TRIBUTE TO CAPTAIN MARK
FRANCIS MCCORMACK

HON. MICHAEL M. HONDA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. HONDA. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to pay tribute to Santa Clara County Fire Captain Mark Francis McCormack, whose life was tragically cut short on Sunday, February 13, 2005. Mark was the first firefighter killed in the line of duty in the 58-year history of the Santa Clara County Fire Department. Members from more than 100 fire departments throughout the State of California gathered at his memorial service to show support for one of their own.

Mark began his career as a firefighter in 1989. He was serious about his work, and was constantly working to improve his skills in order to serve his community better. Mark's hard work showed in 2001 when he received the Award of Valor for his contributions to both the Santa Clara County Fire Department and the community. He was a model firefighter, an enthusiastic team member, and a good friend to his colleagues.

When Mark wasn't fighting fires, he worked as a volunteer counselor for the Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation's Champ Camp, a summer camp in the Sierra Nevada for young burn victims. As a child, Mark was badly burned on an electric stove and had to undergo several surgeries to repair the injury. Mark always found the silver lining in any situation, and that's exactly what he did with his burn experience. He used it to help children realize that they are not alone—to help them realize their inner beauty. Mark was a favorite around camp, serving as a role model to many of the children he met there.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this time to say "thank you" to Mark McCormack for devoting his life to helping others, and for his service in keeping my home district safe. And my deepest condolences to his wife, Heather, who wrote to her husband, "You are my life, my hero, and without you my heart will forever be broken." I wish that hearts could be mended with words, and that I could find those magical words to say to you. Heather, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you, and that your husband was not only your hero, but Santa Clara County's, too.

IN COMMEMORATION OF COATS,
NORTH CAROLINA

HON. BOB ETHERIDGE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Speaker, today I rise in commemoration of Coats, North Carolina. On March 5, 2005 Coats will celebrate its 100th Birthday. Coats is located in the Eastern part of my home county, Harnett County in the 2nd Congressional District of North Carolina. Coats's humble beginning is especially personal to me as my great, great Uncle James T. Coats bought the first acres of farmland that would grow to become this warm and hospitable Southern community.

Coats's history is rich with individuals like my uncle, who envisioned a town where future generations could work, live, and raise their families in the bright light of America's promises. I think of Ed Williams and John Talton who were among the first entrepreneurs to establish stores in Coats. I think of John McKay Byrd, a former sheriff of Harnett County, who contributed greatly to the industrial life of the community. And I think of the first mayor, J.K. Stewart who when elected installed the first electric lights in the town.

Coats has never strived to be an urban hub, more comfortable with its small town population of only 1,900. Yet, its residents are proud of their community. As a former Harnett County Commissioner, I have always enjoyed a special connection to the people of Coats, NC. It is a place rooted in appreciation for one's family, faith, and country. The Town of Coats and its residents exemplify the common-sense values of North Carolina that I am so proud to represent in Congress.

Mr. Speaker in closing I would like to send my best wishes and gratitude to the people of Coats, North Carolina in wishing them a Very Happy Birthday. I know that in the future this town will continue to be "a good place to live and make a living."

CONGRESSIONAL TRIBUTE TO
NEWBERRY HIGH SCHOOL INDIANS FOOTBALL TEAM

HON. BART STUPAK

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the players, coaches, and manager of the 2004 Newberry High School Indians football team in recognition of their outstanding season. The 10–3 Indians went to the Michigan Division 7 Semi-Finals, winning the school's first district and regional championships along the way.

Newberry is a small, close-knit community in Michigan's Upper Peninsula that loves its high school sports. This year, the Indians gave them a season to remember. In the fifth week of the season, Newberry faced Munising High School on the road. After a hard fought game, the Indians won 21–14, winning in Munising for the first time in 20 years.

In the last game of the regular season, the Indians renewed an old rivalry with Sault Sainte Marie High School. It had been several years since Newberry and the Soo played for the "Little Brown Jug" but the Indians rolled to a 20–0 victory, reclaiming the Jug.

During the playoffs, Newberry defeated Inland Lakes 44–0 and Manistique 20–8 to win the school's first district title. In the regional finals against McBain, the team was down going into the 4th quarter. But Newberry stuck it out, scoring with just over 7 minutes to go and hanging on for their first regional title. Though they were defeated in the State semifinals, it was by Unionville-Sebewaing, the eventual Division 7 State champions.

In short Mr. Speaker, the Newberry Indians had their finest season in memory, and this was in large part due to the outstanding leadership of the squad's seniors. All year long, they kept the team energized and confident. The Indians always took the field believing they were going to win, have fun and work hard for four quarters.

Quarterback David Carmody, was a particularly strong leader among those graduating seniors. This young remarkable young man brought a unique perspective to the pressures of the game: he is a leukemia survivor. Diagnosed in 1996, a 9-year-old David had to face being sidelined from school and sports. After 4 years of treatments, David has been in remission since 2000. His coaches described him as an incredibly calm leader who never let anything on the field phase him. In fact, he often calmed them down during tense moments. In addition to helping lead the Newberry Indians to their best season ever, David was named to the All-Conference 1st Team as both quarterback and defensive back.

But while David's story is extraordinary, each and every member of this team deserves to be recognized for their hard work this year, and I would like to take a moment to share their names with my colleagues.

Team members: Derek Taylor, Andrew Schultz, Luke Shilling, David Carmody (All Conference 1st Team quarterback and defensive back), D.J. Bouchard, Dan Schummer (All-Conference 1st Team receiver and 2nd Team defensive back), Mike Houghton, Tony Perry, Stuart Papist, Mark Brooks, Corey Nicholson, Jake Pann (All-Conference 2nd Team running back), Jeremy Maeder, Zac Sarelle, Chuck Masterson, Nick Christiansen (All-Conference 1st Team linebacker), Zach Clickner, Avery Allison, Jonathon Bontrager, Kyle Ery, Caleb Flory, Mat Conway, David Burke, Ryan Bolda, Alex Herbst, Travis Stokes (All-Conference 1st Team lineman), Dustin Zitnik, Adam Holcomb, Kyle Bryers, Brian Morrison, John Pope, Matt Payment (Detroit Free Press All-State Team, Conference Defensive Player of the Year, All-Conference 1st Team lineman and defensive lineman), Justin Neff (All-Conference 2nd Team defensive lineman), Brandon Wheeler, Jay Thompson, Mark Doke, and Nathan Hines.

Head Coach Brandon Bruce; Assistant Coaches Bruce Dake, Jeff Puckett, Cliff Fossitt Jr., Fred Bryant, Larry White, Bob Cameron, and Randy Fretz; and Manager Derek Dake.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the House of Representatives to join me in congratulating the Newberry High School Indians football team, their classmates, parents, and community on their outstanding season and in wishing them well when they take the field again in the fall.

ACKNOWLEDGE AND HONOR THE DOCTORS, NURSES AND STAFF
OF ST. MARY MERCY HOSPITAL

HON. THADDEUS G. McCOTTER

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. McCOTTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to acknowledge and honor the doctors, nurses and staff of St. Mary Mercy Hospital, as they celebrate in receiving the 2005 HealthGrades Distinguished Hospital Award for Clinical Excellence.

In receiving the award, St. Mary Mercy Hospital was ranked in the top 5 percent in the Nation for overall clinical excellence. The hospital also received the Health Grades Distinguished Hospital Award for Patient Safety, ranking them in the top 2 percent in the Nation for patient safety outcomes.

I am proud to report that the awards place St. Mary Mercy Hospital as 1 of 30 hospitals in the Nation to receive both designations within the same year. It is a testament to the dedication, devotion, and determination of the men and women who daily provide a high quality of care to patients.

Mr. Speaker, the heritage of the Felician Sisters is the foundation for St. Mary Mercy Hospital, which for the past 45 years, has been a premier provider of healthcare in our community. Founded by Blessed Mary Angela, whose care for the poor and homeless in Warsaw, Poland gave birth to the Felician congregation, the Felician Sisters were dedicated to a ministry of healing and service, based on Mary Angela's mission of "responding to the needs of the times."

In the spirit of Mary Angela and the Felician Sisters I stand today to commend and applaud the great doctors, nurses and staff of St. Mary Mercy Hospital for their national recognition and accomplishments. More importantly I praise these angels of medicine for upholding the oath of Hippocrates by "maintaining the utmost respect for every human life."

REPEAL DON'T ASK DON'T TELL

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. FARR. Mr. Speaker, I come to the floor to call attention to important legislation that has been introduced today, The Military Readiness Enhancement Act. I am an original co-sponsor of this legislation which would replace "Don't Ask Don't Tell," with a non-discrimination policy for all military personnel.

A decade ago, "Don't Ask Don't Tell" was enacted as a compromise to allow lesbian, gay and bisexual military personnel to serve honorably in the military as long as they didn't disclose their sexual orientation. It was a bad policy then and it's a bad policy now. It has resulted in the discharge of more than 10,000 dedicated and trained military personnel merely on the basis of their sexual orientation.

There are two issues this bill is addressing—military readiness and civil justice.

Military readiness is being compromised by discharging critically needed military linguists to fight the Global War on Terrorism. Shortly after September 11, 2001, we can vividly remember the frantic search for linguists, particularly Arabic and Farsi speakers. But because of "Don't Ask Don't Tell," the Department of Defense has discharged 20 Arabic linguists and 6 Farsi linguists for no other reason than their sexual orientation. No one can dispute that these linguists, who attended the Defense Language Institute located in my congressional district, are mission essential to the Global War on Terrorism. If we didn't think so before, surely we can agree now that language capability and proficiency is just as much of a weapon system as guns and bullets.

Repealing "Don't Ask Don't Tell" is just as much a civil justice issue. It has created a separate class of people who are discriminated against based solely on their sexual orientation. Sixty years ago our military was at the forefront of the civil rights struggle by accepting African Americans as soldiers, sailors and airmen. The Military Readiness Enhancement Act will extend a non-discrimination policy for sexual orientation much as it did in adopting a color-blind non-discrimination policy. Ending racism in the military, which produced military leaders like Colin Powell, the former Joint Chiefs of Staff and Secretary of State, was an advancement of civil rights for all Americans.

The Constitution guarantees equal protection under the law for all citizens. Just because you decide to honorably serve your country by joining the military, doesn't mean you should have to forfeit the right to equal protection under the law.

THE 1995 BEIJING PLATFORM OF
ABORTION

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, it is absolutely clear that the "Programme of Action" produced by both the 1994 Cairo Population Conference and the 1995 Beijing Women's Conference did not create, adopt, endorse, or promote a right to abortion.

I know. I was there in an official capacity at both conferences. The outcomes of both were a remarkable victory for the pro-life movement—those of us who recognize that all human life is sacred and that both legal and illegal abortion is violence against children and the exploitation of women. It was a victory for vulnerable unborn children who would be killed by dismemberment and chemical poisoning and for women who deserve better than the cruelty of abortion.

The outcome was a stunning defeat for the Clinton Administration, which sought to impose an international right to abortion on the entire world.

So why is the Bush Administration seeking to reaffirm that the Beijing consensus did not include a right to abortion? Because clarity, transparency and truthfulness is needed at this time to dispel a pernicious myth—the big lie—promoted by some that these U.N. documents now endorse abortion. Nothing, Mr. Speaker, could be further from the truth.

Over the past 10 years, pro-abortionists have sought to convey the impression that both Cairo and Beijing—by supporting reproductive health, for example—includes the slaughter of unborn children by abortion.

Instead of focusing on women's economic and political empowerment, an end to all forms and manifestations of discrimination, and an end to violence against women, some have sought to distort the Cairo and Beijing consensus to include the killing of girls and boys by abortion.

Yesterday I chaired a hearing on the horrific behavior of U.N. Peacekeepers in the Congo who have raped and sexually exploited girls and young women. As the prime sponsor of the "Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000" I take a backseat to no one in promoting women's human rights. Recent scandals, like the Congo or the oil for food scandal, begs the question of honesty and transparency at the U.N.

Despite having no mandate to promote abortion, the U.N. Compliance Committee for the Convention on All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) has recently scolded Mexico, Colombia, Chile, Peru, Zimbabwe, Myanmar, Luxembourg, Ireland, Italy, Croatia, Uruguay, Portugal, Nepal, Northern Ireland, Lichtenstein, Paraguay, and Samoa for their laws and policies on abortion.

In addition, at the end of 2004, the U.N. Human Rights Committee issued a report that absolutely overstepped its bounds and told Poland to repeal their pro-life laws. The report stated, "The State party should liberalize its legislation and practice on abortion." For a U.N. committee that purported to respect fundamental human rights to condemn Poland—and others—for protecting their unborn babies is scandalous. Unborn children deserve respect in law and in practice—these littlest of humans deserve to have their basic human rights protected.

A Center for Reproductive Rights internal document talks about reinterpreting terms and phrases in international declarations, like the Cairo and Beijing documents, to promote abortion and limit parental rights throughout the world. I posted in the December 8, 2003 CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the Center for Reproductive Rights internal documents where one of their trustees said, "We have to fight harder, be a little dirtier." These papers reveal a Trojan Horse of deceit. In their own words, these documents demonstrate how abortion promotion groups are pushing abortion here and abroad, not by direct argument, but by twisting words and definitions. In discussing legal strategies to legalize abortion internationally they go as far as to say, ". . . there is a stealth quality to the work: we are achieving incremental recognition of values without a huge amount of scrutiny from the opposition. These lower profile victories will gradually put us in a strong position to assert a broad consensus around our assertions." The abortion lobby admits they are using deceptive tactics to push abortion on countries that have laws protecting unborn boys and girls.

All the United States wants to do at this conference is to be truthful, nonambiguous and accurate about what the Beijing Programme of Action actually says about abortion and get on with the real work of helping women throughout the world.
