping income shall include only income from aircraft and income from certain vessels transporting petroleum and related products; to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. SMITH of Oregon. Mr. President, today I am introducing legislation which would deal with a real problem facing our Nation, the decline of our U.S.-owned shipping fleet. A U.S. owned shipping fleet is essential as a matter of national and economic security. My bill would help make U.S. based shipping companies more competitive in the global market.

This is important to our country and to my state. Oregon plays a key role as a facilitator of international commerce. The Port of Portland is one of the most active ports in the world. It is a key link for trade between the United States and the Pacific Rim. In addition to its key role enabling global commerce, it is home to U.S.-owned shipping companies, shipyards, and numerous support businesses.

As a result of tax-law changes enacted in 1975 and 1986, U.S. shipping companies must pay tax on income earned by subsidiaries overseas immediately rather than when such income is later brought back to the United States. This treatment represents a sharp departure from the generally applicable income tax principle of “deferral” and places U.S.-based owners of international fleets at a distinct tax disadvantage compared to their foreign-based competitors.

Controlled foreign corporations engaged in overseas trade were once one of the only active businesses that are not eligible for general rule of deferral. My bill would amend the Internal Revenue Code to allow U.S. companies that own foreign-flagged ships to treat income earned by controlled foreign companies in the same manner as all other U.S. companies. In short, it would allow American shipping companies to defer the payment of tax on income that they derive from shipping activities outside the United States until that income is repatriated to the United States.

Most foreign-based carriers pay no home-country taxes on income they earn abroad from international shipping. As a result of this competitive imbalance, U.S. companies now hold precious little share of the world shipping marketplace. Indeed, U.S. ownership of international shipping trades dropped precipitously in the aftermath of the 1995 and 1996 tax-law changes. Before 1975, the U.S.-owned share of the world’s open-registry shipping fleet stood at 26 percent. By 1986, the U.S. share had dropped to 14 percent. By 1996, the U.S. share had dropped to 5 percent.

Other security concerns also are raised by the decline in U.S. ownership of the international shipping trade. The U.S. military, in times of emergency, relies on the ability to requisition U.S.-owned foreign-flagged tankers, bulk carriers, and other vessels to carry oil, gasoline, and other materials in defense of U.S. interests overseas. These vessels comprise the Effective United States Control, EUSC, fleet. The sharp decline in the EUSC fleet, resulting from tax-law changes, and the resulting adverse strategic consequences, have been confirmed in a recent MIT study conducted for the Navy Department. The study recommended that in the short term, the most practical and cost-effective means of reversing this trend would be to “revise legislation to reflect tax deferment of income for some or all EUSC vessels.”

U.S. security also depends in no small part on our ability to maintain adequate domestic oil supplies in times of emergency. The United States consumes approximately 19.6 million barrels of oil per day, of which roughly 55 percent, mostly crude, is imported into the United States. It is estimated that 95 percent of all oil imported into the United States by sea is now imported on foreign-owned tankers. This means that one half of every gallon of oil consumed in the United States is carried on foreign-owned vessels. This growing percentage—who may not be sympathetic to U.S. interests—to deliver our oil in times of global crisis is cause for potential alarm. In recent years, two of the largest American shipping companies have been purchased by foreign companies, thereby making their shipping operations more competitive than the remaining American companies.

The time has come for us to make changes in the tax law that will allow our domestic companies to compete fairly in the global marketplace. I urge my colleagues to join me in enacting this needed legislation. I ask unanimous consent that the text of the legislation be printed in the Record.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1361

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “RAFT (Re-store Access to Foreign Trade) Act of 2003.”

SEC. 2. ELIMINATION OF MOST VESSEL SHIPPING INCOME FROM FOREIGN BASE COMPANY INCOME.

(a) FOREIGN BASE COMPANY SHIPPING INCOME TO INCLUDE ONLY INCOME FROM AIRCRAFT AND PETROLEUM VESSELS.—Subsection (f) of section 954 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (relating to foreign base company income) is amended—

(1) by inserting “petroleum” before “vessel” each place it appears, and

(2) by adding at the end the following new sentence: “For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘petroleum vessel’ means any vessel engaged in the carriage of petroleum or related products or by-products if the taxpayer is a member of a controlled group (as defined in section 267(f)(1) without regard to section 1563(b)(2)(C)) of which the taxpayer is a member principally in the trade or business of exploring for, or extracting, refining or marketing of, petroleum or related products or byproducts.”

(b) RETENTION OF SEPARATE FOREIGN TAX CREDIT BASKET FOR ALL SHIPPING INCOME.—Subparagraph (D) of section 964(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by striking “(as defined in section 954(f))” and inserting “, as defined in section 954(f), if references in such section to petroleum vessels include references to EUSC vessels.”

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years of foreign corporations beginning after December 31, 2002, and to taxable years of United States shareholders (within the meaning of section 951(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) within which or with which such taxable years of such foreign corporations end.

By Mrs. BOXER.

S. 1362. A bill to authorize the Port Passenger Accelerated Service System (Port PASS) as a permanent program for land border inspection under the Immigration and Nationality Act, and for other purposes; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, today, I am introducing legislation that will strengthen national security, promote commerce, and provide assistance to our dedicated agents at the border.

Thousands of San Diego and Tijuana residents cross the border every day as commuters, shoppers, or visitors. Unfortunately, our border infrastructure has not kept pace with the increasing traffic volume, and travelers frequently encounter delays and congestion at the border.

The tragic events of September 11 further intensified these challenges along the border. Increased security measures, with severely over-extended inspection resources and resulted in longer waiting times for crossing the border.

The Secure Electronic Network for Traveling Rapidly (SENTRI) program was created to help alleviate the congestion at the border.

SENTRI is a dedicated commuter lane program. It allows pre-screened travelers to move quickly through the inspection process at the United States-Mexican border. After participants pass a background check, they can move more quickly through a dedicated lane.

SENTRI accepts only travelers who pass both an extensive background check to verify their eligibility and a thorough inspection of their vehicle.

Delays at crossing the border were often an hour or more prior to SENTRI. But, with SENTRI, the delays for participants are 5 to 15 minutes. Travelers in other lanes also benefit because the prescreened SENTRI crossings move swiftly through the border, reducing the number of motorists using general commuter lanes.

Expediting inspections through SENTRI is actually helping to improve border security, as Customs and Border Patrol agents can focus more attention on nonscreened drivers and passengers.

Unfortunately, SENTRI has become a victim of its own success. SENTRI needs a greater investment of resources to keep up with the current and future demand. Enrollment increased by more than 100 percent after September 11. Currently, prospective applicants must wait approximately 8 months to participate in the program.

For innovative programs, such as SENTRI, to work, we must provide them with the tools and resources they need to succeed. This is why I am introducing the Secure and Fast Entry at the Border Act or SAFE Border Act.

The SAFE Border Act recognizes the contribution of SENTRI to border security and the agents who administer the program. My bill would extend the length of a SENTRI pass from 1 to 2 years—enabling border agents to process more new applicants and reduce the current enrollment wait. The SAFE Border Act recommends the appointment of dedicated SENTRI staff to expedite application processing, and encourages the creation of a dedicated commuter lane for prescreened, low-risk pedestrian crossers.

In addition, to ensure security at our borders, my legislation bans a person convicted of a felony or under active investigation from participating in the program.

Our agents at the border shoulder an enormous responsibility every day. I believe we owe them the appropriate resources and support they need to carry out their duties.

Our Nation’s economic and overall security is heavily linked to smooth and secure border crossings. The SAFE Border Act provides a way for trusted travelers to cross the border securely and quickly.

By Mr. REID:

S. 1363. A bill to prohibit the study or implementation of any plan to privatize, divest, or transfer any part of the mission, function, or responsibility of the National Park Service to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, as thousands of families look forward to summer vacations at our beautiful national parks, we must address an issue that could one day ruin their experience: privatization of the National Park Service.

The Park Service has worked hard to preserve Nevada’s unique landscapes at the Great Basin National Park, Death Valley, and Lake Mead National Recreation Area. Instead of applauding the Park Service for a job well done, the Administration wants to study 1,800 jobs in the Park Service for privatization.

Many of these Park Service jobs have direct contact with visitors to our parks. They not only collect fees and maintain parks but also give directions, fight wildfires when necessary, and provide emergency medical assistance. They not only clean the trash from the middle of the night or change a tire for an unlucky park visitor, but can we be sure that a contractor would do the same? No.

In addition, the Park Service receives tens of thousands of hours of volunteer work every year. At the Lake Mead National Recreation Area alone, volunteers provided 92,000 hours of work, the equivalent of 44 full-time employees. Will a contractor find volunteers to provide it with 92,000 hours of assistance? Can we be sure that contractors can keep up with the current and future demands?

Privatization will waste taxpayer money. Privatization studies cost about $3,000 per position studied, and privatization does not save money.

Nevadans visiting the national parks this summer want members of the Park Service—not profit-minded corporations, enriching their experience by directing them to the famous sites and best kept secrets of our parks.

I oppose privatizing the Park Service because it would hurt Nevadans, endanger our national parks, and waste taxpayer money.

This bill will keep our dedicated Park Service members running our national parks. It stops costly privatization studies and redirects the funds to address the maintenance backlog that President Bush promised to eliminate.

I am committed to protecting our parks, and I am proud to introduce this bill that will ensure that the Park Service can preserve them for generations to come.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1363

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. PARK PROFESSIONALS PROTECTION.

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the “Park Professionals Protection Act”.

(b) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) The National Park System is recognized throughout the world as a model for the conservation and enjoyment of natural, scenic, recreational, cultural, and historic resources.

(2) The National Park System would never have achieved such status, nor could the system maintain such status, without the professionalism, dedication, and passion of the men and women of the National Park Service.

(3) Current plans to privatize thousands of jobs within the National Park Service ignore the unique contributions made by the men and women of the National Park Service and threaten to undermine the entire National Park System.

(4) Scarc park operations and maintenance resources are being diverted to pay private consultants to study the current privatization scheme. According to the National Park Service, these studies cost approximately $3000 for each position proposed to be privatized.

(5) Despite the millions of taxpayer dollars diverted to these studies, not a single report has been published documenting any cost savings to be generated by the privatization of park operations.

(6) The current privatization scheme raises serious questions regarding the ability of temporary workers, provided by the lowest bidder, to adequately fulfill the responsibilities of professional National Park Service employees in the areas of conservation, interpretation, emergency fire and rescue, and homeland security.

(7) The current privatization scheme appears to affect minority employees disproportionately, threatening to significantly reduce the number of minority employees within the National Park Service.

(8) Pendency of the current privatization scheme is having detrimental impacts on the morale of current employees, including discouraging high quality candidates from applying for positions within the National Park Service.

(c) PROHIBITION.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary is prohibited from conducting any plan to privatize, divest, or transfer any part of the mission, function, or responsibility of the National Park System, as of the date of the enactment of this Act.

(d) REALLOCATION OF FUNDS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary may reallocate those funds to the operations and maintenance accounts within the National Park Service.
By Ms. MURKOWSKI:

S. 1364. A bill to amend the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act to authorize the payment of expenses after the death of certain Federal employees in the State of Alaska; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Ms. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, on the morning following the annual candlelight vigil to honor fallen law enforcement officers, I came to the floor to speak about three brave Alaskans whose names were inscribed on the National Law Enforcement Officers' Memorial at Judiciary Square this year. One of these brave Alaskans was a National Park Service ranger who lost his life when the aircraft he was piloting crashed in a remote part of Alaska. Today, I would like to introduce Leslie South Naknek, whom I hope will help the surviving family members of this ranger in their recovery from this tragic loss and provide authority for the Federal Government to help the surviving family members of other similarly situated Federal employees should a similar tragedy occur in the future.

This ranger I am speaking about was assigned to the Katmai National Park and Preserve in the Bristol Bay region of Alaska and lived in the community of Naknek. Naknek is not connected to the rest of North America by road. It is what we in Alaska call a “bush” community. But it was home to the ranger and became the adopted home of his widow and her three children there.

The legislation that I am introducing today is intended to cure this inequity. It would amend ANILCA, the same legislation which contains the local hire authority, to provide that if a local hire employee dies in the line of duty, the Federal Government will reimburse the surviving immediate family for the cost of transporting the remains to a location in Alaska of their choosing and will also relocate the immediate family members to a community in the State of Alaska which is selected by the surviving head of household. I think that this is the least we can do for the survivors of local hire employees who go to work everyday in the harsh climate and conditions of bush Alaska but sadly sometimes do not return home.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the text of the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1364

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. PAYMENT OF EXPENSES AFTER DEATH OF CERTAIN FEDERAL EMPLOYEES IN THE STATE OF ALASKA.

Section 1308 of the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act (16 U.S.C. 3198) is amended—

(1) by redesignating subsection (c) as subsection (d); and

(2) by inserting after subsection (b) the following:

“(c) PAYMENT OF EXPENSES AFTER DEATH OF AN EMPLOYEE. —

“(1) DEFINITION OF IMMEDIATE FAMILY MEMBER. —In this subsection, the term “immediate family member” means a person related to a deceased employee that was a member of the household of the deceased employee at the time of death.

“(2) PAYMENTS. —If an employee appointed under the program established by subsection (a) dies in the performance of any assigned duties on or after October 1, 2002, the Secretary may—

“(A) pay reasonable expenses for the preparation and transportation of the remains of the deceased employee to a location in the State of Alaska which is selected by the surviving head of household of the deceased employee;

“(B) pay reasonable expenses for transporting immediate family members and the baggage and household goods of the deceased employee and immediate family members to a community in the State of Alaska which is selected by the surviving head of household of the deceased employee.”.

By Mr. MCCONNELL (for himself, Mr. KYL, and Mr. LEAHY):

S. 1365. A bill to provide increased foreign assistance for Cambodia under certain circumstances, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, today, along with my colleagues Senators KYL and LEAHY, I offer the “Cambodia Democracy and Accountability Act of 2003”. This Act is particularly timely, given that national elections are scheduled in that country on July 27th.

Cambodia is on its third round of parliamentary elections since the 1991 Paris Peace Accords, with previous rounds having been called at the United Nations in 1993 and by the Cambodian governments in 1998. Despite the billions of dollars spent on elections in that country—over $2 billion by the U.N. alone—there has yet to be a credible election having the will of the Cambodian people.

My colleagues will remember that the U.N.-sponsored elections resulted in a large voter turnout—but also an unworkable power sharing deal brokered between the hard line FUNCINPEC party and the hard line Cambodian People’s Party, CPP, that quickly dissolved into open hostilities, including a bloody grenade attack against a peaceful, pro-democracy rally and a CPP sponsored coup d’etat in 1997.

The debilitating hangover from this coup—destroyed party offices, dead activists, and a palpable climate of fear and repression—undermined prospects for free and fair elections having been funded by the United Nations in 1993 and by the Cambodia Democracy and Accountability Act of 1997.

There is no rule of law, if the leaders of CPP and FUNCINPEC will not reveal the billions of dollars spent on elections in that country—over $2 billion by the U.N. alone—there has yet to be a credible election having the will of the Cambodian people.

It is time that Prime Minister Hun Sen—as the self-proclaimed strongman of Cambodia—is held responsible for the murder of political activists, Buddhist monks, civilians, and students. There is no rule of law, if the leaders of the government are not subject to it.

A second “coalition” government between royalists and hard liners was cobbled together in the aftermath of the 1998 elections. This time, there was no pretext of power sharing, and for the past 5 years CPP has been firmly and completely in control of the country.

Nevertheless, in the months and weeks before the upcoming July elections, the political marriage between FUNCINPEC and CPP is fraying. In an effort to harass and intimidate his opponents, in late January Prime Minister Hun Sen whipped up nationalistic sentiment against Thailand, let loose the so-called Pagoda Boys, government-paid thugs, and destroyed $50 million worth of Thai public and private property in Phnom Penh.

Despite frantic pleas for assistance, the Thai ambassador and other diplomatic personnel escaped injury by scaling the embassy’s walls and scurrying to safety. In the aftermath of the riots, Hun Sen and his party continued to intimidate and intimidate students, independent broadcasters, and political activists. A senior opposition figure sought—and was granted—refuge in the U.S. Embassy.

In February, former royalist parliamentarian Om Radsady was gunned down in a mafia-style murder in Phnom Penh. Well liked and respected by his colleagues from all Cambodian political parties, Radsady’s assassination sent a not so subtle message that no one is immune from the black hand of CPP.

It is time Hun Sen is held accountable for his complicity in actions that grossly violate international and domestic laws, and the human rights and dignity of Cambodians.

The fundamental question facing the Cambodian people today is whether the July 27th elections will be a meaningful exercise in democracy, or another lost opportunity to chart a new course for the country.

Last week, Prime Minister Hun Sen assured Secretary of State Colin Powell that Cambodia would hold free and fair elections. Secretary Powell should not be duped by these hollow promises. A preponderance of evidence suggests that CPP is actively trying to steal the election process.

It is important to recall that Hun Sen’s coup resulted in severe restrictions on assistance to Cambodia—that the UN has given him an opportunity through free and fair elections, the Cambodian people will make the right choices that will ensure a dawn for development in that country.

Why will they make the right choice? Over the many decades he has been in power, Hun Sen has ruled Cambodia through violence, fear and repression. Under his watch, the country has become a haven for sexual predators and pedophiles, the criminal underworld, and international terrorists. Hun Sen has repeatedly imprisoned the most basic freedoms protected by the Cambodian Constitution, attacked his political opposition, and perpetuated a climate of impunity that stifles the advancement of freedom and free markets.

And he has never—not once—been held accountable for his actions.

In addition to increasing foreign assistance under certain conditions, the Act restricts assistance to a Khmer Rouge tribunal unless the President determines that the tribunal is supported by democratic Cambodian political parties and is not under the control or influence of the CPP. It also requires the Federal Bureau of Investigations to resume its investigation of the March 30, 1997 grenade attack against opposition leader Sam Rainsy that killed and injured scores of Cambodians.

I should remind my colleagues that American democracy worker Ron Abney was injured in this act of terrorism, reportedly carried out by the CPP. Ron—and all the victims of this attack—are still waiting for justice.

Secretary Powell wrote in a June 21 op-ed that Zimbabwean dictator Robert Mugabe’s “time has come and gone.” As democracy is similarly under siege in both Zimbabwe and Cambodia, dictator Hun Sen’s time has also come and gone.

By Mr. ALLARD (for himself, Mr. FEINGOLD, and Mr. CRAPO):

S. 1366. A bill to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to make grants to State and tribal governments to assist State and tribal efforts to manage and control the spread of chronic wasting disease in deer and elk herds, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Environment and Public Works.

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that an amendment be printed in the Record.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the Record, as follows:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Chronic Wasting Disease Financial Assistance Act of 2003.

SEC. 2. DEFINITION AND FINDINGS.

(a) CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE DEFINED.—In this Act, the term “chronic wasting disease” means the animal disease affecting deer and elk that—

(1) is a transmissible disease of the nervous system resulting in distinctive lesions in the brain; and

(2) belongs to the group of diseases known as transmissible spongiform encephalopathies, which group includes scrapie, bovine spongiform encephalopathy, and Creactfeldt-Jakob disease.

(b) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) The States retain undisputed primary and policy-making authority with regard to wildlife management, and nothing in this Act interferes with or otherwise affects the primacy of the States in managing wildlife generally, or managing, surveying, and monitoring the incidence of chronic wasting disease in animal populations.

(2) Chronic wasting disease is a fundamental threat to the health and vibrancy of deer and elk populations, and the increased occurrence of chronic wasting disease in the United States necessitates government action to manage and eradicate this lethal disease.

(3) As the States and tribal government move to manage existing incidence of chronic wasting disease and insulate non-infected wild and domestic populations from the disease, it is appropriate for the Federal Government to support their efforts with financial assistance.

SEC. 3. STATE CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE MANAGEMENT CAPACITY BUILDING GRANTS.

(a) GRANTS AUTHORIZED.—The Secretary of the Interior shall make grants to State wildlife management agencies to assist States in developing and implementing long term management strategies to address chronic wasting disease in wild and domestic populations.

(b) ELIGIBILITY.—A wildlife management agency of a State whose comprehensive wildlife conservation plan include chronic wasting disease management activities is eligible for a grant under this section.

(c) FUNDING PRIORITIES.—In determining the amount of grant funds to be provided to eligible applicants under this section, the Secretary shall prioritize applicants based on the following criteria:

(1) States in which chronic wasting disease has been detected and States located adjacent or in proximity to States in which chronic wasting disease has been detected.

(2) States that have expended State funds for chronic wasting disease management, monitoring, surveillance, and research, with additional priority given to those States in which the disease is currently spreading.
that have shown the greatest financial commitment to managing, monitoring, surveying, and researching chronic wasting disease.

(3) States with comprehensive and integrated policies and programs focused on chronic wasting disease management between involved State wildlife and agricultural agencies and State and Federal government, with additional priority given to States that have integrated the programs and policies of all involved agencies related to chronic wasting disease management.

(4) States that are seeking to develop a rapid response capacity to address outbreaks of chronic wasting disease, whether occurring in chronic wasting disease areas already found or States with first infections, for the purpose of containing the disease in any new area of infection.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—

There are authorized to be appropriated $3,000,000 to carry out this section.

SEC. 4. GRANTS FOR STATES WITH CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE OUTBREAKS.

(a) GRANTS AUTHORIZED.—The Secretary of the Interior shall make grants to State wildlife management agencies to assist States in responding to chronic wasting disease outbreaks in wild cervids.

(b) ELIGIBILITY.—A wildlife management agency of a State whose comprehensive wildlife conservation plan includes chronic wasting disease management activities is eligible for a grant under this section.

(c) FUNDING PRIORITIES.—In determining the amount of grant funds to be provided to eligible applicants under this section, the Secretary shall prioritize applicants based on the following criteria:

(1) State experience with chronic wasting disease management, monitoring, surveillance, and research in response to management of an ongoing outbreak.

(2) The number of chronic wasting disease cases detected in the State.

(3) The wild cervid population of the State.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—

There are authorized to be appropriated $10,000,000 to carry out this section.

SEC. 5. TRIBAL CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE MANAGEMENT GRANTS.

(a) GRANTS AUTHORIZED.—The Secretary of the Interior shall make grants to tribal wildlife management agencies to assist Indian tribes in developing and implementing long term strategies to address chronic wasting disease in wild cervids.

(b) ELIGIBILITY.—A wildlife management agency of an Indian tribe whose comprehensive wildlife conservation plan includes chronic wasting disease management activities is eligible for a grant under this section.

(c) FUNDING PRIORITIES.—In determining the amount of grant funds to be provided to eligible applicants under this section, the Secretary shall prioritize applicants based on the following criteria:

(1) State experience with chronic wasting disease management, monitoring, surveillance, and research with additional priority given to tribal governments that have shown the greatest financial commitment to managing, monitoring, and surveying chronic wasting disease.

(2) Tribal governments that have expended tribal funds for chronic wasting disease management, monitoring, surveillance, and research, with additional priority given to tribal governments that have shown the greatest financial commitment to managing, monitoring, and surveying chronic wasting disease.

(3) Tribal governments with cooperative arrangements with Federal and State wildlife agencies and State and Federal government, with additional priority given to tribal governments that are working with other involved agencies on issues of chronic wasting disease management.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—

There are authorized to be appropriated $3,000,000 to carry out this section.

SEC. 6. ADMINISTRATION.

The Secretary of the Interior shall carry out this Act acting through the Director, United States Fish and Wildlife Service. Funds appropriated to carry out this Act shall be administered through the Federal Assistance Program, United States Fish and Wildlife Service. Not more than three percent of such funds may be expended for administrative expenses of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service to carry out this Act.

Mr. FELINGOLD. Mr. President. I am pleased to join with my colleague from Colorado, Mr. ALLARD, as a cosponsor of the Chronic Wasting Disease Financial Assistance Act of 2003. This legislation is similar to legislation, S.1036, the Chronic Wasting Disease Support Act of 2003, that we introduced earlier this year.

The House Resources Committee held a hearing on June 19, 2003 on the issue of chronic wasting disease, or CWD. At that hearing, state agency representatives argued strongly that Congress should establish a new grant program to provide assistance to states for the management of CWD. They also expressed an interest in having those funds distributed using an existing distribution mechanism. This legislation responds directly to those comments.

In total, the bill directs the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to provide $20.5 million in Federal grants to State and tribal governments for CWD management in wild deer and elk, $10.5 million in Federal grants to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service to provide $20.5 million in Federal grants to State and tribal governments so that they can fund CWD management programs. The second grant program would provide additional $10 million in grant assistance to states like Colorado and Wisconsin that already have detected chronic wasting disease in their wild deer and elk. These States need additional help. Wisconsin has undertaken significant measures to combat CWD at significant expense, and this program acknowledges that these efforts are expensive to manage and require Federal financial assistance.

Finally, the bill would create a third $3 million grant program to provide CWD management directly to tribal governments. To be eligible for these programs, States and tribes are given the ability under the bill to use an existing mechanism, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Federal Assistance Program, to expedite the receipt of grant funds

This bill creates three new Federal CWD grant programs. The first program is a new nationwide CWD capacity grant, authorized at a total of $7.5 million. This program would provide grants to States so that they can fund CWD management programs. Preference would be given to States with comprehensive and integrated chronic wasting disease management programs involving all relevant state agencies.

The second grant program would provide additional $10 million in grant assistance to states like Colorado and Wisconsin that already have detected chronic wasting disease in their wild deer and elk. These States need additional help. Wisconsin has undertaken significant measures to combat CWD at significant expense, and this program acknowledges that these efforts are expensive to manage and require Federal financial assistance.

Finally, the bill would create a third $3 million grant program to provide CWD management directly to tribal governments. To be eligible for these programs, States and tribes are given the ability under the bill to use an existing mechanism, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Federal Assistance Program, to expedite the receipt of grant funds. This bill is needed because State wildlife departments and tribal governments do not have the financial resources to adequately confront the problem. Their resources are spread too thin as they attempt to prevent the disease from spreading. Federal help in the form of management funding is urgently needed. Federal funding will assist States and tribes to protect and safeguard our valued wild deer and elk from this disease.

I look forward to working with the Senate to secure passage of this measure. This is a good bill, and it deserves the Senate’s support.

By Mr. MCCONNELL (for himself, Mr. BAYH, and Mr. FITZGERALD):

S. 1367. A bill to amend the Richard B. Russell National School Act to establish programs to promote increased consumption of milk in schools and to improve the nutrition and health of children; to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce a very important piece of legislation that could provide great benefits for the health of our young people while simultaneously strengthening the future viability of dairy producers throughout the United States.

My bill, the Child Nutrition Improvement Act of 2003, would provide incentives for schools to encourage the consumption of milk as part of the school lunch program and thereby needed flexibility for schools to offer a wide variety of milk products and flavors.

There is no doubt that the eating habits we develop when we are young affect our habits and nutritional choices for the rest of our lives. The school lunch program has provided a key tool in promoting healthy eating habits among young people, which have both health and educational benefits.

Milk has been a critical component of the school lunch program because it is the principal source of calcium and a leading source of several other important nutrients in our diet. That was true when the federal program began in 1946 and it is still true today.

With 9 out of 10 teenage boys currently not getting enough calcium, milk’s importance is perhaps greater today than ever before. Serving milk with the school lunch is a critical step in addressing the calcium crisis. Federal child health experts who are on the frontlines fighting the calcium crisis recognize milk’s central role in addressing the problem.

Study after study, emphasize the need for growing children and teens to consume more milk for healthy bones, and the American Academy of Pediatrics has urged its members to recommend their patients get enough milk, cheese, yogurt and other calcium rich foods to help build bone mass.

As a result of these recommendations, we have seen a push for more milk in more places like vending machines and school stores. There’s a real concern about nutritious choices for school children, and many local school districts and state legislatures are pushing to add more healthful beverage choices like milk.

A large school vending test in 2001 demonstrated that kids will eagerly buy milk from vending machines in schools if it is offered. The test was heralded by school nutritionists and helped stimulate nationwide interest in getting milk vending machines into more schools.

A pilot test conducted in 146 schools with 100,000 students showed dramatic increases in milk consumption—15 percent in elementary schools and 22 percent in secondary schools—when simple improvements were made in the way milk was packaged and presented to students. The milk was served colder and kids loved the addition of a third flavor; it was usually strawberry.

No only did kids drink more milk, more kids ate in the cafeteria. That meant they not only got milk, they also got improved nutrition through greater consumption of vegetables, fruits, and other nutritionally important foods.

Milk has an unsurpassed nutrient package for young children and teens. Milk has nine essential vitamins and minerals, including calcium, vitamins A, D, D3, vitamin B12, niacin, riboflavin, phosphorus, and potassium. These nutrients are critical to good health and the prevention of chronic disease. In addition, it is the primary way that growing children get the calcium they need. In fact, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture about 75 percent of the calcium in our food supply comes from milk and foods made with milk. By about age 20, the average young person has acquired about 98 percent of his or her skeletal mass. Building strong bones during childhood and adolescence is one of the best defenses against developing osteoporosis later in life.

In addition to the bone-building benefits of milk, research indicates that a diet rich in low-fat milk may help reduce the risk of high blood pressure and heart disease and help prevent breast cancer, colon cancer and even help in the fight against obesity.

Milk’s role in a nutritious diet has long been noted by the nutrition and science community, including the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Dietetic Association, the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development, the National Osteoporosis Foundation, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and many other reputable health organizations. As I have already mentioned, government statistics indicate that we have a calcium crisis among our children and youth. Nearly 90 percent of teenage girls and almost 70 percent of teenage boys fail to get enough calcium in their diets. During the teen years nearly half of all bone is formed and about 15 percent of your adult height is added. As a nation of priority, for our growth and development, we need to be doing all we can to encourage our children and youth to drink milk, and that is the goal of the legislation I am introducing today.

I ask my colleagues for your support of this important piece of legislation. I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SECTION 1. COMMENDATION.
The Senate—
(1) thanks General Eric Shinseki of the United States Army on behalf of a grateful Nation; and
(2) commends General Eric Shinseki for his extraordinary dedication to service to this great country and for his lifetime of commitment to excellence.

SEC. 2. TRANSMITTAL OF RESOLUTION.
The Senate directs the Secretary of the Senate to transmit an enrolled copy of this resolution to General Eric Shinseki.

Mr. AKAKA. Mr. President, I rise today to honor a great American hero, General Eric Shinseki, the Army’s 34th Chief of Staff. General Shinseki, a native of Hawaii, attained the Army’s highest position as the Army’s Chief of Staff. General Shinseki is an American Patriot.

General Eric Shinseki graduated from the United States Military Academy, West Point, in 1965. He served two combat tours in Vietnam and was wounded twice in combat. Throughout his 37 years of service to this country, he has given his personal best, serving with great pride and dignity. His legacy to this Nation will live on for years to come.

Over the span of his career, I’ve watched his progress as a soldier and was privileged to participate in his promotion ceremony to Colonel. At that time, I thought he had a stellar career as a “soldier’s soldier.” I was very proud to witness his four years of service as the Army’s Chief of Staff. He was the perfect soldier to lead our Army into the 21st century.

This remarkable and distinguished decorated soldier set a new standard for the Army. With extraordinary vision, he transformed the Army into an agile, lean, flexible, and lethal fighting force. This man of honor, integrity, and courage set a higher standard for all to follow, all while embodying the spirit of aloha. With his deep sense of pride and dedication to service, he made our Army stronger, one able to achieve swift victories during Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

As I quoted in the Senate Resolution, President John F. Kennedy once said, “When at some future date the high court of history sits in judgment of each one of us—recording whether in our brief span of service we fulfilled our responsibilities, we will be measured by the answers to four questions—were we truly men of courage . . . were we truly men of judgment . . . were we truly men of integrity . . . were we truly men of dedication?” When history looks back at the Army’s 34th Chief of Staff, it will be clear that this was truly a man of courage, judgment, integrity, and dedication.

Mr. CORZINE (for himself, Mr. WAR- ner, Mr. LAUTENBERG, and Mrs. CLINT- ON) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Governmental Affairs:

S. CON. RES. 56

Whereas Gunnery Sergeant John Basilone was born in 1916 in Buffalo, New York, son of Salvatore and Dora Basilone, one of 10 children;

Whereas John Basilone was raised and educated in Raritan, New Jersey;

Whereas, at the age of 18, John Basilone enlisted in the United States Army, principally seeing garrison service in the Philippines;

Whereas, after his honorable discharge in 1937, Sergeant Basilone, known by his comrades as “Manila John,” returned to Raritan;

Whereas, seeing the storm clouds of war hovering over the Nation, and believing that his place was with this country’s fighting forces, Sergeant Basilone enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in July 1940;

Whereas, on October 24 and 25, 1942, on Guadalcanal, Solomon Islands, Sergeant Basilone was Company Officer, 1st Battalion, 7th Regiment, 1st Marine Division, and was in charge of 2 sections of heavy machine guns defending a narrow pass that led to Henderson Airfield;

Whereas, although Sergeant Basilone and his machine gunners were vastly outnumbered and without available reinforcements, Sergeant Basilone and his fellow Marines fought valiantly to check the savage and determined assault by the Japanese Imperial Army;

Whereas, for this action, Sergeant Basilone was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor and sent home a hero;

Whereas, in December 1944, Sergeant Basilone’s restlessness to rejoin his fellow Marines, who were fighting the bloody island-to-island battles en route to the Philippines and Japan, prompted him to volunteer again for combat duty;

Whereas, on Iwo Jima, on February 19, 1945, Sergeant Basilone again distinguished himself by single-handedly destroying an enemy blockhouse while being heavy-caliber fire;

Whereas, minutes later, an artillery shell killed Sergeant Basilone and 4 of his platoon members;

Whereas Sergeant Basilone was posthumously awarded the Navy Cross and Pur- ple Heart, and a life-sized bronze statue stands in Raritan, New Jersey, where “Manila John” is clad in battle dress and cradles a machine gun in his arms;

In 1949, the United States Government commissioned a destroyer the U.S.S. Basilone, and in November 1951, Governor Alfred E. Driscoll posthumously awarded Sergeant Basilone the State of New Jersey’s highest decoration;

Whereas, following World War II, Sergeant Basilone’s remains were reinterred in the Arlington National Cemetery;

Whereas Sergeant Basilone was the first recipient of the Congressional Medal of Honor awarded in World War II;

Whereas Sergeant Basilone also earned the Navy Cross and the Purple Heart, giving him the distinction of being the only enlisted Marine in World War II to receive all 3 medals; and

Whereas commemorative postage stamps have been commissioned to honor other great heroes in American history: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate (the House of Representa- tives concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that:

(1) a commemorative postage stamp should be issued by the United States Postal Service honoring Gunnery Sergeant John Basilone;

(2) the Citizens’ Stamp Advisory Committee should recommend to the Postmaster General that such a stamp be issued.

Mr. CORZINE, Mr. President, I rise today to submit a concurrent resolution calling on the United States Postal Service to issue a commemorative postage stamp honoring an extraordinary American hero: Gunnery Sergeant John Basilone. Basilone is the only person in American history to be awarded both the Congressional Medal of Honor and the Navy Cross. Only one USPS stamp has ever commemorated an individual Marine, a stamp featuring John Philip Sousa; it bears noting that although Sousa was a Marine, he was not selected for his service on the battlefield. It is time to remember the tremendous sacrifice of at least one individual Marine, John Basilone, an American Patriot.

Sergeant Basilone was raised in Raritan, NJ, one of ten children in a large Italian-American family. Soon after he turned 18, Basilone heeded the patriotic call and enlisted in the U.S. Army. Basilone was immediately sent to the Philippines where he earned a nickname that would stick with him for the rest of his career: “Manila John.”

Following his tour of duty in 1937, Basilone returned to Raritan. But he was not staying there. In 1940—with much of Europe at war and the United States on the brink—“Manila John” left New Jersey, enlisting in the military once again, this time joining the United States Marine Corps. On October 24, 1942, Basilone earned his Congressional Medal of Honor. He was sent to a position on the Tenaru River at Guadalcanal and placed in command of two sections of heavy machine guns. Sergeant Basilone and his men were charged with defending Henderson Airfield, an American foothold on the island. Although the Marine contingent was vastly outnumbered and without needed support, Basilone and his men successfully repelled a Japanese assault. Other survivors reported that their success can be attributed to one man: “Manila John.” He crossed enemy lines to replenish a dangerously low stockpile of ammunition, reported artillery fire locations, and saved his troops in the midst of torrential rain. He went several days and nights without food or sleep, and the U.S. military was able to carry the day. His exploits became Marine lore, and served as a patriotic inspiration to other facetious challenges in the midst of war.

For his courage under fire and profound patriotism, Basilone was the first enlisted Marine to be awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. When he returned to the United States, he was heralded as a hero and quickly sent on tour around the country to help finance the war through the sale of war bonds. The Marine Corps offered to commission Basilone as an officer and station him far away from the frontlines. But Basilone was not interested in riding out the war in Washington, DC. He was quoted as saying, “I ain’t no officer, and I ain’t no museum piece. I belong back with my outfit.” In December 1944, he got his wish and returned to the frontlines.

General Douglas MacArthur called him a “one-man army,” and on February 19, 1945 at Iwo Jima, Basilone once again lived up to that reputation. Basilone destroyed an enemy strong hold, a blockhouse on that small Japanese island and commanded his young troops to move the heavy guns off the beach. Unfortunately, less than two hours into the assault on that fateful day in February, Basilone and four of his fellow Marines were killed when an enemy mortar shell exploded nearby.

When Gunnery Sergeant John Basilone died he was only 27, but he had already earned the Congressional Medal of Honor, the Navy Cross, the Purple Heart, and the appreciation of his Nation. Basilone is a true American patriot whose legacy should be preserved.

Now more than ever, the United States needs to honor and praise the sacrifices of our soldiers that we appreciate and admire all of their efforts in the war on terrorism.

SEC. 4. HEALTH CARE THAT WORKS FOR ALL AMERICANS—CITIZENS HEALTH CARE WORKING GROUP.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) In order to improve the health care system, the American public must engage in an informed national public debate to make choices about the services they want covered, what health care coverage they want, and how they are willing to pay for coverage.

(2) More than a trillion dollars annually is spent on the health care system, yet—

(A) 41,000,000 Americans are uninsured;

(B) insured individuals do not always have access to essential, effective services to improve and maintain their health; and

(C) employers, who cover over 170,000,000 Americans, find providing coverage increasingly difficult because of rising costs and double digit premium increases.

(3) Despite increases in medical care spending that are greater than the rate of inflation, population growth, and Gross Domestic Product growth, there has not been a commensurate improvement in our health status as a nation.

(4) Health care costs for even just 1 member of a family can be catastrophic, resulting in medical bills potentially harming the economic stability of the entire family.

(5) Common life occurrences can jeopardize the ability of a family to retain private coverage or jeopardize access to public coverage.

(6) Innovations in health care access, coverage, and quality of care, including the use of technology, have often come from States, local communities, and private sector organizations, but more creative policies could tap this potential.

(7) Despite our Nation’s wealth, the health care system does not provide coverage to all Americans who want it.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

(1) to provide for a nationwide public debate about improving the health care system to provide all Americans with the ability to obtain quality, affordable health care coverage; and

SEC. . SENSE OF THE SENATE CONCERNING MEXICAN PAYMENT UPDATE FOR PHYSICIANS AND OTHER HEALTH PROFESSIONALS.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:
(1) The formula by which Medicare payments are updated each year for services furnished by physicians and other health professionals is fundamentally flawed.
(2) The flawed physician payment update formula is causing a continuing physician payment crisis, and, without Congressional action, Medicare payment rates for physicians and other practitioners are predicted to fall by 4.2% in 2004.
(3) A physician payment cut in 2004 would be the fifth cut since 1991, and would be on top of a 5.5% cut in 2002, with additional cuts estimated for 2005, 2006, and 2007; from 1991-2003, payment rates for physicians and health professionals fell 14%; behind practice cost inflation as measured by Medicare’s own conservative estimates.
(4) The sustainable growth rate (SGR) expenditure target, which is the basis for the physician payment update, is linked to the public sector and penalizes physicians and other practitioners for volume increases that they cannot control and that result from new coverage decisions, quality improvement activities, and other initiatives that, while beneficial to patients, are not reflected in the SGR formula.

SEC. 426A. MEXICAN SECONDARY PAYOR (MSP) PROVISIONS.

(a) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—The Secretary’s Authority to Make Conditional Payment When Certain Primary Plans Do Not Pay Promptly.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 1862(b)(2)(E) (42 U.S.C. 1395y(b)(2)(E)) is amended—

"(4) AUTHORITY TO MAKE CONDITIONAL PAYMENT.—The Secretary may make payment under this title with respect to an item or service if a primary plan described in subparagraph (A) has not made or cannot reasonably be expected to make payment with respect to such item or service promptly (as determined in accordance with regulations). Any such payment by the Secretary shall be conditioned on reimbursement to the appropriate Trust Fund in accordance with the provisions of subsection (p) of this section.”;

(2) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by paragraph (1) shall be effective as if included in the enactment of title III of the Medicare and Medicaid Budget Reconciliation Amendments of 1993 (Public Law 98-369).

At the end of title VI, insert the following:

SEC. 2. SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATIONWIDE PERMANENT LIFESTYLE MODIFICATION PROGRAM FOR MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES....

"(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that:

"(1) Heart disease kills more than 500,000 Americans per year.

"(2) The number and costs of interventions for the treatment of coronary disease are rising and currently cost the health care system $36,000,000,000 annually.

"(3) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been operating throughout 12 States and has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 86 percent a year.

"(4) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program is less expensive to deliver than interventional cardiac procedures and could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by $36,000,000,000 annually.

"(5) Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise affect heart disease and heart disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater.

"(6) Intensive lifestyle interventions which include teams of nurses, doctors, exercise physiologists, registered dietitians, and behavioral health clinicians have been demonstrated to reduce heart disease risk factors and enhance heart disease outcomes effectively.

"(7) The National Institutes of Health estimates that 17,000,000 Americans have diabetes and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that the number of Americans who have a diagnosis of diabetes increased 61 percent in the last decade and is expected to more than double by 2050.

"(8) lifestyle modification programs are superior to medication therapy for treating diabetes.

"(9) Individuals with diabetes are now considered to have complete access to the date of diagnosis of their diabetic state.

"(10) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been an effective lifestyle program for the reversal and treatment of heart disease.

"(11) Men with prostate cancer have shown significant improvement in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modification.

"(12) These lifestyle changes are therefore likely to affect other chronic disease states, in addition to heart disease.

"(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

"SEC. 426. SENSE OF THE SENATE CONCERNING THE STRUCTURE OF MEDICARE REFORM AND THE PRESCRIPTION DRUG BENEFIT.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) America’s seniors deserve a fiscally strong Medicare system that fulfills its promise to them and future retirees.

(2) The impending retirement of the “baby boomer generation” will increase the costs of providing Medicare benefits. Medicare costs will double relative to the size of the economy from 2% of GDP today to 4% of GDP in 2017 and double GDP in 2075. This growth will accelerate substantially when Congress adds a necessary prescription drug benefit.

(3) Medicare’s current structure does not have the flexibility to quickly adapt to rapid advances in modern health care. Medicare lags far behind other insurers in providing prescription drug coverage, disease management programs, and a host of other advances. Reforming Medicare to create a more self-adjusting, innovative structure is essential to limit to these adverse effects and to preserve the quality of the medical care it provides.

(4) Private-sector choice for Medicare beneficiaries would allow Medicare to do those things it would be tailoired to the needs of America’s seniors, not the government, and would create a powerful incentive for private-sector Medicare plans to provide the best quality health care to seniors at the most affordable price.

(5) The method by which the national preferred provider organizations in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program have been reimbursed has proven to be a reliable and successful mechanism for providing Members of Congress and federal employees with excellent health care choices.

(6) Unlike the Medicare payment system, which has had to be changed by Congress every few years, the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program has existed for 43 years with minimal changes from Congress.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that Medicare reform legislation should—

(1) Ensure that prescription drug coverage is delivered to those seniors most in need and of the quality of the medical care it provides.

(2) Provide that government contributions used to support Medicare Advantage plans are based on market principles beginning in 2006 to ensure the long-term solvency of such options for America’s seniors.

(3) Develop a payment system for the Medicare Advantage preferred provider organizations similar to the payment system used for the national preferred provider organizations in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program.

(4) Limit the addition of new unfunded obligations in the Medicare program so that the long-term solvency of this important program is not further jeopardized.

(5) Incorporate private sector, market-based elements, that do not rely on the inefficient Medicare price control structure.

(6) Keep the cost of new unfunded obligations in the Medicare program below the cost of the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program and new benefits within the $400 billion provided for under the current Congressional Budget Resolution for implementing Medicare reform and providing a prescription drug benefit.

(7) Preserve the current employer-sponsored retiree health plans and not design a benefit which has the unintended consequence of supplanting private coverage.

(8) Incorporate regulatory reform proposals to eliminate red tape and reduce costs.

(9) Restore the right of Medicare beneficiaries and their doctors to work together to provide services, allow private fee for service plans to set their own rates, and permit seniors to add their own dollars beyond the government contribution.
for home health services furnished by a qualified RCH-based home health agency (as defined in paragraph (2)—
(A) the agency may make a one-time election to waive the requirements of this section, under which payment system established under section 1895 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396f(f)) to such services furnished by the agency; and
(B) in the case of such an election, payment shall be made on the basis of the reasonable costs incurred in furnishing such services, without regard to the amount of payment under the demonstration program under this section.

(4) CONSOLIDATED BILLING.—The Secretary shall permit consolidated billing under section 1842(b)(6)(E) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395b(b)(6)(E)).

(5) EXEMPTION FROM 30 PERCENT REDUCTION IN REIMBURSEMENT FOR BAD DEBT.—In determining the reasonable costs for rural community hospital services, section 1861(v)(1)(T) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395x(v)(1)(T)) shall not apply.

(6) BENEFICIARY COST-SHARING FOR OUT-PATIENT SERVICES.—The amounts of bene-ciciary cost-sharing established under the methodology for outpatient services furnished in a rural community hospital under the demonstration program shall be as follows:

(A) for items and services that would have been paid under section 1395x(v)(1)(T) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395x(v)(1)(T)) if provided by a hospital, the amount of cost-sharing determined under paragraph (8) of such section.

(B) for items and services that would have been paid under section 1395x(v)(1)(T) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1395x(v)(1)(T)) if furnished by a provider or supplier, no cost-sharing shall apply.

(C) for all other items and services, the amount of cost-sharing that would apply to the item or service under the methodology that would be used to determine payment for such item or service if provided by a physician, provider, or supplier, as the case may be.

(7) RETURN ON EQUITY.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (F)(i) and (S)(i) of section 1861(v)(1)(T) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395x(v)(1)(T)) and section 1866(g)(2) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1395w(g)(2)), in deter-ing the reasonable costs of services described in subclause (F) furnished by a rural community hospital for payment of a return on equity capital at a rate of return equal to 15 percent of the average specified in section 1861(v)(1)(T) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1395x(v)(1)(T))

(B) SERVICES DESCRIBED.—The services referred to in subsection (a)(2)(A) are rural community hospital services.

(C) DISREGARD OF PROPRIETARY PROVIDER

STATUS.—Payment under the demonstration program with respect to an item or service without regard to whether a provider is a proprietary provider.

(D) REMOVING BARRIERS TO ESTABLISHMENT OF

DISTINCT PART UNITS BY RCH FACILITIES.—

Notwithstanding section 1866(d)(1)(B) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395w(d)(1)(B)), the Secretary shall permit rural community hospitals to establish distinct part units for purposes of applying such section.

(E) FUNDING.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall pro-

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall take effect on or after October 1, 2003.
SEC. 459. FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:
(1) The formula by which Medicare payments are updated each year for services furnished by physicians and other health professionals is fundamentally flawed.
(2) The flawed payment update formula is causing a continuing physician payment crisis, and, without congressional action, Medicare payment rates for physicians and other professionals are predicted to fall by 4.2 percent in 2004.
(3) A physician payment cut in 2004 would be the fifth cut since 1991, and would be on top of cuts estimated by Medicare to be 4 percent in 2003, and additional cuts estimated for 2005, 2006, and 2007. From 1991 through 2003, payment rates for physicians and health professionals fell 14 percent behind practice cost increases as measured by Medicare's own conservative estimates.
(4) The sustainable growth rate (SGR) expenditure target, which is the basis for the physician payment update, is linked to the gross domestic product and penalizes physicians and other practitioners for volume increases that they cannot control and that the government actively promotes through new coverage decisions, quality improvement activities, and other initiatives that, while beneficial to patients, are not reflected in the SGR.
(5) Medicare and Medicaid budget reconciliation laws have frozen Medicare spending in order to fund discretionary spending. Medicaid's own budget reconciliation laws have frozen Medicaid spending.
(6) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as are necessary to carry out section 1874A(f) of the Social Security Act, as added by subsection (a).

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolutions, en bloc.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolutions be agreed to, en bloc; that the preamble be agreed to, en bloc; that the motions to reconsider be laid upon the table; and that any statements relating to these resolutions be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 186

Whereas Augie Hiebert came to Alaska in 1939 and built the first successful commercial radio station;

Whereas on Dec. 7, 1941, Augie Hiebert picked up the first report of the raid on Pearl Harbor from his radio station in Fairbanks, Alaska giving military leaders the first word of the attack that began World War II;

Whereas in 1953, Augie Hiebert founded Alaska’s first television station;

Whereas Augie Hiebert established Alaska’s first FM radio station and was named president of the Alaska Broadcasting system, overseeing the affiliation of nine stations that serve all major Alaska communities;

Whereas Augie Hiebert helped establish Alaska’s first satellite earth station activated in 1970;

Whereas Augie Hiebert led in the development of the Territory and State of Alaska, working with over a half century to pioneer modern radio and television on behalf of the broadcast industry;

Whereas Augie Hiebert has been a pillar of the Alaska community as president of the Anchorage Chamber of Commerce and the Association of the U.S. Army in Alaska, and as director of the Alaska Educational Broadcasting Committee, the CBS Television Network Affiliates Association, the Civil Air Patrol, and the Pioneers of Alaska: Now, therefore be it Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that Augie Hiebert is commended for his service to the communications industry in Alaska and the world and for bringing the best that broadcasting has to offer to the people of Alaska.

The resolution (S. Res. 186) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 187

Whereas the Rhodes Scholarships, the oldest international fellowships, were initiated after the death of Cecil Rhodes in 1902, and now bring outstanding students from the United States, Australia, Bangladesh, Bermuda, Canada, the Commonwealth Caribbean, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Jamaica, Kenya, Malaysia, New Zealand, Pakistan, Singapore, South Africa, Uganda, Zambia, and Zimbabwe to the University of Oxford;

Whereas the first American Rhodes Scholars were elected in 1904, and since that time distinguished American Rhodes alumni have included over 20 members of Congress, a President of the United States, 3 Supreme Court justices, cabinet members, military leaders, philanthropists, entertainers, and prominent artists, scientists, and business people.

Whereas the Mandela Rhodes Foundation, a partnership between the Rhodes Trust and the Nelson Mandela Foundation, was established in February, 2002;

Whereas after a lifetime of struggle against apartheid and the momentous challenge of governing the new South Africa as its first democratically elected President, Nobel Peace Prize Laureate Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela continues to be devoted to building a society characterized by justice and opportunity in the Republic of South Africa;

Whereas President Mandela’s efforts have manifested themselves in the work of the Nelson Mandela Children’s Fund, established in the wake of President Mandela’s pledge to devote 1/3 of his Presidential salary to projects aimed at improving the quality of life of South Africa’s disadvantaged children; and

Whereas in Cape Town in February, 2002, President Mandela noted that the partnership between the Rhodes Trust and the new Mandela Foundation signals “the closing of the circle and the coming together of 2 strands in our history”: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) celebrates the centenary of the Rhodes Scholarships in the United States;

(2) welcomes the establishment of the Mandela Rhodes Foundation, which embodies the commitment to reconciliation and shared commitment that is one of South Africa’s greatest assets;

(3) shares the Foundation’s commitment to support focused at increasing educational opportunities, fostering leadership, and promoting human resource development throughout Africa; and

(4) affirms the support of the United States for these worthy goals throughout the sub-Saharan region, and asserts that the pursuit of these goals is in the shared interest of the American and African people.

The resolution (S. Res. 188) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. Res. 188

Whereas the Honorable Maynard Holbrook Jackson, Jr. was born on March 22, 1938, in Dallas, Texas, and at the age of 14 entered North Carolina Central University School of Law; and

Whereas the Honorable Maynard Holbrook Jackson, Jr. graduated cum laude from North Carolina Central University School of Law; and

Whereas the Honorable Maynard Holbrook Jackson, Jr. proved to be a gifted and brilliant law professor, and he later became the first African-American Vice Mayor of the City of Atlanta; and

Whereas the Honorable Maynard Holbrook Jackson, Jr. was appointed to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia by President Ronald Reagan, and he later became the first African-American Federal Judge in the United States; and

Whereas General Shinseki focused the Army on improved readiness in preparation for war and transformed the Army into a lean, agile, lethal fighting force that successfully achieved victories during Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom;

Whereas General Shinseki provided the vision to set the Army on a path of transformation that will provide the Nation with an Army that is more lethal, agile, deployable, and flexible; capable of fighting and winning this Nation’s wars in all future threat environments.

Whereas General Shinseki exemplifies the hallmark characteristics exhibited by all great leaders and is a remarkable man of integrity, courage, and dedication;

Whereas General Shinseki is an American hero who has been selfless in his service to his country through war, peace, and personal trial, and epitomizes the spirit of aloha; and

Whereas John F. Kennedy, the 35th President of the United States once said, “When at some future date the high court of history sits in judgment of each one of us—recording whether in our brief span of service we fulfilled our responsibilities, we will be measured by the answers to 4 questions—were we truly men of courage... were we truly men of integrity... were we truly men of dedication?” and whereas when history looks back at the Army’s 34th Chief of Staff, it will be clear that this was truly a man of courage, judgment, integrity, and dedication: Now, therefore, be it Resolved.
