

years; that is, the global threat of HIV/AIDS, a little virus that we in this country knew nothing about just 25 years ago in 1980. It never had been in the United States. It didn't exist as a virus. But since that point in time it has taken the lives of over 40 million people, and is likely to take the lives of 10, 20, 30, or 40 more million people. The President of the United States in a bold initiative has committed $15 billion over 5 years to address the humanitarian challenge—a bold initiative, an unprecedented initiative on a single disease, a single entity. Randall Tobias, now Ambassador Tobias, will be the coordinator for that overall effort.

In closing, I thank my colleagues for cooperation during this work period. I encourage all to rest. Most are going back to their home States to be with constituents. I encourage them also to rest their batteries because we will return for a very busy final few weeks of this first session.

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2003

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, October 14; I further ask that following the prayer and the pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then begin a period of morning business for up to 60 minutes, with the first 30 minutes under the control of Senator HUTCHISON or her designee, and the second 30 minutes under the control of the minority leader or his designee; provided that following morning business the Senate resume consideration of S. 1689, the Iraq-Afghanistan supplemental appropriations bill.

I further ask unanimous consent that the Senate recess from 12:30 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, on Tuesday, October 14, following morning business, the Senate will resume consideration of the Iraq-Afghanistan supplement appropriations bill.

I encourage all Senators who have amendments to come to the floor Tuesday morning to offer those amendments. We will complete action on this bill by the close of the week we return from recess, and Senators should not wait until the last minute to come forward with their amendments.

The bill managers have done a tremendous job in moving this bill forward. They will be here Tuesday morning to continue to work through the remaining amendments. We will complete that bill that week.

Under a previous agreement, at approximately 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, October 14, the Senate will vote on passage of S. 1053, the Genetic Non-discrimination Act.

I inform all Members that vote on the passage of S. 1053 will be the first vote of that day. Senators, however, should expect rollcall votes throughout the afternoon as the Senate continues debate on amendments to the Iraq-Afghanistan supplemental appropriations bill.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2003, AT 9:30 A.M.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the provisions of S. Con. Res. 71.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 2:40 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, October 14, 2003, at 9:30 a.m.
