

statement stunned many of us who had witnessed firsthand the devastation that the drought had caused for farm and ranch families and the communities in which they live. As the drought persisted in 2003, we still had no opportunity for help.

Finally, in difficult negotiations over the last several weeks and with bipartisan support in both the House and the Senate, we have managed to craft disaster assistance that will go to the President for his signature. So today the Congress is now approving the $2.9 billion in agriculture disaster assistance. That is the good news. It is a win for farmers and ranchers, and it will allow many of them to stay on the land and continue their businesses and continue a rural way of life. This bill will provide payment for farmers who have lost over 35 percent of their historic yields and livestock producers who have lost over 40 percent of their available grazing land.

I thank Congressman CHARLIE STENHOLM. We would not have any disaster aid without his leadership in the House. I thank my colleagues in the Senate, especially Senator BAUCUS, who led a bipartisan group of Senators, all of whom supported disaster aid and worked to pass this important legislation.

I also thank Senator HARKIN for his passionate support for the recognition that this aid ought to be declared an emergency like all other forms of assistance that we have passed for other parts of the country.

America's family farmers and ranchers do not just produce commodities, they produce communities. They are an important part of our national identity. They reflect our national values. For too long, they have been suffering, not because they made bad decisions but because of bad weather. We cannot do anything about the weather, but we can take steps to help family farmers and ranchers weather this crisis.

So I am proud of what we have been able to do today, and I hope the USDA will immediately begin the process of distributing this much needed assistance to farmers and ranchers across the Nation.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Arizona.

NATIVE HAWAIIANS

Mr. KYL. Mr. President, I want to take just a couple minutes to engage three of my colleagues in a brief colloquy: Senators INOUE, Senator AKAKA, and Senator DOMENICI, to inform our colleagues of an agreement that was reached in an effort to clear a group of bills that the Energy and Natural Resources Committee had worked on very hard and very long, for a long period of time, and have, in fact, cleared the Senate and been sent to the House, and to ensure that at some point next year, before August 7, a bill relating to native Hawaiians, similar to or the same as S. 344, would be considered by this body.

We reached that agreement, which was embodied also in a letter from the two leaders to Senators DOMENICI and INOUE, who had inquired of that possibility, in which the leaders promised their best efforts to ensure that a native Hawaiian bill equivalent to S. 344 would be brought to the Senate floor for debate and resolution no later than August 7 of next year.

I had told both Senators from Hawaii I would express publicly my personal commitment to assist in that effort to ensure that no procedural roadblocks would be thrown in the way of the consideration of that legislation, nor a final vote on it. I will indeed do that and encourage all of my colleagues to work with us toward that end.

I thank Senator DOMENICI for his leadership on that large group of bills that were so important to so many Members of this body and for his work on this particular issue, as well as our good friends from Hawaii, Senators AKAKA and INOUE, for their cooperation in helping us reach this resolution.

Mr. DOMENICI. Will the Senator yield?

Mr. KYL. I am happy to yield.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Mexico.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I note that Senator AKAKA and the distinguished senior Senator from Hawaii are on the floor. First, I want to say they have been gracious. Many Senators had a part in this very major bill, with 24, 28, maybe even 30 pieces of legislation for their States.

I say to the Senators from Hawaii, you had a perfect right to insist that your bill, which has just been described by the distinguished Senator from Arizona, be in that bill. That could have caused the bill to probably be here a long time, the big bill, and you graciously said, if we can work something else out, let's try. We did.

As a result, we passed this bill for many Senators, and we said to you, both Senators from Hawaii, we will do our best to get your very important bill, described by the Senator from Arizona, up. We cannot assure that. I cannot guarantee that. This is the Senate. But we do have a letter with all of the people who are in the leadership, I, myself, by the distinguished two Senators from Arizona, that we will do our best. We described it and everyone knows of it.

Today we thought we would tell the Senate and give this assurance in the RECORD to our two Senators from Hawaii that we are serious, that we will do our part in trying to make sure their bill comes to a vote in the Senate by the date they have agreed to and we have agreed to.

I say to Senator KYL, I thank you for your diligent efforts in helping with this. Every Senator who got something in that legislation that is now going to the House will know what we have done.

Thank you very much.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Hawaii.

Mr. INOUE. Mr. President, I am extremely grateful for those reassuring words of my distinguished friend from Arizona and my distinguished friend from New Mexico. We look forward to working with them next year on this most important bill, a bill for the native Hawaiians.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Hawaii.

Mr. AKAKA. Mr. President, I want to express my sincere gratitude to Senator KYL particularly and also to Senator DOMENICI for working with us on our Hawaiian bill. Especially I want to express my gratitude for your grace and your commitment for next year. Again, I want to do this, as we say in Hawaii, with much aloha.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Democratic whip.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, if I may, everyone is anxious to speak today. We have an order entered. Senator HARKIN is willing to give up his time of 45 minutes. He will do the bulk of his time after basically everyone has completed their statements today. In exchange for that, I ask unanimous consent that he be allowed to speak after Senator KENNEDY for 10 minutes and then his hour and 50 minutes would be at the end of the day. I think that is fair. I appreciate everyone's patience. Also following Senator CANTWELL, Senator BYRD on our side, will be recognized for 30 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Connecticut.

CHRISTOPHER REEVE

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I would like to express my deep sorrow that many of my colleagues and many millions of Americans share over the loss of Christopher Reeve a remarkable individual who, as a result of a tragic paralyzing injury that he suffered while horseback riding, dedicated his last 10 years to making a positive difference. Rather than wallowing in his own misery and sorrow, he used those 10 years to inspire and change America in terms of our attitudes and perceptions about people with such serious injuries and disabilities. I know that we will miss him very much. We have admired him immensely for his courage and dedication.

I express my condolences to his family. I wish to express the deep sorrow I feel over the loss of someone I knew not terribly well, yet someone I had the pleasure of meeting on a number of occasions.

Some of my colleagues, particularly Senators HARKIN and KENNEDY, knew him better than I and may express their own views on the subject. It was a sad day for America to lose this courageous individual. I hope his message on a number of subject matters, not
