

This year the Boys Baseball Team earned their 6th consecutive Section 3 title, as well as their second State Champion title. These awards are only fitting, since at the end of their Spring 2003 season they were on a 55-game winning streak in their own Patriot Division. Coach Shawn May certainly has much in which to be proud.

On behalf of the entire 25th District of New York State, I would like to congratulate the following champions: Christopher Blanck, Erik Dodge, John DeMetro, Mathew Morse, Mitchell Morse, Seth Woodford, Brett Farewell, Keith Fields, Andrew Ford, James Spicer, Joshua Truax, Joseph Wilcox, Brendan Blanck, Coach Shawn May, and Assistant Coaches Josh Virgil, Kevin Carroll, and Rich Kutny.

CERTIFICATION OF ASSISTANCE TO SERBIA

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 26, 2003

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, the U.S. Department of State last week made its determination to certify compliance by the Government of Serbia and Montenegro with the terms of section 578 of the Consolidated Appropriations Resolution (P.L. 108-7). This section conditions certain bilateral assistance to Serbia on progress in three areas, although by far the most critical being cooperation with the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia.

I agree with the Department's assessment that progress has been made, especially since March. In particular, I welcomed action earlier this month by the Serbian authorities to apprehend Veselin Svižljančanin, indicted by the Tribunal for the 1991 massacre near Vukovar in Croatia. Although there was resistance, this action was a success and signaled what is perhaps a new determination by Belgrade to transfer all remaining indictees. Having been in Vukovar, along with my good friend and colleague Mr. WOLF, just before the city fell to Serb forces, I am glad to see all three indicted by the Tribunal for this crime will be tried in The Hague.

Nevertheless, Mr. Speaker, I am concerned that the Department's determination was the wrong one to make. While progress has been made, it remains insufficient. Still at large and believed to have been in Serbia are several other persons, including Ratko Mladic and others—Ljubisa Beara, Vujadin Popovic, Ljubomir Borovčanin, Vinko Pandurevic and Drago Nikolic—indicted by the Tribunal for their connection to the 1995 Srebrenica massacre in which thousands of innocent people were executed.

I am concerned, deeply concerned, that these individuals will continue to evade justice while officials in Belgrade may get the impression they have done enough. Clearly, they have not. Mr. Speaker, I would urge Serbian authorities to take the action necessary to remove "cooperation with the Tribunal" as an outstanding issue in our bilateral relationship. In doing so, they will also continue to help Serbia emerge from Slobodan Milosevic's legacy of nationalist hatred.

In the meantime, Mr. Speaker, I also urge the State Department to use remaining levers to encourage not just better, but full, cooperation with the Tribunal, which Secretary Powell had assured Mr. CARDIN and myself in correspondence was a position we all shared. The crimes which occurred were too severe and too horrendous to allow those responsible to escape justice.

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an outstanding individual who has made significant contributions to improve the quality of life of the constituents of California's 32nd Congressional District, Antonio Villaraigosa.

Antonio Villaraigosa is a visionary, caring and progressive public servant. He served on the boards of the Southern California Rapid Transit District and the Metropolitan Transportation Authority. In 1994, he was elected to the California State Assembly representing the 45th District of Los Angeles, and four years after was elected Speaker of the Assembly. As Speaker of the Assembly he was credited with fostering an unprecedented era of bipartisanship.

As a true coalition-builder, Antonio Villaraigosa spearheaded a $9.1 billion initiative to rebuild and modernize California schools, a $2.1 billion initiative to provide parks and open space throughout the state, and a state health insurance program, "Healthy Families."

On June 28, 2003, Antonio Villaraigosa will be sworn in as Los Angeles City Councilmember representing the 14th District. Some of his priorities include community safety, economic development, environmental issues and constituent services. FISHING QUOTA STANDARDS ACT
OF 2003

HON. THOMAS H. ALLEN

OF MAINE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 26, 2003

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I join my colleagues Mr. ROBERT SIMMONS, Mr. WILLIAM DELAHUNT, Mrs. LOIS CAPPS, Mr. MICHAEL CAPUANO, Mr. SAM FARR, Mr. EDWARD MARKEY, Mr. GEORGE MILLER, and Ms. LYNN WOOLSEY in introducing the "Fishing Quota Standards Act of 2003."

From 1996 until 2002, Congress placed a moratorium on new quota programs, programs which place limits on the amount of the total allowable catch that a fisherman may harvest within a particular fishery. The purpose of the moratorium was to protect fishermen, coastal communities, and the marine environment from the negative effects of unregulated quota systems by giving Congress an opportunity to develop national standards. When left unchecked, quota systems can give unfair advantages to the highest bidder—leaving the family fishermen out in the cold. Quota programs can also create over-consolidation of the industry, negative impacts on local communities and individual fishermen, and over-harvesting of the resource. When the moratorium expired last September, no national standards had been put in place, leaving regional fishery management councils free to develop new quota programs.

That is why we are introducing the "Fishing Quota Standards Act of 2003." This Act allows for the establishment of fishing quota systems if they allocate quota fairly among fishermen, prevent excessive consolidation, and include management measures designed to ensure
