

that. Every time I objected, and finally, finally, when we no longer had the majority in this body, the administration backed down and the President issued his executive order.

There are some functions government performs that can be done by the private sector, and this body has given authority to the executive branch to do that, but I submit that separating aircraft is not one of those functions that should be contracted out. There is a vast difference, a vast difference between a tower with a D-BRITE, a rudimentary means of controlling air traffic, a tower that handles 10 to 15,000 general aviation aircraft in a year in Van Nuys, California and one which has 498,000 operations, complex air space, complexity of operations and is under the control of the southern California TRACON which handles two-and-a-half million operations a year. That is the radar that supports the tower that this proposal once would have subjected to privatization. That is wrong. There is no policy behind it.

I kept telling the Clinton administration, you come up with a policy, let us have a discussion of it, let us have a debate. This is a debate I am sorry we are having here that we should have had in the conference, and we never had. I am offended on process and on substance, and as for allegations made just a moment ago by the Chair of the subcommittee, let me go back to the testimony of the Inspector General at our committee.

In addition to limitations he has already cited about the report that the gentleman has cited, and due to the low number of operational errors at both of these places, I would caution you against concluding that either group has a safer safety record than the other. It is not fair to draw that conclusion. That is the conclusion of the Inspector General.

I rest my case.

CONFERENCE REPORT ON H.R. 2115, VISION 100-CENTURY OF AVIATION REAUTHORIZATION ACT

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. BEAUPREZ), one of the outstanding members of the Subcommittee on Aviation.

Mr. BEAUPREZ. Mr. Speaker, I commend the gentleman for bringing this legislation to the floor, and also for his courage and fortitude in standing up over several weeks of sometimes personal attacks. In trying to bring this legislation to the floor, the gentleman has shown remarkable composure and leadership.

As every member of the Subcommittee on Aviation knows, and I hope the Members in this Chamber appreciate, this conference report contains many provisions that will be helpful to the ailing aviation industry. Of particular interest in my district, and districts and airports all over this Nation, is a provision in this bill that sets up an airport security improvement grant program so that airports
