The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, tomorrow the Senate will be in a period for the transaction of morning business throughout the day. There will be no rollcall votes tomorrow. As I mentioned, we will begin consideration of the Department of Defense authorization bill next week. Members should expect the next rollcall vote on Monday at approximately 5:30 p.m. The chairman and ranking member will be here Monday to work through amendments, and they have indicated they will be prepared for a vote on an amendment at 5:30 p.m.

We are also working on an agreement for consideration of the bioshield bill. We hope we will be able to lock in an agreement for that bill's consideration on Monday, and I will provide an update on that effort during tomorrow's session. We would debate that bill on Monday and have the vote on passage on Tuesday.

Also, as a reminder, we reached an agreement on the bill related to campaign medals for Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom. That bill will be completed during Tuesday's session.

We are also expecting to begin consideration of some of the available judicial nominations that are on the Executive Calendar. Discussions are still underway as to how best to proceed to those nominations, and we will have more to say on this tomorrow.

I also congratulate Senator JUDD GREGG and the ranking member for passage of the IDEA reauthorization 95 to 3. It is a very important bill. We were able to deal with that bill in a very short period of time and in a very orderly way. I appreciate them bringing that to conclusion today.
