

Act to enact, this morning, a resolution of disapproval. I hope sufficient numbers of my colleagues will join me, will join Senator LOTT, and others, in a strong bipartisan resolution to say we don't like what the FCC has done. We think it is not at all in support of the public interest. We believe it undermines this democracy which rests on the free flow of information. We believe we ought to disapprove of this rule.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. All time has expired.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second? There is a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, at the request of the leadership, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. ENZI). Without objection, it is so ordered.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the joint resolution.

The joint resolution was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading and was read the third time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on passage of the joint resolution. The yeas and nays have been ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. MCCONNELL. I announce that the Senator from Oregon (Mr. SMITH) is absent because of a death in the family.

Mr. REID. I announce that the Senator from North Carolina (Mr. EDWARDS), the Senator from Florida (Mr. GRAHAM), the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY), and the Senator from Vermont (Mr. LEAHY) are necessarily absent.

I further announce that, if present and voting, the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) and the Senator from Vermont (Mr. LEAHY) would each vote "yea."

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. CORNYN). Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 55, nays 40, as follows:

The joint resolution (S.J. Res. 17) was passed, as follows:

S. J. RES. 17

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Congress disapproves the rule submitted by the Federal Communications Commission relating to broadcast media ownership (Report and Order FCC 03-127, received by Congress on July 10, 2003), and such rule shall have no force or effect.

Mr. DORGAN. I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. HOLLINGS. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE—H.R. 2754

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, we are currently on the energy and water bill. There is pending a Feinstein amendment. We have talked about it.

I ask unanimous consent, and this is acceptable to the other side and the proponents, that a vote occur on or in relation to the Feinstein amendment at 2:30 p.m. this afternoon.

Mr. REID. Reserving the right to object, I ask there be no amendments in order prior to that vote and that the time between 2:15 and 2:30 be equally divided.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Does the Senator so amend his request?

Mr. DOMENICI. I have no objection.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I say to the Senate, we are on an energy and water bill. There is no long list of amendments we are aware of. We are aware of two, maybe three amendments. We ask that Members help us finish this evening. It seems now it is the will of both the majority and the minority we finish tonight.

The next subject matter will be an appropriations bill, from what I understand. The majority leader has so committed the next bill will be an appropriations bill. There should be no reason why we cannot finish this bill tonight. There may be two amendments. There may be three. On the other hand, there could be just one. We would like Senators to help by getting those amendments as soon as possible so right after the 2:30 vote we can move right ahead with the next amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, through you to my distinguished Chair of the subcommittee, Senator JACK REED of Rhode Island is ready to offer his amendment immediately following the vote on the Feinstein amendment. We understand there may be an amendment offered by Senator CANTWELL. There may be some procedural problems with that. We are still working on that. I am confident she will be ready to offer that as soon as we finish the Reed amendment. There may be another amendment Senator DOMENICI and I have been working on, working with the chairman of the full committee to see if that can be resolved in some other way.

I have not spoken to either of the leaders about this, but I have had many questions about the storm that is coming. People are very concerned about that for very personal reasons. The storm, we believe they have indicated, now will strike about noon on Thursday. If it keeps going the way it is, it will be a very devastating storm. We know some people have obligations this weekend. As I said, I have not spoken to the two leaders, but as the storm develops I am sure they will talk to us.

I agree with the chairman of the subcommittee, Senator DOMENICI. We will move forward and have all the amendments offered tonight and finish this bill tonight. If there is some reason we cannot do the votes tonight, we will have the votes set for tomorrow morning. We will move to expeditiously finish this bill as soon as possible.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Wyoming.

GRAMPA ENZI

Mr. ENZI. Mr. President, this last weekend I got a new name. Fifty-nine years ago when I was born I was named Michael Bradley Enzi. The middle name comes from my Grampa and Gramma Bradley on my mother's side. They were homesteaders in Montana. My grandfather on my dad's side homesteaded in North Dakota and named his son Elmer, but he died shortly after I was born and before I could know him. My dad's favorite song was "Elmer's Tune" but he thought there were enough Elmers already and named me Michael. I grew up being Mickey and then Mike. As I mentioned, this last weekend I got a new name and I am truly delighted.

I am now Grampa—and that is spelled with an M, not an N, and there is no D in it. I will explain that in just a moment.

My son and his wife had a son. My son, also like me, had the good fortune to overmarry, to Danielle, a delightful young lady from Kentucky whom he
