HONORING NICK BECK

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 18, 2003

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Nick Beck on the occasion of his retirement from the Madera City Fire Department after 39 years of service. A celebration in his honor will take place on Sunday, November 16th in Madera, California.

Mr. Beck proudly served our country in the United States Army before working with the Madera City Fire Department. After training in California and Georgia, he was assigned to Company B of the 97th Signal Battalion in Germany. Nick was also selected to attend the 7th Army Non-Commissioned Officers Academy where he graduated in the top 10 of his class. Just months after his service in the Army ended, Mr. Beck started his employment with the Madera City Fire Department.

In 1969, Nick was promoted to Apparatus Engineer, a specialist in the operation of heavy fire equipment vehicles. He was named Fire Lieutenant in 1976, then Battalion Chief in 1979. Each promotion was achieved through a competitive examination, and Nick scored number one on each test. In the early '90s, Mr. Beck was instrumental in the city's efforts to contract for fire protection with the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection. Through his efforts, a contractual agreement was met, which led to an estimated $2 million in savings for the City of Madera over the last 10 years. Nick also received two Madera County Firefighter of the Year awards.

Mr. Beck has also been a prominent member of numerous professional organizations. He is a past-President of the Central California Fire Training Officers Association, the Madera County Employees Federal Credit Union, the Central California Fire Prevention Officers Association, and the Madera Firefighters Association. He is also a member of the 1st Fresno City College Fire Science Advisory Board and the California State Firefighters Association.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Nick Beck for his valiant service to the Madera City Fire Department. I invite my colleagues to join me in wishing Mr. Beck an exciting, well-deserved retirement.

TRIBUTE TO BEN STEPHENSON

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 18, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to rise and pay tribute to a remarkable man from my district. For his dedication to the students of Montrose, Colorado, Ben Stephenson was recently named Colorado's Assistant Principle of the Year. I am proud today to call Ben's contributions to the attention of this body of Congress and this nation.

As Assistant Principle of Columbine Middle School, Ben goes beyond the call of duty each day. To best serve the children, Ben works in conjunction with teachers, parents, and administrators to assure the well being of Columbine's students. In addition to his official duties, Ben also works tirelessly for the safety of his students. He has been instrumental in implementing anti-bullying and classroom safety programs in the school. The students of Columbine Middle School are truly safer and happier as the result of Ben's contributions.

For his award, Ben will receive $1,000 from the Colorado Association of School Executives. Although he could keep this prize money, Ben has decided to use it to spearhead a school project to build a student weight room. This selfless donation is illustrative of Ben's true compassion for the students of Columbine.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to call to the attention of this body of Congress and this nation the contributions of Ben Stephenson. Ben has dedicated his life to educating young minds.

His passion for student safety, and his desire to pass along his knowledge and morals to the next generation, is truly admirable. I would like to join the students of Columbine middle school, and the community of Montrose, in congratulating Ben on a well-deserved award.

HONORING THE REMARKABLE
CAREER OF MR. RAMON PUIG

HON. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 18, 2003

Mr. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor the remarkable accomplishments of Mr. Ramon Puig. He truly is the embodiment of the American dream.

Mr. Puig was born in the central mountain town of Zaza del Medio, in the Cuban province of Las Villas in 1920. At a young age, he learned to be a tailor and at 23, he opened shop in his hometown and began making and selling tropical dress shirts called guayaberas.

As his popularity grew, he traveled throughout the island, taking skillful measurements and delivering his custom-made guayaberas. Eventually, he became a regular supplier of guayaberas to Cubans throughout the entire country.

When Cuba fell to totalitarianism in 1959, Mr. Puig left his shop as he was forced to work in the dictatorship's sugarcane fields.

He arrived in Miami on one of the Freedom Flights of October 18, 1968. There, he worked for eight months as a hotel dishwasher for 95 cents an hour.

He put his life back together and in 1971, opened his first guayabera shop in Miami. His superb work, skillful craftsmanship and attention to detail have earned him the nickname, el Rey de las Guayaberas, the Guayabera King. His stylish shirts have earned him national attention, including a recent article in GQ magazine.

Every day, he drives to his store and personally takes his customers' measurements, cuts the patterns, and supervises the seamstresses who stitch his custom-made guayaberas. His shirts are superbly made with embroidery and fine details that make each shirt unique.

He carefully keeps track of everyone who buys his tailor-made guayaberas with record books filled with names, occupations, measurements and cuttings from the fabric he used to make their particular guayabera.

Mr. Puig's list of clients includes stars George Hamilton, Robert Duvall, Emilio and Gloria Estefan, mayors, governors, senators and every U.S. president since Ronald Reagan. Their autographed photos adorn his office.

In 1995, he moved his shop, La Casa de las Guayaberas, to 5840 SW Eighth Street in Miami. The store carries about 8,000 guayaberas and has hundreds more in storage.

But the love of his life is Juana Maria, the wonderful woman he married 60 years ago. She is his partner in business as well as life.

Mr. Speaker, I congratulate my friend, Mr. Ramon Puig, for his long and remarkable career.

I commend him for his hard work and wish him continued success and happiness. I am honored to call this great man, my friend.
